CALIFORNIA-NEVADA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

GRACE AND PEACE

The 2015 session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference focused on the theme “Engaging Faith in the Public Square.” In keeping with this theme, we welcomed the Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, who is the co-author of “Faith-Rooted Organizing: Mobilizing the Church in Service to the World” (Intervarsity Press), and the founder of the Faith-Rooted Organizing UnNetwork. Alexia is a Lutheran Pastor with over 35 years of experience in community ministry, including church-based service and community development programs, congregational and community organizing, and legislative advocacy. Her Friday keynote was “Doing Justice While Loving Mercy,” and Saturday keynote, “Wise as Serpents, Innocent as Doves.”

Two years ago, we launched a conference wide Imagine No Malaria Initiative to raise $2 million over a two-year period to conclude at the end of 2015. During the annual conference session, we celebrated being within reach of our $2 million goal. Last September, at the encouraging of pastors new to the conference, I along with the four district superintendents, launched the $100K District Challenge in which each district attempted to raise $100,000 by the annual conference session towards the goal. In the post conference summary, two Districts exceeded $100,000, and collectively we exceeded the $400,000 challenge. To celebrate, two district superintendents took pies to the face on the stage, and two district superintendents shaved their heads.

We celebrated the chartering of three new United Methodist Churches: Cambodian Bayside UMC, Alameda, Calif.; First Taulanga-U Tongan UMC of Sacramento, Calif.; and Reno First Tongan UMC, Reno, Nevada. Five congregations were designated as mission congregations: East Salinas Family Center, Salinas, Calif.; Mision Metodista Hispana, Soledad, Calif.; San Jose Tongan Fellowship, Sunnyvale, Calif.; Hmong Fellowship, Marysville, Calif.; Korean Fellowship, Clovis, Calif.

During the Friday evening service of ordination, three elders in full connection were ordained, and two provisional deacons and 12 provisional elders were commissioned. Five licensed local pastors were recognized as well. Twenty-three clergy, clergy spouses, and lay members to Conference who died in the past year were remembered during a memorial service. Ten clergy retired, representing more than 245 years of service.

As we continue in our journey of engaging faith in the public square in our communities, I want us to remember God can create a people, a powerful people, out of the most unlikely candidates. We are the Church standing as Christ disciples for the healing of our society. California-Nevada Conference, we must seek the welfare of the cities, deserts, mountains, and rural countrysides where God has placed us for such a time as this.

Your Brother in Christ,

Warner H. Brown, Jr.

BISHOP WARNER H. BROWN, JR.

RESIDENT BISHOP, SAN FRANCISCO AREA

Bishop Warner H. Brown, Jr. is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated high school from Baltimore City College in 1964 and went on to attend the University of Maryland in College Park, Maryland earning a B.A. in Sociology in 1969. Bishop Brown then earned a Masters of Divinity Degree from Wesley Theological Seminary (Washington DC) in 1974 planning to serve the church as a layperson, but while serving as a Wesley student intern, the call to ordained ministry became clear.

Bishop Brown has served the church in pastoral and administrative roles. Recruited after seminary to Western Pennsylvania, he served churches in the city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania from 1973 to 1979. In 1979, he was selected in a national search for a position on the program staff of the California-Nevada Annual Conference. One year later, he was promoted to director of the program staff, serving as Conference Council Director from 1980 to 1983. From 1983 to 1987, Brown was appointed the District Superintendent of the Golden Gate District. In this role, he supervised the 55 churches in a richly diverse area including San Francisco and several rural and suburban counties along the Pacific Coast.

In 1987, he was named senior pastor of Taylor Memorial United Methodist Church in Oakland, California. While serving this congregation, the community was devastated by the 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake, and two years later the Oakland hills firestorm. As a pastor in the community, he helped organize the Oakland Interreligious Network, a collaboration of faith based organizations, organized for responding to these disasters. As chairperson of this group, Brown led the community's ecumenical and interfaith disaster response. In recognition of this and other relief work, he was named recipient of the 1996 Outstanding Leadership and Service Award for Emergency Response Ministries, given by United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

Following an 11 year pastorate in Oakland, Brown was given a new challenge as Senior Pastor of the predominantly white, yet multi-ethnic First United Methodist Church of Bakersfield, California. As he started his third year in this congregation, he was nominated by the California-Nevada Conference for the Office of Bishop. He was elected to the episcopacy and assigned to serve the Denver Area. The Denver area includes 400 churches that span the states of Colorado, Montana, Utah, and Wyoming.

Currently serving as Resident Bishop for California-Nevada Annual Conference since September 2008, he leads over 360 ethnically and culturally diverse United Methodist congregations and ministries in the northern two-thirds of California and Northern Nevada.

Throughout his years of ministry, Bishop Brown has been active in the social justice ministries and programs of those communities and church connections where he has been appointed. A few of those include: Trustee of the Glide Foundation, vice-chair of the Community Advisory Commission for Alameda County Medical Center, Volunteer Police Chaplain (Oakland, California), member of the Governing Board of United Way for Kern County, and President of the Board of Directors for the Bakersfield Homeless Shelter. In 1998 he was the recipient of a Special Congressional Recognition from Congresswoman Barbara Lee.

Within the United Methodist Church, he has served as a member of the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCRR); as Director for the General Board of Discipleship (GBOD); as a director of the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM), and as President of the United Methodist Development Fund (UMDF). While serving on GBOD, Bishop Brown guided the formation and launch of the Division of Ministry with Young People and the first Global Young People's Gathering (2007) in Johannesburg, South Africa. Subsequently, he has given leadership in these events which were held in Berlin in 2010 and in Manila, Philippines in 2014.

In May of 2014 Bishop Brown began a two year term as the President of the Council of Bishops of the United Methodist Church. This responsibility is in addition to his regular episcopal responsibilities. The United Methodist Church is the largest member church of the World Methodist Council with over 13 million members around the world and more than 46,000 congregations throughout the United States, Africa, Europe and the Philippines. It is the third largest religious denomination in the United States with over 7.3 million members in the United States alone.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

CALIFORNIA-NEVADA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

MINUTES OF THE CLERGY SESSION

WEDNESDAY JUNE 17, 2015

The 167th gathering of the Clergy Session of the California-Nevada Annual Conference opened with music by Stephanie Gameros, followed by a prayer from Tikiko Lesuma, Candidate for Commissioning.

Fel Cao, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, called the session to order and welcomed all those present.

The Conference Secretary, Kristin Sachen, reviewed the procedure for the Session and made the following motion:

Motion: that we suspend the rules to allow local pastors who will be serving their first appointments beginning July and lay pastors who will be serving their first assignments beginning July be allowed to participate this clergy session with voice but no vote.

The motion was passed by voice vote.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 17, 2015

The 167th meeting of the California-Nevada Annual Conference began with an inspirational celebration of Holy Communion. The conference musician, Aeri Lee, led the music and Bishop Warner H. Brown, Jr. preached.

The session was called to order. Emily Allen, agenda chair, oriented the plenary to the building, noting that there were no tables provided this year in order to improve vision and safety. She pointed out emergency exits and noted the prayer room was on the atrium level of the hotel. There were conference hostesses in yellow vests prepared to help direct people.

The agenda for the day included Clergy and Laity Sessions in the afternoon and district dinners in the evening.

Emily then set the bar of the conference and moved the organizational items that would allow our operation. They were approved.

The Bishop then asked if there were any late items. Michael Yoshii was recognized and requested that an item regarding the uprooting of trees at Wadi Foquin in Palestine be admitted as the destruction had occurred after the June 1st deadline. It was admitted as Item 34.

Nate Meeks, Chair of the Conference Board of Trustees, requested admission of an item regarding the sale of the 1276 Halyard Drive property. It was late because the Trustees had only just completed the financing details for it. It was admitted as Item 26.

Yvonne Turner, chair of the Israel-Palestine Task Force, requested admission of a late item regarding the treatment of Palestinian children by the Israeli military. The item is late due to the background briefing being held on June 2. The item was admitted as Item 33.

Helen Roland, vice chair of the Conference Committee on Reconciliation, asked that 6 items be admitted late. All items were in support of language adopted by the General Conference Connectional Table with respect to inclusion of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer individuals in the church. This information wasn't available until after June 1. The items were admitted as Items 17-32.

Conference Secretary Kristin Sachen proceeded to give instructions for solicitation of nominations for election to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences (2016). Lay and clergy wishing to be nominated must pick up a sheet at the Pages' Table and obtain 20 signatures of eligible voters. Eligible voters may sign as many nomination forms as they wish. After obtaining 20 signatures, the sheet must be turned in to Gayle Shearman, co-conference lay leader (laity) or Kristin Sachen (clergy) by 6:00 p.m. tonight.

Barbara Horikoshi-Firebaugh, chair of Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CORR) introduced the diversity monitoring process for the conference. She introduced members of the commission. She asked that the members of the annual conference be mindful of diversity in the selection of delegates, keeping in mind the great diversity of this annual conference. She reported that a Gathering of Ethnic Ministries was sponsored by CORR and Ethnic Ministries that involved ethnic minority communities in giving their opinions of what is needed. There were 32 ethnic minority groups represented. The results were tabulated and given to the Conference Core Team, Bishop, and members of the sponsoring groups. Three major areas were lifted up.

1. Appointment of ethnic pastors – an issue of equity. Ethnic ClayM pastors have been certified but not appointed.
2. Ethnic Minority congregations being charged by host congregations in shared space.
3. Leadership development and training in UM polity, history, etc. Help for those without computer training. Resources in various languages.

Sharon DelGado of the Fossil Fuel Resolution Task force reported on their effort to establish an investment screen for fossil fuel companies. Staff and leadership of the Board of Pensions, the General Conference Committee on Finance and Administration, and the Cal-Nevada Advocacy and Justice Committee participated in this process. They met through conference calls, developing resolutions that all could support. The result is a call on General Conference to divest from fossil fuel companies. Legislation will be presented at this Annual Conference Session.

Kelly Peterson, Director of Youth and Young Adult Camping and Ministries, introduced the youth and young adult delegation and their chaperones.

Bishop Brown called for those who were answering the roll call for 50 years or more to answer at the microphone. They were:

- Bob Blainey, 57 years
- Oscar Escamilla, 58 years
- John Corson, 57 years
- Barbara Troxell, 54 years

John Emerson, 57 years
 Chuck Cordes, 57 years
 John Sublett, 53 years
 Phil Hall, 53 years
 Clyde Vaughn, 53 years
 Don Cunningham, 60 years

Bishop Brown invited those attending for the very first time to stand and they were greeted.

David Bennett, President of the Retired Clergy Association (RCA), gave appreciation to Cory Parish at the Endowment Board for his generous assistance to the association and all retirees. Nancy Daly, administrator for the Association was also thanked.

The RCA medallions were then presented to the new retirees, representing 245 and a half years of active service. They are:

Debbie Dillon
 John Fujimori
 Lee Hayward
 Carol Layton
 Carol Leahy
 Denise Leslie
 James Luther
 Kristie Olah
 Romeo Velasco
 Thomas Chun-Nan Tai (not present)

The plenary session was then adjourned for lunch until the Clergy and Laity Sessions meet.

THURSDAY JUNE 18, 2015

The morning began with music and devotions.

Bishop Warner Brown gave the state of the conference address, beginning with Eugene Peterson's translation from the Gospel of John: God became flesh and blood and moved into the neighborhood. God moved into the neighborhood with welcome, I care – not with judgment. Hard conversations are just that – hard because it is easy to see the ways in which other people offend us, fall short of our expectations, surprise and disappoint us – it's a lot harder to see what we look like thru other people's eyes. We talk past each other too often, misunderstand each other, and to break that pattern takes some real intentional work.

Misunderstandings between police and some citizens are hard to understand. The struggle we have with gender equity of all kinds is hard to understand. The struggle we have in the western part of the US where we are too often viewed with bias from other parts of US is a hard conversation. How do we talk about this? How do we live into this? How do we not get distracted from all the good work we are doing?

The first thing: a lesson learned as a young man: God told me I was somebody when I was a child. That gave me resilience to survive when repeatedly told I can't do something when I knew I must. We are doing some mighty good things – you and the churches you are associated with are doing some mighty good things. We have a lot to cheer about. Like the little engine that could, saying "I think I can" until it made it up the hill. We've been making it in ways that a lot of people say we couldn't. In a Post-Christian society we are starting new churches, getting them to grow - it's a pipe dream! This year we have chartered new churches, we have small groups moving around place to place being church.

A new church has started in the conference headquarters building. We have had conversations about resurrection, starting in the Bridges district. We are learning how to breathe new life into the church. We are making new relationships into the community. We are on the cutting edge of something. How will the church that nurtured us re-invent itself to serve the young people now present and yet to be born so that they will be the presence of faith-filled people in the times they live in; so that they will be trustworthy friends for when we need to take up hard conversations.

We can see people on TV and hear them on radio who talk about Christianity in all kinds of ways – I don't recognize what they are talking about sometimes. It doesn't look like the Jesus I know. It's talking about privilege, power and entitlement which is diametrically opposed to Jesus who reached out to the outsiders and the poor and spoke against the insiders (God won't like this).

How are we to be the church we are supposed to be. We have to strategize how we will be the church here, in the annual conference. Circuits have conversations at many levels: about basic stuff like accountability and how to do things; at another level, ministry is lonely work, things are spinning out of control and people want to blame you. Circuits are intended to build relationships, trust, view each other as colleagues and not competitors and share the burden so it doesn't get too heavy for any of us. If we can do that, we can strategically think together about how to be the church most effectively in this place and invite the lay people to engage and show us how to do it. The laity is where the word becomes flesh and is in the neighborhood every day. None of us can do it by ourselves, nor have all the answers – but with the power of the Holy Spirit we can do this together. We need to let our fears go a little bit, and begin to engage some hard conversations.

One of our hard conversations: Our sense of privilege. We begin to tighten up. You can almost hear the minds closing when we begin this topic.

Here's a place where we struggle – look around the room. Except for age we reflect the diversity of many of the places we live. 55+ community, activities I like, quiet when I want to sleep, people who like the same music and TV, dance badly ... downsize is the rule. If you're under 55 you can come in but not stay too long. Or if you want to do something else, the response is to tell somebody who cares.

For the church to have vitality for me it needs to have babies crying. There's nothing like a 2 year old in the middle of the sermon saying "no" at the top of their voice. Somebody thinks bringing their family is worth their time. Speaking to people in contemporary ways is about more than us. Do not surrender your faith in this day. We need to live our songs.

Samaritan woman came to Jesus, the others said we believe not because of the woman, but because we see the relevance of what you're living and doing in our lives and we are with you – God is living within and around us. That's the power.

Don House, from Texas, is giving an end of church narrative. Fear of decline, patterns of membership changing, means the Church doesn't look the same as it did. People make different choices – we can't say good or bad, but we need to go where they are and offer the word in ways they can hear.

Last night was tragic: In Charleston, black people attending a prayer meeting, were shot and killed by a white supremacist. We could see on the television impromptu prayer circles, in the street, off and on through the night. All kinds of people were joining hands in prayer in the face of this tragedy. Sometimes we don't have the words, but we can demonstrate our caring just by being there.

We need to move now – it takes courage to confront privilege. We have to find the way to have the conversation anyhow. We need to stop being in denial, or the problem will never change.

One of the key ways we can make a difference is to get the police who are members of our churches to help us have a conversation. How can we begin to have a change oriented conversation? We disagree – but let's respect each other, but let's look at the unjust results of our ideas. We have to learn to love one another whether we like them or not.

We all have a lot to learn – let go of the entitlement that ours is the only way to look at things. We really struggle to share the church – we have struggle sharing. Sharing is a message we learn in kindergarten. Don't run with scissors! Share!

Newcomers come to the church and the message is: we're glad you are in our church, you are welcome, here are our rules. What if the message is really: This is Jesus' church and we have the privilege to take care of it, and the Lord has now sent laborers for the harvest. How do we share the work, discover there is wheat, not just weeds, in those fields?

Our church is trying to become an international church – about 40% is outside the US. Our AC is growing in many areas – Latino, Spanish speaking ClayM, people coming from other parts of the world and we can learn from them but we need to treat them with respect, champion their gifts

We can witness to this as General Conference comes to our neighborhood. The Western Jurisdiction has decided we're too small to take this on by ourselves, so we work together (as a circuit instead of college of Bishops).

More churches are giving to the tithe, those who never gave, you're conversation about the tithe is with God. We will bless it – and the blessing is that we continue to do this resurrection work.

General Conference - last few years, delegates have come back bruised. We have a culture in this conference a long time that we have been intentional about sending an inclusive delegation. Gender balance, rich diversity in conference is reflected; voices who can articulate who we are and can represent our views. We tend to be more progressive than other parts of the church. Need to be careful we aren't like the conservatives who beat up the minority voices. We need to treat one another with respect. There have been times that we've reached out to include a conservative voice. We have an opportunity to model a different way to be Christian community. Oregon-Idaho isn't big enough to have all the volunteers and workers needed. They need us to rally others to help. What could be more transformative than for someone who has all the answers to be helped by a transgender? The point is not to show up people, but to show that we are flesh and blood too. When someone needs help, I am going to help. That transformative spirit can be witnessed to everyone who shows up in Portland. We are trying to live in a post-Christian society as Wesleyan people.

Hospitality is our protest. So sign up to volunteer – sign up to make the word of Jesus relevant.

The plenary gave a standing ovation at the conclusion of the Bishop's address.

Mark Zier, section chair, introduced the legislative sections. There will be 6 sections. Three of them will meet in the Grand Ballroom. There will be Marshalls at entryway to limit the number of people per section.

The plenary was released to meet in their legislative sections.

As the plenary reconvened, an announcement was made asking for those who wished to be considered as nominees only for Jurisdictional Conference to please so indicate.

A time for Recognitions and Appreciations was led by the Bishop. Phil Bandy began in 2009 as the Interim Director of UMWIM. He himself is an excellent volunteer and leader. He is compassionate, has a heart for people and recognizes that heart in other people. Phil helps others discover what they can contribute to the world. He understands the place for hands-on mission in helping people be formed as disciples for Jesus. Hands-on versus just thinking – that means meeting people, helping someone get their first pair of glasses, painting their house, manage a clinic, etc. Phil has been engaged in transforming the world hands on! A mission trip is successful when people who need help are well served and when the people who help come home with a “carin’ heart” – as Phil would say. He revamped the training manual, engaged in training, expanded our range of service, and helped us develop partnerships around the world. He is the advance man to help us figure out what is really needed/wanted. The advance work and partnering with UMCOR is responsible for the clinic at Bom Jesus, West Angola, being up and running. People can come from anywhere to help us with one of our projects. He helped set up the response in Haiti, working side by side with our conference disaster coordinator. Our response has gotten national attention. Thank you for all you have done for us. Phil is retiring.

Paul Extrum-Fernandez recognized Laurry Rand and Linda Lasselle, representing 42 yrs of service in the California-Nevada Board of Pension and Health Benefits. They have handled countless transactions between pastors and their pensions, showing the best of the Wesleyan spirit, with compassion, grace and selflessness. We recognize their work and say thank you.

Brian Grimmer is the Board of Pensions new employee. He graduated from Randolph Macon university, is a member of Walnut Creek UMC, and a PK from the Virginia Annual Conference. The office has completely changed over the past 5 years and electronic billing is coming. Brian has helped with that. We all welcomed Brian.

Dr. Jeffrey Kuan, president of Claremont School of Theology, and a member of this conference, brought greetings from the Board of Trustees, faculty and staff of CST. He expressed how grateful he is to Bishop Brown for his confidence in him and willingness to appoint him in his calling of extension ministry. How significant our connectional system is – this is the third AC and Dr. Kuan has 3 more to go to. The Western Jurisdiction is alive and doing great work! CST is called to be a seminary for the church – hasn’t always been the case. Not everyone used to know that CST is a UM school of theology. Today it is strongly affirmed, and our accrediting association recognizes the change. Our increase in the number of UM students is remarkable, and we are not done. Already 25 UM students have been accepted in next year’s class in all degree areas. We are also ecumenical in spirit, doing theology in an inter-religious world. We are able to provide access to a lot of people outside of the immediate area by launching a hybrid online program of 24 students last year. We want to make this accessible to students in this area too. Especially young people today – you are the present of the church and you are who we need the church to be. Current clergy can participate in continuing education and there is a new doctoral hybrid online program. Focus is on spiritual renewal, contemplative practice, and spiritual leadership.

Bishop Brown introduced Bishop Solito Toquero, retired bishop of the Manila Episcopal Area of the Philippines, who brought greetings.

The Bishop's Award #1. The Bishop's Awards are given each year to lay persons who give committed service in the local church and outstanding service outside the local church. This year's first award goes to someone who grew up in the church but only committed themselves just a few years ago. God turned his life around. He experienced many obstacles and stages – gang violence, substance abuse, struggle with school - but also a lot of support from family and God who would not let him go. He began to learn something about the church, and was invited to get involved in a program – young adult leadership development, where he learned professional advocacy, social justice, leadership skills, and deepened his faith walk. A musical person, he uses that gift to develop praise music and involve other young adults in the band. He shared his journey with some of his friends and that group became a bible study. Helped by these young men, they birthed a new ministry for the homeless. Early Sunday morning, they prepare food and carry it out to the area where the homeless gather and feed them, give them respect and develop relationships. He began a bible study with the homeless. His is not an English first language church, but the homeless were looking for an English language service. His response was “we can start one” and they did. He developed youth ministries through sports in the community, the favorite being Rugby. He is now going back to school in community college and planning to transfer to a 4 year university in order to become a United Methodist minister. Walter Manufofoa from San Bruno UMC, only 23 years old, is our first Bishop's Award winner.

Bener Agtarap, conference superintendent for new church development and revitalization, announced three new church charters. Rev. Sungho Lee, chair of the Congregational Vitality mission focus, was also introduced. DS Kristie Olah reported that we've had fellowships for several years and this year we have explored to discern which might be on the road to being chartered congregations and which might best be served by a host congregation. A mission congregation is one with a particular mission in their setting, such as reaching out to a language community, or to poorer areas. The idea is to give them support from our resources for a strong start. Five mission congregations have been designated by the cabinet and we are hoping they will become chartered as well in the future. The three mission congregations that were chartered this year:

1. First Taulanga-U (Safe harbor) Tongan UMC of Sacramento , served by Rev. Katai'i' Tapa
2. Reno First Tongan UMC, served by Rev. Opeti Aonga.
3. Bayside Cambodian UMC in Alameda, served by Chanta Vols, ClayM pastor

DS Debra Brady presented the Rev. Neal Harris from the Fellowship UMC in Reedley. He told us that the Fellowship Church had been in service from 1954-2015. They faithfully served 3 generations of Japanese Americans in the Central Valley. As the congregation has aged, they are no longer able to continue this ministry alone. Some are now coming to First UMC Reedley. The congregation has submitted Item No. 15 requesting approval of the closure of the Fellowship UMC in Reedley. The item is before us: After a prayer of thanksgiving, the item was approved.

Micheal Pope, lay member from Concord UMC and member of the Committee on New and Vital Congregations, reported her congregation's motto is where “THEY ARE US”. They are not worried about the numbers, but worried about whether they are good examples of Jesus Christ and God's love. Do they see the Christ in Me? We are challenged: be the Christian that you say you are when you go to church on Sunday every single day. We watched the video from the church revitalization Focus Area. We've launched 16 new church starts, with a variety of models. One size does not fit all. Models are contextualized. Some examples:

The Gathering at Mountain House, pastor Kim Montenegro. The family lives upstairs and the Gathering is downstairs. They are located across from high school . They host bible studies, retreats, visitors and volunteers. Mountain House is a commuter community where people drive 2 hours twice a day for work. Everything is in walking distance, which allows people to meet regularly. There wasn't any church before the Gathering.

Online church, pastor Kelly O'Connor . How do you have community? They developed a meet up page: www.churchtogethertoday.com.

Expression Fresca in a Fresno circuit, is strengthening existing Hispanic ministries and starting new ones. Rev. Aura Ochoa leads a Bible study for new people on Friday night, which is a ministry for the whole family. Ruby Bago, Central Valley District Lay Leader, is developing a partnership between Filipino and Hispanic communities.

Hubert Ivery, chair of the Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, presented their award to a congregation demonstrating an excellent interfaith program which is a central and important part of the congregation. The award this year was given to pastor James Luther on behalf of Salinas UMC for its ministry to the homeless and poor. The church receives generous support and volunteers from local faith communities. The church received a Certificate and small cash award.

The Consent Calendar was presented.

Scott Wylie, chair of CFA, reported that we are increasing our giving through the tithe and our budget is higher than those passed previously. We have 50-60% of our churches actually paying a tithe – good news! There is, however, room for greater giving. The “Aspirational Budget” and Spending Plan are before us. A question was asked: “How are the executive salaries set?” Not thru CFA, Diane Knudsen, Treasurer, responded. We don’t have codification of salaries as some conferences do. We tried that unofficially 10-20 years ago but couldn’t make it work. We then set a number 12 years ago and have tried to keep up with inflation since then. Question: Executive leadership now has 6 figures – how do I justify that with my struggling church? Diane reported that we are comparable to low compared to other conferences.

The budget and spending plan were approved (Item A-1).

[The conference adjourned for a Dinner break.]

Upon return to the assembly, Bobby Lee Smith of the GCFA was welcomed. He reported on a corporate sponsorship, working with Home Depot, who gives 3% back to GCFA.

President Tevita Bainivanua Nawadra of the Methodist Church of Fiji and Rotuma was introduced and welcomed. He thanked the conference for our presence and accompaniment as Fiji Methodists had their struggle with the government. Last year they held their annual conference, and will do so again with a grand choir festival.

Bishop Brown lifted up the strategic partnership with the MC of Fiji by announcing that the collaboration is enabling the making of an appointment from Fiji to Cal-Nev. This clergy person will be appointed to one of our local churches and will be a contemporary circuit rider supporting the 9 Fijian ministries throughout our conference. We need to navigate the Visa process but want to celebrate this missional partnership right now!

Bishop Bobby R. Best of the Western areas of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church was introduced. He has an MBA from Chapel Hill, NC; his Mdiv from Duke and a DMin from ITC. He is looking forward to spending time with us, and enjoys Bishop Brown who is so proud of us.

Fixing of appointments beyond the local church, David Samelson, dean of the cabinet.

Fel Cao, chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry reported that we have approved 2 persons working toward deacon’s orders and 12 persons working toward elder’s orders for commissioning this year. The Gathering of the Orders, titled Too Deep for Words, will be held Jan 19-21, 2016, at Mt. Hermon. Kathy LaPoint Collup and Sifa Hingano introduced 3 new elder ordinands: Jeanelle Ablola, Elmar de Ocera, and Jonathan Tarman. They were greeted by Bishop Brown and responded to the historic questions. When asked, Do you support the ordination of these candidates, the plenary responded with a resounding yes, and standing ovation.

Bishop’s Award #2: The awardee is someone thoroughly engaged in the work of their church and has given themselves into service to people beyond the church in ways that are powerful and transforming. A nurse, this person brings healing and care to people in many ways. In that environment, this candidate takes seriously the command to use talents and skills with all the people around. Commitments are made and kept to serve the church and community. This person has an artistic skill (craft) and loves to teach it. In teaching this craft, this person has enabled people to develop self worth, learn skills and change the understanding of who they are. People who are moving out of homelessness can fellowship with others while practicing this craft; children can learn a skill and have fun in a transitional environment. This person is a bridge builder among hospital workers and church members and residents of a shelter, so that all can understand each other better and help each other better. She is transforming the world by bringing a presence to this work that let’s everyone know that love is always present. She was one of those voices that said it is time to rethink church and discover the ways we can most effectively be in ministry. They decided to reinvent themselves, and all point to her as the sparkplug that kept them on mission. The award goes to Amy Nichols of Open Door Richmond UMC.

Kathi McShane, convener of the Core Team, gave their Report. The Team meets to further and develop policies that are developed at the Annual Conference Session, and to make sure that the mission is aligned. They allocate resources among the 4 Mission Areas. Major effort has been a mid-term evaluation of the strategic plan. Only about 50 percent of the people have a clear definition of discipleship; only 20% have a plan or are working on a plan for making new disciples. Studies show there is a correlation between definition/plan and growth.

What is your congregation’s definition of discipleship? Does your congregation have a clearly articulated plan or process for making disciples of Jesus Christ?

Over the past 5 years, conference was deliberately non-directive so that churches, circuits and leaders would have more buy in to the mission. But there is confusion about which conference activities are related to the Strategic Plan. Not all aspects of the strategic plan are relevant for the local church.

There have been a lot of changes in the Conference: 90% of congregations are confident that they are on the way to having a clear vision, and plan by 2020; 87% are confident that our Conference culture encourages innovation and creating new places for new people.

There is a new Strategy Team: Core Team and Cabinet together, will:

1. Help churches define discipleship in a clear, contemporary relevant way
Personal piety and social holiness; practical approaches to personal discipleship; measure in terms of daily life, not activity in the church
2. Clearly define the conference's foundational goals
3. Circuits - clarify their role, measure their effectiveness
4. Alignment of all.

