Tomato-disease control is simplest... surest with

DU PONT MANZATE

MANEB FUNGICIDE

... controls ALL major fungus diseases

"Manzate" stops early and late blight, anthracnose, gray leaf spot and septoria leaf spot... does the job well, straight through the season. It's mild on plants... permits maximum growth of vines and fruit. "Manzate" is a wettable powder, ready to mix with water... every tankful uniform. Compatible with commonly used insecticides.

For bigger yields of No. 1 tomatoes

- Use "Manzate" early—after appearance of first cluster buds. Spray "Manzate" often—at 7-day intervals... the additional sprays pay off in more tons of No. 1 tomatoes. Protect against defoliation diseases with "Manzate." When leaves are lost, exposure to sun means softer, poorer-colored fruit, greater susceptibility to anthracnose.

On all chemicals always follow directions for application. Where warning or caution statements on use of product are given, read them carefully.

Wickland, John Karpuk, John Hoskins, Richard Mebler, Patrick Shebmadine, and Charles Ganser assisted her as volunteers with the X-ray Survey. The survey was held in the Woodmar and Heaville areas, May 26.

Committee chairmen selected were also announced. They are: Mrs. Hal Chase, ways and means; Mrs. John Anderson, philanthropy; Mrs. Frederic Tomkins, dinner; Mrs. Don Stuart, initiation and membership; Mrs. John Tolten, social; Mrs. Barry Dorigan, yearbook; Mrs. Harold Markola, telephone; Mrs. Kenneth Rader, budget; Mrs. Hutton Jackson, auditing; Mrs. A. E. Wickland, historian; Mrs. Paul Demkovich, news bulletin; and Mrs. Charles Ganser, revisions.

Club colors of green and white were chosen. The dinner committee included Mrs. Tomkins, chairman, and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Ganser and Mrs. Holmes.

As part of the program for the evening the group was shown pictures of the new proposed Glenmar Club.

A meeting to discuss the budget and revisions to the by-laws will be held at the home of Mrs. Demkovich, 7520 Magoun, July 23. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Wickland.

Stones Mark Golden Wedding

The Golden Wedding Anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Wilhelm F. Stone was marked by a celebration with open house both in the afternoon and evening, Saturday, May 21.

The couple, who were married fifty years May 18, at St. Paul Lutheran church in Chicago, reside at 18016 Oak street, Lansing. About thirty-eight friends and neighbors of Lansing gathered in the afternoon to wish the couple many more years of wedded life. The evening celebration was attended by about forty relatives which included out of town guests from St. Paul, Minn., Iowa, Elmwood, Lombard, Mount Prospect and Wilmette, Illinois.

Many bouquets of flowers, gifts and cards were received by the couple and a special prayer was offered during the Sunday morning service at Trinity Lutheran Church by Reverend Wilbur Zielke last Sunday.

Dr. Stone is retired from practice having moved to Lansing a few years ago.

Moynahan - Lorenz Wedding

Brechner Photo

Arthur Fred Lorenz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorenz, 18307 Terrace avenue, claimed Miss Mary Ellen Moynahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moynahan, 438 Garfield, Calumet City, as his bride Saturday evening, May 28.

The five-thirty p.m. ceremony was performed at the St. John Lutheran Church in Calumet City by Reverend A. Kraehsuhl. White gladioli and daisies graced the altar of the church for the occasion. Music for the double ring rites was furnished by Miss Ann Jung, who rendered "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and for her wedding she wore a floor length gown of ace and tulle over satin. The bodice was styled with long sleeves which were pointed at the wrists and a scooped neckline. Attached to the full skirt was a cathedral length train. Her finger tip veil was held by a pearl tiara. A single white orchid on a rayer book completed her costume.

Bridal attendants were: Jeanette Moynahan, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Lou Sacco and Marge Lorenz, sister of the groom, bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a mint green gown and bridesmaids, yellow and blue respectively.

Their dresses were made of taffeta and net and they were matching net head bands trimmed with pearls. Bouquets of white carnations were carried by the attendants.

Janice Arney, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a gown of blue taffeta and net and carried a basket of red rose petals. Junior bridesmaid, Kathy Arney, niece of the bride wore a pink gown and carried white carnations similar to the bouquets of the bridesmaids.

Ushering at the wedding were Tom Vierk and Donald Schultz and Wayne Bartman served the groom as best man.

Three hundred people attended the reception which was held at the American Legion Post 16 in Hammond, Indiana.

When the young couple left for their honeymoon in Tennessee the new Mrs. Lorenz was wearing a turquoise suit with white accessories. Since returning from their honeymoon they are living at 18234 School street.

The groom, a graduate of Thornton Fractional High school is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, having spent three years in the service. He is

Children Can Enjoy Water

Children and water make a good combination for keeping cool this summer. But without the addition of a large portion of caution, it can spell tragedy, too.

Records show that poor judgment and lack of skill are to blame for most water mishaps. Nine out of ten drowning victims are nonswimmers, says O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois extension safety specialist.

This means that one of the best ways to halt such tragedies is to make sure members of your family can swim. Youngsters should be given a chance to learn while they're young. Many pools and beaches hold group classes in the summer.

ed with the beauty of the churches in the South Side of Hammond. These buildings are graceful tributes from devout congregations to what must be a Gracious God.

