FOREWORD

In the future as you scan the pages of this yearbook, we, the Warrior staff of 1966, hope it brings back your most cherished memories of your school years. You may use this yearbook as a magic mirror to see yourself in the past, present, and future. We hope to help you recall, with little imagination, those who have graduated, the activities of the lower classes of today, and your future activities in school and your life.

We present the 1966 Warrior to you, the student body, for whom it was created and from whom inspiration came to build its pattern.

Enjoy it to the fullest.

Sincerely yours,

Donna Blake

DEDICATION

MR. PAUL COOK

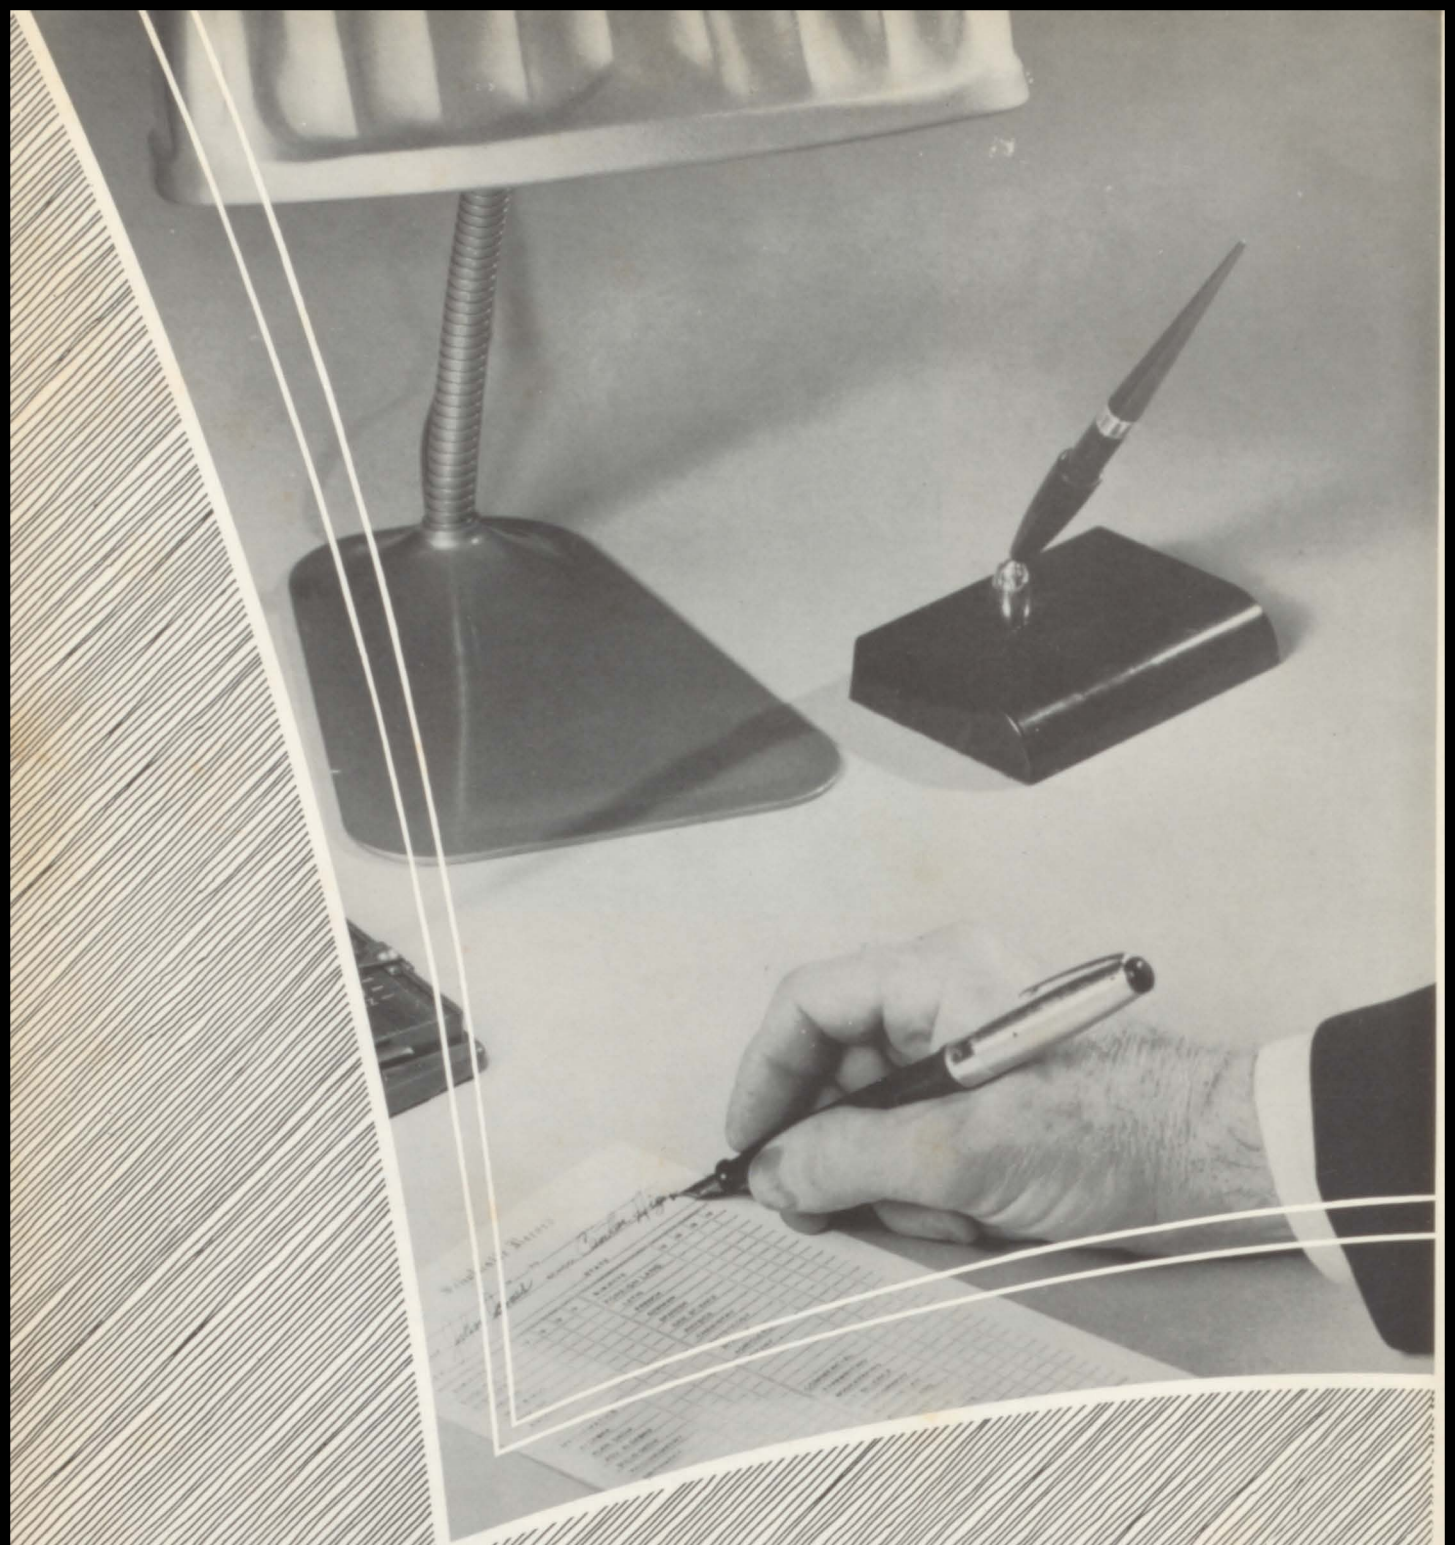

Dear Mr. Cook:

It is with deep and sincere appreciation that we, the senior class of 1966, dedicate our Smithville school annual, the "WARRIOR" to you.

We feel that the inspiration and guidance you have given to each and every one of us in your daily life in the past two years will be an asset to us toward a better and more prosperous life.

So, perhaps, by dedicating this, our yearbook, to you, we can repay you in some small way for the devotion and personal interest you have given us all.

To the Annual Staff:

This is the finest annual brought out by any senior class in Smithville Schools--certainly the biggest and most inclusive. I am justly proud of the annual for all the work that has gone into it, the care exercised in putting it together and for the fine presentation of material in it.

We will all be proud to find so many reminders of 1965-1966 school year, both now and in the years ahead. Everyone will enjoy thumbing through the annual looking at the pictures, phrases and class groups. What an inspiration!