Dave Bunje, chair for the conference Study committee for an inclusive conference, reported that they have 16 members, and they are very grateful for their work together and the difference it has made in their own lives. Formed in 2012, it needs to be diverse, reflecting our conference. The way forward is relational not legislative. We are neither progressive nor conservative – we are open to one another and exhibit loving and caring and Christ-like way of being in the world. He closed with a litany.

Setting of appointments for Bridges District. Schuyler Rhodes, district superintendent.

Blessing of missionaries: Howard Parker, conference mission secretary, announced we have had 3 missionaries retire in the past year. The missionaries associated with our conference are:

- Joseph Chang, now retired from Cambodia
- Marilyn Chang, continuing in Cambodia
- JoAnn Cho, in California
- John Fujimori, now retired in Japan
- Claudia Fujimori, continuing in Japan
- Intern Emma Kerr-Carpenter, finishing in Brazil, continuing in Montana
- George Martzen Chin Cheak Yu, continuing in Singapore

Katherine Parker, continuing in Nepal

Carol Partridge, retired from Macedonia

Brenda Vaca, continuing in the Western Jurisdiction.

The Bishop led the plenary in a blessing of the missionaries from our conference.

Barbara Horikoshi-Firebaugh, chair of CORR, announced the Mel Talbert award. It was given to Rev. Siosifa Hingano, a Pacific Islander, who has given leadership to LGBT issues in his community, who sees that all church committees are multi-cultural, and who promotes full participation for all ethnicities. He crosses all boundaries to seek justice for all people.

Dave Bennett, president of the Retired Clergy Association, announced three scholarships have been given: 'Iunisi Tovo in the Claremont Course of Study, Dana Gill, attending Austin Presbyterian; and Bethany Cseh, who will be attending Fuller Seminary.

We adjourned until tomorrow morning.

FRIDAY JUNE 19, 2015

The morning began with music and devotions.

Instructions were given on the process for the election of delegates and how to use the new voting equipment.

The First Ballot was taken for the lay and clergy General Conference Delegation.

Gayle Shearman and Burt Yin, co-conference lay leaders, gave the Laity Address:

Gayle: Spoke of what she had learned about Jesus and John Wesley. It is clear from what we have already heard during this conference session that we are taking the message to where the people are. The World is our parish. Remember our Mission Statement to Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World. Lay leadership development was set as our priority, creating an appetite for making disciples and building a discipling system. Laity are now doing this work with the entire Leadership Development Mission focus area. We invite you to bring teams to the 8.8 Discipleship event. We now have a Spanish language ClayM class. We just graduated our first Spanish language graduates. We blessed 26 ClayM and 8 certified lay ministers. We have plans for a Cambodian ClayM Class.

Burt Yin: Past 2 days we have heard many powerful stories. This morning I am going to ask you to examine your own personal journey. What was the beginning of your personal journey? Who influenced you the most? What did it feel like? How did you react? Share your thoughts with a person next to you.

The formation of a spiritual journey has many facets. My spiritual journey... I lived in foster homes where I heard my first bible stories and my first hymn. I received my baptism by my 12th birthday.

To this day I have been blessed many times over to share with those around me my talents, time, witness, outreach and gifts. I recently served as a volunteer with the Red Cross in Texas after severe flooding. Remember that God is in control of everything. Are we engaging faith in the Public Square? Are you making a difference in your community? I hope you are. Share your compassion wherever you find yourself.

Bishop: It has been a joy to work with these Lay Leaders. Join me in thanking them once again for their leadership.

Bishop Brown reminded the plenary that the Bishop makes the nomination for Conference Lay Leaders. It is our custom to elect someone the year before they take office. The Bishop introduced Michael Pope, Lay Leader at Concord UMC, as one of our new Lay Leaders.

Cory Perish, executive of the United Methodist Endowment Board, reported that he is on a mission from God. His current mission is to serve the retired clergy of this conference. The UM Foundation and the Endowment Board are in very close communication. There will be a Development office within the Endowment Board within this year. An annual gift of $96,000 was given to the Retired Clergy Association. Over the last 40 years we have given $41 million a year for retired clergy. This year the Grant to the Board of Pensions is $1.6 million.

Bishop Brown then introduced Steve Sprecker, Local Host team member for the 2016 General Conference in Portland. Steve invited us to participate as volunteers at General Conference. We were encouraged to show the true spirit of extravagant hospitality. Volunteers work in 4 hour shifts. This is our backyard! We want people to go away amazed at what extravagant hospitality really looks like (and inclusivity). Volunteer as a group. You are responsible for own housing. There is hope for group rates – watch the website.

Bishop's Award #3 is a single mom who raised two young boys while working every day. In 2011, she became seriously involved in church, including attending and completing lay speaker training. She felt God's call in her life and wanted to learn how to witness to that. Those courses and encouragement inspired her to think perhaps there is more. So she participated in ClayM training. Much of the opportunity that surrounds us will not be discovered until lay persons hear the call to discipleship and respond. She played a role in organizing a new congregation in her community in her language, offering life skills (computer, filling out apps for eligibility, sponsorship paperwork, etc). This is disciple work, praising God by giving completely. She is a humble person. Chanta Vols, pastoral leader of the new Bay Area Cambodian Church, is our third Bishop's Award winner.

Report of Ballot #1

Laity – 350 valid votes; needed to elect 175; One election Emily Allen, 7 names received fewer than 20 votes and were eliminated.

Clergy – 233 valid votes; 117 needed to elect; no election; 2 names received fewer than 20 votes and were eliminated.

The Second Ballot was taken.

There were no petitions to remove any items from the Consent calendar. There were 2 slight corrections: Item 27, line 38, delete “support” and replace with “obey”; and Item 9, a friendly amendment, line 22 delete “urged” and replace “directed.”

Second mile giving (the Advance) recognizes and thanks California-Nevada Annual Conference for the highest total number of churches in Western Jurisdiction giving to the Advance in 2014. We received an award. In all, we gave over ½ million dollars.

Randall Miller and Odette Lockwood Stewart – co-leaders of previous delegation in 2012, represent this Annual Conference on the Western Jurisdiction Episcopacy Committee. They provide evaluation and aide in electing new bishops. In 2016, we will need at least one new bishop to serve in an area yet to be determined. We will have at that time 2 Asian men, 1 Latina, and 1 White woman.

Some of the things the Committee looks for in a potential Bishop are:

- Lively faith and ability to communicate this experience in a variety of settings, clear witness of the connection between personal piety and social action
- Committed
- Clear gifts of fiscal and admin leadership, engage others in wise stewardship and joyful tithing
- Balanced life
- Clear commitment to provide prophetic leadership in changing world and church – welcome and embrace all people.

Odette asked the question: “Shall we nominate persons for Bishop at annual conference in 2016?” It was approved.

Report of Ballot #2.

Clergy – 206 valid votes; need 104 to elect. Two elected: Jeffrey Kuan and Greg Bergquist.

Laity – 318 valid votes; need 159 to elect. One elected: Burt Yin.

We heard a video report from a ministry where United Methodists are engaging in the public space. The video shows work being done in Carson City, and shows that making a difference is more than doing something for the poor; the real challenge is to work with the poor to break the cycle of poverty. The program is called "Circles". It is creating friendships across class lines. People who want to get ahead are referred by agencies or word of mouth. They are interviewed to see if people are ready emotionally, and able to make the commitment, for 18 sessions called "Getting Ahead". They work with a community ally for 18-24 months which is what it takes to turn around. Circles involves 4 different churches.

This is ministry of people who are committed to walking with the poor. Circles is something that puts middle class people in relationship with people who are struggling. Opportunity to use what we know, and to live the Christian ethic. Volunteers are assigned a specific family and they set their priorities and identify what they want to do to get out of poverty.

In 2 years, 10 families have moved out of poverty. Permanently.

Our featured speaker began her address. Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, a Lutheran pastor and author of "Faith Rooted Organizing: Mobilizing the Church in Service to the World".

Words from a friend of her young daughter's "I'm only interested in a Jesus that transforms the world." How do we serve, incarnate the Jesus who transforms the world? By doing Justice while Loving Mercy. Are we...

- Good at acts of mercy?
- OK at humility?
- Concretely doing justice?

Biblical justice, not just retributive, workplace, restorative – but also family justice (Lev 25 and Acts 2:6). Divided land equally among tribes (brothers). God is a loving parent who divides equally. But it doesn't stay that way ... some brothers are smarter, have better land, etc. Some end up with all the land and the others become sellers. That's not OK with God. Every 50 years there is a reset and redistribution, when debts are canceled, and slaves are freed. That's justice. The early church did that voluntarily.

Usually we think of mercy and justice as different – but the biblical vision is that mercy and justice kiss. If we live out mercy all the way, we have justice.

How does the world break your heart? Extreme poverty, oppression, injustice kills you before your time. If we share our answers, we would feel heavier and heavier. That's the bad news. The Good news, it is not only our hearts that are broken, but the source of all power's heart is broken – therefore there is hope and there are remedies.

Matt 9:35-37 is a story of Jesus' compassion. Compassion is not pity. It means "with feel or with suffer." Jesus feels our pain and our hopes and dreams. You have to see before you can have compassion. We don't have a compassion problem, but we sometimes have a vision problem. Start by seeing like Jesus sees.

How does Jesus see?

It's not enough to be partially visible – Hebrews 13:2 – you might entertain angels (a messenger of God). You have to see deeply to see the blessing the outcast can bring.

We cannot stop being family – maybe we're dysfunctional, but still family. We will never be a body fully alive until we are fully connected. Seeing the crowd – we don't see everything until we see the crowds.

What did Jesus do when he loved and saw – he gave it all – we have to love intelligently and effectively.

What do we have to give?

Tools for change:

- Giving a fish - direct service
- Teaching people to Fish – individual development
- Fishing together – community development (alternative systems)
- Removing the barrier around the pond – organizing and advocacy (changing the systems)

Example: Homelessness – shelter to sweat equity, rehab to rent control, and affordable housing

Democracy – vote, voice, influence – we need to be good stewards of gifts given for public decision making.

Organizing – bringing stakeholders together and creating systemic change, making the system work for all.

Systemic Change – laws, policies, structures

To have privilege in this world means you can choose your burdens.

Others are crushed by systems that are ineffective, wasteful, and unjust.

Advocacy- influencing public decision makers.

Faith-Rooted Organizing – as if God is real

Building the body – 1 Cor. 12:12-27. God wants us to be the body of Christ – how to do that in this arena? Every Roman school child knew about the body politic – where different parts of the body are worth different things, amounts. Paul turns that on its head so that all parts are equal.

In a democracy we called our leaders to be our representatives. If they don't act right, it's our fault. In faith-rooted organizing we are calling them to fulfill their divine purpose. Sitting down together – what is God calling them to do, and us to do?

Ps. 72 a psalm about Divine Purpose of Government

Organizing opportunities:

1. Start with other members of your church to design a campaign – identify and research your issue and the public decision maker who can solve the problem, design a campaign with strategies and tactics, recruit participants and develop leaders, sustain the struggle until victory.
2. You join or start a faith-rooted coalition working on the issues that break your heart.
3. You and other ministries join a broad-based coalition working on the issues that break your heart and contributing your unique gifts.
4. You join a multi-issue and multi-sector organization.

Whichever you choose, bring your unique gifts!

We too often turn into atheists in the public sphere. God is the God of the whole universe. Where there is the Holy Spirit there is hope.

There is a difference between faith-based and faith rooted. Faith-rooted means everything in the organization is based on your faith; also that every sector has unique gifts to make and bring. Wherever we can collaborate we should. Loving your enemies isn't about being nice.

Saul Aulinsky said there is no change without conflict (true?).

People improving community organizing (PICO) (founded by Jesuit, break off from Aulinsky).

Organizing within the church and the church organizing within the society.

The Hole in Our Gospel, by Rich Stearns, was recommended reading.

Ballot #3 for both Laity and Clergy was taken.

Bishop Brown introduced the new Pacific School of Religion President, the Rev. Dr. David Vasquez-Levy, to the Conference and welcomed him into relationship with us. Dr. Vasquez offered words of greeting and acknowledged the number of United Methodists connected with the school through serving on the board and as members of the faculty and administration as well as alumnae/i. He reflected on the challenging questions before us, especially as related to seminary education and preparing leaders for the Church. As followers of Jesus, we speak words of peace but also with the imagination of the prophetic call for justice as we tend to the deep wounds in our society and world. The visioning work of PSR includes addressing the difficulty of making seminary education accessible. This is where we must figure out what God is calling us to be.

Bishop's Award #4 is for someone engaged in 2 different congregations, leading bible study and working in the spiritual dimension side of the church. But he also engaged in social action, helping people to engage in outreach and social service. He became involved with community health needs to support underfunded and overworked agencies – fundraising, building rehab, etc. He did the hard organizational work to enable others to get engaged in hands on mission, not just locally but thru VIM. He has gone around the world, maximizing the capacity to do good in the world. He has been involved not just in works of mercy but also system change. He participated in disaster response in Haiti and Tonga where hurt and hope is needed. He was pivotal in the organizing of the UMCOR depot in Utah. In Haiti, seeing the great need inspired him to work with the Thomas food project, which involves 5 schools, improving nutrition and water and building. Steve Elliott, of Asbury UMC in Livermore is the Bishop Award's winner.

Report on Ballot #3

Laity – 311 valid votes; 156 needed to elect; no election

Clergy – 182 valid votes; 91 needed to elect; no election

Mark Zier began the Section Reports by introducing the chairs and the chairs introduced their teams.

Item 11, Resolution on Models on Engaging Faith was amended by the section and the amendment is on the back of consent calendar: On line 24, remove “a website link” and insert “or use other social media to” between “to devote a website” and “link to news of churches or circuits.” Lines 24 and 30: replace “challenge” with “motivate”. As amended, the Section vote was 37 yes, 35 no.

There was a motion to amend line 25 by deleting the sentence beginning “Such news”. The motion passed.

The question was raised why there was no limiting language? John Reynolds, the item's contact, responded that the item was intended for the Cal-Nevada Conference. Item 11 was then approved 270 yes – 156 no.

Item 14 regarding the proposed Trans-Pacific Partnership was recommended by the Section with 67 for, and 16 against. There was no discussion in plenary. The item was approved 274 yes and 144 no.

Item 17 concerning ICE out of CA, was approved by the Section 51 yes - 27 against. It was not on the Consent Calendar. There was a motion to amend that became too complex to follow. At the Bishop's suggestion, the item was tabled until a revised document could be presented.

Linda Caldwell spoke on the progress of the Imagine no Malaria campaign. The UMC is in partnership with UMcom and INM. $45 million dollars across the general conference has been raised in 2 years. Our goal is $67 million. The UMC is the sole faith voice at the global leadership health table. We have been on the ground in Africa where the death rate from malaria has been cut in half. 250,000 cases have been treated through INM, 134 health facilities improved, 16 sub-Sahara countries involved; and training of health workers, and preparing communities for intervention. Work needs to continue...

Presented a thank you for our work - $100,000 district challenge "I Dream of a World of No Malaria". Bishop Brown asked for an offering and the young people responded:

- Reno First –raised over $2,000 and got $1,000 awarded in a matching grant
- Lynnwood Pleasanton held a Mosquito Festival and received $500 in a matching grant
- St Paul's Manteca held an Agape concert, raised over $1900 and received matching $1500
- Good Samaritan Cupertino played a life size double monopoly game earning over $5,000 with a matching grant of $1500

Bridges: 54 churches, raised $70,601

Central Valley: 65 churches, raised $87,355

El Camino: 51 churches, raised $116,093

Great Northern: 71 churches, raised $90,221

Total: $364,270 altogether for district challenge

Cal-Nevada has raised $1,750,000 as of May 31.

SATURDAY JUNE 20, 2015

The morning began with music and devotions.

Guest speaker, Alexia Salvatierra, continued by asking the plenary to imagine what breaks your heart, and how to respond.

Mt 10:18 Jesus says we must be wise as serpents, and innocent as doves. The Holy Spirit is already moving in any place where we go. Anyone is capable of sacrificial love and moral courage. Take that seriously (that's being innocent as doves). Dove power: unusual gift we bring to public arena.

Serpent power: widows aren't the most powerful people in the world. If the only one who can give me justice does not fear God nor regard man, I'll give up. But this widow doesn't give up. She believes so deeply that God will give her justice that God will do justice for her. This judge doesn't have any conversion, but he gives her justice because she troubles and wearies him. This is a critical mass of pressure. Sinners need a critical mass of pressure to change.

Serpent power

1. Power = force of law, wealth, influence, numbers
2. Self-interest and the negotiation of interests
3. Constituency, connections and case (what people need for election) (case is the logical argument)
4. Direct communication
5. Indirect communication
6. Escalation

Dove power: Nathan story re King David) 2 Sam 12:1-12 David changes, but really changes. Nathan has awakened David's sense of justice, brought him back to his best self. That's dove power, the Holy Spirit. This is the special call of the church – to use dove power.

- (Frederick Douglas) Power never cedes power without a struggle vs. the struggle of the soul
 - Becoming an ally of the Holy Spirit – believing in the public square
 - Human beings are not targets
 - Poor have the power already
1. Prayer (a way of life)
 2. Pastoral support - chaplaincy – encouragement
 3. Prophetic call: Remember the poor
 - Dreams and visions
 - Exposing and combating lies
 - Reaching both sides of the brain

In order to encourage someone, you need to love them, believe in them, not be afraid to talk about faith, be vulnerable, and know them as people not as targets.

We are a dismembered body – we need to remember the body – re-member. Include the poor where they can speak. We can unite around anger, but also around the dream.

Create a Dream wall – put index cards around the table, each one write dream, and then put up on wall. The vision becomes more powerful than the pain of the past. There is power in dreaming and visioning. It's a gift.

There are deep lies that support the injustice; we can remove injustice but if we don't expose the deep lie the injustice returns.

“We are Warriors” a video from training of black students in civil rights era.

Important to get training. It's not my job to tell you what to do but to remind you of what you are called to do and be.

Our speaker, Alexia Salvatierra, was warmly thanked.

Elizabeth Brick was recognized and asked to withdraw from consideration of General Conference election, but to be re-considered for Jurisdictional Conference.

Ballot # 4 was taken for Laity and Clergy.

Robin Matthews Johnson moved that in the spirit of Jubilee we release our superintendents from fulfilling their “punishment” from the $100,000 Imagine No Malaria (INM) challenge. Three spoke against the motion. The motion failed.

Bishop Brown reminded the plenary that the INM challenge was not to shame anyone, but a call to give as one can. His hope was to have a little fun while raising money.

Brian Mark, Chairperson, Committee on Nominations and Leadership Elections brought the committee's report. First, CS Linda Caldwell described how the nominating process has changed from past practices in order to ensure that nominees are willing and skilled to serve. We now use an application process to ensure thoughtful prayerful process. The application is available on the conference web site.

Brian Mark made the following motions:

1. That the conference secretary cast a unanimous ballot for the election of the classes of 2015 through 2018 of the Conference Board of Trustees.
2. The election of new officers and members of all Conference boards, commissions, committees and agencies.
3. The election of all District Committee Chairs, Vice Chairs, Secretaries and Co-coordinators.
4. The election of the District Boards of Church Location and Building, District Committees on the District Superintendency, and District Committees on Ordained Ministry and other affiliated committees.
5. The confirmation and acknowledgment of the Board of California-Nevada Methodist Homes, Conference Claimants' Endowment Board, Ethnic Caucuses, Fred Finch Youth Center Committee, Glide Foundation, Sierra Service Project, United Methodist Foundation, Conference United Methodist Men, Conference United Methodist Women, and Retired Clergy Association.
6. Receive the entire 2015 Nominations Report as presented.
7. The remaining vacancies and other occurrences following the adjournment of the Annual Conference Session may be filled by the Conference Committee on Nominations and Connectional Leadership Development in consultation with the Bishop and the Core Team.

All motions were approved by voice vote.

Fixing of appointments of Central Valley District, Debra Brady District Superintendent

Report on Ballot #4

Clergy - 151 valid votes; 76 needed to elect. Karen Oliveto elected. Completes Clergy Delegates for General Conference.

Laity - 277 valid votes, 141 needed to elect, no election

Greg Forrester, AGS for UMCOR, reported on UMCOR earthquake and fire response. Showed Video of 75th anniversary celebration. In the past 10 years, we've supported UMCOR with $7,471,067. There are currently 95 disaster sites in US (added 8 last week). So far this year, UMCOR has already made 52 grants in the US. Natural Disasters are increasing in US. Weed, CA needs rebuilding of homes of poor, uninsured people. Earthquake in Napa, south valley, over 1200 homes severely damaged, and there are still unmet needs. We've applied for UMCOR grant to help 278 families who haven't been helped.

Gayle Shearman was recognized and withdrew from the General Conference ballot, respectfully asked that we consider all factors: geography, church, age, and to read standing rules.

Ballot #5 for laity taken.

Kids at Conference, led by Rev. Pam Kurtz. Kids joined the Bishop on the stage and shared some of what they had done during conference.

Imagine No Malaria – update: we have been extremely generous $13,000+ for this Annual Conference's offering. Our goal for the districts was $400,000 by conference. We raised $377,713.75.

The agreement was that if we didn't reach our goal, Schuyler Rhodes and Dave Samelson would shave their heads, and Debra Brady and Kristie Olah would receive pies in the face.

Report on Ballot #5:

Laity - 247 valid votes; 124 needed to elect. Randall Miller elected. Lay Delegation to General Conference completed.

[Break.]

Barbara Horokoshi-Firebaugh brought CORR's Diversity Monitoring report. She said that in this year's annual conference session she can see how this vision of diversity could be. She lifted up Latu Koloto, who is vice chair of CORR, and asked for prayers for her.

It is a lot harder to see what we look like in other people's eyes. Here's what CORR witnessed: reminded of why we had the Ethnic Ministries gathering, to bring racial ethnic communities to participate to a greater extent. Identify and clarify their issues. All people have so much to offer all of us. Take the time to listen. Bishop worked through the process to help with translation of voting directions.

Need for resources in various languages. Have we heard from those who are not native English speaking? Part of being inclusive is learning from each other. What are we missing because we are not listening to them? We have to take the time to listen to each other. When Bishop asked if more translation was needed, there was a loud no – the English speakers quieted the voices we needed to hear. This is like saying "Their voice doesn't count." Time trumped thinking of the needs of others. Where are our values? Is it in hearing from everyone or getting the work done quickly? We applaud our diversity but with it comes a responsibility to insure every voice is heard, every concern is acknowledged, and all treated as precious children of God.

Diversity of music – both people and content. Thank you. Being inclusive is more than singing/seeing diversity in front of us. We need to go deeper, though, to really welcome everyone. We are a dis-membered body. We need to re-member every one so that we can be the beloved community, the body of Christ. If one member suffers, all suffer; if one is honored, all are honored.

Bishop has given us so many teaching moments.

Fixing of appointments in El Camino Real, District Superintendent Stacie Current.

There was a motion to take Item #17 off the table. The amended version is now before us, which reads:

Be it resolved that the California Nevada Annual Conference supports efforts to separate local law enforcement practices from United States immigration issues, and urges all our congregations to advocate on behalf of immigrants in our communities.

Be it further resolved that the Conference supports the goals of campaigns that seek to disentangle local law enforcement agencies from the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) by NOT allowing:

1. ICE access to local jails if they lack a criminal warrant signed by a judge.
2. ICE access to local law enforcement databases.

3. Information sharing between local law enforcement and ICE, including any information related to an individual's release date from criminal custody or any personal information about an individual (e.g. home address, place of employment, or future court hearings).
4. ICE to question jail inmates about their immigration status.
5. Responses to ICE hold requests or ICE notification requests.
6. Transportation by local law enforcement of individuals to ICE.
7. Denial or increase of bail for noncitizen detainees.

The item passed 232 yes – 38 no.

Item 27 concerning amending Par.161.b of the Book of Discipline was amended in Section at line 38, delete "support" and replace with "obey". The Section recommended Item 27 with 66 yes and 12 no. The vote was called. Item 27 was approved with 239 yes – and 44 no.

The entire Item 18 was approved.

Michael Yoshi , with regard to Item 34 on consent calendar, requested that we suspend the rules in order for him to offer a friendly amendment on the item. The rules were suspended so that we could pull Item 34 off the Consent Calendar. It was moved that the Item be amended at line 46 to add Harry Reid and Dean Heller (Senators from Nevada). The amendment was supported. Item 34 as amended was approved.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
The California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
West Sacramento, California

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference"), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Conference's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1 of the notes to the financial statements, the Conference Board of Pensions is not included in this report. As such, we did not perform audit procedures on the books and records of the Conference Board of Pensions for purposes of this report. Our opinion on this report is not modified with respect to this emphasized matter.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information on pages 17 through 20 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Correction of Error

As restated to beginning net assets in Note 14 to the financial statements, certain errors resulting in understatement of amounts previously reported in land, property, and equipment, net as of December 31, 2013, were discovered by management of the Conference during the current year. Accordingly, amounts reported in land, property, and equipment, net have been restated in the 2013 financial statements now presented, and an adjustment has been made to unrestricted net assets as of December 31, 2013, to correct the error. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

THE CALIFORNIA-NEVADA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
(not including the Conference Board of Pensions)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2014 AND 2013

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (the "Conference") represents United Methodist congregations in Northern California and Nevada. The Conference includes numerous boards and agencies. Conferences are fundamental governing units of the United Methodist Church. One conference entity, the Conference Board of Pensions, is audited separately and is not included in this report.

Each conference functions within the parameters established by the Book of Discipline. The Book of Discipline is subject to changes every four years by action of the General Conference, a body representing all annual conferences.

The principal financial activities of the Conference are:

- Provide staff and infrastructure to assist the area bishop in supervising and deploying clergy
- Recruit, train and credential leaders for the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ
- Coach congregations on how to become a vital part of their communities
- Create new vital congregations in underserved areas
- Partner with churches and national church agencies in working with the poor and improving global health
- Promote diversity in all aspects and at all levels of its ministry
- Provide affordable property and liability insurance to churches

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation - The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Conference's net assets and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets are those which have no restrictions imposed by donor or by law.
- Temporarily restricted net assets include gifts, pledges, trusts, remainder interests, and income and gains which can be expended, but for which restrictions have not yet been met. Such restrictions include purpose restrictions where donors have specified the purpose for which the net assets are to be spent, or time restrictions imposed by donors or implied by the nature of the gift.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

- a) The Estelle Wyman Memorial Children's Fund was an estate gift received in 2006 and is restricted in purpose to educate, encourage, and challenge congregations to be in ministry with children locally and also to be engaged advocates for children in poverty around the world. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, this temporarily restricted balance was $461,384 and $450,349, respectively.
- b) The Gerald Green Fund was a gift received in 2011 and restricted in purpose to start new churches in the Nevada Sierra District of the Conference. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, this temporarily restricted balance was $249,574 and $245,442, respectively.
- Permanently restricted net assets include only the historical dollar amounts of gifts, including pledges, trusts, and remainder interests, which are required by donors to be permanently retained. Pledges, trusts, and remainder interests are reported at their estimated present values. The Conference has no permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Donor-restricted gifts which are received and either spent or deemed spent within the same year are reported as unrestricted revenues. Gifts of long-lived assets and gifts specified for the acquisition or construction of long-lived assets are reported as unrestricted net assets when the assets are placed in service.

Cash and cash equivalents - The Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments, purchased with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2014 and 2013 approximates fair value.

The Conference maintains its cash, cash equivalents and investments in bank deposit accounts and other investment accounts, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Conference has not experienced any losses in such accounts. As of December 31, 2014, the Conference has uninsured bank balances totaling $1,723,775.

Investments – Investments are carried at fair value. Unrealized and realized gains and losses are reported in the statement of activities.

The Conference participates in a pooled fund of investments held by the California-Nevada United Methodist Foundation (Foundation). The Foundation's pooled investments include money market funds, mutual funds, fixed income securities, and equity securities. The Conference's invested interest in the pooled fund is determined by investment agreement. For other investments for which there are no quoted prices, an estimate of fair value is made by management based on the fair value of investments with comparable risks and maturities.

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
(not including the Conference Board of Pensions)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Land, property and equipment – Land and property are reported at cost of acquisition plus improvements. Furniture and equipment are reported at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method based on the estimated useful lives of the respective assets (five to twenty-five years).

When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the costs and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss on disposal is included in the statement of activities.

Due to affiliated entities - Due to affiliated entities represents an allocation of apportionments and other funds collected by the Conference and are generally remitted to the affiliated entity in the subsequent year.

Apportionments – Until 2014, apportionments were determined by the Conference based on church expenditures. The churches were asked to remit, in full, the amount of apportionment budgeted by the Conference, and revenue was recognized by the Conference upon receipt. Beginning in 2014, churches were asked to tithe 10% of their operating income to the Conference rather than be assigned an apportionment amount by the Conference. Because of uncertainties as to collection, the Conference does not record as revenue church apportionments remaining unpaid at year-end other than those collected during early January of the subsequent year. As the apportionments rely substantially on donations, continued support of church apportionments is, in part, dependent upon the economic conditions surrounding the Northern California and Nevada regions.

