CONSERVE ENERGY-----Energy conservation is a continuous effort and to be effective must have everyone's participation. Reminders have been placed on classroom light switches and are available for private offices. Please use them. (N. Rick, Plant Services)

DULUTH CAMPUS ASSEMBLY MEETING-----The UMD Campus Assembly will meet on February 17, at 2:30 p.m. in Life Science 175.

UMD THEATRE-----The University Theatre will present the comedy, "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad," on February 17, 18 and 19 at 8:15 p.m. in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. For reservations, call the UMD Box Office, 8561.

ART CLASSES FOR CHILDREN-----Art classes for children, beginning on Saturday, February 19, will emphasize batik and weaving. The four sessions will be taught by UMD students under supervision of a graduate student. Children from the ages of 4 to 7 will meet from 9 a.m. to 10:30, and 8 to 12 year olds will meet from 10:30 a.m. to noon in Social Science 18. Preregistration is encouraged by calling Mary Ann Shuter, 728-6155.

HOLIDAY-----The University will be closed on Monday, February 21, which has been designated as Presidents' Day and a University "floating" holiday. The Library will be open for the regular hours on that day.

MARINE FILM SERIES-----A monthly marine film series will begin at UMD, March 2. The series called "First Wednesday," will present one to two films on the first Wednesday of each month, with showings at noon and at 7:00 p.m. Film topics will be our Great Lakes and ocean resources. First in the series is "The Last Fisherman," a 28-minute color film produced by the Wisconsin Sea Grant Program about the way of life of Lake Michigan commercial fishermen. A 10-minute short, "Fishing for a Living," will also be shown.

The noon showing March 2 will be in Kirby 333. The 7:00 p.m. program will be in Life Science 175. "First Wednesday" is co-sponsored by the Minnesota Sea Grant Advisory Service and the Lake Superior Basin Studies Center. A schedule of films for 1977 may be obtained for departmental posting by calling 8542. (R. Lydecker)

SENATE MEETING-----UMD Senate members will meet in the Regents Room, 520 Administration Building, at 3:15 p.m. on Thursday, March 3, to participate in a regular meeting of the University Senate.

MARSHALL STUDIO PLAYERS PRESENTATION-----The UMD Marshall Studio Players will present the play, "Will the Real Jesus Christ Please Stand Up?," by Malcolm Marmorstein, on March 4, 5 and 6 at 8:15 p.m. at the Dudley Experimental Theatre in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $.50 for students and $1.00 for adults.

FEAST OF NATIONS-----The 1977 Feast of Nations will be hosted by the College of St. Scholastica on Sunday, March 6, from 1:00 in the afternoon until 7:00 in the evening. The first feast will be served at 1:30 p.m. in Somers Cafeteria and the second at 5:00 p.m. The program, presented by foreign students from St. Scholastica, UMD and UWS, will take place from 3:00 to 4:30 in the Science Auditorium. Tickets are $6.00 each. Buy them at the ticket window in Kirby, or order them by mail from Diane Kessler, College of St. Scholastica, 1200 Kenwood Avenue, Duluth, MN 55811. (M. Stevens)

UMD WOMEN'S CLUB MEETING-----The March meeting of the UMD Women's Club will feature a talk by Dr. Matti Kaups who will speak on "The Immigrants Who Came to Duluth" at the St. Louis County Heritage and Arts Center. The date for the meeting will be confirmed later.

FACULTY MEETING-----A "State of the Campus" meeting for all faculty members, administrators and professional staff will be held on Friday, March 11, at 2:30 p.m. in the Marshall Performing Arts Center. Following the meeting, a Provost's Reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Heller, sponsored by the Campus Council and the Campus Relations office, will be held from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Campus Club. All faculty and staff members are invited to attend the reception.

AWARD-----Matti Kaups has been awarded a personal medal of Swedish King Carl XVI Gustaf for his responsibility in implementation of the Swedish Heritage Conference at UMD in April 1976. The medal was presented on the campus of the University of Minnesota by President C. Peter Magrath and Per Olof Forshell, Swedish Counsel General, Minneapolis. Dr. Kaups has also written several papers on Scandinavian topics for professional journals.

CERAMIC WORKSHOP HELD AT UMD-----A three-day ceramic workshop was conducted by Nino Caruso in the ceramic studio on February 3, 4 and 5. Caruso teaches at the Institute of Arts in Rome, Italy and also established, and is director of, the International Center for Ceramics in Rome. His involvement with the ceramic medium is in the direction of modular ceramics for use in large-scale architectural settings. The workshop was organized by Thomas Kerrigan, associate professor of art.
