TALKING POINTS

Arkansas will open the SEC portion of its 2017 schedule when the Razorbacks travel to Arlington, Texas, to battle longtime rival Texas A&M at 11 a.m. CT Saturday in the annual Southwest Classic at AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys.

Head coach Bret Bielema has led Arkansas to three straight wins following a bye week, defeating Florida (2016), Auburn (2015) and LSU (2014).

The Razorbacks hold a 41-29-3 advantage in the all-time series against the Aggies that dates back to first meeting in 1903. Saturday's game will mark the third straight year Arkansas has opened its SEC slate against Texas A&M.

It will be the fourth time the Hogs and Aggies meet in their 11-year agreement to play the Southwest Classic. The two schools previously met at AT&T Stadium each year (three times) from 2009 until Texas A&M joined the SEC following the 2011 season.

Junior linebacker Dre Greenlaw had a career-high 17 tackles against No. 23 TCU, the most by a Razorback since 2010, when Jerry Franklin recorded 20 stops at Mississippi State in a 38-31 double-overtime victory.

Greenlaw has posted double-digit tackles in six games since his freshman season in 2015, the fifth most by a Razorback since 2000. He ranks third in the SEC in tackles per game (9.5).

Junior defensive back and team captain Santos Ramirez was named to Pro Football Focus' Week 2 SEC Team of the Week for defense after turning in eight tackles, breaking up a pass in the end zone, nabbing an interception in TCU territory and also forcing a fumble. He earned an 87.3 grade from the analysis website. Ramirez is one of four players in the SEC with an interception and forced fumble through the first three weeks.

Arkansas has allowed a total of 536 yards of opponent offense on 133 plays through two games, just 4.0 yards per play, which ranks 14th in the FBS.

The Razorbacks rank tied for 17th nationally and tied for fifth in the SEC in total defense, allowing 268.0 yards per game.

Arkansas has allowed just three plays of 20-plus yards from scrimmage, which leads the SEC and ranks fourth in the FBS. The Razorbacks are the only team in the FBS that hasn't allowed a play of 30-plus yards from scrimmage.

The Hogs' leading receiver through two games, junior Jonathan Nance is one of 15 SEC receivers averaging over 16 yards per catch.

Nance has six receptions on six targets for 100 yards and a touchdown catch of 49 yards on the season. Four of his six catches have resulted in a first down, which leads the team.

Arkansas has 11 players who have caught a pass through the first two games, including seven with multiple catches.

Sophomore tight end Cheyenne O'Grady has four catches on four targets this season with three converting first downs. He's one of eight SEC tight ends with at least three first-down grabs.

Senior quarterback Austin Allen needs 109 passing yards to become the 12th QB in school history to top the 4,000-yard plateau in career passing yardage. He also needs one passing touchdown to tie Quinn Grovey and Bill Montgomery for the eighth most career passing touchdowns (29).

- The six games of 50+ points scored over the last three seasons are tied for the SEC lead with Tennessee and Miss. State.
- Among all FBS teams, six games of 50+ points scored over the last three seasons are tied for 11th most.
- Four of those games have come against SEC opponents.
- In the program's first 23 years competing in the SEC (1992-2014) Arkansas scored 50+ points in league play five times.
- Prior to 2015, Arkansas had only produced two 50+ point games in SEC play in the same year once (2003).
- The program's previous record for total 50-point games in back-to-back seasons was three.

TOPPING 200

Across his 11 years as a head coach, Bret Bielema's teams have put together a per-game average of 205.5 yards rushing, a figure that ranks second among FBS head coaches with a minimum of 11 years experience during that span.

Name	Last Team	Rush Yds.
1. Paul Johnson	Georgia Tech	310.3

- 7-0 when eclipsing the 400-yard mark.
- Bielema's 74 games of 200 or more yards rushing ranks sixth among active FBS head coaches since 2006.