Tax Status - The United Methodist Church, and accordingly, the Conference, qualifies for exemption from income taxes under provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and similar provisions of state income tax provisions. However, the Conference remains subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on and not in furtherance of the purpose for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded as the net income, if any, from any unrelated trade or business, in the opinion of management, is not material to the financial statements as a whole.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. INVESTMENTS

Investments at December 31 consist of:

	2014	2013
U.S. treasury notes	$ 4,749,541	$ 4,575,967
Corporate and municipal bonds	1,630,463	1,484,247
Investments with the Foundation	7,658,347	6,464,544
Total investments	$ 14,038,351	$ 12,524,758

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT AND DISCLOSURES

The Conference reports its investments at fair value as described in ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements, which established a single authoritative definition of fair value, sets out a framework of measuring fair value, and requires additional disclosure about fair value measurement of financial assets, such as investments.

This standard establishes a framework for measuring fair value for the investments held by the Conference. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology represent unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

THE CALIFORNIA-NEVADA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
(not including the Conference Board of Pensions)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT AND DISCLOSURES (CONTINUED)

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The investments in treasuries, corporate bonds, and the California-Nevada United Methodist Foundation (Foundation) are carried at fair value. The fair value is measured on a recurring basis during the year and is based on level two inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset. The investment in United Methodist Development Fund (UMDF) term note and other short term notes are carried at cost plus accumulated interest, which approximates at fair value. The fair value is measured on a nonrecurring basis during the year and is based on level two input or significant other observable inputs such as the term note being fully collectible. These methods may produce fair value calculations that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with similar investments the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Conference's investments at fair value as of December 31, 2014:

5. FUNDS HELD BY OTHERS

Funds held by others include the Conference's share of net assets of United Camps, Conferences and Retreats, Inc., a non-profit coalition of organizations formed to jointly manage the organizations' camp and retreat facilities. Ownership of the facilities remains with the member organizations, and the Conference's facilities are reported within property and equipment on the statement of financial position. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, this balance was $268,570 and $80,511, respectively.

Funds held by others also include remainder interests in irrevocable trusts held by the United Methodist Foundation. These interests were created in conjunction with the Conference's "Expanding Our Vision" capital campaign in the early 1990's. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, this balance was $51,581 in each year.

6. NOTES RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable at December 31, consist of:

	2014	2013
Church loans	$ 1,460,059	$ 1,511,434
Mortgage receivable	2,000,000	2,000,000
Cal Aggie House note receivable	37,000	38,000
Employee loans receivable	99,878	73,265
Subtotal	3,596,937	3,622,699
Allowance for uncollectable loans	(1,239,724)	(1,020,324)
Total notes receivable, net	$ 2,357,213	$ 2,602,375

Church loans are made from the Conference's Revolving Loan Fund. During 2012, the Conference's Council on Finance and Administration suspended making new loans and will consider a recommendation to the Annual Conference regarding the future use of the Revolving Loan Fund. The existing loans have as collateral first, second, third or fourth deeds of trust on certain real property and are, therefore, sometimes subordinated to certain other liabilities of the debtor. The values of the collateral may not be sufficient for full recovery of the loans should foreclosure take place. While the Conference anticipates these loans will be repaid, an allowance has been established to account for those loans which may be uncollectible. Repayment of these loans is, in part, dependent upon the economic conditions surrounding the Northern California-Nevada region. The Conference may adjust the interest rates ranging from 0.5% to 8.0% and repayment terms of its loans to avoid overburdening the churches.

6. NOTES RECEIVABLE (CONTINUED)

The mortgage receivable was created when the Conference sold the Central United Methodist Church building in San Francisco, which was held in trust with a book value of zero. The proceeds were in the amount of $110,000 in cash and a $2 million note receivable, which was secured by the property. The proceeds and interest are used for the Hispanic ministry activities. The note earns monthly interest at a rate of 4.5% per annum. Interest revenue is recognized when earned. The full amount of the principal is due October 17, 2015. In the event of default, the recovery of the remaining note balance will be obtained when the property is sold, subject to property value.

The Cal Aggie House note receivable was made to the Cal Aggie House campus ministry at the University of California, Davis, by the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry in 2007. It is a no interest loan with repayment beginning in 2012 of annual payments of $1,000 over 40 years.

Employee loans are made in accordance with the Conference standing rules. The Conference makes these loans from its Operating Fund at an interest rate of 5%. The loans mature between 2022 and 2028. The loans are secured by second mortgages on the employees' homes.

7. LAND, PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Major classifications of land, property and equipment, net at December 31 consist of:

8. DEFERRED REVENUE

During 2003, First St. John's United Methodist Church deeded its church building to the Conference. The building was recorded at its net book value. The congregation previously occupying this building subsequently merged with the Park Presidio United Methodist Church. The congregation instructed the Conference to sell the building and use the proceeds for ministry in San Francisco. In the years 2004 through 2006, the Conference received conditional deposits from the purchaser of the building totaling $1,144,957. The Conference received additional sums in 2010 and 2012 for $150,000 and $250,000, respectively. These deposits were reported on the statement of financial position. During 2014, the demolition permit was issued, and the sale of the property was complete. The Conference received cash of $1,248,947 at closing and also recognized $1,544,947 previously recorded on the statement of financial position as deferred revenue. As of December 31, 2014, the deferred revenue balance is registration fees collected for future church related events.

9. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Conference offers a pension/life insurance benefit, a health insurance benefit, and a long-term disability benefit to its employees. The General Board of Pensions in Evanston, Illinois administers the pension and life insurance plans for all employees. It also administers the disability benefit for clergy employees. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration administers the disability benefit for lay employees. All health plans are administered by the Conference Board of Pensions. Current pension cost and other post-retirement benefits costs, except as indicated in the following summaries of plan benefits, are funded from premiums assessed to the employer and/or the participant. The disclosure of funded status of pension and retiree health care plans as required by ASC Topic 715 and Topic 958 are not reported in these financial statements. They are reported on the financial statements of Conference Board of Pensions.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan - Conference lay employees are covered under the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP), an IRS section 403(b) defined contribution plan. Employees electing to participate in UMPIP may make monthly contributions through a payroll deduction. The Conference makes monthly contributions to UMPIP at the rate of 12% of compensation paid to participating employees. Participants are at all times fully vested in both participant and Conference contributions.

Clergy Retirement Security Plan - The Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) is a hybrid defined-contribution/defined-benefit plan covering clergy employees of the Conference. The Conference makes monthly contributions to CRSP including a defined contribution amount for each clergy employee, calculated at a fixed percentage of their compensation plus a flat defined benefit cost. Clergy are at all times fully vested in both personal and Conference contributions.

Comprehensive Protection Plan - The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death benefits, surviving spouse and child benefits, and a pension supplement for clergy and lay employees of the Conference. This plan also provides disability benefits for clergy employees.

Plan costs for UMPIP, CRSP and CPP are combined for billing purposes and are included in the accompanying statements of activities totaling $174,813 and $190,506 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

9. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS (CONTINUED)

Long-term disability for lay employees - Conference lay employees receive long-term disability benefits under a separate plan. Plan costs related to lay employees for disability benefits are included in the statement of activities of the Conference and total $7,468 and $7,969 in 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Retiree healthcare plans - Retiree health care plans are offered to retired clergy and lay employees of the Conference. Clergy and lay employees are eligible for these plans at normal retirement age if they meet the requirements set out in the Annual Conference's standing rules. These retiree health care premiums are subsidized by the Conference Board of Pensions, but no costs are allocated to the employing church entity.

10. UNIT INSURANCE LOSS FUNDS

The Unit Insurance Loss Fund is used to cover the self-insured portion of property claims related to an insurance policy available to member churches through the Conference. The maximum property claim payable from this fund for 2014 was $100,000 per occurrence and $250,000 for all churches combined for the year. During 2014, the Conference received $250,000 in premiums from churches and incurred property claims of $250,000. During 2013, the Conference received $250,000 in premiums and incurred property claims of $250,000. Unit insurance claims payable represents management's determination of the value of outstanding claims. For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, outstanding claims were $200,231 and $231,670, respectively.

The Conference also maintains a fund to help rebuild churches in the event of an earthquake. During 2014 and 2013, the Conference received $335,000 from churches for the earthquake fund. During 2014 earthquake damage was incurred by two churches. As of December 31, 2014, the Conference reserved $1,681,324 for payment of grants to these churches for earthquake repairs.

11. FUNDS HELD FOR OTHERS

The Conference acts as fiscal agent for various entities. These funds are disbursed in accordance with the entities' instructions. Funds held for others at December 31, 2014 and 2013 consisted of the following:

	2014	2013

12. NOTES PAYABLE

At December 31, notes payable consist of:

- A note payable to First Northern Bank for the mortgage on the episcopal residence. The note matures in September 2024, bears interest at 7.5% per annum, is collateralized by a 1st deed of trust and had an outstanding balance of $133,521 and $142,455 at December 31, 2014 and 2013 respectively.
- A note payable to the Shasta District Extension Society, a related party, which represents a borrowing to facilitate the purchase of the McKinleyville land. The terms of the note provide that repayment will be made upon the sale of the land in the event the congregation decides not to build on the land. The note is non-interest bearing and had an outstanding balance of $100,000 at December 31, 2014 and 2013.
- A note payable to the UMDF to facilitate the purchase of the McKinleyville land. The note matures in December 2016, bears interest at 7% per annum, is collateralized by a 1st deed of trust, and had an outstanding balance of $24,074 and $35,416 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Principal payments on the notes are scheduled as follows:

For the year ended December 31,
	2015	$ 22,020
	2016	22,447
	2017	11,414

	2019	13,255
	Thereafter	176,158
	Total	$ 257,595

13. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Conference is contingently liable as a guarantor for up to $2,492,636 and $2,528,215, respectively, of loans made by UMDF to several churches. The Conference is obligated to retain three months of loan payments on hand for all UMDF guaranteed notes. As the debtors rely substantially on donations, repayment of the loans is, in part, dependent upon the economic conditions surrounding the Northern California and Nevada regions. The total cash allocated for the three months of loan payments reserve total $52,839 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, which is included in the cash balance reported on the accompanying statements of financial position.

14. RESTATEMENT

United Methodist churches hold their real property in trust for the denomination. In the event a church is closed, ownership of the real property is sometimes transferred to the Annual Conference. The Conference records these assets upon transfer at the church's book value, similar to the treatment of a transfer of assets between a subsidiary and a parent company. Historically, properties that have been transferred to the Conference have been recorded at zero because the buildings are 80-100 years old and thus fully depreciated. During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Conference determined that the land portion of transferred properties is more properly recorded at the historical purchase price or county assessed value, depending on availability of records. As such, unrestricted net assets and land, property, and equipment, net as presented on the Statement of Financial Position as of December 31, 2013 and net assets, beginning of year as presented on the Statement of Activities for the year ended December 31, 2013 increased by $357,728.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Board of Pensions
California-Nevada Annual Conference
United Methodist Church

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of the Board of Pensions, California-Nevada Annual Conference United Methodist Church (a nonprofit organization) (the "Board"), which comprise the consolidated statements of net assets available for benefits – modified cash basis of as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related consolidated statements of changes in net assets available for benefits – modified cash basis for the years then ended, the consolidated statements of changes in unfunded pension benefits liability for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Board management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Board's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Board's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As explained in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, these consolidated financial statements and supplemental schedules were prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The effects on the consolidated financial statements and the supplemental schedules have not been determined.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status on the Board of Pensions, California-Nevada Annual Conference, United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in its financial status for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 3.

Report on Consolidated Supplemental Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic consolidated financial statements as a whole. The supplemental Consolidated Schedules of Net Assets Available for Benefits by Function – Modified Cash Basis and Consolidated Schedules of Deductions from Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis, together referred to as "supplemental information" are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of the Board's management and was derived from, and relates directly to, the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements, and certain additional procedures including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the basis for qualified opinion, such information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

BOARD OF PENSIONS
CALIFORNIA-NEVADA ANNUAL CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1: NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Board of Pensions (the "Board") is an agency of the California Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church (Annual Conference). The Annual Conference represents one of the basic units of the United Methodist Church, and the Conference Board of Pensions is a mandatory sub-entity of the basic unit.

The function of the Board is to administer the pension programs, health and dental benefit programs, disability and survivor benefit programs and related welfare programs offered to clergy and their families and lay employees of the United Methodist Church. The Board operates a residential rental facility, with any profits used to further the pension and benefit function. All activities of the Board are under the direction of the Annual Conference.

NOTE 2: DATE OF MANAGEMENT'S REVIEW

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Board has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through May 28, 2015, the date that the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 3: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESPrinciples of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Board and its wholly owned subsidiary, Wesley House, LLC. All material intercompany transactions have been eliminated.

Basis of Accounting

The consolidated financial statements of the Board are presented on a modified cash basis of accounting. This basis recognizes assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues, and expenses when they result from cash transactions with provisions for significant capital assets including the Wesley House building and its related mortgage debt and interest rate swap derivative asset or liability, as well as depreciation. Also recognized are the unfunded past service liability for the defined benefit pension plan, statutory liabilities such as income taxes payable and the related deferred tax assets and liabilities. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As a result of the use of this modified cash basis of accounting, certain assets and their related revenues (such as accounts receivable and revenue for billed or provided services not yet collected) and certain liabilities and their related expenses (such as accounts payable and expenses for goods or services received but not yet paid, and accrued expenses and liabilities) are not recorded in these consolidated financial statements.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2014 financial statement presentation to correspond to the current year's format. Net assets and changes in net assets are unchanged due to these reclassifications.

Investments

As required by the Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-for-Profit Organizations topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized.

Property and Equipment

The Board follows the practice of capitalizing expenditures in excess of $1,000 for property, equipment, furniture and software, stated at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated lives of the assets ranging from three to fifty years. The amount depreciated during each of the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 is $160,028 and $159,812, respectively.

Deferred Mortgage Costs

Deferred mortgage costs have been capitalized and are being amortized over the term of the mortgage using the straight-line method. The amount amortized during the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 is $10,676 and $10,676, respectively.

Derivative Instruments

As described in Note 10, on June 1, 2012, the Board entered into an interest rate swap agreement that effectively converted a portion of its floating rate debt to a fixed-rate basis for the term of the swap agreement, thus reducing the impact of interest rate changes on future interest expense. The interest rate swap agreement has been accounted for as a cash-flow hedge. The fair value of the interest rate swap is accounted for as an asset or liability and the respective unrealized gain or loss is included in the accompanying consolidated statements of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Board considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Income Taxes

As further described in Note 14, the Board accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future income tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective income tax bases. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred income tax assets and liabilities of a change in rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is provided to reduce deferred income tax assets to the amount expected to be realized when appropriate.

Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of additions and deductions from net assets during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

NOTE 4: DESCRIPTION OF PENSION PLANS

The Board administers for the Annual Conference various retirement programs offered by the United Methodist Church including Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP).

CRSP is an amendment and restatement of the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), effective January 1, 2007.

CRSP includes a defined benefit plan covering clergy rendering service prior to 1982, referred to as the Pre-82 Plan. The Pre-82 Plan is frozen as to further service. The past service benefits due to or with respect to participants who were members of the Annual Conference are funded by the Board. The Board makes annual past service contributions to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of the United Methodist Church (General Board), the general agency which supervises the actuarial and fiduciary administration of the pension funds for all of the annual conferences, in accordance with the schedule for such contributions determined by the General Board on the basis of periodic actuarial valuations.

CRSP also includes an active defined benefit plan and an active defined contribution plan, which are funded by local churches on behalf of their participants. The Board makes annual defined benefit plan contributions to the General Board in amounts that are determined actuarially. The Board makes apportioned contributions to the General Board for the defined contribution plan.

NOTE 6: FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Fair Value Measurements Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Board has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2 inputs are inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

All of the Board's investments are classified under Level 1 or 2. The fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2013 and 2014 are as follows:

December 31, 2014	Fair Value	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3

NOTE 7: PRE-82 PLAN UNFUNDED PENSION BENEFITS LIABILITY

The General Board, as described in Note 4, calculates the amount of the expected Pre-82 Plan unfunded pension benefits liability in the fall of each year. The amount is calculated assuming a percentage increase of the Past Service Rate (PSR) of 2% of the prior PSR or, a PSR that is equivalent to 0.8% of the average compensation. That percentage of increase and the amount of the PSR are generally finalized subsequent to the date of the consolidated financial statements.

As of December 31, 2013, the Board reports the Pre-82 Plan unfunded pension benefits liability using the General Board's preliminary valuation dated January 1, 2013, prepared September, 2013, assuming a preliminary valuation of the PSR of $845. This was prepared before the final valuation for January 1, 2013 which adjusted the PSR to $836.

As of December 31, 2014, the Board reported the Pre-82 Plan unfunded pension benefits liability using the General Board's preliminary valuation dated January 1, 2014, prepared in September, 2014, which assumes a preliminary valuation PSR of $836. If the actual rate increases more than 2%, then the liability will be higher than the amount shown on these consolidated financial statements. If the actual rate remains unchanged, then the expected liability may be reduced.

The Pre-82 Plan assets with a fair value of $28,053,254 and $28,241,395 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, are held by the General Board. The Board relies primarily on actuarial information provided by the General Board in determining the reported benefit obligation and changes therein.

NOTE 8: RETIREE HEALTH CARE PROGRAM

The Health Care Program for Eligible Retirees, Dependents and Survivors of the Annual Conference (the Program) provides postretirement health benefits to clergy who make the required election upon retirement. In addition, the Program provides health benefits to surviving spouses and dependents for those employees or retirees who die while covered under the plan. The postretirement health benefits are available to all employees and surviving spouses and dependents, but only certain of these individuals, who have earned at least ten years of service with the Annual Conference and are receiving a pension from an Annual Conference retirement plan, are eligible to receive a subsidy from the Annual Conference towards their postretirement health care premium.

Beginning January 1, 2012, according to the Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, the Plan subsidy is based on available funds administered by the Board of Pensions. Participants receive, based on their years of service, a percentage of a total available premium. The available premium subsidy is not to be greater than the annual gift from the Conference Claretians' Endowment Board, totaling $1,600,000 for 2014 and $1,600,000 for 2013.

NOTE 9: MORTGAGE PAYABLE

The Board is indebted for a mortgage of $4,992,089 to Bank of the West which is secured by the residential rental building. The monthly mortgage payment consists of principal and interest. Interest is calculated at LIBOR plus 2.030%. The mortgage becomes due and payable on June 1, 2022.

The Board entered into an interest rate swap contract that effectively converts the interest rate on the note from LIBOR plus 2.030% to a fixed rate of 4.28%. The notional amount under the swap decreases as principle payments are made on the note so that the notional amount equals the principal outstanding under the note. The swap is designed to hedge the risk of changes in interest payments on the note and thereby affect cash flow.

The aggregate amount of required principal payments at December 31, 2014 is as follows:

2016	94,187
2017	99,098
2018	103,925
2019	108,691
Thereafter	4,496,375
Total	$ 4,992,089

NOTE 10: INTEREST RATE SWAP AGREEMENT

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the Board to recognize all derivatives on the consolidated statements of net assets available for benefits at fair value. As described in Note 3, the Board entered into an interest rate swap agreement, as described in Note 9, to eliminate their exposure to variability in interest payments on their mortgage payable. The swap agreement is a fixed for variable interest rate swap, which effectively allows the Board to make fixed payments on their variable interest rate mortgage. Depending on what the variable rate is, there will be either an asset or a liability created by the swap agreement. As of December 31, 2014 there is a related non-cash liability of $45,780, and as of December 31, 2013 there is a related non-cash asset of $217,532. The respective unrealized gain or loss is recorded in the consolidated statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. The cash flow effect of the swap arrangement is reported as an adjustment to interest expense for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 in the amounts of $95,629 and $95,391 respectively.

NOTE 11: LEASE OBLIGATIONS

The Board is currently leasing the office space for administrative services under an operating lease which converted to a "month to month" arrangement in June, 2013. There are no future minimum rental payments required under the lease at December 31, 2014.

Rent expense for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013 is $19,500 and $18,000, respectively.

Credit Risk

The Board maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which, at times, may exceed insurance limits. The Board's combined accounts in each bank are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. As of December 31, 2014, there are uninsured deposits in two banks, totaling $497,672. As of December 31, 2013, there were uninsured deposits in two banks, totaling $449,167. Management has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Board believes that it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash balances.

Market Value Risk

The Board maintains cash and invests funds in various types of marketable securities. Such investments are exposed to various risks, such as fluctuations in market value and credit risk. Thus, it is reasonably possible that changes in these risks, such as turmoil in the world financial markets, could materially affect investment balances and the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 13: METHVIN MEMORIAL FUND

Net assets at December 31, 2014 and 2013 include a permanently restricted endowment fund in the amount of $67,412, established in 1984. The earnings from this endowment fund may be used to help provide pensions for retired pastors who have rendered service in the Conference and are considered temporarily restricted until released for use in accordance with the donor's restrictions. The earnings of $5,644 and $4,103 for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, have been retained with the original gift to generate investment balances of $116,430 and $110,786 as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. These balances are included in these consolidated financial statements with Investments, as a portion of Demand Notes which are invested with the Conference Claimants' Endowment Board, a related entity.

Interpretation of Relevant Law – The Board interpreted the State Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (SPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Board classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Board in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by SPMIFA. In accordance with SPMIFA, the Board considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) The purposes of the Board and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- (5) The long-term expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of the Board
- (7) The investment policies of the Board

Funds with Deficiencies – From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or SPMIFA requires the Board to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. No such deficiencies existed during the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters – The Board has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Board must hold in perpetuity.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Board relies on investments with the Claimants' Endowment Board.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relates to Spending Policy – The Board has a policy of appropriating for distribution the amount deemed allowable by the donor after determining the actual amount earned.

NOTE 14. INCOME TAXES

As an agency of the Annual Conference, the Board is generally exempt from income tax under the United Methodist Church's group ruling. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Board tax exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. As such, income from Wesley House, LLC passes through to a related entity, The Wesley Foundation at the University of California, Berkeley, CA, Inc., which files not-for-profit income tax returns in the U.S. Federal and California jurisdictions. Both Wesley House, LLC and the Wesley Foundation have been suspended by the California Secretary of State, but the Board's attorneys expect reinstatement during 2015.

The details of the Board's income tax provision (benefit) for Wesley House, LLC are set forth below:

Current:
Federal		$ 19,486
State		7,963
Deferred:

NOTE 14: INCOME TAXES

The details of deferred tax assets (liabilities) are set forth below

	Federal	State	Total
Deferred tax assets:
Loan costs	$ 6,251	$ 1,625	$ 7,876
Interest rate swap	15,565	4,047	19,612

Deferred tax liabilities:

Property and equipment	(39,413)	(10,247)	(49,661)
	(52,172)	(14,344)	(69,516)
Net deferred tax liabilities	$ (33,356)	$ (8,672)	$ (42,028)

The Board's federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2012 through 2013 are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service and state income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2012 through 2013 are subject to audit by the applicable taxing authorities.

Income tax provision differs from the expense that would result from applying federal statutory rates to income before income taxes because deferred income taxes are based on estimated tax rates. Additionally, refunds are included for which there was no previous provision made.

The Board has adopted FASB ASC 740-10-25, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The Board will record a liability for uncertain tax positions when it is more likely than not that a tax position would not be sustained if examined by the taxing authority. The Board continually evaluates expiring statutes of limitations, audits, proposed settlements, changes in tax law and new authoritative rulings.

CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

ANOTHER YEAR PASSES

It remains a pleasure and a privilege for me to work with pastors, church secretaries, membership secretaries, treasurers and others in local churches to gather the statistical reports and verify their accuracy and comparability. Thank you for your assistance!

Once again this year, we requested that churches enter their statistics online through the GCFA Ezra system. Our difficulties in getting instructions reliably to some churches continued, regrettably, and resulted in late entry of some statistics. I want to thank all those churches who got their statistics in on time (or even early!). It really helps! We continue to improve this process and are grateful for all the feedback received.

In this report, I will present a summary of the 2014 statistics, and then focus on trends in two particular areas over the past few years

SUMMARY

At the time of writing this report, we are still missing information from 21 of our churches and fellowships, a slight improvement on last year. I continue to hope that we can improve on this figure – this year we have had some churches reporting for the first time. Thank you! On the other hand, however, a few churches which had reported in the past did not do so this year.

On the positive side, first, we added 1,901 members during the year – 1,409 on profession or reaffirmation of faith, 171 on net transfer from other UM churches and 271 on net transfer from non-UM churches. This is more than last year and almost double the number of those who are recorded as having passed away during the year (1,024). Clearly there is growth!

Overall, though, our conference membership fell by 600 to 74,228 – a smaller fall than any year since 2000. 375 people voluntarily withdrew their membership and 970 were removed from the membership rolls of 76 churches through church conference action. Finally, 87 churches carried out some form of audit of their membership records this year, resulting in a net reduction of 132 members.

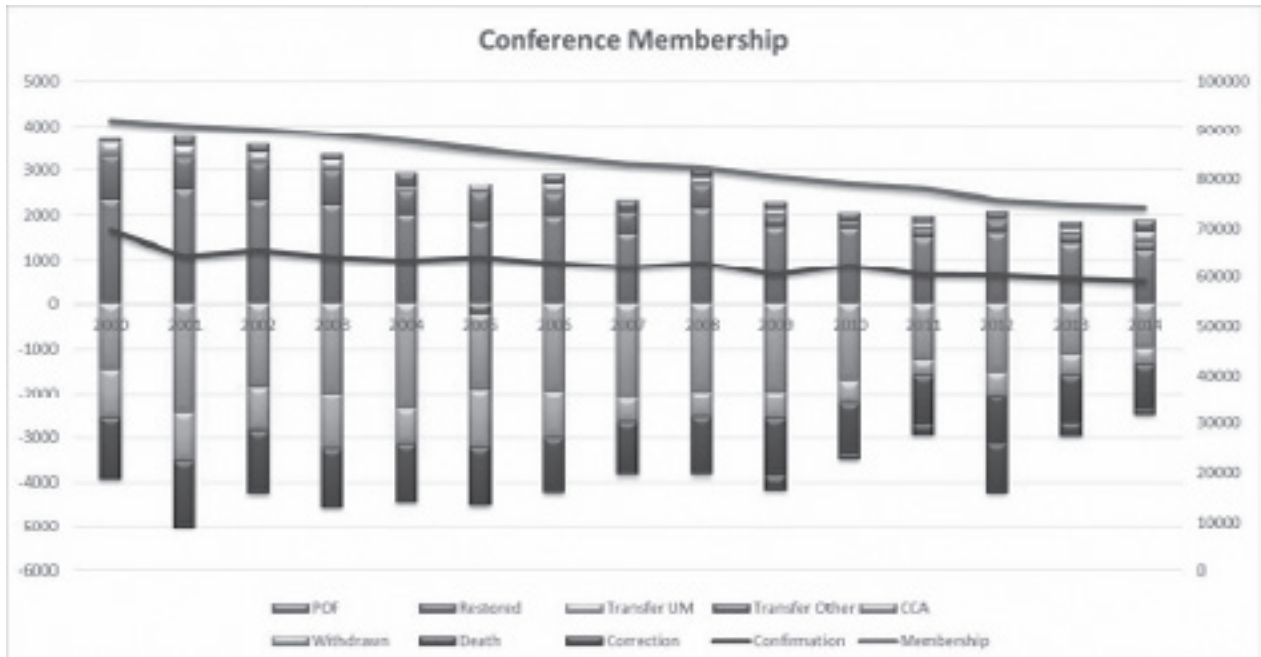

Worship attendance for 2014 as reported stands at 31,099, down a little from 31,573 in 2013.¹

COMINGS AND GOINGS

Over the last couple of years, I have looked at two particular areas where we seek to “Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World” – Christian Formation groups, and Baptism and Confirmation. This year, I intend to take a broader look at trends in church membership in recent years – you may wish to refer back to the previous reports for some related information and caveats.

1 The eagle-eyed may note some changes in figures for last year. This is a result of information received after last year's report was prepared.

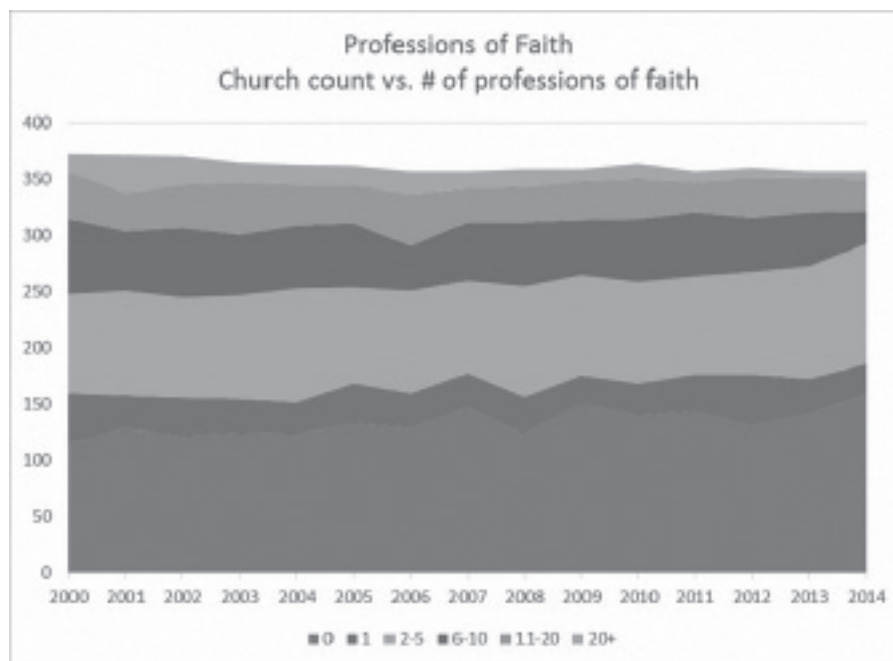

The following chart shows increases and decreases of membership across the various categories that we track:

While the top line metric (membership) continues downward on a moderately straight line, it is worth considering the trends on the individual components.

