The Foundation has three separate programs: the matching gifts program, a dollars-for-doers program (Earning for Learning), and a program for direct Foundation contributions.

MATCHING GIFTS PROGRAM

Part XV; Line 2(a):

The donor and recipient institution must complete an application form via the internet (www.employeeconnection.net).

Part XV; Line 2(b):

The donor completes Part A of the matching gift form and forwards it to the eligible institution with his/her gift. An authorized officer at the eligible institution should complete and sign Part B of the form, and then send the entire form to the Program Administrator at the above address. The Program Administrator will review the contribution to determine its eligibility for a matching gift.

The Foundation matching gift application is on the website for employees to apply for a match through the website (www.employeeconnection.net). The employee would complete a donor profile and then fill out the Part A form online, print it and submit it to the non-profit along with their money to be matched. The non-profit would complete Part B and return to the Matching Gifts Administrator for review and processing.

Part XV; Line 2(c):

The Foundation will match eligible contribution amounts that are actually paid, not merely pledged for payment, in the current calendar year, which are certified by an officer of the recipient organization. Employee gifts must be paid by the required deadline of December 31 each year.

Part XV; Line 2(d):

Most organizations that are classified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code will qualify for a matching gift. An organization with its 501(c)(3) designation must also be formed, located, and perform its services in the United States. Eligible organizations are typically grouped in four general categories, as follows:

- Arts and Culture
- Education
- Health and Welfare
- Community / Civic Causes

EARNING FOR LEARNING PROGRAM

The Earning For Learning form is on the website (www.employeeconnection.net) as well. The employee would complete their information, print the form and submit to the school for verification. The Earning For Learning Administrator would verify the information and process for payment.

DIRECT CONTRIBUTIONS

Part XV; Line 2(a):

The guidelines for the Foundation's requirements and policies are found on the website (www.macysinc.com/Community). However, an applicant must first have a conversation with a staff associate about the organization and its request before the link to the application is provided.

Part XV; Line 2(b):

Requests to Macy's Foundation must be from a non-profit organization with a 501(c)(3) tax status. The following needs to be included in the application before the request can be reviewed and verified by the Macy's Foundation:

- a) The tax identification number of the applicant,
- b) A list of other major supporters (corporate, foundation, and individual),
- c) A description of the funding request,
- d) An operating budget,
- e) A budget for the program for which funding is being sought
- f) A brief background history – the number of years in service, clientele serviced annually, location, general description of service
- g) Geographic area served, ethnicities served, genders served, age groups served
- h) Anticipated results (outcomes, impacts) of the program

A link to the Foundation's online application is provided to invited applicants only, following a preliminary discussion between the organization and a staff member. The website address (www.macysinc.com/community) explains the giving guidelines and philosophy of the Foundation. A valid 501(c)(3) number is required to access all applications except the application for schools, colleges and libraries, which does not require a 501(c)(3) number. Staff does confirm accreditation in the due diligence process via the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics website (www.nces.ed.gov) The non-profit submits the application using the grant-making software where the applicant is verified against the list of invited non-profits and confirmed for recommended approval. Once applications are reviewed and approved by trustees they are paid.

Part XV; Line 2(c):

All Foundation requests are reviewed quarterly by trustees of the Macy's Foundation.

Part XV; Line 2(d):

Macy's Foundation generally focuses its direct giving on national and regional organizations.

No gifts shall be made to individuals or to religious organizations to be used solely for religious purposes. Gifts may be made to religious organizations when the purpose of the contribution is clearly educational, philanthropic, or cultural. Also, no Foundation grants are awarded to a non-profit classified as a 509(a)(3) or to organizations determined to be pass-through organizations.