#PROSTYLEU

Arkansas has been one of the most balanced offenses in the nation over the last two seasons under offensive coordinator Dan Enos. In fact, Arkansas and Boise State were the only two FBS teams to have a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in each of the last two seasons. Even more impressive, Arkansas was the only school that accomplished the feat with two different quarterbacks and two different running backs.

The combo of a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher has been accomplished three times in Arkansas' program history (2010, 15, 16) with two coming under Enos the last two years.

Arkansas was one of 14 FBS programs with a 3,000-yard passer and 1,300-yard rusher in 2016 and one of just nine FBS programs with a different 3,000-yard passer in 2015 and 2016.

Brandon Allen (2015) and Austin Allen (2016) each passed for 3,000 yards in the last two seasons. The only other time two different Arkansas quarterbacks threw for 3,000 yards in consecutive seasons came in 2010 (Ryan Mallett) and 2011 (Tyler Wilson).

Arkansas was one of just four FBS programs with a different 1,300-yard rusher in 2015 and 2016. It was just the second time Arkansas had a 1,300-yard rusher in back-to-back seasons and the first time two different players accounted for 1,300 yards rushing in consecutive seasons. Darren McFadden rushed for over 1,300 yards in 2006 and 2007.

ZERO TO 100

Prior to 2016, Jared Cornelius had never totaled 100 or more yards receiving in a single game. After logging 100-plus yards through the air in Weeks 4, 5 and 6, Cornelius matched a 20-year old school record of three straight 100-yard receiving games. Cornelius totaled a career-high 146 yards on five receptions against No. 1 Alabama in Week 6 to join former Razorbacks Anthony Lucas (1996) and Mike Reppond (1971) as the only three players in school history to accomplish that feat. His three games over the century mark through the air tied for fourth in the SEC.

A PERFECT FIT FOR #RBU

Prior to the 2014 season, ESPN.com donned Arkansas as RBU of the 2000s. Bret Bielema is a perfect fit to continue that legacy and currently is the only active FBS head coach with a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last 11 seasons (2006-Present).

Arkansas has combined for six interception returns and three fumble returns for touchdowns in those nine games under Bielema. Henre' Toliver added an entry to that list in the season opener with an 18-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the third quarter of the Hogs' 49-7 win over Florida A&M. It marked the second straight year Toliver has scored a defensive score.

RHOADS PROMOTED TO DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bret Bielema officially announced the promotion of Paul Rhoads to defensive coordinator on Feb. 18. A native of Ankeny, Iowa, Rhoads served as defensive backs coach during his first season with the Razorbacks in 2016.

Over his nine combined seasons as a defensive coordinator at Auburn (2008) and Pittsburgh (2000-07), Rhoads' units ranked in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense six times and the top 12 for fewest yards three times.

This will be Rhoads' third stint as a defensive coordinator and second in the SEC. Prior to joining Bielema's staff last February, Rhoads spent 16 years as either a head coach or defensive coordinator at Iowa State, Pittsburgh and Auburn, including the previous seven seasons (2009-15) as Iowa State's head coach.

Rhoads has been a part of 10 bowl games and has mentored six defensive backs that have been selected in the NFL Draft, highlighted by seven-time Pro Bowl selection and 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year Darrelle Revis. Revis was the 14th overall pick by the New York Jets in 2007 after playing for coach Rhoads when he was the DC at Pittsburgh.

BIELEMA WELCOMES ASSISTANTS WALKER AND SCOTT

Making the transition to a 3-4 defense this offseason, Bret Bielema turned to the NFL to fill his defensive line coach opening, hiring New York Jets defensive line assistant coach John Scott Jr., on Feb. 7.

Scott Jr. spent the last two seasons with the Jets, beginning as a defensive quality control coach in 2015 before being promoted to defensive line assistant coach. Prior to his time in the NFL, Scott Jr. spent time as a defensive line or outside linebackers coach at Texas Tech, Georgia Southern, Missouri State, Norfolk State and his alma mater Western Carolina.

Bielema turned to the NFL for the second time that week to complete his coaching staff, naming Atlanta Falcons defensive assistant/defensive backs coach Chad Walker the program's outside linebackers coach on Feb. 10.