- Membership transfers continue to be a positive contribution to our membership. In only one of the last 15 years have these been negative.
- Removals by church conference action in 2015 were the lowest in 15 years
- Likewise, withdrawals in 2015 were lower than all but one of the last 15 years
- Losses to death in 2015 were 30% lower than in 2000, continuing a trend.
- Corrections through membership audits were less than in previous years.

Why, then, does our membership continue to fall? The number of those being added to our rolls on profession or reaffirmation of faith has fallen very significantly – down from 3,332 in 2000 to 1,409 in 2015. We are making far fewer new disciples than in the past by this measure.

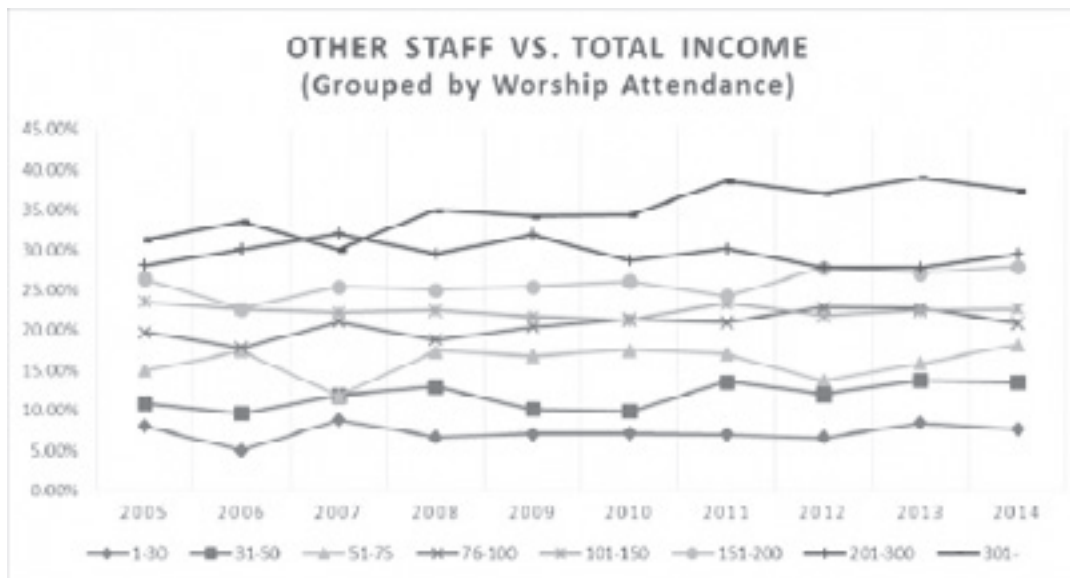

How is this reflected across the conference? The chart on the previous page shows the churches stacked by the numbers of professions of faith over the past 15 years. The striking parts of this for me are:

- The number of churches reporting 0 or 1 professions of faith has grown from 150 to 186. Indeed, in 2014, 160 churches (45%) reported no professions of faith – up from 31% in 2000.
- The number of churches reporting more than 20 professions of faith has fallen from 17 in 2000 to 8 in 2014.

Questions for discussion: where does your church fit in this picture? What is your trend? [Hint: you can find this information in the Charts section of Ezra – or ask your statistician!] Have there been significant changes in the demographics of the population around your church that could affect this? What could you do about that?

HOW DOES THE CHURCH RUN?

In addition to much valuable information about membership and participation, our annual statistical return also collects financial information about churches. Some of this has only been available since 2005 so the trends will be shorter. This year, I want to look at one area – staffing.

The chart above shows the average proportion of total church operational income used to fund staff other than appointed clergy, grouped by worship attendance (an arguably better measure of the financial strength of a church than membership).

It would be entirely expected that larger churches spend more on staff than smaller churches – but this chart shows that they use a greater percentage of income also – reaching almost 40% of income for our largest churches. Of more interest is that, over the past 10 years, in most groups, the percentage spent on staff has increased.

It is worth noting that this reflects only the cost of staff employed by local churches. Many churches, large and small, also use contract labor to perform certain tasks – janitorial, landscaping, etc. The amounts in this area are most likely considered to be regular operating expenses and are not reported separately. Total operating expenses for all churches have increased over 50% in the same period.

Worship	Staff	%Income	# Worship	Staff	%Income
1-30	$3,653	7.6%	101-150	$57,736	22.6%
31-50	$12,696	13.5%	151-200	$107,165	27.9%
51-75	$25,169	18.1%	201-300	$145,403	29.5%
76-100	$37,557	20.9%	301-	$361,800	37.4%

Question for discussion: How does your church stack up in the appropriate group? Are you over or under the average? [Hint: all the information is in your statistical report ... or ask your statistician!]

MISSIONINSITE

Don't forget that the Annual Conference has a subscription to the "MissionInsite" demographics tool. That means that it is available to all churches without charge! It's free and makes it very straightforward to generate a report of your local area by radius, zip code or some other area that you draw yourself! Check it out – you might be surprised what you find.

IN CONCLUSION

I look forward to continuing to work with our local churches in the next few years. We have a long stream of statistical data stretching back many years. My hope is that, as your statistician, I can help churches to make use of this data. You may have questions about changes in your local church statistics, or about comparisons with similar-sized churches across the conference, or you might just be curious about some other trend which you have observed. I would welcome your calls or emails to discuss these topics further.

Finally, my thanks to Clare Powell and Diane Knudsen in the conference office for their assistance in gathering the statistics, to Cindy Buna and Jasmine Johnson for their persistence in encouraging churches to submit their statistics and to Bishop Brown and the Cabinet for their invaluable insights and advice throughout the year.

The detailed statistical tables can be found elsewhere in the Conference Journal and on the conference web site.

Don't forget, you can always find resources to help with your statistical analysis on the conference web site:

I look forward to seeing many of you at the upcoming Annual Conference Session.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT AREAYOUNG PEOPLE'S AND CAMPING MINISTRY*Young People's Ministry

Last July was the Global Convocation of Young People in the Philippines; Cal-Nevada supported 5 young people to represent the Western Jurisdiction at the gathering. Despite the typhoon, important legislature was put forth to submit to General Conference.

We are supporting young people's spiritual development towards discipleship through our Bishop's Confirmation Retreat with over 100 participants, our Youth Worker's Retreat, and our FX Event, which will explore the topic of Faith this September.

Young Adult ministries were supported through grants to individuals or ministry programs: Exploration, Next, and Winter Retreats.

We have had a full youth delegation for the last four years and the young adult delegation continues to grow. YPM helps subsidize the cost of the delegation and their activities during ACS.

Camping and Retreat Ministry

Last summer was our first year in many that we were able to divide our camp weeks at Monte Toyon. Enrollments at both Toyon Kid's Camp and Camp Quest have increased over the years to be able to meet enrollment minimums on their own.

Camp Lodestar's enrollment also keeps increasing and have expanded their user groups into new and different uses for the facility and programming.

Our summer program served over 300 children, youth and young adults. We continue to offer the tiered pricing program which is supported through Camping and Retreat funding.

The Waller Center continues to develop in both renovations and user groups. We have hosted youth groups for retreats, college groups for alternative spring breaks, The San Francisco historical society's dinner, GLIDE Foundation volunteer training event, WJ Hispanic ministries gathering, WJ YPM delegates gathering, UMW, VIM and used as a filming location. Hundreds of volunteer hours continue work on the vision and plan for the facility. This summer we have a Senior High Leadership Camp that will be in partnership with GLIDE Foundations.

II. Congregational Vitality

Provided support to the efforts of local churches towards their desire of becoming healthy and vital congregations by offering the following resources and services:

1. Readiness 360: Leadership Development and Congregational Vitality Process. This program exists to assist high potential churches to increase their capacity and multiply their impact as they seek to create new places for new people and to increase the church leadership team capacity to attain sustainable growth and vitality.
Results: Fifteen (15) churches participated.
2. Vital Shift: Congregational Vitality Consultation Process. This resource is designed to help established local churches, fellowships and mission congregations to develop or improve a clear, simple vision and strategy for disciple-making, congregational vitality and leadership development that is responsive to its unique mission context.
Results: Four (4) churches participated: Fresno Christian Fellowship, Cambodian Bayside Fellowship, Calvary UMC and Heavenly Grace Congregation.
3. Local Churches Vital Signs Weekly Report. Managing weekly collection of data from churches, updating Vital Signs database and producing monthly and yearly executive summary report.
Results: The monthly executive summary report provides valuable data that helps local, district, and circuit and conference leadership to do strategic thinking and tactical planning and implementation of the Conference-wide Strategy for Renewal, Revival and Reach.
4. Vital Signs and Wonders. The goal of this online resource is to offer a forum for church leaders and members of new and vital churches to connect with one another and to encourage them to share stories, insights and information that serve to advance our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Number on agency: 9 Number voted: 6

Number voting for: 6 Number voting against: 0 Number abstaining: 0 Number absent: 3

Adopted: 4/22/15 Number of meetings: 16 (sixteen)

The year began with a multitude of challenges, which we chose to see as Blessings, as we know that the Apostles themselves were faced with unbelievable challenges on their journey.

At the 2014 Annual Conference Session, CONAM's presentation of the need for a formal Act of Repentance was well received, and was followed by a powerful and inspirational call by Bishop Warner Brown to both a process of discovery of our Native American neighbors and their history, and to a process of embracing the Grace evident in their rich histories, as well as acknowledgment of the traumas of the past. Bishop Warner also suggested that local churches might investigate the original ownership of their properties, as it is known that some were simply claimed without recompense from Native people.

Following the resignation of Pastor Jim Euler from service at Schurz UMC, on September 1, 2014, CONAM, working with the District Superintendent, began to earnestly seek renewed dialogue with the community in order to learn how to best support the ministry there. CONAM also seeks to support Klamath UMC, which continues to face real challenges. Round Valley UMC, the Annual Conference's oldest Native American ministry, continues to serve that community with God's Grace and the able leadership of the Rev. Roy Pina (Nomlacki).

On October 22, 2014, the Conference CONAM participated in a Holy Conferencing meeting with the Bishop and the Cabinet in Sacramento. We felt that this Holy Conference "had a beautiful outcome" and was "great groundwork" for discussing the needs of our Native American churches. However, our assessment of the uncertainties at both Klamath UMC and Schurz UMC, and of the overall needs for better mutual understanding and dialogue with all three Native Churches, including Round Valley UMC, led us to decide to recommend that the Annual Conference set the 2016 session as the new goal for a formal Service of Repentance regarding the harm experienced by Native peoples in our Annual Conference area.

Regarding all three churches, however, CONAM sees needs for renewed dialogue with the Annual Conference and continued discernment of the best ministry partnerships, as well as real opportunities for the movement of the Holy Spirit across the various cultural boundaries.

Continuing Goals:

- Establishing stronger connections with our three Native churches to discern the best partnerships for ministry
- Reaching out to Local Congregations
- Connecting with CONAM congregational Liaisons
- Supporting connections between local churches and Native leaders
- Supporting local churches desiring to visit one of the three Native American churches
- Continued dialogue and Holy Conferencing with the Bishop and Cabinet

Signed,
 Derrick Rainbow (Quechan), Chair

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY (CCECM)

 Date adopted: 04/24/14 Number of meetings held: 4*

Within the Congregational Development House, CCECM assists the Annual Conference in working with Higher Education and Campus Ministries. The main goals are developing student leadership, supporting campus ministries, and creating opportunities for new ministries. Critical themes were reaching students beyond our traditional local church ministries, engaging local churches in ministry to students, and creating sustainable ministries. We assisted in scholarship awards for the General Board of Higher Education Ministries and a local Colin Knoch Memorial Scholarship for Falls River Jr/Sr High School.

In 2015, grants totaling $119,000 are being distributed to eight Campus ministries: Cal Aggie Christian Association House at UC Davis; Wesley Foundation at UC Merced and Merced College; The Ecumenical House at CA State University, San Francisco; San Jose State United Methodist Campus Ministry; United Campus Christian Ministry at Stanford University; United Campus Christian Ministry at UC Santa Cruz; The Table in Sacramento; and University of the Pacific. $1,000 is allocated to training and resources.

Two campus ministries did not continue their grant relationship: “12 Stones” at Arcata UMC (CSU, Humboldt) which is undergoing local pastor transition and Lighthouse Campus Ministry (Berkeley Korean UMC) which graduated its college students and is in discernment.

We welcomed two new campus ministries: The Table, which is reaching out to students at community colleges, a new direction for the Conference which previously focused on universities, and the University of the Pacific which is creating community around the UMC Bishop’s scholarship awardees with hopes for a longer-term ministry.

UC Davis/CA House provides an intentional living community and an inclusive, progressive campus ministry serving college and graduate students of all faiths. Rev. Timothy Leighton began as the new campus pastor. The ministry drew as many as 20 students for worship, over 35 for Small Groups, and up to 15 for missions/service opportunities. They outreached and witnessed to hundreds of students on campus.

Wesley Merced/Wesley House provides an intentional living community, dedicated to modeling and mentoring Christian spiritual formation and wholesome living in today’s society. A notable theme for this year was offering a safe space for all. Pastor Jamie Michaels is an instrumental leader in this ministry, but departs as campus pastor at the end of this academic year.

The Ecumenical House provides intentional Christian student housing. Chaplain Sandra V. Sanders-West began as their new campus pastor. They continue a dinner and devotions program and offer community service and social justice advocacy opportunities.

The San Jose State Campus Ministry made in-roads with the University through class partnerships on social justice; the Community with opportunities for healing to victims of violence near the university; and the City with initiatives addressing poverty and homelessness. Some students are attending worship and Small Groups.

Stanford UCCM/PC@S holds a regular Bread & Belonging ministry with discussion, Bible study and worship, and held a surf retreat. Campus pastor, Rev. Geoff Browning, co-taught for the sixth year a class called, Issues in Liberation. Eleven students travelled to Nicaragua to learn more about the changes taking place in Nicaragua and Central America.

COMPASSION AND JUSTICE AREA

ADVOCACY & JUSTICE COMMITTEE Michael Yoshii, Chair

Number of members: 12 Number of meetings: Five (5)

The Advocacy & Justice Committee continued to meet regularly during 2014 with five committee meetings held during the year. The committee provides coordination and oversight for three task forces for the conference. These include:

- Israel-Palestine Task Force-- Yvonne Turner, Chair
- Philippine Solidarity Task Force – Jeanelle Ablola & Kira Azzam, Co-Chairs
- Immigration Task Force—Linda Kuruhara, Chair

The committee also provides coordination and oversight for two sources of funding which support advocacy and justice ministries:

- Peace With Justice Grants –Mary Liebke, Chair
- Ecumenical Grants – Jim Cramer, Chair

At Annual Conference 2014, the committee co-sponsored a dinner with MFSA with guest speaker, Liberato Bautista, Assistant General Secretary of the United Nations Ministry of the General Board of Church and Society.

In 2014, the committee also launched a “listening post” process. Surveys were distributed to lay members at Annual Conference to gather information on advocacy and justice activities taking place in local churches and communities. The process is intended to identify issues that are being addressed in the grass roots level of the church and to help facilitate communication on issues and support local church activities. Follow up to this information gathering will take place at Annual Conference 2015.

CONFERENCE MISSION SERVICE COMMITTEE

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries Report

In 2014, seven Global Ministries missionaries from the annual conference and one young adult Global Mission Fellow were in active missionary service. During the year, Rev. Joseph Chan retired from his service in Cambodia; Carol Partridge retired from her service in Macedonia; and Rev. John Fujimori retired from his service in Japan. The four others continuing in career missionary service were Marilyn Chan (Cambodia), Claudia Genung (Japan), George Martzen (Singapore), and Katherine Parker (Nepal). In addition to these eight, and in the spirit of missionary service being “From Everywhere to Everywhere,” 20 other Global Ministries missionaries also received conference support through The Advance: Alex Awad, Betty Tshala, David Johnson, Deborah Dornan, Lester Dornan, Elizabeth Soard, Eric Soard, Gwendolyn Gibson, Janet Lahr Lewis, Jerusha Neal, Kennedy Cruz, Lawrence Kies, Jane Kies, Miguel Mareina, Nan McCurdy, Paul Jeffrey, Paul Webster, Romeo del Rosario, Sun Lee Kim, and William Gibson. During the year, missionaries Nan McCurdy and Miguel Mareina succeeded Rev. James Dwyer as the Mission Advocates for the Western Jurisdiction. For 2014, the total conference missionary support was $110,500.

During the year, six missionaries on itineration visited churches in the annual conference: Kennedy Cruz, Claudia Genung, Ardell and Gordon Graner, Kenneth Koome Nkando, and Carol Partridge.

In 2014, 36 conference churches provided significant missionary financial support: Alameda Buena Vista, Alamo San Ramon Valley, Atwater, Bakersfield Wesley, Berkeley, Campbell, Carson City First, Chico Trinity, Citrus Heights, Colfax, Davis, Elk Grove, Grass Valley, Healdsburg Community, Kings Beach, Los Altos, Mill Valley Mt. Tamalpais, Montague, Nevada City, Novato UMW, Orland Federated, Palo Alto First, Placerville El Dorado County Federated, Pleasanton Lynnewood, Porterville First, Porterville Grand Avenue, Richmond First, San Francisco Glide, San Jose Almaden Hills, San Jose Wesley, San Rafael Aldersgate, Santa Rosa First, Stockton Central, Sunnyvale First, Walnut Creek East Bay Formosan, and Woodland.

Also during 2014, the Conference Mission Service Committee continued its collaborations with United Methodist Women, with the conference Imagine No Malaria campaign and its ambitious goal of raising $2 million and saving 200,000 lives, with the Circles program of the Children and Poverty Committee, with efforts to support mission work in Fiji, with the West Angola Partnership Committee and its efforts to develop a health clinic in Bom Jesus, with conference disaster response efforts, with the Sierra Service Project, and with the conference UMWIM program.

The Mission Service Committee has 11 voting members. The Committee held one in-person meeting in 2014 on September 27. This report was adopted through email voting on April 14-15, 2015, with 9 in favor; 0 opposed; and 2 not voting.

Respectfully, Howard Parker, Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

The June 2013 Annual Conference offering of the California-Nevada UMC, the Bridge of Love, was intended to rehabilitate and support a clinic at Bom Jesus, Angola, for the treatment and prevention of malaria. UMCOR also provided $60,000 for physical rehabilitation of the original 1970 building during April-December 2014. The 2013 offering raised $68,126.47, of which $33,100 was transferred to the West Angola Annual Conference on April 29, 2015, through The Advance (number 3022082). The remaining $35,000 is to be transferred in two stages over the next 18 months as the clinic transitions to become self-sustaining under the agreed strategic plan.

West Angola conference Development Program coordinator João da Graça visited California in September 2013. Committee members Joel Bulaya, José Fernandes, and Donna Van Maanen visited Angola during October 15 - 28, 2014, to deepen personal relations between the two conferences, observe progress on the clinic since an earlier visit, and develop a shared plan with WAAC for next steps. Planned trips to Angola in October 2013 and August 2014 were cancelled because of visa difficulties and illness.

During the coming year, the clinic will begin operations and demonstrate effective decreases in malaria incidence. João da Graça and three others are to visit California - Nevada in October 2015 to extend personal relationships, learn about agricultural extension programs, and meet farmers supporting families on small farms. From the beginning of the Angola Partnership in 2001, we have engaged with the West Angola conference's demonstration farms. The opportunities for Angolan agriculture are promising, because many families own small plots and "Health and land go hand in hand."

The committee tentatively plans two Volunteer in Mission trips with emphases on health care delivery and small-plot demonstration agriculture. Their scope and schedule will develop during October when our Angolan friends visit us.

Report of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race

Number on agency: 16, Number of Meetings: 6

What a blessed year the Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CORR) had in 2014. Much of our time was spent in planning with the Committee on Ethnic Ministry and Outreach (CEMO), our co-sponsored event, "Gathering of Ethnic Ministries: Conversations for Inclusion and Empowerment" on May 3, 2014. This event fulfills, in part, a Recommendation stated in the General Commission on Religion and Race's Official Report of the Review of the California-Nevada Annual Conference held on January 28-30, 2010: "Involve racial/ethnic communities to a greater extent in identifying and clarifying their issues and visions for sacred, transformational communities." Forty-two persons, representing 22 racial/ethnic ministry groups were present to provide information and their concerns. The following questions were asked:

- What contributions or gifts can you offer the Conference in making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?
- What are the three most significant challenges you face in your ethnic ministry? How can the Conference assist you better in response to your challenges?
- What changes are needed so that you and your viewpoints are effectively included in the life of the Conference?
- What leadership skills are needed for your fruitful ministry?

After the Gathering, the results were compiled and presented to Bishop Warner Brown, Jr., his Cabinet, the Core Team, and members of CORR and CEMO. The three major areas that needed attention were: Appointment of Ethnic Pastors, Shared Facilities, and Leadership Development.

In 2014 CORR met six times: January 31st, March 7th, May 16th, July 11th, August 29th, and October 10th. We additionally met with CEMO on January 17th, February 14th, and March 14th in planning our Gathering event. The Commission awarded a total of $4,200 in grants to: I-Relate ($1,200), Falehufanga UMC ($1,000), Smith River UMC, Hmong Ministry ($500), First UMC of Hayward Youth Program ($1,000); and Burlingame UMC, Samoan Ministry ($500).

We continue to plan and discern next steps; ensuring that the Conference Leadership is on board with our work towards creating the Beloved Community in our Conference, where all voices are heard and all persons are accepted, as we make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Embracing the General Commission on Religion and Race's Ministry Model, consisting of Institutional Equity, Vital Conversations, and Intercultural Competency, CORR will continue to work on developing programs and building bridges, which will aid in the full inclusion of all peoples in ministry in our Conference. We look forward to God's leading as we step out on this path.

Conference Commission of Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns

Votes for 5 April 8, 2015

Hubert Ivery, Chair

The Commission sponsored a representative to the National Workshop on Christian Unity. Our representative participated in conversations and actions related to development UMEIT, a program in connection with the Office of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relations.

The Commission planned an Annual Conference luncheon event on the topic of Christian converting to Moslem. The purpose was to provide an opportunity for discussion of this phenomenon with the hope that it would also help us reflect more deeply on our own tradition.

Individual members continue to be involved in various interfaith groups in Sacramento and San Francisco Bay Area.

The Commission coordinated a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity event in cooperation with Ecumenical Officers of the San Francisco Bay Area. The event was held at the St. Mark's United Methodist Church. The goal was to invite representatives from other faith traditions to celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. birthday by focusing on "Community, Culture, and Vision."

An amendment was adopted and sent to the Annual Conference to change the name of the commission from the Conference Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns to Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relations.

Study Committee for an Inclusive Conference

Number Appointed To The Committee: 16

Number Who Approved This Report: 15 Yes, 0 No

8/5/14, 11/19/14, 1/22/15, 3/18/15, 5/13/15

Plus Facilitator Training On 9/12/14 And 10/21/15

The Study Committee for an Inclusive Conference was established by the 2012 Annual Conference Session to "evaluate alternative ways of being a Wesleyan Church, such as creation of regional Central Conferences or of an autonomous church," or other ways. A distinctive feature in the Cal-Nevada legislation is that committee members are appointed by District Superintendents (4 each) to be representative of the diversity in the conference.

As the committee began studying alternative forms of conference structure it didn't take long to realize a) there weren't viable structural alternatives available, other than schism, and b) what we really sought to do is behave differently than most conferences, even within the existing structure.

This desire led the committee to discovering, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, what we now know as holy conferencing, and we set as our first task inviting other clergy to enter into this experience as a way of gaining greater understanding and appreciation for one another, and as a foundation for covenanting to behave differently. To that end, in September and October 75 people were trained as facilitators of holy conferencing, and over the past year approximately 284 clergy in 35 circuits have engaged in at least one holy conference.

We consider this as groundwork for a long-term process, which can re-make the covenant by which United Methodists relate to one another in the CANV Annual Conference. Our witness is that in our work and conferencing together, the Study Committee has:

1. Given voice to our ethical, political, and cultural differences in many ways, but especially concerning inclusion around LGBTQ matters.
2. Realized how often our members, lay and clergy, traditional and progressive, are dealing with fear and mistrust of one another.

3. Affirmed that holy conferencing and similar tools promote vulnerability, trust, and sharing of differences, which are an essential step for the Annual Conference to build a “strong enough” covenant to act on matters of inclusion.
4. Discovered that, over the course of our work as a committee, we have grown to trust one another, value our distinctive voices and honor our ministries. Committee members have covenanted to respect each other’s call to live out their ministries. In keeping with this covenant we will not bring charges against one another and will continue to be in an on-going conversation toward authenticity and wholeness. Further, we encourage the Annual Conference to pursue a similar covenant, and not propose or adopt legislation until conference members have gone through the conferencing process.

In conclusion, we believe conference members need to hear and understand our political, cultural, and theological differences. We found holy conferencing transformative, and encourage our conference to continue engaging in such purposeful conversation, not only in circuits, but also local churches, the Core Team, Cabinet and other boards, caucuses, and committees toward the goal of building, or making room for God to reveal, a meaningful covenant for our life together.

2014 was the first year for churches to tithe 10% of their income to the connectional church rather than be assigned an apportionment amount. The Council monitored these receipts during the year and helped resource churches with questions. The response from churches has been positive, and receipts in 2014 were above 2013. The Council will continue to work with the Cabinet to challenge all churches to model tithing for their congregations.

The Council brought a 2015 budget recommendation to the 2014 Annual Conference Session. The budget was passed as recommended. The Council also brought a standing rule change regarding conference personnel policies. It was also approved by the Annual Conference Session.

The Council’s president actively participated in the Core Team meetings during 2014. The Council was also well-represented on the Cal-Nevada United Methodist Foundation.

The CFA Unit Insurance committee continued to contract with Philadelphia Insurance Company for the program’s property and liability insurance. The committee monitors the claims experience of our churches while seeking to maximize coverage at the lowest cost possible.

As part of the property and liability insurance premium, the Council retains an earthquake relief grant fund for participating churches. The fund was created in 2006 when earthquake insurance became unaffordable. The Napa and Vallejo churches suffered significant earthquake damage during 2014, and the Council granted relief funds to both churches. The balance of the earthquake relief fund at 12/31/14 was $3,517,619 (before most of the grants were disbursed). For calendar year 2015, the conference insurance policies include an actual earthquake insurance policy, so the primary source of relief for any earthquake damage occurring in 2015 will be the insurance policy. Some of the earthquake fund was used to subsidize the earthquake insurance premium for 2015.

The Council and its audit subcommittee received the 2013 audits of the California-Nevada Annual Conference (excluding the Board of Pensions) from Macias & Gini, public accountants. The audit received an unqualified opinion.

CFA monitored the financial condition of the conference with the help of financial reports prepared by Karen Foster and Ajesh Kumar. Diane Knudsen serves as Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services.

At the end of 2014, the balance of the conference operating fund was $1,278,795 or 2.95 months reserve. This is above the minimum level of 2.5 months of reserve considered necessary for cash flow purposes.

The Conference Board of Trustees holds title to and maintains six district parsonages, one episcopal residence and the United Methodist Center. The Board holds in trust the parsonage of the former Hamilton UMC of San Francisco and the property of the former Orangevale UMC property, presently occupied by the Cho-Un Korean UMC.

During the calendar year 2014, all district parsonages were rented and most were managed by professional property managers. Part of the net rental income of the parsonages is used to fund housing allowances for the district superintendents. A property manager was also used to care for the former Hamilton UMC parsonage.

The sale of the former First St. John's United Methodist Church building was completed during 2014 with the issuance of a demolition permit. The federal lawsuit related to that application was still alive at 12/31/14 although settlement talks were ongoing. The Board has fulfilled its fiduciary duty to the former First St John's congregation and is not involved in investment or disbursement decisions related to the proceeds of the sale.

No major improvements or remodels were made on conference properties although a sub-committee has begun to consider renovations at the UM Center. The building's original architect has been engaged to assist in understanding the constraints of both the building and the current building codes.

Security was enhanced at the UM Center during 2014. Security cameras were installed throughout the parking area and a buzzer system was installed at the front entrance.

A sub-committee has begun conversation with the El Carmelo Cemetery in Pacific Grove CA in response to the city's request to restructure the legal arrangement between the Conference and the cemetery. The city's legal counsel is in the process of creating a revised agreement for the Board's review.

The Board also has reviewed financial statements as presented by the Conference Treasurer and has approved planned maintenance and repair items on the aforementioned properties.

The Board has fulfilled its responsibilities as defined in the Book of Discipline.

2014 achievements

The Episcopacy Committee met twice in 2014 with Bishop Warner H. Brown, Jr. in the Disciplinary role of "support, con-sultation, advisory and assisting."

The Committee supported the Bishop in his transition to the President of the Council of Bishops along with his responsibilities within our Annual Conference.

