Marriage Notes for CHRISTIAN DAELLENBACH and WILHELMINA PRANGE:

Sometime after Myron was born, Chris/Minnie moved to Atken, Minnesota and were hired to run a dairy farm. The cows had "bangs" disease causing the cows to abort their calves. They left there and moved to Brainerd, Minnesota where Chris worked on railroad equipment as a repairman in the "roundhouse". They then moved to Proctor Minnesota. In 1914, they purchased the Siren farm and began to clear off the south forty. Lumber for the first home and barn came from the Len Howard saw mill just to the north of the farm [all land south of the home buildings was then treed, now it is all open and tillable]. The original place, 160 acres, was purchased for $2500. The woodshed was moved south across the clam river from the old Howard Place.