Herman Eriks, Sr., is a man who wants to see the return of the old-time tradition of the Town Band. We like the idea.

Wonder when the Town—pardon us—City of Hammond will ever repair the seedy-looking bridge which crosses the Little Calumet River on Hohman? A bad ad for the Universe's cleanest City—take a jaundiced gander at the ruins sometime.

Hammond's Tapper Avenue residents are all misty-eyed over the imminent departure of the popular Chris Hoy family. Chris is busy organizing a Sales Force for a company in Mattoon, Illinois—personable wife Mel and the children soon will leave us.

The Argentine ruckus all started because the Pope in Rome refused to canonize the late and unlamented Eva Duarte Peron. Her widower asked that the gal be turned into a Saint—the reject was firm and to the point—so the man Peron—as way out on a limb.

From such human vanity and pique do revulsions flare. And we claim that Peron's dictatorship of the Right is as evil as was Hitler's and Stalin's of the Left. First the Free Press was killed in Argentina—next was organized religion—and the freedom-minded Navy, the officers and men who led the revolt, are now suffering. Shades of the good old U. S. and 1776.

The stop sign on Highway and Grace—four ways—has already paid off in a sharp reduction of spreading activity which once harassed child and adult alike. Let's keep the signs, and add four more at the corners of Highway and Orchard. Be wonderful protection for the Orchard Park school kids.

With the addition of the stop signs, the only ones hurting are the maniac speeders. And that's good.

Among other viciously untrue rumors circulated by an irresponsible monger lately was the "dilly" that one George Roche was to be appointed to the Highland School Board. "Isn't so."

The present School Board in Highland is composed of Wilbur Dietrich, Ralph Melavan and John Strange.

It is the writer's earnest hope that these three excellent and purposeful men, if they so wish, be allowed to serve their lifetimes on the School Board.

These three are tried, true and good men. They probably will be with the School Board just as long as they so wish.

Just ask any fair-minded Town Board member—the men who make the School Board appointments—and you will find out that therein is the truth.

We assure our readers that George Roche will never accept an appointment to the Highland School Board at any time.

1st Double Wedding At St. Michael's

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson

Mr. and Mrs. Cook

The first double wedding ever held at the St. Michael's church in Schererville, Indiana was that of Velma Elizabeth Craven, Josetta Craven, Ernest A. Cook Jr., and Eugene Robinson. The Craven sisters are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Craven, 140 Juliet Street, Schererville. Mr. Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cook, 9647 Francisco Avenue, Evergreen Park and Robinson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Robinson, 7219 Kennedy Avenue, Heaville.

The altar of the church was graced with pink and white gladioli for the double ring ceremony which was performed by Father Diegel at 9:00 a.m., June 4. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Schererville church choir accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Jack Seibert.

Velma Craven, who was a former Lansing resident, became the bride of Ernest A. Cook, Jr. For her wedding she selected a dress of lace over satin. The fitted bodice was styled with long sleeves which were pointed at the wrists and a stand-up collar. Attached to the full skirt was a long cathedral train. Her three tiered veil of nylon net was held by a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a white orchid surrounded by ferns and streamers of white ribbons on top of a white prayer book.

Josetta, who was united in marriage to Eugene Robinson wore a lace over satin gown styled with a small Peter Pan collar, long sleeves and trimmed with small pearls. Her skirt was draped into a cathedral length train in the back and her three tiered veil was held by a small Juliette type cap. She carried the same type bouquet as her sister. Both girls were given in marriage by their father.

Attending the girls were maid of honor, La Verne Craven, sister of the brides; Mrs. James Koselke, sister of brides, and Gwendolyn Craven, cousin of the brides. The maid of honor wore mint green, and the bridesmaids wore pale yellow and orchid respectively. The gowns were styled of nylon net and lace with a strapless bodice of nylon with a matching lace jacket and the skirt was of layers of net and lace. Matching headbands of nylon net completed their costumes and they carried cascades of white and tinted carnations which matched their dresses.

The flower girls, Carol Koselke and Mary Edna Craven, nieces of the brides were dressed alike in floor length white dresses of nylon lace and net and carried small cascades of pink and white carnations with matching bands of flowers in their hair. Ringbearers were Kenneth Yates, a nephew of the bride and Thomas Robinson, nephew of Mr. Robinson's.

Serving as best man for Mr. Cook was Robert Kernaga and Joseph Davis for Mr. Robinson. James Koselke served as an usher.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Lansing with over 500 people attending.

Before leaving for a short honeymoon trip in Chicago the new Mrs. Cook changed into a white linen dress accented with a white duster coat trimmed in blue satin and blue accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook will make their future home in Chicago at 8911 S. Loomis Avenue. The groom is an employee of the Ford Motor Company in Chicago and a veteran of the United States Army. Mrs. Cook attended Bishop Noll and was employed as a bookkeeper at the Co-op Plant Foods in Schererville. Mr. Cook graduated from Central High school in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson spent their honeymoon in Florida. For traveling Mrs. Robinson wore a navy and white checked suit with white accessories.

When they return they will live at the Air Force Base in Rantoul, Illinois, where the groom is stationed. The bride formerly worked at the Schererville Lumber Company in the office and attended Bishop Noll High school while Mr. Robinson graduated from Hammond High school.