The Committee supported the Bishop in dealing with various complex issues in the life of the Annual Conference, including church vitality, conference committee reorganization, intentional discipleship, increasing collaboration, new churches and our conference shift to tithing our apportionments. Bishop Brown is working actively with lay leaders to move towards missional leadership. He continues to emphasize ministry and mission and its importance in our local churches.

As President of the Council of Bishops, the Committee supports Bishop Brown in the challenging work of collaboration and collegiality on a variety of difficult issues facing our denomination.

The Committee encouraged intentional articles and communications with the Annual Conference through various media regarding signs of God's fruitfulness.

Bishop Brown traveled to Fiji to continue nurturing the relationship with the Methodist Church in Fiji and also attended the Global Young People Gathering in the Philippines.

The committee is in conversation about the Bishop's transition to retirement in 2016. The transition will include addressing some issues at the episcopal residence.

The Committee remains supportive of the Bishop's family. We invite the Conference to hold the Bishop, his family, and his ministry in our prayers.

California-Nevada Conference United Methodist Women began the past year in a Spiritual Growth Retreat led by Dr. Dan Park, Biochemist and Endocrinologist at Kaiser Hospital, whose specialty is using 'Mind, Body Medicine' tools for holistic and preventative care. Goals included spirituality through health and increased unity for UMW leadership team through new insights on human connectedness. Our 2015 theme for the year is "Mind, Body and Spirit: One with God." Galatians 2:20

Since its 1869 beginning, UMW has focused on ministries on behalf of women, children, and youth here and around the globe. We are very intentional about implementing mission initiatives that include opportunities for spiritual growth; equipping women and girls to become leaders; transformative educational experiences; and working for justice through service and advocacy.

2019 will mark the 150th Anniversary of United Methodist Women in mission. Nationally, we will celebrate our strong foundation and prepare for the next 150 years so our daughters, granddaughters, nieces and sisters in Christ can continue our legacy of faith, hope and love in action.

We prepare for faithful living and action by studying and offering mission studies which motivate, inform, and enrich our commitment to global ministry. Local leaders (clergy and lay) are trained to lead one of the three mission studies through the organization's Mission u program, and are able to lead mission studies in their local and district groups.

Africa University Report To The 2015 California Nevada Annual Conference

Africa University notes with gratitude and great appreciation, the California Nevada Conference's increased investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2014.

Your support for the Africa University Fund rose from 58% in 2013, to 65.48% in 2014. We thank all of the local congregations of the California Nevada Conference for remaining faithful and generous to Africa University. It is your generosity that keeps Africa University in the forefront of disciple-making, leadership formation, and positive change in Africa.

As you gather for the 2015 California Nevada Annual Conference, we invite you to set a goal of 100% support for the Africa University Fund and other shared ministries of The United Methodist Church.

Student Enrollment: Full-time student enrollment at Africa University held steady in 2014 with 1,478 young men and women from 25 African countries. Female students were a record 53.4% of the total enrollment in a context where women consistently lag behind men in access to higher education.

Graduation: In June 2014, 480 young people were awarded degrees from Africa University at the 20th graduation ceremony, bringing to total number of alumni to just under 5,300. Without your support, a college education would have been unattainable for the majority of these students.

Academic Programs: New initiatives include bachelor's degree programs in media studies and hospitality and tourism. A collaboration with the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden supports a new master's degree program in Human Rights, Peace, and Development. Africa University is also preparing to launch its first PhD program, which links issues of Peace, Leadership, Governance, and Development, and targets policymakers.

Leadership and Service: Africa University graduates are helping communities to experience God's love and care through service as Global Mission Fellows and missionaries in Africa, Europe, and Latin America. Whether in government, private enterprise, community-based organizations or in the work of the church in the Africa Central Conferences, graduates of Africa University are key decision-makers. They are making a difference.

Strategic Priorities: Africa University is reviewing its academic programs and service delivery in order to enhance the students' potential for life-long success. Professor Munashe Furusa took the helm in July 2014 as the fourth vice chancellor in the university's 23-year history. He was formally installed in March 2015 and has put fiscal accountability, student quality of life, and support for academics, at the top of his agenda.

The strong, ongoing support of local churches in the California Nevada Conference is vital to moving Africa University to the next level in its evolution. The 2014 shortfall in the California Nevada Conference's asking to the AUF, $10,748.41, is almost equivalent to annual fees for two students at Africa University.

Your gifts matter. Please remain steadfast in your efforts.

Thank you. May God bless and keep you always in abundance.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

2015 UMC Annual Conference Report

For 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as Christian leaders who put faith and love into action, transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ. Here, students are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus. This unique approach ensures that our graduates are ready to serve wherever God leads.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. We are one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in the city of Atlanta offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

During the 2014-2015 academic year, Candler celebrated its Centennial, marking our 100th anniversary with a series of commemorative events highlighting memories of the past and visions for the future. The yearlong celebration began in the fall of 2014 with the dedication of the final phase of our new LEED-certified building and the premiere of Religion and Reason Joined: Candler at 100, a new book on our history. The commemoration continued through the spring of 2015 with guest lectures, exhibits, and “Prophetic Voices,” a major academic conference addressing the challenges and opportunities facing theology in the 21st century.

Not only has Candler expanded its physical space this year—we have expanded degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler introduced five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees with social work and development practice.

Candler’s student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 447, with 320 seeking the Master of Divinity, 43 the Master of Theological Studies, 14 the Master of Religious Life, 20 the Master of Theology, 29 the Doctor of Ministry, 10 the Doctor of Theology, and 11 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student body is 52 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 42 denominations, with nearly half identifying as United Methodist.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

CLAREMONT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

2014-15 A YEAR OF ENGAGEMENT

The last year has seen a rise in the number of United Methodist students attending Claremont School of Theology (CST). The increase from 47 to 62 students represents a 32% increase from the previous year. But the numbers only begin to tell the story of CST’s engagement of The United Methodist Church.

CST’s commitment to engaging the life of the Church is embodied in its President, Kah-Jin Jeffrey Kuan. He models an approach that the best way for the seminary to be responsive to the needs of the Church is to be present within it. President Kuan spends most Sundays visiting congregations outside of Claremont - frequently as a guest preacher. Last summer, President Kuan participated in five Annual Conference gatherings within the Western Jurisdiction, which he intends to repeat in 2015. He has also presented at church conferences, including a lecture on leadership for the United Methodist Asian American and Pacific Islander Clergywomen Conference, hosted by CST in October 2014.

This has been a productive year for the Center for Global Methodism (CGM), which serves the Methodist community at CST. Two small groups composed of United Methodists students have met throughout the academic year: a vocational discernment group; and a commissioning support group. CGM has also sponsored several opportunities throughout the year for United Methodist students to be formed by opportunities to meet and engage with Church leaders on multiple levels. On a local level, students met with Rev. Nicole Reilley on new ministries within the California-Pacific Annual Conference (Cal-Pac). They also benefitted from a lunchtime conversation about missionary opportunities with Rachel DeBos, a missionary within the Global Board of Global Ministries.

United Methodist speakers of national and international renown were also welcomed to the CST campus over the last year. CGM co-sponsored a set of lectures by Prof. Joerg Rieger of Perkins School of Theology. And in March 2015, CST welcomed Rev. Adam Hamilton, Founding Pastor of the Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, KS to deliver the Wallace Chappell Lectures.

On July 11, 2014 Bishop Carcaño joined the Episcopal Bishop of Los Angeles in calling for a Weekend of Compassion for Unaccompanied Migrant Children. CST responded to produce accessible information to assist congregations in their efforts to educate parishioners. In a series of essays and videos, CST faculty and alumni/ae offered historical, scriptural, theological and pastoral context.

The year ahead promises to be full of impactful ministry for CST, as its online-hybrid MDiv program enters its second year and the Young Clergy Initiative takes shape. Stay connected to life at CST by visiting cst.edu or following CST on social media on Facebook and on Twitter @CST_News.

ANNUAL REPORT FROM GARRETT-EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Greetings from Garrett-Evangelical!

Early in the calendar year, I met with various constituencies of Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary, including alums, faculty, staff, trustees, and students regarding their hopes and concerns for the school. As a result, we began the 2014-2015 academic year with the following priorities:

- To prepare and equip our graduates as public theologians,
- To nurture a more diverse community at Garrett-Evangelical so that the entire community develops cultural competency,
- To value and promote inclusivity at Garrett-Evangelical, and
- To construct a sustainable model for theological education.

Public Theology

This year we launched a Public Theology Lecture Series to help the Garrett-Evangelical community understand more about the intersection of theological perspectives and shared values held in the public arena as persons in ministry work with others toward the common good and the wellbeing of all persons and creation. The lecture series included:

- October 15, 2014: Rev. Janet Wolf, Director of Haley Farm and Nonviolent Organizing for the Children's Defense Fund, lectured on various Children's Defense Fund programs including restorative justice, mass incarceration, cradle to prison pipeline, and freedom schools.
- December 3, 2014: Dr. Mark Lewis Taylor, Maxwell M. Upton Professor of Theology and Culture at Princeton Theological Seminary considered structures of the global orders and everyday living which public theologians may claim to engage and where "the powers and principalities" are always in contestation in "public" life.

In the fall, we will offer a course, "Public Theology in the City," taught by Dr. David Frenchak, former president of Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE). The class will collaborate with the mayor's office in Evanston on an anti-violence initiative. Dr. Frenchak will also provide a Public Theology lecture this spring.

Cultural Competency & Inclusivity

As part of the commitment to nurturing a more diverse community, we welcomed a new Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Luis R. Rivera, our first Latino Academic Dean. Our current ethnic/racial profile is:

- 20% black; 6% Asian; 3% Hispanic/Latino; and 54% White; 14% International
- More than 33 religious traditions, four continents, 15 countries and 36 states are represented in the student body
- 232 students are United Methodist with 25 additional students from other Pan-Methodist denominations
- 94 new students began their studies at Garrett-Evangelical this fall, raising total fall enrollment to 365 (FTE of 305)
- The average age of the entering Master of Divinity student is 31
- 52% of the study body is women

Consistent attention to issues of inclusivity, justice, and grace within the seminary setting are critical for preparing future leaders to enter an increasingly diverse world. To respond to these concerns, Garrett-Evangelical will offer a number of Circle of Trust conversations this spring for trustees, faculty, staff, and students. Our goals are: 1) to provide safe space to discuss difficult topics, 2) to reduce any gap between stated values and actual behavior, both personally for participants and institutionally; and 3) to update our 1997 statements of inclusivity.

Sustainable Theological Education

Garrett-Evangelical is beginning work on a Sustainable Theological Education Model for the school. We are guided by a commitment to generational stewardship of our resources and to maintaining a thriving seminary for the future. We will attend to the areas of business, academics programs, and external programs.

Our priority continues to be making seminary education affordable. To this end we award more than $2.5 million in scholarship aid to students each year and we lead all United Methodist seminaries in the Dollars for Scholars program with 45 recipients. In October, the seminary publicly launched The Final Lap of its $100 million Forging Our Future campaign, and announced that $88 million has been received to date. Much has already been accomplished, but more remains to be done (expanding the number of new leadership scholarships from 80 to 100, renovating Sherman apartments, endowing several more faculty positions, continuing to grow the unrestricted endowment), gifts for any of these goals are always welcome.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are dedicated to serving The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical and our work, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, and to visit us on campus.

Cordially,
Lallene J. Rector, President

ILIFF SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Rev. Dr. Thomas V. Wolfe, President and Chief Executive Officer

Greetings from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado. We wish you blessings as together we continue the work of strengthening the Church and offering a compassionate presence to the World.

The Iliff School of Theology's commitment to the Wesleyan tradition of providing intellectually alive and spiritually grounded theological education for our students continues. From Tanzania to Texas, Denver to Delhi, Missouri to Mexico, Iliff students and graduates are holding constructive tension with the human condition as it is and courageously standing with those who seek justice.

This past year saw one of Iliff's largest enrollments since its founding by the United Methodist Church in 1892 - 333 students, 60% female and 40% male, 35% Methodist – all actively engaged in both the classroom and a host of ministry contexts. Some are leading congregations toward revitalization while others are doing ministry by establishing new forms of community.

Interest in online and hybrid classes continues to grow from across the nation in our Journey MDIV Program - one of the first to bring quality theological education online. As a concerted move by Iliff to reduce student debt and grow the ability of students to lead financially sound, engaged communities, many MDIV students are also participating in the Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency Program, funded by a $250,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment.

We welcomed participants to our first Spanish-Speaking Local Pastors Licensing School hosted in partnership with the Rocky Mountain Conference and participated in healing events for commemoration of the Sand Creek Massacre. In addition, Iliff students participated in an immersion trip to Africa University and are planning an additional experience this year. We look forward to continuing these vital relationships.

Iliff created numerous events for area clergy and supporters. Via forums on leadership, policing, the role of faith in world events, and more, campus speakers included: Amy Goodman, Garry Kasparov, and the Rev. Dr. Rebecca Chopp, this year's Jameson Jones Preacher. Bridging theological education to new arenas was further cultivated through Iliff's Authentic Engagement™ Program with trainings for civic and non-profit groups. Our efforts were duly noted by McCormick Theological Seminary's Center for Faith and Service when we were named as one of the nation's "Seminaries That Change the World."

We continue to look to the future with courageous theological imagination. We are grateful for our denominational connection.

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

At Wesley, we are a church-based seminary committed to multiplying the number of people who love God and love their neighbor locally, nationally and globally. Our degrees and programs – traditional and new alike – reflect our dedication to the Great Commandment and Great Commission. We ask you to pray for us, hold us accountable, and join us in this Kingdom work.

Equipping Faith Leaders through Degree Programs

In fall 2015, our new master of divinity curriculum launches. We thoroughly redesigned the M.Div. to prepare leaders for both church and society. This 81-hour degree offers flexibility and an excellent core curriculum focused on empowering passionate, mission-focused leaders.

Wesley also offers a 36-hour Master of Arts and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies to equip those called to ordained deacon ministries or a wide range of ministries.

In our doctor of ministry program, we continue to offer the most practical and spiritually renewing tracks in theological education. These include leadership excellence, pastoral counseling, arts, and new mission-focused tracks. Wesley is accepting applications to two tracks based in Cambridge, England. These tracks, Transformative Leadership in Wesleyan Perspective and Creative Ministry for Church Renewal in a Changing World, are each limited to 20 students.

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations and friends of the seminary.

Talk to someone at (202) 885-8659 or admissions@wesleyseminary.edu about how Wesley's degree programs equip people to lead others to loving God and neighbor.

Providing Resources to Faith Communities and Leaders

Wesley's Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be the go-to resource for actionable best-practices for clergy and laity. The center's free Leading Ideas e-newsletter provides well-researched, discipleship-growing ideas to more than 15,000 people. Visit www.churchleadership.com for resources in: Taking Church to the Community, Doing Good Well, Funding Your Congregation's Vision, and Reaching New Disciples. Also, learn about the newest book by the Rev. Tom Berlin and the Rev. Dr. Lovett Weems Jr., High Yield: Seven Disciplines of the Fruitful Leader.

In early 2015, we developed the Institute for Community Engagement at Wesley Downtown to help the church turn itself inside-out. The institute encompasses the existing Urban Ministry Program and the Missional Church Program, which includes Heal the Sick, an initiative to congregations for public health work in their parishes.

The third component of the Institute for Community Engagement is Wesley's emerging Center for Public Theology. Under the leadership of Distinguished Professor of Public Theology, Mike McCurry, we are developing this center to provide churches and their leaders, and seminary students tools to help navigate the connection between faith and public policy.

The Luce Center for Arts and Religion remains the only seminary-based program uniting arts and theology. The center celebrated the 25th anniversary of the Dadian Gallery in late 2014.

Wesley faculty members are continually development resources to the faithful, including books by Drs. Carla Works, Deborah Sokolove, F. Douglas Powe Jr., Cedric Johnson, and Lovett H. Weems Jr.

Throughout the academic year, Wesley hosts Second Mondays – a series of lectures on campus and streaming live. This year we explored “Living Matthew 25 – Focusing on the Big Things.” In this chapter of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to heal the sick, feed the hungry, and welcome the stranger. In their lectures, Wesley's faculty unlocked the Holy Scriptures and the church's history, traditions and theology to clarify these Gospel imperatives. These presentations are available at www.youtube.com/c/wesleyseminaryedu and via live stream at www.ustream.tv/channel/wesley-seminary. Sign up for the monthly electronic newsletter eCalling at www.wesleyseminary.edu/ecalling to be reminded of this opportunity.

REPORT OF THE CORE TEAM

The Conference Core Team was established in 2012 to provide leadership to the California-Nevada Conference in the following ways:

- Oversee implementation of the mission and vision of the Annual Conference;
- Follow up on decisions made at ACS, including setting priorities allocation of available resources, and ensuring alignment with the Conference's mission and strategy;
- Act as a mechanism for review and decision in between sessions of the Annual Conference;
- Identify opportunities for collaboration between each of the four mission focus areas:
 - Leadership Development
 - Congregational Development
 - Compassion and Justice
 - Partners in Ministry

The Core Team is made up of ten voting members, lay and clergy, including a Convenor, a convenor from each of the four areas of mission focus, and five members at large. The Bishop, Conference Lay Leader(s), and a representative from the Council of Finance and Administration participate as non-voting members.

This year the Core Team undertook a “tune-up” of the Conference's Strategic Plan, adopted in 2010: an assessment of progress made to date on the plan's strategic goals, leading toward recommendations for change in order to ensure effectiveness. A consultant from outside the Conference was engaged to assist with this process. In this process, all congregations in the Conference were asked to respond to a survey, and lay and clergy members were invited to focus groups to provide additional data to the consultant. The results of the process and recommendations for next steps will be presented by the Core Team at ACS.

Respectfully submitted,
Kathi McShane,
Convenor of the Core Team

2016 BUDGET RECOMMENDATION

Introduction

The Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) recommends a 2016 budget totaling $6,168,408. The recommendation is labeled “aspirational” because CFA believes it reflects the level of church tithing achievable if all churches tithed 10% of their operating income as per our standing rule. The aspirational budget numbers illustrate CFA’s recommendation on how this level of giving would be spent.

CFA includes a spending plan alongside its recommended budget. The spending plan provides another scenario of conference spending that might be considered more conservative or more realistic than the budget recommendation itself. The 2016 spending plan was generated by assuming a 3% increase in giving above the 2015 approved budget and by holding to our pattern of designating 25% of all tithing income for the general and jurisdictional church. The result is a planned increase in payment percentage on general & jurisdictional apportionments to 66% from the spending plan levels of 63% and 61% in 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Approval of the budget and the spending plan means that 25% of the first $5,489,000 in tithes will be paid to general and jurisdictional apportionments and 100% of tithes over $5,489,000 will be paid to general and jurisdictional apportionments.

The first four lines of the spending plan include the total request from the Core Team on behalf of the four areas of mission focus.

The 2016 staff budget is $22,878 above the 2015 staff budget (<1%), although $98,374 has been shifted from health care to salaries. The Conference Board of Pensions has advised CFA that it is likely to shift a greater share of the cost of health care to employees in 2016 and beyond. CFA likewise shifts these budgeted dollars to lessen the impact on employees for the first year of this cutback in benefits, increasing individual salaries by 8% while decreasing the budget for healthcare premiums by 16%. One half-time position has been eliminated from the budget.

Item 25 – 2016 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan

- Adopted by Consent Calendar

Following is the summary of the Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan (CBFP) that received a favorable written opinion from the GBPHB for the 2016 conference benefit obligations:

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) Defined Benefit (DB) and Defined Contribution (DC)

Plan Overview: The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement program providing lifetime income and account flexibility designed for those who serve as clergy of The United Methodist Church. The plan is designed to provide participants with one portion of their overall retirement benefits. CRSP replaced the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 2007, which had previously replaced the Pre-82 Plan for service rendered prior to January 1, 1982

CRSP consists of both a defined benefit (DB) plan, which provides a monthly benefit at retirement based upon years of credited service to The United Methodist Church, and a defined contribution (DC) plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by annual conferences. The Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP-DB) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2014 is $1.105 billion, while total plan assets are $1.274 billion resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 115%. The California-Nevada Conference portion of the liability is 1.4826% and the 2016 contribution is $1,383,527. The conference anticipates that the amount will be funded by Local Church Budget. Additionally, General Conference 2012 approved a change to CRSP that provides each annual conference the discretion to determine whether to cover three-quarter and/or half-time clergy. The California-Nevada Conference has elected to cover clergy serving 50%+ under CRSP effective January 1, 2016.

Effective January 1, 2014 CRSP-DC plan was reduced from a 3% to a 2% of plan compensation non-matching contribution. Clergy have the opportunity to earn up to an additional 1% CRSP DC contribution by contributing at least 1% of their plan compensation to UMPIP, therefore if a participant contributes at least 1% of plan compensation to UMPIP, the individual will receive a contribution of 3%, which is unchanged from 2013 and prior. The 2016 CRSP-DC contribution is anticipated to be $365,700 and will be funded by Local Church Budgets.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Plan Overview: Supplement Three to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. MPP is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) retirement plan. Effective January 1, 2014, exactly 65% of the account balance must be annuitized when it is to be distributed. The remainder may be rolled over to UMPIP, another qualified plan, an IRA, or paid in a lump sum.

The Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) annuities total liability as of January 1, 2014 is $3.018 billion, while total plan assets are $3.345 billion, resulting in a current plan funded ratio of 111% and no required contribution for 2016. The California-Nevada Conference’s % of the total liability is 1.7491%. Future MPP annuitants have a total account balance of $4.332 billion and the California-Nevada Conference’s portion of that balance is $65,576,250 or 1.51% of the total.

Pre-1982 Plan

Plan Overview: Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP), also known as the Pre-82 Plan, provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church prior to 1982. The Pre-82 Plan was replaced by MPP effective January 1, 1982. If a clergy person retires within the Conference (and does not terminate), the minimum benefit payable is based on two factors: 1) years of service with pension credit and 2) Conference pension rate. Years of service with pension credit are approved by each Conference on the recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions (CBOP) in accordance with plan provisions and The Book of Discipline. The pension rate, also called the past service rate, is the dollar amount chosen by the Conference as the amount payable for each approved year of service with pension credit. The pension rate may change from year to year. The number of years of service with pension credit is multiplied by the pension rate, and the product is the minimum annual benefit payable to those clergy eligible for Pre-82 Plan benefits. In certain situations, the benefit received from the Pre-82 plan may vary based on the applicability of what is referred to as Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM), which is the defined contribution feature of the Pre-1982 Plan. At the time that a participant retires, the DBSM account is converted to a life based benefit. At that point, the clergy’s benefit is the greater of the PSR benefit or DBSM benefit. If the conference increases the PSR, the clergy’s benefit is recalculated; however the DBSM based benefit does not change.

The 2016 Past Service Rate (PSR) recommended to the California-Nevada Conference will be $844.00 representing a 0.96% increase from the 2015 rate. The conference expects future increases to be approximately 0%, which is based on a goal to reach a PSR rate of 1.2% of the CAC. Upon reaching that goal, the conference may choose to allocate a higher amount.

The contingent annuitant percentage is recommended to remain at the 75% level.

Based on the final actuarial valuations from the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits as of January 1, 2014 for 2016, the portion of the Pre-82 liability attributable to the California-Nevada Conference and funded status is, as of 1/1/2014, as follows:

Funding Plan Liability	$40,570,272
Assets in the Plan	$35,038,704
Funded status	$(5,531,568)	represented by a 86.37% funded ratio

In addition to the assets in the Plan it is anticipated that amount will be funded through the following funding sources:

Non plan assets designated for retiring Pre-82 obligations	$15,322,814

Active Health Benefit Program

Plan Overview: The California-Nevada Conference offers the Insured program which is best described as a Insured to its active eligible participants.

The total cost of the program for 2016 is anticipated to be $3,400,000 and will be funded by local churches and other conference employers. It is anticipated that increases for future years will average 5.00%, due to increases in premiums.

Post-Retirement Medical Benefit Program (PRM)

Plan Overview: The California-Nevada Conference post-retirement medical program currently offered is an insurance plan made available to retired clergy.

The expectation for 2016 is to offer an annual subsidy based on years of service plan. The funding obligation for 2016 is cared for by an annual distribution from an affiliated agency.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

Plan Overview: The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) provides death, long-term disability and other welfare benefits for eligible clergy of The United Methodist Church and their families. It is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor insurance premiums. Generally, clergy are eligible to participate in CPP if the conference or salary-paying unit sponsors the plan and they are able to satisfy the eligibility requirements which include full-time appointment with plan compensation equal to or greater than 60% of the Denominational Average Compensation or the Conference Average Compensation, whichever is less. The California-Nevada Conference has elected to make CPP eligible clergy appointed 50% time or more have mandatory participation under special arrangements.

For 2016, the California-Nevada Conference has an expected required contribution to the Comprehensive Protection Plan of $537,700, which is anticipated to be funded by local churches and conference agencies. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 3.00% per year due to increases in compensation.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) for Lay and Clergy

Plan Overview: The United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Participants may make before-tax and/or after-tax contributions through payroll deductions. Participant contributions, various optional plan sponsor contributions and investment earnings comprise the individual's retirement account balance.

Conference office lay employees working an average of 30 hours per week or more are eligible for a plan sponsor funded pension contribution of 12% of salary. Lay employees are encouraged to make contributions toward their retirement through payroll deductions to the UMPIP. The estimated contribution for the California-Nevada Conference is anticipated to be $52,980 and will be funded through the apportionments or revenue.

Other Conference Benefit Obligations: Defined Contribution (DC) Type

DC Plan Overview: The California-Nevada Conference currently offers a UMLife for Lay plan made available to eligible conference lay employees. The funding obligation for 2016 is anticipated to be $3,450 with the funding sources to be from the Conference Board of Pensions DBDA account. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 1% per year due to premium costs increases.

DC Plan Overview: The California-Nevada Conference currently offers a Disability Insurance Plan for eligible Conference Lay employees. The funding obligation for 2016 is anticipated to be $7,500 with the funding sources to be budgeted funds. The anticipated average increase in future years is expected to be 2% per year due to annual premium increases.

Conclusion: The 2016 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan and the above Summary document incorporates, to the best of our understanding, the California-Nevada Conference's obligations and funding requirements of the benefits provided to the clergy and laity of the California-Nevada Conference.

We believe that God’s blessing rests upon such marriage, which is traditionally between one man and one woman, whether or not there are children of the union. ¶161.F) Human Sexuality—We affirm that sexuality is God’s good gift to all persons. We call everyone to responsible stewardship of this sacred gift.

Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are affirmed only with the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage.

We deplore all forms of the commercialization, abuse, and exploitation of sex. We call for strict global enforcement of laws prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children and for adequate protection, guidance, and counseling for abused children. All persons, regardless of age, gender, marital status, or sexual orientation, are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured and to be protected against violence. The Church should support the family in providing age-appropriate education regarding sexuality to children, youth, and adults.

We affirm that all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. The United Methodist Church historically has not condoned ~~does not condone~~ the practice of homosexuality and has considered ~~consider~~ this practice incompatible with Christian teaching. We affirm that God’s grace is available to all. We will seek to live together in Christian community, welcoming, forgiving, and loving one another, as Christ has loved and accepted us. k. Rule Eleven: Speakers for and against

- 1) No member shall speak more than once on a question until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken. No member shall speak for or against a pending matter immediately after another member favoring the same side has spoken, unless no speaker of the opposite side desires the floor. - 2) A motion for the previous question shall not be in order until opportunity be given for two speeches for and two against the main motion and each subsidiary motion.
- 3) The person presenting the majority report or main motion shall have an opportunity to speak just prior to the vote being taken. This right of the presenter to close the debate shall prevail in like manner when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table, or any other motion the adoption of which, in the judgment of the chair, would vitally affect the report under consideration.

as sex, age, race, sexual orientation, persons with handicapping conditions, geography, and Conference members who have gained experience at previous General and Jurisdictional Conferences as well as those who have never served as delegates.

2. Nominations of Lay Delegates

- a. The Conference United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men, all ethnic caucuses, the Commission on Religion and Race, Commission on the Status and Role of Women, Council on Youth Ministries, and Young Adult Council, shall encourage nominations for delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences and inform people of the responsibilities, time and travel involved.
- b. Nominations shall be sent to the Conference Secretary by May 10 of the year of the election. The nomination shall include the person's name, Church, District, and a brief statement of the nominee's church experience and qualifications, including age, ethnic background, and number of terms as General/Jurisdictional Conference Delegate if applicable. A photo, no larger than 2 by 3 inches, may be included. Other information and endorsements may be added as space permits. Space is limited to one half of a standard 8 1/2 x 11 inch sheet with a one half inch margin allowance on all four sides, or 7/2 inches wide by 4/2 inches high. All text must be entered on a standard typewriter size. A statement from the nominee indicating a willingness to serve if elected must be attached to the nomination.
- c. The Conference Secretary shall have the nominations, including the half page descriptive statement, printed for distribution prior to the opening session.
- d. At the opening session, additional nominations may be made if supported by at least twenty votes.

Ballots shall be returned to the Conference Secretary no later than fifteen days before the Annual Conference Session begins. Ballots with an incorrect number of names and those received after the deadline are void. All ballots shall be signed and dated.