Less than a week removed from coaching in Super Bowl LI, Walker came to Arkansas after spending the last two seasons with the Falcons. His two-year run in Atlanta was his second stint in the NFL after spending three seasons with the Miami Dolphins from 2005-07 as a defensive quality control coach.

Walker's coaching career started as a graduate assistant at Louisiana-Monroe and West Virginia before returning to his home state where he was a defensive assistant on LSU's 2003 National Championship team. The New Orleans native's collegiate coaching background also includes three years at Bryant University (2008-10), three years as DC at Mississippi College (2011-12) and two years as defensive quality control assistant at Oklahoma (2013-14).

MAKING THE GRADE

Arkansas led the conference with 40 student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2015 and repeated as the league-leader in 2016 with 39 honorees.

Arkansas leads the SEC with 139 Fall Academic Honor Roll selections since Bret Bielema took over in 2013, good for 12 more than the next closest school.

The 40 honorees in 2015 are the most by an SEC football program since coach Bielema joined the league, while 2016's total of 39 was the second-highest mark.

Also had nine on the 2017 SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, which was fourth-most in the league.

Arkansas led the SEC with five National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Honor Society selections in 2017 (Dan Skipper, Brooks Ellis, Toby Baker, Jared Collins, Adam McFain), which was good for a tie for seventh nationally.

Linebacker Brooks Ellis was the only William V. Campbell Trophy finalist from the SEC in 2016. The Campbell Trophy is regarded as the Academic Heisman of college football.

Ellis is the only two-time Academic All-American in program history and became the first Razorback to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year since the award was created in 2003.

DEGREES IN HAND

Five players on the 2017 Arkansas roster have already earned their undergraduate degree: QB Austin Allen (supply chain management), DB De'Andre Coley (communication), RB Connor McPherson (business), OL Jake Raulerson (finance at the University of Texas) and RB David Williams (retail management at the University of South Carolina).

These players were honored with and will don a special patch on their jersey that brings light to their academic achievement on a national stage.

An initiative championed by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long a year ago, the patch features a red and white SEC logo with a "sole" wrapping underneath it emblazoned with the all-important word, "Graduate."

HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA AT A GLANCE . . .

The University of Arkansas captivated the college football world by naming Bret Bielema the 32nd head coach in Razorback history in December 2012. Since arriving in Fayetteville, Bielema, who enters his fifth season on The Hill, has in turn captivated the passionate Razorback fan base and the state with the culture he is creating and the standards he is holding the program to.

Backed by his "Five Edges" to success, Bielema represented the qualities Arkansas was looking for: a leader of young men who holds student-athletes responsible both on and off the field and a coach who has a proven record of winning championships.

Over his 11 seasons as a head coach, Bielema has won three conference championships and coached 15 first-team All-Americans, numerous award winners, 42 NFL Draft picks and NFL superstars. Among the NFL players coached by Bielema are three-time Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, Super Bowl winning quarterback Russell Wilson and No. 1 overall draft pick and 10-time Pro Bowler Joe Thomas.

Since his arrival and over 51 games, Bielema, who is the only head coach in Arkansas history to win back-to-back bowl games, has dramatically changed the direction of the program. From his first 20 games as head coach to his most recent 20, Arkansas has gone from tied for 14th in the SEC in wins over that span to a tie for fourth with a 13-7 mark. His three straight winning seasons at Arkansas have featured seven wins over ranked teams, including five against top 15 opponents, and three on the road.

Arkansas' pro-style offense has produced a different 3,000-yard passer each of the last two seasons, making it one of just nine FBS programs to do so, while Bielema has had a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his 11 seasons as a head coach. In fact, the Razorbacks are the only FBS program to have a different quarterback pass for 3,000 yards and a different running back go for 1,300 yards on the ground in each of the last two years.

In overtime, Allen ran for a game-winning 2-point conversion, leaping past an Ole Miss defender at the goal line, to lead Arkansas to an improbable 53-52 overtime victory over the Rebels.