 - c. An election is declared if a person received a majority of the valid votes cast. A valid vote is one which appears in a ballot cast for the precise number of lawful and qualified candidates, or for a lesser number, corresponding with the number of delegates to be elected on that ballot. All other votes are invalid.
 - d. For electing the required number of delegates and alternates in the Jurisdictional Conference, a new ballot shall contain the names of all persons not elected to General Conference who received thirty or more votes on any ballot. If additional nominees are needed from the floor, those supported by at least thirty votes may have their names added to the list.
 - e. After the election of the Jurisdictional Delegates, one additional ballot shall be taken for reserve delegates with the first five lay persons and the first five clergy persons being considered reserve delegates according to the numerical ranking of total votes received. Vacancies which may occur within these reserve delegates shall be filled using the list of nominees appearing on this final ballot according to the numerical ranking of total votes received.
5. Boards, agencies, and committees elected by the Annual Conference shall not endorse any nominees for election to General Conference or Jurisdictional Conference or the episcopacy.

I. NOMINATIONS FOR EPISCOPAL ELECTION

1. Deciding whether to participate in the nominations process.
 - a. In the calendar year proceeding the year in which the Jurisdictional Conference meets, the Annual Conference shall ballot on this question: "Shall the Annual Conference Secretary distribute forms for the nomination of Episcopal candidates to the lay and clergy members of next year's Annual Conference, provided there is to be an Episcopal election?" A majority of the valid ballots cast shall be sufficient to instruct the Conference Secretary.
 - b. If the Annual Conference votes affirmatively on this question, but there is doubt as to whether there will be an Episcopal election, the Conference Secretary shall ask for the opinion of the Jurisdictional College of Bishops. If, in the judgment of the College of Bishops, it is likely there will be an Episcopal election, the Conference Secretary shall distribute the forms.

- c. If the forms are not distributed, it is presumed the Annual Conference will not name nominees for the episcopacy the following Session, and a statement to that effect will be printed in the Conference newspaper.
2. Developing an Annual Conference ballot.
 - a. If forms are to be distributed, the Conference Secretary shall distribute them through the coordinated mailing and/or other communications and shall contain at least the following: "Each lay and clergy member of the Annual Conference is invited to list up to three ministers for the Annual Conference to nominate for Episcopal election. All ministers who are full members of any Conference are eligible for nomination. Names must be received by the Conference Secretary no later than April 15. Those submitting names shall sign the form identifying the local church or group by which they are elected as members of the Conference."
 - b. The Conference Secretary shall prepare a preliminary alphabetical list using the forms received, including the name, age, sex, ethnic background, conference membership and complete service record of ministers named by thirty or more members of the Annual Conference. The Conference Secretary shall contact all potential nominees, to secure their willingness to be listed on the ballot. A list of willing nominees shall be published in the Conference newspaper on or about June 1 and reported to members of Conference during the opening session.
 - c. Up to 24 hours prior to the taking of the first ballot, names may be added by petitions bearing the signatures of thirty or more members of the Annual Conference and a signed statement of willingness of the potential nominee.
 3. Pre Balloting Procedure.
 - a. The process for Episcopal election shall be fully explained to the full Conference session before the balloting begins. The explanation shall be made by the head of the most recently elected Jurisdictional Conference delegation or his or her designee and shall include the processes of the Annual Conference and the Jurisdictional Conference Episcopal elections and the effect of expected retirements on the Western Jurisdictional College of Bishops. Members from the floor shall be invited to ask questions or make points of information in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.
 - b. Each nominee or representative of a nominee shall be given time, not to exceed five (5) minutes, to describe his or her vision for The United Methodist Church before the full Conference session.
 - c. The full Conference session shall join in prayer before each balloting.
 4. Selection of nominees:
 - a. On every ballot, each member of the Annual Conference may vote for one clergy on the list. The Bishop shall report the results. Any minister receiving a majority of valid ballots shall become a nominee of this Annual Conference for Episcopal election by the Jurisdictional Conference. Those not receiving thirty or more votes shall not be listed on future ballots.

- b. After the results of each ballot are announced, the Annual Conference shall vote on the following question before balloting again: "Shall the Annual Conference continue to ballot in order to nominate ministers for Episcopal election?" Balloting shall continue if a majority supports it.
- c. When the process is completed, the Conference Secretary shall notify the Jurisdictional Conference Secretary of the results.

 - 8) Outdoor security lighting,
 - 9) Remote control operated garage doors, and
 - 10) An annual parsonage maintenance plan prepared jointly by the Board of Trustees and the Staff Pastor-Parish Relations Committee in coordination with the pastor and family
7. The local church should pay water, the basic telephone charge, and designate a portion of the salary package for a utility allowance.
8. The responsibility for implementing the Parsonage Standard Guidelines be assigned to the District Board of Church Location and Building.

D. ANNUAL CONFERENCE STAFF HOUSING

- 1. Full time Conference staff members, for whom a house is not provided, shall be properly remunerated and shall provide their own housing. The remuneration shall reflect the cost of housing and utilities in accordance with Conference housing standards in relation to the average fair market rental value of all District parsonages. Ordained staff members shall be required to file a certification of costs of housing with the employing agency in accordance with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code. Each shall accept full responsibility for maintaining and keeping available for any requirements of the Federal Government all necessary documentation. The amount of the housing allowance will be deducted from the total remuneration and paid separately. The remaining amount will be paid as salary and reported as such to the Internal Revenue Service.

2. If the Bishop or a full time staff member for whom a house is not provided elects to buy a house, the Board of Trustees may furnish second mortgage money, by borrowing against equity in Conference owned property. The Trustees may do so when in their judgment, the arrangement properly protects the Annual Conference and provides for full repayment within a reasonable time after the person is no longer assigned as the Bishop of this Area or is employed as a full time Conference staff member. The Bishop or staff member shall carry the full cost of the loan.

E. DISPOSITION OF LOCAL CHURCH PROPERTY

Due to many unfunded years of those in the previous entrants' pension program and the under funding of MRPF, it has become necessary to protect the accrued pension interests. To do this, every Superintendent shall refuse permission to sell, abandon, merge or otherwise discontinue a local church property without consultation with the Board of Pensions; and as part of the selling or exchanging or converting of the property; a method should be worked out whereby funds could be held or transferred or given to protect the unfunded years and under funded years of all pastors who served that particular church.

DIVISION XI. CALENDAR YEAR OPERATIONS

A. THE LOCAL CHURCH

The Annual Conference recommends each local church's program year correspond to the Annual Conference fiscal year (the calendar year); and that local church elected personnel, except members of the Committee on Pastor Parish Relations, take office on January 1. At the discretion of the local church, members of the Committee on Pastor Parish Relations may take office on July 1..

B. ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Unless otherwise provided, members and officers of boards and agencies of Annual Conference shall begin their term of office on adjournment of Annual Conference. Each board or agency shall be convened for the first meeting no later than September 10, at a time and place designated by the Conference Nominating Committee, when necessary to organize the board or agency for the following year or quadrennium.
2. Members and officers of committees responsible to board and agencies shall continue to serve until their successors are elected.

DIVISION XII. INCORPORATION OF SUBSIDIARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. SUBMISSION FOR APPROVAL

Before any subsidiary Conference organization, group, or association legally incorporates, or revises its articles of incorporation and bylaws, these articles and bylaws, and any revision thereof, shall be submitted to the Conference Board of Trustees for approval. This rule does not apply to the incorporating of a local church, but only organizations as are operative on a Conference level and have received or anticipate receiving Conference funds.

CHAPTER 11

POLICY & GUIDELINES

POLICY STATEMENT ON MISCONDUCT OF A SEXUAL NATURE

INSTRUCTION FOR DISTRIBUTION

This policy will be distributed each year by the Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services to all Conference Personnel and Personnel Committees. Further, it will be distributed each year by each Superintendent to:

- the PPR/SPR chairs on their Districts with the request that the policy be shared with their congregations and personnel, and
- all clergy related to the Charge Conferences of their Districts and all those assigned by the Bishop or Cabinet.

PURPOSE

The California-Nevada Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church bears affirmative responsibility to create an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, which is free of misconduct of a sexual nature and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ. We support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender. The California-Nevada Annual Conference stands in opposition to the sin of misconduct of a sexual nature in the Church and society at large. The California-Nevada Annual Conference commits itself to fair and expedient investigation of any charge of misconduct of a sexual nature within the church and to take action deemed appropriate and in compliance with The 2000 Book of Discipline.

THEOLOGY

The 2000 Book of Discipline states, ¶161. “G) Human Sexuality-We recognize that sexuality is God’s good gift to all persons. We believe persons may be fully human only when that gift is acknowledged and affirmed by themselves, the church, and society. We call all persons to the disciplined, responsible fulfillment of themselves, others, and society in the stewardship of this gift. We also recognize our limited understanding of this complex gift and encourage the medical, theological, and social science disciplines to combine in a determined effort to understand human sexuality more completely. We call the Church to take the leadership role in bringing together these disciplines to address this most complex issue. Further, within the context of our understanding of this gift of God, we recognize that God challenges us to find responsible, committed, and loving forms of expression.

Although all persons are sexual beings whether or not they are married, sexual relations are only clearly affirmed in the marriage bond. Sex may become exploitative within as well as outside marriage. We reject all sexual expressions that damage or destroy the humanity God has given us as birthright, and we affirm only that sexual expression that enhances that same humanity. We believe that sexual relations where one or both partners are exploitative, abusive, or promiscuous are beyond the parameters of acceptable Christian behavior and are ultimately destructive to individuals, families, and the social order.

We have been called into covenant with God and one another through the grace of Jesus Christ. This covenant, which we share in together in Christ’s body, the Church, is intended by God to be a means of reconciliation, justice, faith, hope, and love. Misconduct of a sexual nature disrupts the sacred covenant of God with us and is unacceptable in the community where Christ’s ministry of grace is proclaimed and experienced. Misconduct of a sexual nature within the faith community is a devastating betrayal of sacred trust. Therefore, all Christians are called to identify and prevent misconduct of a sexual nature whenever, however, and wherever it is encountered.”

The California-Nevada Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms The 2000 Book of Resolutions, “Sexual Abuse Within the Ministerial Relationship and Sexual Harassment within the Church,” which states that sexual abuse within the ministerial relationship and sexual harassment within the church are incompatible with the biblical teachings of hospitality, justice and healing. All human beings, both male and female, are created in the image of God, and thus have been made equal in Christ. As the promise of Galatians 3:26-29 states, “all are one in Christ.” We support equity among all persons without regard to ethnicity, situation, or gender.

DEFINITIONS

The term “clergy” is used in this policy to include all ordained, licensed, consecrated, appointed or assigned persons serving in the California-Nevada Annual Conference, including those ministers appointed to extension ministries, those who are on leaves, those who have honorably located, and those who are retired.

This understanding is equally applicable in the context of ministries in which there are no “parishioners,” but there is a community which acknowledges the authority of the clergy person as a spiritual leader (appointments to extension ministries, honorable location, ministers on leaves, retired) or other ministries in which the clergy person serves a community much wider than the membership of the appointed congregations.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the ministerial relationship is an abuse of the power of the clergy role. Such misconduct may include sexual abuse, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, and sexual harassment. Clergy misconduct of a sexual nature also includes some relationships between so-called consenting adults when they occur in the context of a clergy person's professional role.

Misconduct of a sexual nature within the ministerial relationship occurs when a person within a ministerial role of leadership engages in inappropriate sexual contact, or inappropriate sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, co-worker, colleague or volunteer. Misconduct of a sexual nature within the ministerial relationship involves a betrayal of sacred trust, a violation of the ministerial role and exploitation of those who are vulnerable. Any such misconduct of a sexual nature is a violation by the clergy person who then bears the responsibility for his/her behavior. (Adapted from The 2000 Book of Resolutions, page 136)

"We define sexual harassment as any unwanted sexual comment, advance or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating, or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than as an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender." (The 2000 Book of Discipline, ¶161.1)

PRACTICAL APPLICATION

The church is called to recognize, prevent, and stop misconduct of a sexual nature. As a part of the covenant community of faith, all clergy and laity bear sacred responsibility to address misconduct of a sexual nature as they become aware of such behavior. While we recognize that clergy are uniquely accountable to the California-Nevada Annual Conference for their actions in this regard, it is our hope is that persons serving in other leadership roles (educators, counselors, youth leaders, or other positions of leadership) will bear and uphold the same sacred responsibility. Furthermore, it is our belief that laity and clergy alike bear responsibility for confronting one another with knowledge of misconduct of a sexual nature and harassment.

When the covenant has been broken by instances of misconduct of a sexual nature, there is pain and disruption in the community. In those moments, the church is called to bring about healing, reconciliation and restoration of all parties. This may include encouragement and support of an aggrieved person, care for one committing the offense, and initiation of complaint procedures (see ¶1359, The 2000 Book of Discipline Re: Complaint Procedures). Every complaint shall be taken seriously.

When incidents of misconduct of a sexual nature are alleged or proven, the greatest possible care shall be taken to assure that the least possible additional harm is done to all persons involved. When misconduct of a sexual nature occurs, there are many victims: the persons involved, the spouses and families, congregations, and the larger community surrounding them.

If any provision of this policy is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline, The Discipline shall prevail. Such conflict shall not be grounds for invalidating this policy.

To explore options, persons involved in or aware of possible misconduct may call the Conference Confidential Hotline for Sexual Harassment and Misconduct of a Sexual Nature. The phone number (916-374-1569) shall be published yearly in the Conference Journal.

ABUSE PREVENTION GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

Jesus, time and time again, spoke of the importance of young people being included and provided for within the community of faith. Our hope and belief today is that the church is a place where children and youth will find the unconditional love and care they so desperately need to grow and thrive.

Every 15 seconds a child is abused or neglected. Abuse often happens in settings where children, youth, and vulnerable adults should be able to feel safe - homes, schools, camps, and most sadly, the Church. Abuse does occur in churches, large and small, urban and rural. It is a problem, which cuts across all economic, cultural, and racial lines. It is real and appears to be increasing.

The General Conference of The United Methodist Church, in April 1996, adopted a resolution aimed at reducing the risk of abuse of children, youth, and vulnerable adults in the church. As Christians, we must take our responsibilities to our children, youth, and vulnerable adults very seriously. We fail in our responsibilities if we neglect to take adequate precautions against abuse in our churches. It is unlikely that we can completely prevent abuse in every situation, but it is possible for us to greatly reduce the risk by following a thorough practical policy of prevention. This policy attempts to do that for Conference agencies that deal with children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

- A child is physically injured by other than accidental means.
- A child is subjected to willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment.
- A child is abused or exploited sexually.
- A child is neglected by a parent or caretaker who fails to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care or supervision.

Child means any person from infancy to 11 years old.

We means the California-Nevada Annual Conference.

Youth means any person from 12 years old to 18 years old.

SCREENING PROCEDURES

Careful screening is one way to prevent the abuse of children, youth, and vulnerable adults. It can be time consuming and expensive, but provides some assurance that the most reliable, committed and experienced staff and volunteers are in place for every program that involves children, youth, and vulnerable adults.

THE FOLLOWING SHALL BE MINIMUM STANDARDS:

All adults, volunteer or staff persons, who have regular and direct contact with children, youth, and vulnerable adults shall be required to fill out an application that includes:

- Standard contact information
- Voluntary disclosure of past criminal history and allegations of criminal activity
- Listing of 3 non-related references with complete contact information for all references
- A signed release and waiver form allowing the Conference to perform a background check. The policy shall be implemented in the following manner:
- All staff persons and volunteers, who have regular and direct contact with children, will submit to the screening procedures as outlined by this policy.
- All new applicants, persons having a break in service of one or more years, and
- those persons who have not been screened in three years since their last background check shall submit to the screening procedures again.
- The staff person in charge of the event and/or their designee is responsible for review and approving each application before a person's service begins.
- All records are confidential and will be maintained by the Annual Conference.
- When the Conference is hosting an event in which the local church is requested to bring adult chaperones, we recommend that all brochures and other written material specify these procedures as requirements for all adults serving as chaperones at the event.

SUPERVISION

Competent and trained adults are important to any event. The procedures described below are designed to reduce the possibility of abuse to children, youth and vulnerable adults, and to protect staff persons and volunteers from unfounded accusations. These are MINIMUM standards and each event may adopt more stringent requirements if necessary.

1. Training is required for all persons having direct contact with children, youth, and vulnerable adults in Conference activities. The minimum standard shall include an annual orientation that includes information about this Policy, training in the supervision of children, youth, and vulnerable adults, and training in the identification and reporting of abuse.
2. Minimum standards shall include the two adult rule. The two adult rule requires that there will always be two unrelated, adults present.
3. In the case of children and youth, no person shall supervise an age group unless he/she is AT LEAST 5 years older than the children or youth with whom they are working with.
4. The Conference shall employ an open space rule. The open space rule requires that all activities shall occur in open view. Each room or space where children are being supervised shall have a window in the door or the door shall be left open.
5. Registration materials for activities in which children, youth, or vulnerable adults are outside the direct supervision of their parents/guardians shall require signed permission forms, which include health supervision and the parents/ guardians permission to treat a child, youth, or vulnerable adult if they are injured or become sick during an event.
6. All participants who can understand a behavior agreement shall sign a participation covenant. This covenant can be in the form of clear, posted rules that are explained to the participants at the outset of the event.

REPORTING

According to California and Nevada law, every person who has reason to believe that a child or youth under the age of 18 has been abused is mandated to report the suspected abuse. Volunteer leaders and workers are no exception.

At any Conference event, if an adult suspects the abuse or neglect of a child, youth, or vulnerable adult, whether it has occurred at the event or prior to the event, that person must report his/her suspicions to the leader of the event and together they must ascertain the details needed to make an accurate report. This report must be made within 24 hours. The report should include the following information, if obtainable:

1. The name, address, age and sex of the alleged victim;
2. The name and address of the alleged victim's parents or other person responsible for his/her care;
3. The nature and extent of the alleged abuse or neglect;
4. Any evidence of previously known or suspected abuse or neglect of the alleged victim or their siblings;
5. The name, address and relationship, if known, of the person who is alleged to have perpetrated the abuse or neglect; and
6. Any other information known to the person making the report that would be helpful to the investigation of the alleged abuse.

The event leader shall contact the appropriate state or county agency to file the abuse report and forward the aforementioned information to the agency as soon as possible. The person making the report should keep a copy of the report and consider it confidential information. Another report should be sent to the Conference staff person overseeing the event at which the alleged abuse occurred.

The alleged perpetrators of the abuse will be required to refrain from all events involving children, youth and vulnerable adults until the incident report is resolved. In any removal of a person from any activities, care must be taken to handle this in a discreet manner, recognizing that an investigation is still being conducted.

RESPONSE PLAN

A quick, compassionate and unified response to an alleged incident of child abuse is expected. All allegations will be taken seriously. In all cases of reported or observed abuse in a children's activity, the entire staff of that activity shall be at the service of all official investigating agencies.

The Conference Director of Communications, or his/her designee, is the only person(s) authorized to make statements to representatives of the media. All requests for statements should be directed to the Director of Communications. Training in how to handle media requests should be a regular part of Conference staff training. A spirit of cooperation in helping the media find the "official spokesperson" is often helpful.

If the allegation is against a Conference staff person or volunteer or if it occurred in the course of a Conference activity, the staff person in charge of the activity and the Conference Crisis Management Team shall be contacted immediately. The Conference Crisis Management Team will advise the Conference's insurance carrier.

In either case, pastoral support will be available to all persons involved with the incident as indicated.

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

POLICIES & BENEFITS

JANUARY 23, 2013

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

These are the basic personnel policies of the California-Nevada Annual Conference (hereafter referred to as the Conference) of the United Methodist Church. These policies apply to lay employees and any clergy employees employed by these agencies but not under episcopal appointment as conference staff. These policies are the entire agreement between the employee and the employing agencies and cannot be changed by any oral or written statements that contradict or are in conflict with the policies set forth herein. Within the authority granted by the United Methodist Book of Discipline and the standing rules of the California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, these policies supersede all previous handbooks, personnel manuals, policies, or guidelines which are in conflict with this document. Although more specific policies, procedures, training programs or instruction, either verbal or written, may also apply depending upon the employee's job, no such policy or procedure may be in conflict with those contained in this document. In addition, no employing agency representative is authorized to modify these policies for any employee or to enter into any agreement contrary to what is stated herein. Each employee will be provided with a copy of the personnel policies and are required to read, become familiar with, and agree to abide by these policies during their employment.

The Conference Human Resources Team will review and recommend policy changes to CFA for adoption as they deem necessary. Any changes to these policies will be provided to employees, in writing, at the time changes are made. The employing agencies are charged with oversight of the implementation of these policies.

Employment with the Annual Conference is strictly "at-will" and may be terminated at any time by either the employee or by the supervisor/supervising agency without cause or reason. Nothing contained in this manual, nor in any representation by any supervisor or representative of the agency may contradict or contravene this policy of at-will employment.

The conference treasurer's office may provide ancillary payroll and/or bookkeeping services to other conference-related agencies or committees other than the employing agencies listed above. Such services do not imply an employer/employee relationship with the Annual Conference.

ABOUT THIS EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

This handbook sets forth policies and benefits for the following:

- All lay employees of the Annual Conference, including clergy employed by the Annual Conference but not under appointment.

The statements contained in this Employee Handbook are intended to serve as general information concerning the employees of the Conference. You should familiarize yourself with the contents of this handbook for it will answer many common questions concerning employment with the Conference. But, this handbook should not be considered your only source of information.

This Employee Handbook is meant as a supplement to the provisions of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church ("Book of Discipline") and the Journal of the California Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

HANDBOOK UPDATES

The Human Resources Team is responsible for periodic review of all benefits and employment policies and will update this handbook accordingly. The information contained in this handbook may change from time to time. You will receive updated information as changes occur. None of the information in this handbook is a guarantee that conditions of employment may not change (See, for example, – Employment at Will later in this handbook). WHO WE ARE

The United Methodist Church, which began as a movement and a loose network of local societies with a mission, has grown into one of the most carefully organized and largest denominations in the world. The United Methodist structure and organization began as a means of accomplishing the mission of spreading Scriptural Holiness over the land. John Wesley recognized the need for an organized system of communication and accountability and developed what he called the "connexion," which was an interlocking system of classes, societies, and annual conferences.

No local church is the total body of Christ. Therefore, local United Methodist churches are bound together by a common mission and common governance that accomplish reaching out into the world. United Methodist churches and organizations join in mission with each other and with other denominations.

The annual conferences typically have a central office and professional staff that coordinate and conduct ministry and the business of the conference. It likely has a director of connectional ministries, treasurer, directors of program areas (such as camping), communications director, and other staff as deemed appropriate for the annual conference and as required by the Book of Discipline. Clergy and laypersons may also serve on conference boards, commissions and committees.

As an employee of the California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, you are part of an organization founded in 1848, the first Protestant organization in California. Today, the California-Nevada Annual Conference includes 350 churches spanning the area from Bakersfield to the Oregon border, from the Pacific Coast to Eastern Nevada.

The annual conference is the basic governing body within the United Methodist denomination. The term “annual conference” refers to both an entity and an event. The event called “annual conference” occurs every June. Clergy and lay members from our churches meet to worship, to elect delegates and committee members and to create policies. The policies of the annual conference are implemented throughout the year via various boards and agencies.

Our ordained clergy are members of the annual conference, not members of individual churches. They are appointed to a church by the resident bishop. Most will serve numerous churches in the course of their careers.

The United Methodist denomination is a global church with conferences and churches throughout the world. It includes 62 annual conferences in the United States, 12 central conferences in Africa, 4 central conferences in Europe and 1 central conference in the Philippines. Over 800 United Methodist missionaries serve mission projects in 65 countries.

Most employees of the California-Nevada Annual Conference are based in our United Methodist Center in West Sacramento, California while others are located at our Board of Pensions office in Oakland, California. Our employees work as a team to resource the people of the Annual Conference and to help serve as the connection between the “people in the pews” and the global church. Our success depends on our ability to coordinate and communicate our efforts within the decentralized organizational structure of the Annual Conference.

Supervisors play a key role in helping you and the organization achieve this success. Supervisors work together to help create a positive working environment for all employees in West Sacramento and Oakland. Your supervisor is your primary link to the organizational structure. You are encouraged to talk to your supervisor about any employment question or concern. If you are not satisfied with their response, you can contact the personnel committee directly.

We place a high value on professionalism and customer service. We hope you will take the initiative to build relationships with your co-workers in order to foster the coordination of effort necessary for success. We also encourage you to build professional working relationships with the clergy and lay people of our local churches.

The California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church has made a difference in the lives of thousands of people over many generations. We welcome you to our team and wish you great success!

Our Mission Statement

The mission of the United Methodist Church is:

TO MAKE DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST FOR THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE WORLD.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

BEFORE YOU ARE HIRED

HIRING PRACTICES

Staff Requirements

All staff members must be supportive of the principles and values of the Christian faith and the purposes of the United Methodist denomination, and:

- Possess the special aptitudes, skills, and capacities that are required in their respective field of work;
- Win and hold the cooperation and good will of the people they serve, as well as their associates;
- Maintain and keep confidences at all times;
- Demonstrate the capacity to learn and to improve their work skills and abilities through continuing education.

Conference Hiring Policies

The Conference will consider for employment all candidates who meet our staff requirements and the job qualifications of the open position. When an opening occurs, the most skilled and talented individual(s) will be sought to fill the job.

Current staff members will be made aware of the job, its goals and objectives, and the minimum qualifications needed to be considered for the position prior to its being advertised to the general public. After a designated amount of time, the Conference may conduct a search externally for additional candidates.

If a current employee meets the minimum qualifications for the open position and is interested in applying, the employee should discuss the opportunity with their supervisor. If the employee is qualified for the position, the job presents an opportunity for the employee, and the employee has fulfilled their obligation to the Conference in their present position, their supervisor will discuss their application with the hiring supervisor and/or the HR Team. Following the appropriate review, the employee may be invited to interview for the position.

All candidate resumes will first be reviewed by the hiring supervisor(s). Personal interviews for qualified candidates for Conference positions will be conducted by an interview team consisting of the hiring supervisor and/or members of the HR Team. Upon completion of the interview process, an offer may be offered. If none of the candidates is determined to be a good match for the position – or the offer is rejected – the recruiting and interview process will continue as described above.

Application for Employment

All candidates for employment must complete, date, and sign the standard Conference Employment Application form. A resume may accompany the employment application. The completed application will be made part of the personnel file of those applicants selected for employment.

Confirmation of Previous Employment

The Human Resources Team will verify the accuracy and completeness of previous employment and personal information contained in the application. The Conference may refuse, in its sole discretion, to hire and may terminate the employment of anyone giving false or incomplete information.

Reference Checks

The Conference desires to provide a work environment that is safe and secure. Therefore, the Conference will conduct a reference check to determine or verify background information. This is to ensure that individuals who join the Conference are well qualified, have a strong potential to be productive and successful, and have honestly presented their background and qualifications.

Background Checks/Drug Screening

All new Conference employees will undergo a criminal background check and drug screening.

Employment of Relatives

Spouses or other relatives may work for the Conference. However, close relatives should not supervise one another nor report to the same supervisor. Close relatives are defined as spouses, domestic partners, children, brothers/sisters, parents, grandparents, aunts/uncles, in-laws, and first cousins.

Equal Employment Opportunity

The Conference is committed to a policy of equal treatment for everyone. Such treatment will be given regardless of age, race, color, sex, sexual orientation, religious creed, national origin, ancestry, disability, medical condition, or marital status.

The Conference will make every effort to ensure that actions affecting your employment are administered fairly and in the spirit of equal opportunity employment. These actions include but are not limited to hiring, placement, training, promotion, performance evaluation, compensation, fringe benefits, working conditions, special programs, transfers, leaves of absence, termination, social or recreational programs, educational reimbursement, and separations.

You and your coworkers hold the keys to our success. The Conference recognizes this and accordingly believes that direct, open communication among employees, consistent and fair personnel policies, and a creative, healthy and rewarding work environment are essential.

Americans with Disabilities Act

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Conference endeavors to provide a workplace free from discrimination against persons with disabilities. The ADA expressly prohibits discrimination with regard to job application procedures, hiring, discharges, compensation, advancement, job training, and other terms and conditions and privileges of employment. The Conference will make every effort to accommodate employees with disabilities.

ONCE YOU ARE HIRED

Employment at Will

We want you to enjoy working here, and we hope you will stay with us for many years of productive service. However, employment with the Conference is not offered, contracted, or promised for any specific length of time. You have the right to leave your employment with us at any time, and we have the right to terminate your employment at any time. The right of the employee or the Conference to terminate the employment relationship at will is recognized and affirmed as a condition of employment.

Introductory Period for Training and Evaluation

All new employees, including transfers and individuals who have been promoted from non-exempt to exempt status, will attend an Orientation Meeting with their immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Team during the first few weeks of their employment or promotion.

In addition to providing general information about the employer, the immediate supervisor or Human Resources Team will discuss job expectations (and Job Description), and explain personnel policies, procedures, and benefit programs.

Each employee will be provided with a copy of this Employee Handbook. The employee is responsible for reading its contents, and is expected to use it as a guide during the term of employment. Questions concerning the Employee Handbook may be directed to the employee's immediate supervisor or the Human Resources Team.

Each employee will complete and sign the Acknowledgment of Receipt page and return it to his/her immediate supervisor. The first 90 days of continuous employment at the Conference are considered an introductory period. It is during this time that your supervisor initially evaluates your ability to perform work assigned and for you to adjust to new working conditions. Your supervisor will provide you with specific requirements and expectations for the position and will guide and counsel you regarding any concerns that emerge during training. The Introductory period may be extended for any employee in order to complete the initial evaluation. Extension of the introductory period will be made in writing to the Human Resources Team. Such extensions alter and extend the evaluation cycle described above. Completion of the introductory period does not entitle the employee to remain employed by the Conference for any definite period of time. Both the employee and the Church are free, at any time – with or without notice and with or without cause – to end the employment relationship.

EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

Employment Status

All positions are classified as either exempt or non-exempt. Position duties must meet relevant state and federal laws to be classified as exempt. Classifications will be stated in the job description.

Nonexempt

Non-exempt employees will be paid overtime for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a workweek or 8 hours in a work day and must maintain a true and accurate record of hours worked. For further details, refer to the Overtime Policy section later in this handbook.

Exempt

WORK SCHEDULES

Regular Workday

Conference Center regular office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday. Each department may establish its own flexible work schedule provided that good customer service is made available and to every degree possible employee work schedules provide coverage during the same business hours as those established for the Conference Center.

Breaks and Lunch Periods

State law requires that employees are provided with a paid 10 minute break for each four (4) hours of work. Breaks are informal and may be taken at the employee's convenience.

In accordance with state law, employees are also required to take a meal period each day which should be no less than thirty (30) minutes for each six (6) or more hours of work. Meal periods are not considered working time and therefore are not paid.

Determination for Hours Worked

Hours worked, in general, means the period between the times an employee begins and ends his/her principal activity(s). It includes all the time during which the employee is necessarily required to be on the employer's premises or at a prescribed place of work. Bona fide meal periods are not work time. Attendance at lectures or training required by the employer or given by the employer is hours worked.

Whether or not time spent in travel is working time depends upon the kind of travel involved. Normal travel from home to work is not work time. Travel to another city or work site is not considered ordinary home-to-work travel. It would qualify as an integral part of the employee's principal activity(s), and thus be work time. The time counted would be travel and work that occurs during normal working hours. The time traveling to and from the airport, for example, is not counted as work time.

Overtime

Overtime is sometimes necessary and is determined by the supervisor.

At Employee's Request

While the Conference appreciates the efforts of employees who work beyond their normal schedules, all employees are expected to accomplish their work during normal Conference hours. We recognize, however, that circumstances do occur from time to time making it necessary for employees to work after hours or on weekends or holidays. Therefore, the Conference may authorize overtime work beyond an employee's normal workweek. All nonexempt employees must obtain approval from the appropriate supervisor(s) before overtime work is undertaken.

Nonexempt employees may be required to work overtime. If overtime is required, the supervisor will make every effort to notify the employee of the requirement as soon as possible. Employees may be scheduled to work weekends and holidays.

Exempt employees are not eligible for overtime pay.

Nonexempt employees who work more than eight hours in a day or more than 40 hours during the week will be paid overtime.

Computing Overtime

- All overtime is to be reported on your time card, time sheet or into the electronic timekeeping system.
- Pay for the first eight hours in a day or the first 40 hours of work in any one workweek will be computed at the regular pay scale.
- The hours worked over 8 hours in a day, over forty hours in a week, and any hours worked on the seventh consecutive day will be compensated in accordance with state and federal law.
- Hours not worked—paid time off, personal time off, holidays, sick days, jury duty, and bereavement leave—are not included in overtime computation. For example, if you work 32 hours and take nine hours of vacation in one week, you will not receive overtime pay for that week.

Attendance and Punctuality

Our commitment to quality customer service and our ability to operate efficiently depends on having adequate staff available during normal work hours. You are expected to be at work as scheduled and be ready to begin work promptly at the established time. Any variance in your work schedule must be reported to the accounting department by your supervisor in writing.

You are expected to notify your supervisor in advance if:

- You are unable to report to work due to illness, injury, or any other reason;
- You expect to arrive late to work; and
- You need to leave during the workday.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Time and Attendance Reporting

Time Reporting

Non-exempt employees must record their time accurately each workday using an electronic system. Record your starting time, ending time, and lunch times in and out. The time and attendance system allows a 10 minute window around your scheduled starting time. Please notify your supervisor if you cannot start or end your work day in this 10 minutes window for any particular day. In general and as noted above, you are expected to be at work as scheduled and be ready to begin work promptly at the established time.

Recorded time must reflect the actual time worked. Falsification of your time record is a basis for immediate dismissal.

Pay Period and Payment

You will be paid semi-monthly with pay dates on the 15th and the last day of the month, assuming those days are weekdays.

When those days are not weekdays, the pay date will be the preceding weekday. Pay periods run from 3 weekdays prior to the last pay date through the fourth weekday prior to the next pay date. A schedule of pay dates and pay periods will be distributed to each employee at the beginning of each calendar year.

Employees may have pay directly deposited into their bank accounts if they provide advance written authorization to the accounting department. Employees will receive an itemized statement of wages when direct deposits are made.

Pay for Partial Pay Period

If you are employed for less than a full pay period (i.e., you take leave without pay or resign at a date other than the beginning or the end of the pay period), your pay is computed on the basis of time worked.

Garnishment Policy

Garnishments and wage assignments are legal liens against an employee's earning required to satisfy unpaid debts or judgments ordered by a court. An employer has no option but to follow the precise requirements outlined in any garnishment and employees will be notified when such a garnishment is to be applied.

Payroll Deductions

As required by law, the Conference will make the following deductions (if applicable) from an employee's gross pay: federal and state income taxes, Social Security and Medicare taxes, and garnishments. There is not a payroll deduction for state unemployment or disability as the conference (as a church) does not participate in these plans. Employees must authorize any other deductions made to their pay.. Questions regarding payroll deductions should be directed to Accounting Manager.

Whom to Contact if There Is an Error in Pay

Errors in pay may occur. We encourage you to regularly review your pay vouchers. If you believe there is an error in your pay, you should notify the Accounting Office within five business days. The Accounting Manager will make every attempt to adjust the error immediately, or no later than your next pay period.

Pension Contributions

The Annual Conference offers pension contributions to all fulltime employees at 12% of their compensation level. Plan benefits are described in the plan document. A summary of the plan documents is available from the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Pensions.

Health Benefits

The Annual Conference offers a health plan to all employees working 30 hours or more per week, including spouses/domestic partners and dependent children for which premiums are paid. Plan benefits are described in the evidence of coverage booklet available from the Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Pensions.

Job Postings

The Conference will notify employees of internal employment opportunities via postings on Conference bulletin boards, electronic mail, or other means. Contact the Human Resources Team if you are interested in applying for a posted position.

Transfer of Positions or Duties

To meet Conference requirements, you may be required to temporarily perform duties not specifically included in your job description or you may be asked to transfer to another department. Your supervisor will notify you if you must take on extra duties or be transferred. If you decline to take on the requested extra duties or transfer, your employment may be terminated.

If an employee should wish to take on extra duties or transfer to another work location he or she should submit a request to their supervisor.

Educational Assistance Program

Financial assistance may be available to eligible full-time employees to further their education. Eligibility is based upon an employee's job description and length of service, and availability of funding within the Conference budget. You may obtain information regarding the application process from the Human Resources Team.

Employee Performance Reviews

To assist you in performing your work to the best of your abilities, it is important that you be recognized for your performance and that you receive appropriate suggestions for improvements. Consistent with this goal, your supervisor will conduct periodic written evaluations of your job performance. Written performance evaluations will be based on your overall performance in relation to your job responsibilities as defined in your job description. Evaluations will also take into account your conduct, demeanor, and your contribution to the Conference Mission and Vision.

If you are a nonexempt employee, performance evaluations will occur after you have been employed from three to six months, again on your first anniversary date, and at a minimum, annually thereafter. If you are promoted or transferred to a new position, your performance will be evaluated after you have been in your new position for at least three months.

The Conference conducts annual written performance reviews of each employee. Your supervisor will prepare and sign the performance evaluation, which will then be reviewed by the next level of management and the Human Resources Team. You should examine the evaluation, make comments, if you wish, and sign it. The original will be placed in your personnel file. A copy will be provided to you. In addition to the regular performance evaluations described above, the Conference may conduct interim written performance evaluations at any time to inform an employee of performance or disciplinary problems.

Progressive Disciplinary Action

Violation of Conference policies and rules may warrant disciplinary action. A system of progressive discipline has been established that includes verbal warnings, written warnings, and suspension. The system is not formal, and the Conference may utilize whatever form of discipline is deemed appropriate under the circumstances -- up to and including termination of employment. The Conference's policy of progressive discipline in no way limits or alters the at-will employment relationship. Serious violations or unacceptable behavior as defined in the section titled "Gross Misconduct" may result in immediate termination with no prior written warnings.

Personnel Files

The Conference maintains a confidential personnel file for each employee at the Conference Center. These files, maintained by the Human Resources Team, contain documentation regarding all aspects of the employee's employment with the Conference such as performance reviews, beneficiary designation forms, etc. Personnel files are the property of the Conference.

Requests to Review

Due to the confidential nature of the information in personnel files, access to them is regulated. They will be made available to employees for inspection with their supervisor upon reasonable request and scheduling. You may take notes, but you cannot remove, make copies, or make notations on the documents in your personnel file. You have the right to request in writing that a correction be made or that certain portions of your file be deleted; or, you may write a statement of disagreement with any item (open to inspection) contained in your file.

Keep Us Informed About You

When hired, you completed various forms that contained important information. Keeping this information correct and up-to-date is your responsibility. Accurate data enables us to reach you in an emergency, forward your mail and W-4 forms, compute your payroll deductions, etc. Notify the Human Resources Team promptly of any changes in the following:

- Name
- Address or telephone number (notify supervisor or manager as well)

- Marital status
- Number of dependents
- Formal education or courses completed
- Beneficiary or dependent designated on insurance as applicable

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

The Conference is committed to sustaining a positive work environment in which employees work constructively together and communicate openly. Employee programs, wages, and working relationships are intended to help you achieve genuine personal satisfaction and growth. However, as with any group working together, honest differences of opinion will arise from time-to-time. The problem resolution policy and process has been established as a foundation for ensuring that the work environment remains positive and that together we can find ways to improve the way we serve others.

The conflict resolution policy is intended to:

- Provide the opportunity to resolve a conflict or complaint quickly, fairly and without reprisal.
- Improve communication and understanding between employees; and between employees and their supervisor.
- Ensure confidence in management that employee concerns will be addressed.
- Support a positive work environment by allocating supervisors responsibility for preventing and resolving conflicts and complaints.
- Identify organization policies and procedures which need to be clarified or modified.
- Ensure that employees who are experiencing a work related conflict or have a concern or complaint are encouraged to resolve it through discussions with their co-workers or their supervisor whenever possible.
- Provide that all requests for conflict resolution, complaints and appeals shall be fully investigated and a reply will be given as quickly as possible.
- Protect employees who initiate conflict resolution or make a complaint, or participate in a conflict resolution investigation from retaliation.

Procedures

Conflict resolution and complaint process: The conflict resolution process is available to help you resolve work-related problems.

1. Employees who experience a work related conflict or who have a complaint should first attempt to discuss the matter with the individual with whom they have the conflict. In some situations this may be difficult or inappropriate. In these cases, the employee may request a meeting with their supervisor to discuss the problem.
2. The supervisor will analyze the merits of the conflict resolution request or complaint, and within two (2) working days will meet with the employee to inform the employee of the proposed plan of action.
3. If the supervisor's response does not achieve the desired results, the matter may be referred to the next level of management for a final decision.
4. The Conference reserves the right to change, alter, or eliminate the conflict resolution and complaint process in any specific instance in its sole and absolute discretion.

Harassment

Definition

The Fair Employment and Housing act in California prohibits discrimination on the basis of protected categories, race, color, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sex, sexual orientation, religion, or national origin.

The Conference is committed to promoting and preserving an environment of open communication, supporting the development of one's faith, and encouraging productivity. This can only be accomplished in a work environment that is free of harassment, intimidation, or coercion. Harassing behavior is inconsistent with the Conference's philosophy of mutual dignity and respect for all employees, and will not be tolerated.

This policy applies equally to all employees, supervisors, ordained clergy, volunteers, and non-employees admitted to Conference premises or in contact with Conference personnel in the normal course of their duties with the Conference. Any Conference employee who engages in harassment will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment or legal action.

Harassment Complaint Procedures

If you believe you are being harassed or discriminated against, or you witness or become aware of conduct that you believe to be harassment or discrimination, you should:

- Consider speaking to the offending person about his or her offensive conduct and explain that you do not like the behavior. You are under no obligation to speak to the offending person.
- If you have spoken with the offender and had no success resolving the situation (or it would be inappropriate to do so), report such facts immediately to your supervisor so that appropriate action can be taken. If you are uncomfortable approaching your supervisor or if you still feel that the matter has not been adequately addressed, bring it to the attention of the Human Resources Team.

Firearms, Weapons, and Threats of Violence

The Conference prohibits the possession, carrying, and/or use of any type of firearms or weapons on its property. For purposes of this policy, Conference property is defined as:

- All land/grounds and facilities of the Conference
- Conference vehicles, including personal vehicles being used for Conference business; and
- All other locations where employees of Conference are conducting business within the scope of their employment.

To ensure the well-being of all employees, visitors, vendors, and customers, the Conference will not tolerate any form of violence or threat of violence. Any employee engaging in a violent act or threatening such an act will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. Employees who have threats made against them or who are aware of threats to others should report this information to their supervisor and/or the Director of Human Resources.

An employee who violates the Conference's policy against firearms, weapons, and threats of violence will be subject to immediate termination. Furthermore, carrying a weapon onto Conference property will be considered an act of criminal trespass and will be grounds for immediate removal from Conference property and termination of employment.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees of the Conference are expected to uphold and reflect the values, vision, and mission of the Conference at all time. The Conference has no objection to employees holding other jobs as long as they can effectively meet the performance standards for their positions with the Conference and such outside employment is consistent with the values, vision, and mission of the Conference. Outside employment will present a conflict of interest if it has an actual or potential for adverse impact on the Conference. We ask you to consider the effects such extra work may have—such as whether it may limit your effectiveness on your job with the Conference. The Conference will hold all employees to the same standards of performance and cannot make exceptions for those who also hold outside jobs. For those who do have outside employment that does not conflict with the values, vision, and mission of the Conference, such persons shall not use any asset of the Conference and/or their on duty time at the Conference to advance the interests of their outside employment.

OFF-SITE EMPLOYEES/TELECOMMUTING

Telecommuting may be approved by a supervisor in consultation with the HR Team. However, please note that not all positions are suitable for telecommuting.

TELECOMMUTING GUIDELINES

The following guidelines apply to telecommuting arrangements:

- A specific work schedule, including workdays and hours, must be agreed upon in advance.
- Employees must be on site as necessary to attend meetings, training sessions, or similar events or occurrences.
- Employees who are unable to work due to illness must use sick leave and must report their absence to their supervisor.

- Employees are responsible for the safety and security of all Conference property and proprietary information.
- Conference property such as computers, printers, fax machines, and other equipment loaned to an employee is the employee's responsibility while it is not on Conference premises.
- Equipment and services may be provided by and paid for by the employee's department at the department's sole discretion. In many cases, employees will be expected to provide their own equipment, such as computers and telephone lines, if they wish to telecommute.
- Equipment such as computers, printers, software, and services such as fax lines provided on loan by the Conference remain the property of the Conference while on loan, and must be returned upon termination of the telecommuting arrangement.
- If Conference equipment is provided, each piece of equipment must be listed with its serial number when the employee takes possession.
- Employees must return the equipment in the same condition in which it was originally received, minus normal wear and tear. Employees are personally liable for missing or damaged equipment.
- The Conference assumes no liability for injuries occurring in the employee's home workspace outside of work hours.
- Employees should note that some homeowner policies do not automatically cover injuries arising out of, or relating to, the business use of the home. For employees' protection, employees should have their homeowners/tenants liability policy endorsed to cover bodily injury and property damage to all third parties arising out of or relating to the business use of their home. Employees who live in rented property should be aware that their lease might not permit business use of the premises.

HONORARIA/FEES TO CONFERENCE EMPLOYEES

Services to a local church or agency of the Conference which are within an employee's job responsibilities should not be compensated to the employee separately by the local church or agency. Any honorarium or fees received shall be remitted by the employee to the Conference.

DAY-TO-DAY WORK PRACTICES

We must make sure that we project an image that lives up to our constituent's expectations and to our own quality standards. This includes the cleanliness and appearance of the facilities, the friendly helpful service we provide, and upholding Christian values.

An adequate parking area is provided for employees. Employees are asked to park in the back area of the parking lot and to leave the parking spaces at the entrance open for visitors. Please cooperate by not blocking driveways. The Conference assumes no responsibility for employees' vehicles or their content while on Conference property.

The Conference recognizes an employee's desire to display family mementos or other personal items. While the Conference can take no responsibility for their safekeeping, we welcome you to personalize your work area for added comfort. However, several guidelines must be observed:

- Nothing can be displayed that is derogatory to any person or system of beliefs.
- Objects that are inappropriate or hinder work efforts will not be allowed.

Voice Mail

The Conference may provide you with a voice mailbox that allows you to receive incoming call information when you are away from your office or on the phone frequently.

Please follow these guidelines:

- Personalize your voice mailbox greetings. Greetings should be polite, business-like, short, and informational. They should include, at a minimum, your name, office, date of the update, and availability. As a part of your greeting, give the name and extension of someone else in the office that can help the caller.

- Check for voice mail messages on a regular basis and reply promptly.
- Consider business and security issues when determining how long messages should be retained on the system before erasing them.
- Do not rely on voice mail as a standard operating procedure. Answer the phone while at your workstation.

Equipment and Facilities

Energy Preservation and Waste Prevention

Waste of energy and materials is costly to the Conference and ultimately results in expenses that must be paid through other cost reduction actions. Please conserve energy at every opportunity by keeping thermostats in moderate temperature ranges. Space heaters must be approved by the Facilities Manager.

Materials, Furnishings, and Equipment

All materials, furnishings, and equipment remain Conference property. An employee should ask permission from his or her supervisor if he/she wishes to use any of the above for personal use.

TRANSPORTION AND TRAVEL

Using Personal Vehicles

Employees may use their personal vehicles on official Conference business. A mileage rate, set by the Conference Treasurer, based on acceptable and current IRS regulations will be paid to employees who use their personal vehicles on official Conference business. The employee's automobile insurance is primary when using personal vehicles for official Conference business.

Travel Expense Reimbursement

The Conference will reimburse employees for reasonable and documented expenses incurred when they are traveling on Conference business, including meals and lodging. In keeping with the spirit of good stewardship, expenses are to be kept to a minimum.

Documenting Your Expenses

A clear, honest, well documented, and organized expense report is expected. Any questions may be directed to the Accounting Department. Violations or any form of abuse in relation to these policies and standards can result in denial of reimbursement requests and can ultimately lead to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

GUIDELINES

The following guidelines must be observed:

- All expense records must be turned in to the Accounting Department. Attach the receipts to the expense report.
- Any travel and/or business expenses must be submitted for reimbursement by providing receipts showing name(s), date(s), business discussed, amount(s), and the account to be charged. A Travel Expense Reimbursement form is available in the Accounting Department.
- The Conference will not provide reimbursements if covered by another party. If the employee has already received reimbursement from the Conference and then receives reimbursement from a third party, the employee must return the money reimbursed by the Conference.

TIME OFF FROM WORK

Conference policies regarding time off from work are explained in the following paragraphs. When arranging to take vacation, personal, extended sick leave, or any other types of leave, you must make a request to your supervisor and obtain his/her approval. Your supervisor must then submit in writing your approved time off and submit it to the accounting department.

Vacation

Exempt lay employees earn the same amount of vacation time as the clergy of this Conference, accruing at a rate of .84 days per pay period – 4 weeks per year.

Non-exempt employees accrue vacation according to the following schedule:

Length of service	Weeks of vacation	Accrual rate per hour
0-5 years	2	0.038461
6-10 years	3	0.057692
over 10 years	4	0.076923

The maximum amount of vacation that can be accrued and not taken is 150% of one year's accrual amount. After 150% of a year's vacation is built up, no more vacation time will be accrued until some is taken. No employee may "cash out" vacation until termination at which time all earned but unused vacation time will be paid in accordance with state law.

SICK LEAVE

Employees earn 12 sick days per year worked. Exempt employees earn .5 sick days per pay period. Non-exempt employees earn sick time at a rate of .046154 hours per hour worked. There is no maximum accrual for sick time. Sick leave is to be used only in cases of illness, injury or medical appointment of the employee or an immediate family member (parent, child or spouse/domestic partner) where the employee must be absent to attend to the family member's needs. Additional sick time may be granted by the immediate supervisor and the HR Team in the event of a catastrophic illness.

Employees who are going to be absent should notify their supervisor according to the policies contained herein. Any employee who is absent for more than five consecutive days may be required to provide a physician's documentation justifying stating the need for sick leave. Accrued sick leave shall not be paid out upon separation of employment.

If you contract a disease that limits your ability to successfully perform your job duties or threatens the health or safety of others at work, you may be placed on sick leave. A doctor's statement is required before you may return to work. The doctor's statement must indicate that you are able to return to your job duties satisfactorily and does not pose a threat to the health and safety of others.

Full-time non-exempt employees shall receive seven (7) hours pay for each of the holidays specified, and part-time employees shall receive pro-rated pay based upon their schedule. In the event a holiday falls on Saturday, the preceding Friday will be observed. Should the holiday fall on Sunday, the following Monday shall be considered the holiday. If an employee is required to work on a holiday then the employee shall be granted another mutually agreeable day off with pay. Holidays will not be considered as time worked for purposes of calculating or computing overtime, and if a holiday falls during an employee's vacation, the employee will not be charged that day as vacation time, but instead will receive it as holiday pay if they otherwise qualify.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The following leave and salary continuation rights shall run concurrently with and shall be coordinated with any leave and salary continuation programs under state and federal law:

Jury Duty: Employees will be granted time off to serve on juries upon presentation of the Summons from the Jury Commissioner to their supervisor. The Conference will pay up to ten (10) working days each calendar year for employees to serve on jury duty if called. When first called for jury duty the employee should notify their supervisor who may ask the employee to seek a postponement based on work requirements, request "on call" status from the Jury Commissioner and be available by telephone from the workplace. In addition, any employee released from jury duty during a regularly scheduled workday shall return to work.

Witness Duty: Employees will be granted time off to act as a witness upon presentation of a copy of the subpoena to their supervisor. The Conference will pay up to two (2) working days each calendar year for employees to serve as a witness if called. In addition, any employee released from witness duty during a regularly scheduled workday shall return to work.

Military Leave: Military leaves of absence are provided to all employees in compliance with applicable state and federal laws. Any employee requesting military leave should submit such request promptly and accompany any such request with a copy of their orders indicating the beginning and ending dates of their active duty period. Military leave is unpaid.

Maternity/Paternity Leave: Employees are entitled to the same amount of maternity/paternity leave as clergy. Clergy maternity/paternity leave is described in the Book of Discipline. Employees are eligible for maternity/paternity leave of up to 3 months at the birth or arrival of a child into the home for purposes of adoption. Compensation will be maintained for no less than eight weeks of leave. Employees desiring this leave should notify their supervisor or supervising committee 90 days in advance, if possible. Maternity/paternity leave of up to three (3) months will be considered uninterrupted service for pension purpose. An employee's health benefits will remain unaffected by the leave.

Disability Due to Medical Condition: Employees disabled due to a medical condition may qualify for unpaid leave of absence for the duration of their disability, up to a maximum of four (4) months. Any employee who believes they may qualify for such disability leave must present their supervisor with a physician's statement of disability and must return to work upon release by their physician following the disability. Any disability leave lasting in excess of four (4) months may be granted, but the employee will not be guaranteed a position upon return to work.

Personal Leave Without Pay: Employees may request up to thirty (30) day's leave without pay. Such requests should be made to the employee's supervisor or the supervising committee and may be granted or denied solely at the discretion of the Conference. During such personal leaves without pay, no vacation, sick leave, holiday or paid employee benefits will be earned or accrued.

School Leave: Employees may request up to forty (40) hours off per calendar year in order to attend and participate in the school of any dependent child. No more than eight (8) hours may be taken during any single month, and employees must receive permission in advance of taking the time off. Any time taken for this purpose is without pay.

Alcohol/Drug Rehabilitation Leave: The Conference wishes to assist employees who recognize that they have a problem with alcohol or other drugs that may interfere with their ability to perform their job in a satisfactory manner. Employees who have a problem with alcohol or drugs and who decide to enroll voluntarily in an alcohol/drug rehabilitation program will be given unpaid time off to participate in the program unless it would result in an undue hardship to the Conference to provide time off. If an employee requests time off to participate in such a program, the Conference will make a reasonable effort to maintain the confidentiality of the fact that the employee is enrolled in such a program.

Bereavement Leave: Bereavement leave may be granted by the employee's supervisor. The Conference will pay up to five days per year for bereavement leave.

VOTING

If an employee does not have sufficient time outside of working hours to vote at a statewide election, the employee may, take off enough working time which when added to the voting time available outside of working hours will enable the employee to vote. No more than two hours of the time taken off for voting shall be with pay.

If an employee has reason to believe that time off will be necessary to be able to vote on election day, the employee shall give their supervisor at least two working days' notice that time off for voting is desired, in accordance with provisions California Elections Code. (Section 14000)

IF YOU LEAVE THE CONFERENCE

Separation of Employment

Employees are separated from employment by voluntary resignation, termination, lack of work, or retirement.

If you decide to leave the Conference, you are expected to give at least two weeks written notice to your supervisor and the Human Resources Team. The notice should include the date of resignation.

Exit Interview

You may be asked to take part in an "exit interview" with the Human Resources Team. This meeting will give you the opportunity to discuss any problem areas and make suggestions, and to receive answers to your questions regarding continuation and conversion of specific benefit plans on an individual basis.

Pay and Benefits at Time of Separation

Property: The employee's supervisor will determine whether the individual has in his or her possession any Conference property (i.e. credit cards, keys, digital property etc.) and collect these items from the employee prior to their last workday.

(BOSTON) (THE METHODIST CHURCH, HONG KONG) 5/24/80 TRANS.TO CNUMC 80 FIRST, ST. JOHN'S, SAN FRANCISCO; 88 CHINESE,OAKLAND; 93 RETIRED.. CC: SUNNYVALE, TRINITY UMC

Ben started his ministry in Taiwan in the late 1950s. He was very involved in church planting and development under the direction of Bishops Ralph Ward and Hazen G. Werner. In the late 1960s, Ben pioneered counseling services in Hong Kong while employed at Yang Memorial Methodist Social Service. While in the US, he served as pastor in San Francisco and Oakland churches.

After retirement, Ben taught pastoral counseling at Trinity Theological College in Singapore for a year. He trained several Chinese clergy and established contacts with mainland churches. Ben and Margaret visited China often. At the time, there weren't many Chinese churches. Almost every church they visited was full of people. White-haired Christians often knelt on the ground praying after church services. Margaret and Ben wanted to do something for Chinese Christians.

In August 2008, they moved to their birthplace Shanghai to begin missionary work. Two days before departure Ben received a call. "I am a Baptist minister. 34 years ago, I attended your premarital counseling class in Hong Kong. The class built a solid foundation for my marriage. I want to thank you in person. By the way, I extended your training ministry in my church and helped many." They had breakfast with Reverend Leung the following day. Leung offered a personal testimony of how a childhood teacher turned his life towards Christ. This testimony and Leung's presence was a tremendous encouragement and blessing for them.

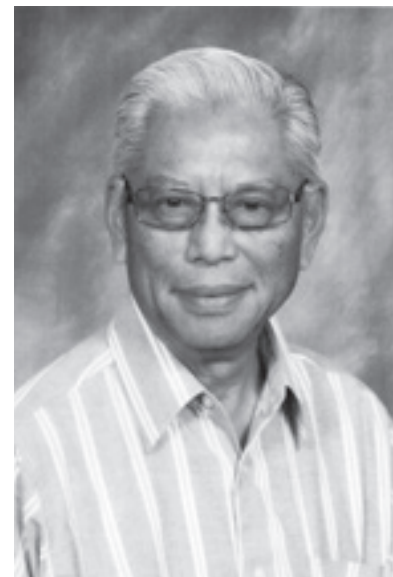

While in China, Ben trained church workers in Beijing, Nanjing, Shenyang, Shanghai, and many other places. Yearly in Beijing, he held classes in an underground church seminary with topics in pastoral counseling, small group leadership training, and various workshops. Many of his students were from persecuted Christian families in remote villages. After graduation, they become missionaries to far corners of the earth to preach the Gospel. Where ever Ben visited, he also preached, conducted ceremonies, and provided counseling services to people in need.

Ben was actively engaged in work until the day before he checked into a Shanghai cancer hospital for diagnosis. In July 2014, he returned to the US for his terminal care. He was in the care of his wife, children, in-laws, and grandchildren during his last days. On August 19, 2014, after six years of the most blessed and joyful days serving the Lord, Ben returned home.

A former student once wrote "I thought old folks focus on their own well being and cannot accomplish much. Your services in China completely changed my perspective. You are so pure and kind. In you, I understood love; God's love. Your witness in our midst will not be in vain.

We shall follow your footsteps."

HERBERT DONELL MILLER

P50-F54; (MISSOURI EAST); 7/1/82 TRANS. TO CNUMC 82 FIRST MEXICAN AMERICAN, CORCORAN; 83 FIRST, CORCORAN; 85 LV. OF ABSENCE; 10/2/86 PSYCHODRAMATIST, THE HORSHAM CLINIC; 94 RETIRED.. CC: CORCORAN, FIRST UMC

Herbert Donell Miller was born in McKeesport, PA October 1, 1926. His parents died when he was eleven years old. Don attended Asbury College in Wilmore, KY and received a B.S. from the University of Washington in 1948, an M.A. from Trinity College, and his MDiv. from Yale Divinity School in 1952. He received a PhD. from L.S.U. in Baton Rouge, LA in 1956.

Don knew he was called to preach when he was 15. He gave an altar call, but no one came to the mourner's bench. In his words, "The last person through the door spoke twice before I heard what she'd said, that she wanted me to pray with her. Quickly I called for assistance, we prayed, she was saved, and I knew I was called to preach after all."

Ordained Elder in Pittsburg, PA in 1954, Don was a member of the CA-NV Conference. He served 14 churches in his 52 years of ministry, retiring from Abington, PA UMC in 1994. He was also a Social and Clinical Psychology professor, a licensed Marriage and Family therapist, and training professional in Psychodrama. Don wrote 30 books!

Besides playing tennis, Don love singing. His favorite hymn was "O, For a Thousand Tongues to Sing". He had a marvelous bass voice and loved to sing in the church choir. He loved all kinds of music. He ushered to hear opera. In Hawaii Don Ho asked him to sing on stage. After singing two songs, Ho asked Don if he sang professionally.

District Superintendent Mike Morizono asked Don to preach at the Ministers Retreat at Three Rivers. Many requested copies of his sermon about Paul and Peter. Another memorable sermon was a Good Friday service in 1951 in Meriden, CT, "The Seven last Words of Christ on the Cross". After Don's part, all were reaching for tissues.

Don enjoyed doing weddings, including those for six of his children. He loved his rural churches in Louisiana, where the people were open, warm and caring. One of the parishes gave him a "pounding" that included hand-churned butter.

At age 88, in Redlands, CA, Don passed away from pancreatic cancer on December 31, 2014 at the Redlands Community Hospital, with his devoted family by his side. He is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Marjorie, his seven children: Harvey (Linda) of Surprise, AZ; Beth Singer of Monona, WI; Ted (Kathryn) of San Bernardino, CA; Mark and Jan of Redlands, CA; Don (Candy) of Highland, CA; and Chantel Varalli (Christian) of Philadelphia, PA; and 10 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Children Paul, Jonathan, and Bill preceded Don in death.

Don's memory will live on in the hundreds of lives he touched.

Michael “Mike” Manabu Morizono was born in Salinas, California, May 12, 1919. At 5 his family moved to West Oakland where he grew up helping his parents with the grocery store. Mike attended Oakland University High School, one of the first two Japanese students to play varsity football. Mike attended UC Berkeley, and in his sophomore year contracted tuberculosis.

In World War II, the family was sent to Tanforan (Race Track) Assembly Center. After the trauma of moving into horse stalls, Mike was involved in a production: “The Horses Stall and That Ain’t All”. When the internees were sent to Topaz, Mike was sent to a San Mateo TB sanatorium before going to Topaz. He was released to attend University of Wisconsin, Chicago, earning a B.A. in journalism and working as an editorial assistant.

Mike rejoined his parents and his pastor encouraged Mike to teach adult bible study. Lay Member Mike attended the Japanese Provisional Conference to fight to keep the pastor at West Tenth church and Mike met Callie Kaneko.

After a long-distance courtship of six months, Mike and Callie were married in 1951 and resided in Berkeley. Mike served as chairperson of the West Tenth Pastor Parish Relations which fostered a deep respect for Rev. Casper Horikoshi who became a dear friend and mentor.

Thirteen years later Mike was editor for the Industrial Relations Board San Francisco office, owned a home, and had children Deanne, John and Elaine. Then Mike had a Christ event. Callie asked, “Is this what we want to do for the rest of our lives?”, which shifted Mike’s life vision, and he enrolled in Pacific School of Religion.

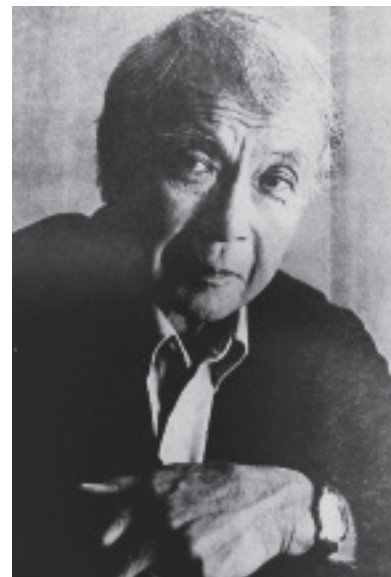

Graduating from PSR Mike’s first appointment was Santa Maria Christ where Mark was born. After five years Mike was appointed to San Jose Wesley UMC. Wesley members expressed, “The commitment of Mike and Callie to the church and their Lord led the members to new spiritual and numerical growth, and participation.” Four members entered the ministry.

In 1979 Mike became Fresno District Superintendent. After late meetings Mike would never stay the night, “I want to get home to Callie.”

Mike retired in 1985 and then served at Alameda Buena Vista, San Francisco Pine and Oakland Lake Park. Mike continued his love of reading by frequenting the library and getting books on theoretical physics, eastern religions, Buddhism, Jungian psychology, and mysticism.

Mike and Callie spent the rest of their 60 years of marriage enjoying time with family and grandchildren, taking strolls, bike riding, gardening, and golfing. With Mike by her side, Callie passed away on July 1, 2012. Two and a half years later at “almost 96 years old,” as Mike said, he passed away peacefully in Millbrae.

CARL HERBER ALEXANDER SCHWARZENBERG

Born September 6, 1922 in San Francisco to Herbert and Elsa Schwarzenberg, Carl attended school there and in Mill Valley, graduating from Tamalpais High School. In 1942, after briefly attending San Francisco State University [SFSU], Carl joined the U.S. Navy, where he served as a pharmacist's mate during WWII from 1942-45. While stationed in Western Australia, he met and married his dear wife, Faioa Irene Porter on May 18, 1945. Fai immigrated to the U.S. as a war bride, where they resettled in Mill Valley and Carl returned to SFSU. Upon graduation from SFSU in 1949, Carl went to Asbury Seminary School in Kentucky and was ordained as a UM minister in June 1951.

Before taking a year long sabbatical with the family to Australia in 1962, Carl served congregations in CA UMCs. Upon return to the U.S. Carl was assigned to the Mt. Shasta UMC in 1963, a time of social unrest due to the Vietnam War and the Civil Rights movement. These were issues for which Carl became a key spokesperson at the time, and were personal values that guided him for the remainder of his life.

In 1973 Carl was assigned to the UMC in Susanville where he continued advocacy for prisoners and their families until his retirement in 1986 to his beloved ranch on French Creek in Scott Valley. His lifelong interests that followed him into retirement included ham radio operation, hiking, backpacking, youth camps, Shasta Camp, playing his French horn with the COS orchestra and continued advocacy for social and environmental justice.

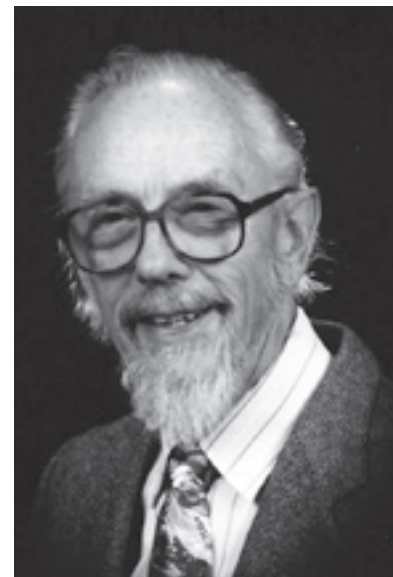

Carl stood for the environment of the earth and skies; for protection of animals; for compassion and caring for the weakest brothers and sisters; for the rights of all minorities; and for the cessation of violence and war. Carl was a channel for causes he deemed just as he regularly forwarded emails on a wide variety of causes.

Carl provided many people with recordings of significant talks and events: worship services and presentations at Annual Conference; Pastors' School; and the UOP Colliver Lectures. He only charged the cost of materials—the time, effort and equipment were his gifts to us.

In keeping with his final wishes, Carl died peacefully at his beloved ranch home in Etna, CA with his loving wife, Fai at his side. In his 92 years Carl's love and compassion positively impacted the lives of many individuals whose paths he crossed. He was a spokesperson for justice wherever he encountered a listening ear.

In addition to his loving wife, Carl is survived by his son John (Atik); daughters Lynne Birimisa (Charley), Jan Wolff (Gerry), and Nancy Pfeiffer (Ted); and seven grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren.

Melvin felt God was calling him into the ministry and after some time of soul searching and struggle he surrendered for the ministry in 1956 at the age of 30. He and Gladys sold their farm and moved to Abilene, Texas where they graduated from Mc Murray College. They moved to Colorado so Melvin could attend Iliff School of Theology where he received his Bachelor of Divinity Degree in 1964.

Melvin's greatest joy was to minister to people's needs. He loved people without reservation and was a true shepherd to the congregations he served. He loved the Lord wholeheartedly and strove to show the love of Christ to all he met. His ability to relate to all ages was a special gift that served him well in each place he served.

Gladys graciously served with him, but had her own career as a High School Teacher for many years. She also served as a Secretary for the Cal-Nevada Conference for several years before Melvin retired.

Melvin loved flowers and always had a beautiful garden wherever he lived. He and Gladys enjoyed traveling, spending time with family, and buying and selling antiques and collectibles. They had fun finding treasures at garage and estate sales wherever they went. They owned and operated an antique store in the Big Thompson Canyon in Colorado for several years before Gladys passed away.

Melvin passed away on Tuesday, October 21, 2014 in Fort Collins, Colorado where he had lived in a Nursing Center for several years. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gladys, in May 2002. They were married for 57 years. He is survived by two daughters, Donna Covington and Diane Runnells, two granddaughters and nine great-grandchildren. Donna resides in Loveland, Colorado and Diane lives in North Richland Hills, Texas.

Melvin and Gladys served the Lord with all their hearts and I believe the Lord would say "Well done my good and faithful servants."

Mark was born at Ft. Ord, CA Army Hospital when his father was stationed in the area, and was comforted by the concept of “coming full circle” in life—being born and dying in the same place. After receiving a Music Education degree from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Mark taught high school music, drama and humanities for 3 years prior to being called into ministry.

After receiving his M.Div. degree from St. Paul School of Theology Methodist in Kansas City, he served a church in Springfield, NE before joining the CA-NV Annual Conference. A dedicated pastor for 40 years, he served five churches and chaplaincies at Hospice of the Central Coast and Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula. Mark served the hospital in a volunteer mentoring program, The Navigators--cancer survivors support and encouragement of newly-diagnosed patients.

Mark was a well-rounded pastor, teacher, & administrator but his greatest love and gift in ministry was planning and leading every aspect of worship, especially music and preaching. These gifts along with his genuine caring for people contributed to church vitality and growth wherever he was sent.

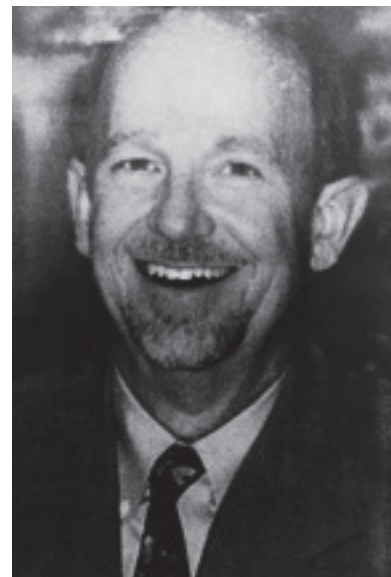

A man of many skills and interests, Mark was an enthusiastic traveler, singer, runner, gardener, hiker, golfer, cook and avid Nebraska Cornhusker football fan. Besides church choirs, his beautiful tenor voice graced the Carmel Bach Festival Chorus, Contare Con Vivo in the East Bay, and I Cantori di Carmel which he co-founded. Churches recall with joy Mark leading a sung version of The Lord's Prayer.

Mark was a long time Rotarian and for many years served on the Board of the CA-NV Methodist Homes, the STAR Foundation (Sustaining Theater Arts Regionally), and Suicide Prevention of the Monterey Peninsula. He and Jackie loved to volunteer together at community events including Hospice Foundation golf tournaments, the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am, the Concours d'Elegance, and the Carmel Bach Festival.

Less than a month before his death, Mark and Jackie celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary in Princeville, Kauai, a favorite destination. Mark died peacefully at his home with wife Jackie at his side. The cancer that had attacked his brain was vicious, swift, and untreatable. A service of worship, music and remembrances celebrating Mark's life and ministry was held on July 5, 2014, at the Pacific Grove United Methodist Church with Rev. Pam Cummings presiding. Also participating in the service were Revs. Kristie Olah, Lee Hayward, Norm Mowery, Dale Baker and Chaplain Chris Williams.

Besides wife Jackie of Monterey, CA, Mark is survived by 3 brothers and 2 sisters. He will be sorely missed by numerous church communities, music groups and the network of close personal friends he and Jackie made over the years. “Well done, good and faithful servant.”

Bryan was born May 28, 1930 and raised in Fallon, Nevada. Following high school he studied interior decorating and served a stint in the military. Soon after discharge he answered a call to ministry and subsequently earned degrees from the University of the Pacific and Garrett and Iliff Seminaries. He went eagerly to his first church in 1966.

Bryan enjoyed and fulfilled most of the duties and responsibilities expected of ministers but he had a special interest in the visual arts. Over the years he was involved in installing stained glass windows, making countless floral arrangements, and designing and overseeing the making of banners for the sanctuary. Another project was introducing Chrismons as decorations for the church Christmas tree and helping the women to make them.

An appreciation for music led Bryan to bringing in musicians to delight and inspire for an evening. These included soloists, choirs, and orchestras.

In his last two years of life Bryan suffered kidney failure and was on dialysis. On the day before he fell and broke his hip (leading to his death) he kept an appointment with our local hospital administrator in which they explored the possibilities of creating a chapel in the new hospital. They also discussed trying to get facilities for dialysis locally. Bryan was looking forward to follow-up work on those conversations.

Bryan always loved gardening and raised beautiful flowers in his retirement.

Bryan died on February 8, 2015. He is survived by his wife of nearly 51 years, Glennis, and by two sons, Carl and Glenn, their wives, and five grandchildren.

WAYNE E. WILLIAMS

F51; (CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE); F51 NEW YORK RECOG. OF ORDERS; NEW YORK 9/1/46 (ASHOKAN & GLENFORD & WEST HURLEY); 12/1/48 (NO APPOINTMENT); 51 HUDSON; 11/1/56 TRANS. Wayne felt his calling to the ministry as a youth. He was raised going to church and one summer attended camp. After a group meeting he felt the need to distance himself from the others and went into the woods. He decided right then that he would become a minister. He never wavered from that decision even though a high school teacher tried to convince him he would be wasting his life---he should be an accountant.

Narrowing down a definition of Wayne is difficult but perhaps the word “committed” describes him. He committed himself to whatever he undertook: God, family and his community.

He was committed to honesty; to a life that reflected his values; to being an agent for positive change in the life of individuals and the community. This worked well with his strong sense of social responsibility, his respect for all beliefs, and believing that through faith... “all things are possible”.

Wayne found joy in the all aspects of pastoral care. He loved helping individuals and being present in times of need to try to help ease their burdens. A successful financial campaign brought Wayne joy. He fully understood the importance of financial campaigns in the church. When he was awaiting the birth of his 1st grandchild—and it was the final night of the campaign – he was at the hospital, but phoning regularly for updates on pledges received!

Wife Elizabeth was a steady support of Wayne. She understood his ‘job’ was more than 40 hours a week. She supported Wayne’s ministry with her gifts as a Sunday school teacher, youth group leader, choir member, youth choir director, UMW participant, and small group leader. She stood at Wayne’s side throughout their life together – a true partnership.

Wayne loved music and he loved to sing. Music was always an integral part of his services. Sadly, following a lengthy illness, his ability to sing was severely hampered and he felt that loss deeply as did the family. He also loved to travel and led many overseas tours. Wayne loved ice cream and cheese—it’s a toss-up which one he liked more.

There are really two phrases that resonated deeply within him and were included in his memorial service: Edwin Markham’s “He drew a circle that shut me out Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout. But love and I had the wit to win: We drew a circle and took him in!”; and Edmund Burke’s “The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.”

Wayne is survived by his wife of over 69 years, Elizabeth; two daughters, Deborah and Karen; five grandchildren, and six great grandchildren

ELLA MARIE HUNT

Ella Marie will be remembered for her kind heart, caring soul, forever smile, and endless desire to do good.

She encouraged her children to expand their horizons in their own ways and according to their own interests. She followed the lives of her grandchildren with keen interest, and relished in their experiences and progress. More recently, she loved getting photos and notes from her great-grandchildren, even buying a computer in order to be able to Skype with some of them.

Ella Marie especially enjoyed playing the organ at the O'Connor Woods chapel services until her last hospitalization. She made the Communion bread for St. Mark's Methodist Church, even passing along the recipe from her hospital bed. She made weekly visits to residents who were confined in the skilled-nursing and assisted-living units, and wrote notes of encouragement to friends and acquaintances going through stressful times. She always made dinner reservations with different residents in the dining room.

Both Ella Marie and husband Bill volunteered with the San Joaquin AIDS Foundation, counseling those receiving the results of their tests. They started Stockton's first support group for families of people with AIDS.

Ella Marie and Bill were committed to all the congregations they served from Illinois to California, and maintained contact with individuals from those churches until their deaths.

LEE MELLOW

Lee Jimmie Skinner Mellow was born July 29th, 1939 in San Jose, California to Joseph and Lena Mellow. He went on the road in country music when he was 16 and spent 50 years playing guitar and singing as Jimmie Skinner. He met many famous country singers and worked with Merle Haggard, George Jones, and Willie Nelson. He retired from country music in 1993, due to congestive heart failure. He married Rev. Dr. Judith Pruess-Mellow January 1st, 1998.

Lee had an enduring and deep love and concern for animals. This began at a very young age with a dog named Shep. He suggested to singer Red Foley to change the name of the song, "Old Hoover," to "Old Shep", adding some verses about a boy having to shoot his sick old dog, based on Lee's dog. When Red died, Lee sold the song to Elvis Presley.

Lee had a teacup chihuahua which he took everywhere. In his later years, Lee expressed regret that he had not become a veterinarian, or a rancher like his father. At other times, he felt as if he'd had a "good ride" in the music business. Lee was always trying to feed wild animals out of his hands. He definitely had a way with them.

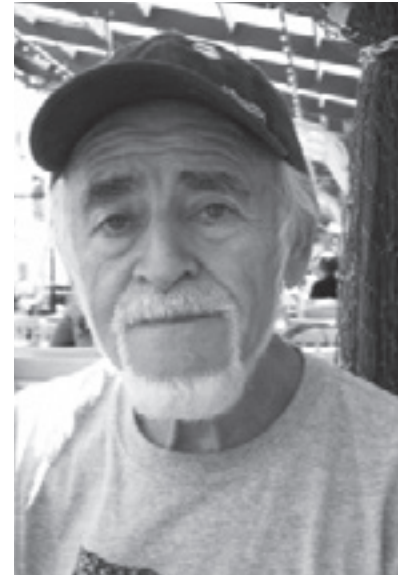

Having grown up on a fruit ranch in Sunnyvale, Lee definitely had a green thumb and a knowledge of produce. One of the couple's favorite activities was to go grocery shopping together. Life with Lee was simple and down to earth for the 16 years of marriage. Though Lee was not a churchgoer, he loved gospel music and good preaching on television.

Lee was a very charismatic personality, much loved in Grass Valley and by his health care providers. He loved to be at home with the dog and cat while Judith was doing things in the community. They both loved to go on small road trips which were very relaxing for Judith as she was able to leave her ministry concerns aside and just enjoy life.

Lee's ministry mainly consisted in supporting his wife, Judith, and her ministry with mostly older adults. He also was helpful as Judith dealt with her mother's health issues.

Lee Jimmie Skinner Mellow died May 19th, 2014 in Grass Valley of cancer and complications with Judith at his side. He was 74. Lee is survived by wife Judith, his niece, Debbie Floyd, and his sister, Rosemarie Floyd, both of Sunnyvale. Memorial contributions may be given to Animal Save, Sammie's Friends, or Scooter's Pals. A private family service was held in Sunnyvale last May. The family takes comfort in knowing that Lee Jimmie is now with Old Shep in a "wonderful home."

HELEN JORDAN TERRELL

Helen Jordan Terrell, born September 20th, 1918 in Portland, Oregon, was a one-woman support team. She deeply loved and supported her husband of 55(+) years, Rev. Olan Terrell, and her six children. She was the last of her generation on both sides of the family. She kept in touch with the extended family in the Midwest, writing weekly letters, and remained the center of that family orbit all her life.

Helen took great pleasure in supporting Olan's ministry and the 10 Methodist parishes they served in the California/Nevada and Nebraska conferences-- always actively involved in the women's groups and church events, even into her mid 90's.

After Olan's retirement in 1979, she and Olan moved back to Watsonville and traveled to see relatives all over the United States and Canada, and even made it to Europe twice.

Her faith in God was always her sustenance and her life force. She loved books, music and learning, which led her to her lifelong participation in and support of the local library, historical society, YWCA and PEO.

She instilled in us, her children, her love of people and learning, the joys of living, and a deep and solid moral foundation. We miss her dearly but know she guides us still.

We are her grateful children: Richard in Lund, British Columbia; Barbara in Oakland, CA; Joan in Dunsmuir, CA; Pamela in Watsonville, CA; Renee in Cuenca, Ecuador; and Douglas in Mt. Shasta, CA.

We are endlessly grateful to the Conference of the United Methodist Church for your generous and caring support of our family and of your mission in the world.

A Celtic Blessing

*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

MARY JEANNINE (MANHERZ) WELLS

Jeannine was born on September 22, 1933 in Montclair, New Jersey. Her early years were spent in eastern Pennsylvania. During her teens the family moved to California.

In 1950 Jeannine married Donald W. Wells in Aptos, California. She worked as a telephone operator and for the "Santa Cruz Sentinel" newspaper. Her husband then felt a call to Christian ministry and they moved to Kerman so Don could attend Fresno State. While there she worked in the local post office and did in home child care.

Kerman Methodist Church was Jeannine and Don's first pastorate together. They spent the majority of their adult lives in ministry as "a team". Jeannine was instrumental in Christian education programs and leading the youth groups in churches they served. She loved working with children and youth.

In addition to her church work, Jeannine worked various jobs throughout the years. Her favorite job was working at the old Governor's Mansion State Park in Sacramento for 19 years as a Guide. She wrote a book about the Mansion to raise funds for its restoration, which now totals over 100K and continues to grow. The 3rd floor of the Mansion is now open to the public due in large part to her efforts. She received a Senate Proclamation for her efforts at the Mansion.

Jeannine did all of this and more while raising 4 children. She was an amazing daughter, minister's wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, Aunt and friend. She loved Dixieland jazz and was an avid sports fan, especially baseball. The most important things in her life were her love of the Lord, her family and her friends.

She very much enjoyed her last 31 years in Woodland and her church family at Woodland UMC. On January 3, 2015 Jeannine passed away at Woodland Memorial Hospital. She was preceded in death by her parents Rev. Edgar and Kay Manherz; her brother Rev. Ed Manherz Jr.; and husband Rev. Don Wells. She is survived by her children: Donnine Carey and husband Robert of Eugene, OR; Randy Wells and wife Lori of Huntington Beach, CA; Rick Wells and wife Helen of Elk Grove, CA; and Rev. Jerry Wells and wife Bonnie of Leavenworth, KS. She is also survived by brother in law Duane Wells and wife Sylvia; sister in law Kathy Manherz; many grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great grandchildren and cousins.

Jeannine was full of life due to the Holy Spirit that dwelt in her. She was a very creative, energetic and driven disciple for Jesus Christ. If something needed to get done, Jeannine was the woman for the job. Indeed, Jeannine Wells' spirit is missed. We praise and thank God for her and how she touched so many lives.

SEE TING YOUNG

See Ting Young was raised in a devout Christian family in Sibu Sarawak, East Malaysia. Her family migrated from Foochow, China to East Malaysia, led by missionary Huang Nai Seung.

Influenced by her devout mother and God's strong calling, See put aside her plans to study in England. At that time, her family was rich and famous--her father and uncle were businessmen in Sarawak's timber industry. See's mom taught her that when you become a missionary, you are to obey God's word and not be swayed by others. You must speak the truth, be disciplined, and stand up for justice.

After See graduated from the Singapore Theological Seminary in 1963, she immediately joined Rev. Wesley Yong to start the Mandarin service at Singapore Foochow Methodist Church. This ministry first reached out to the neighborhood children, then their parents. In December See Young married Wesley and together they worked to pioneer churches the rest of their lives.

In 1969, they started a ministry at Toa Payoh, renting a small room as a gospel station in a government complex. They distributed gospel tracks in the neighborhood and Sunday afternoon led a worship service. In 1971, Toa Payoh Methodist Church was chartered upon the completion of their new building.

In 1974, Singapore Methodist Conference appointed the couple to Bukit Panjang Methodist Church to begin a new building. This church had 24 years of history and used a small retail store to worship, making it impossible to grow. The construction of the new building was completed in 1978 within 7 miles of Bukit Timah. The church grew quickly with Mandarin and English services and about 1200 people. Trinity Theological Seminary built next door.

In 1979 the Yongs were appointed to Ang Mo Kio, a new town with the congregation renting a small house for worship. In 1981 they completed their new building and chartered the Ang Mo Kio Methodist Church. This congregation had worship services in Chinese, Taiwanese, English and Tamil and about 1600 congregants.

In 1983 the San Francisco UMC asked the Yongs to come and help pioneer a Mandarin speaking Church. Rev. Yong came to the bay area to explore this possibility and selected San Jose as an evangelistic station. He then brought his family.

In 1985 the Yongs rented a church to start a Mandarin service. Despite having no congregants, building or economic support, they continued their evangelistic ministry, bought land, built a church and chartered the First Chinese UMC in Fremont, California. Easter 2001 there was a celebration of the completion of the building. On November 18, there was a dedication ceremony for the new building.

February 1, 2015, See Young went to be with the Lord.

JOHN CLARK ESPIE III

John was born on 30 April 1923 in Louisville KY. Shortly after the family moved to Indianapolis. John was four when a new family moved in nearby and John met his future wife Nancy Olinick.

After graduating from Shortridge High School in 1941, John put off college, joining the Navy to fight in WWII. He was assigned as a Quartermaster and served in the South Pacific. In 1944 John was selected for an Enlisted to Officer Advancement program at Princeton. When the war ended he transferred to the University of Louisville to finish his degree.

It was on one of his visits home when he was reacquainted with Nancy. John and Nancy began dating and were married on June 20 1947. In 1950, having finished his business degree, John took a job in St Paul MN in the Brown and Bigelow Accounting Department.

By 1953, with three children, John and Nancy bought their first home in Richfield MN. During 19 years there, John also worked in the ticket office for MN Twins, Vikings, and Gophers, seeing games for free! John got his drive from his father, tempered by the sweetness and charity of his mother.

In 1964, while working as a systems analyst, John decided to change careers and took a job as the Stewardship Director for the MN Annual Conference. He was certified as a Church Business Administrator and very active in the CBA national organization. He began a series of study and was consecrated as a Diaconal Minister. Next John took a job with the Methodist Council on Finance and Administration in Evanston IL, and began extensive travel. On one of these trips they discovered The Sea Ranch, and bought an ocean view lot on the spot! In 1978 John took the fund raiser position for the Endowment Board in the CA-NV Conference.

Retiring in 1986 John and Nancy moved to The Sea Ranch. They were active in hiking groups, building new trails, in community arts organizations, and in the UM Church. When signs of future health issues arose, they moved to Roseburg OR, then Florence and later to Portland, still traveling frequently. John loved to write. He was a dedicated journal writer from WWII to his death. His poetry filled volumes and was often accompanied by illustrations.

Shortly after his 90th birthday, John's health began to rapidly decline, but he remained cheerful and upbeat until his death on 7 March 2015. Military Honors and Service were at the Willamette National Cemetery, OR. John is survived by his beloved Nancy; his children Steve (Marilyn) Espie of Richfield MN; Christina Espie of Gledon Beach OR; John (Peg) Espie of Beaverton OR; and five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Psalm 23*

*The Lord is your keeper.... the sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night...
The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in,