I hope you will not only enjoy looking at your annual when you get it, but that you will want to do more for your own educational development, do more for your school, and make yourself a finer place in life.

We all join in thanking the Senior class with their sponsors for the fine annual they have produced.

Sincerely,

Coy A. Chatham

To the Annual Staff:

For your unstinting labor and care, without which this yearbook of 1965-1966 could never have reached the excellence here displayed, it is my great pleasure to congratulate you and your advisor, Miss Mary Lou Harbour. You have here captured a thousand memories that will be treasured over the years, and in so doing you have incurred our debt of gratitude. On behalf of the faculty and entire student body, "Thank you for the best yearbook ever published by Smithville High."

A TRIBUTE

SALT OF THE EARTH

New friends I cherish
and treasure their worth,
But old friends to me
are the salt of the earth.
Friends are like garments that everyone wears-- New ones are needed
for dress-up affairs;
But when we're at leisure,
We're more apt to choose
The clothes that we purchased with last season's shoes.

Things we grow used to are things we love best-- The ones we are certain have weathered the test.
And isn't it true,
since we're talking of friends,
That new ones bring pleasure
when everything blends?
But when we want someone who thinks as we do,
And who fits, as I said,
like last summer's shoe,
We turn to the friends who have stuck through the years,
Who echo our laughter
and dry up our tears;
They know every weakness
and fault we possess,
But somehow forget them
in friendship's caress.

The story is old,
yet fragrant and sweet;
I've said it before,
but just let me repeat:
New friends I cherish
and treasure their worth,
But old friends to me
are the salt of the earth.

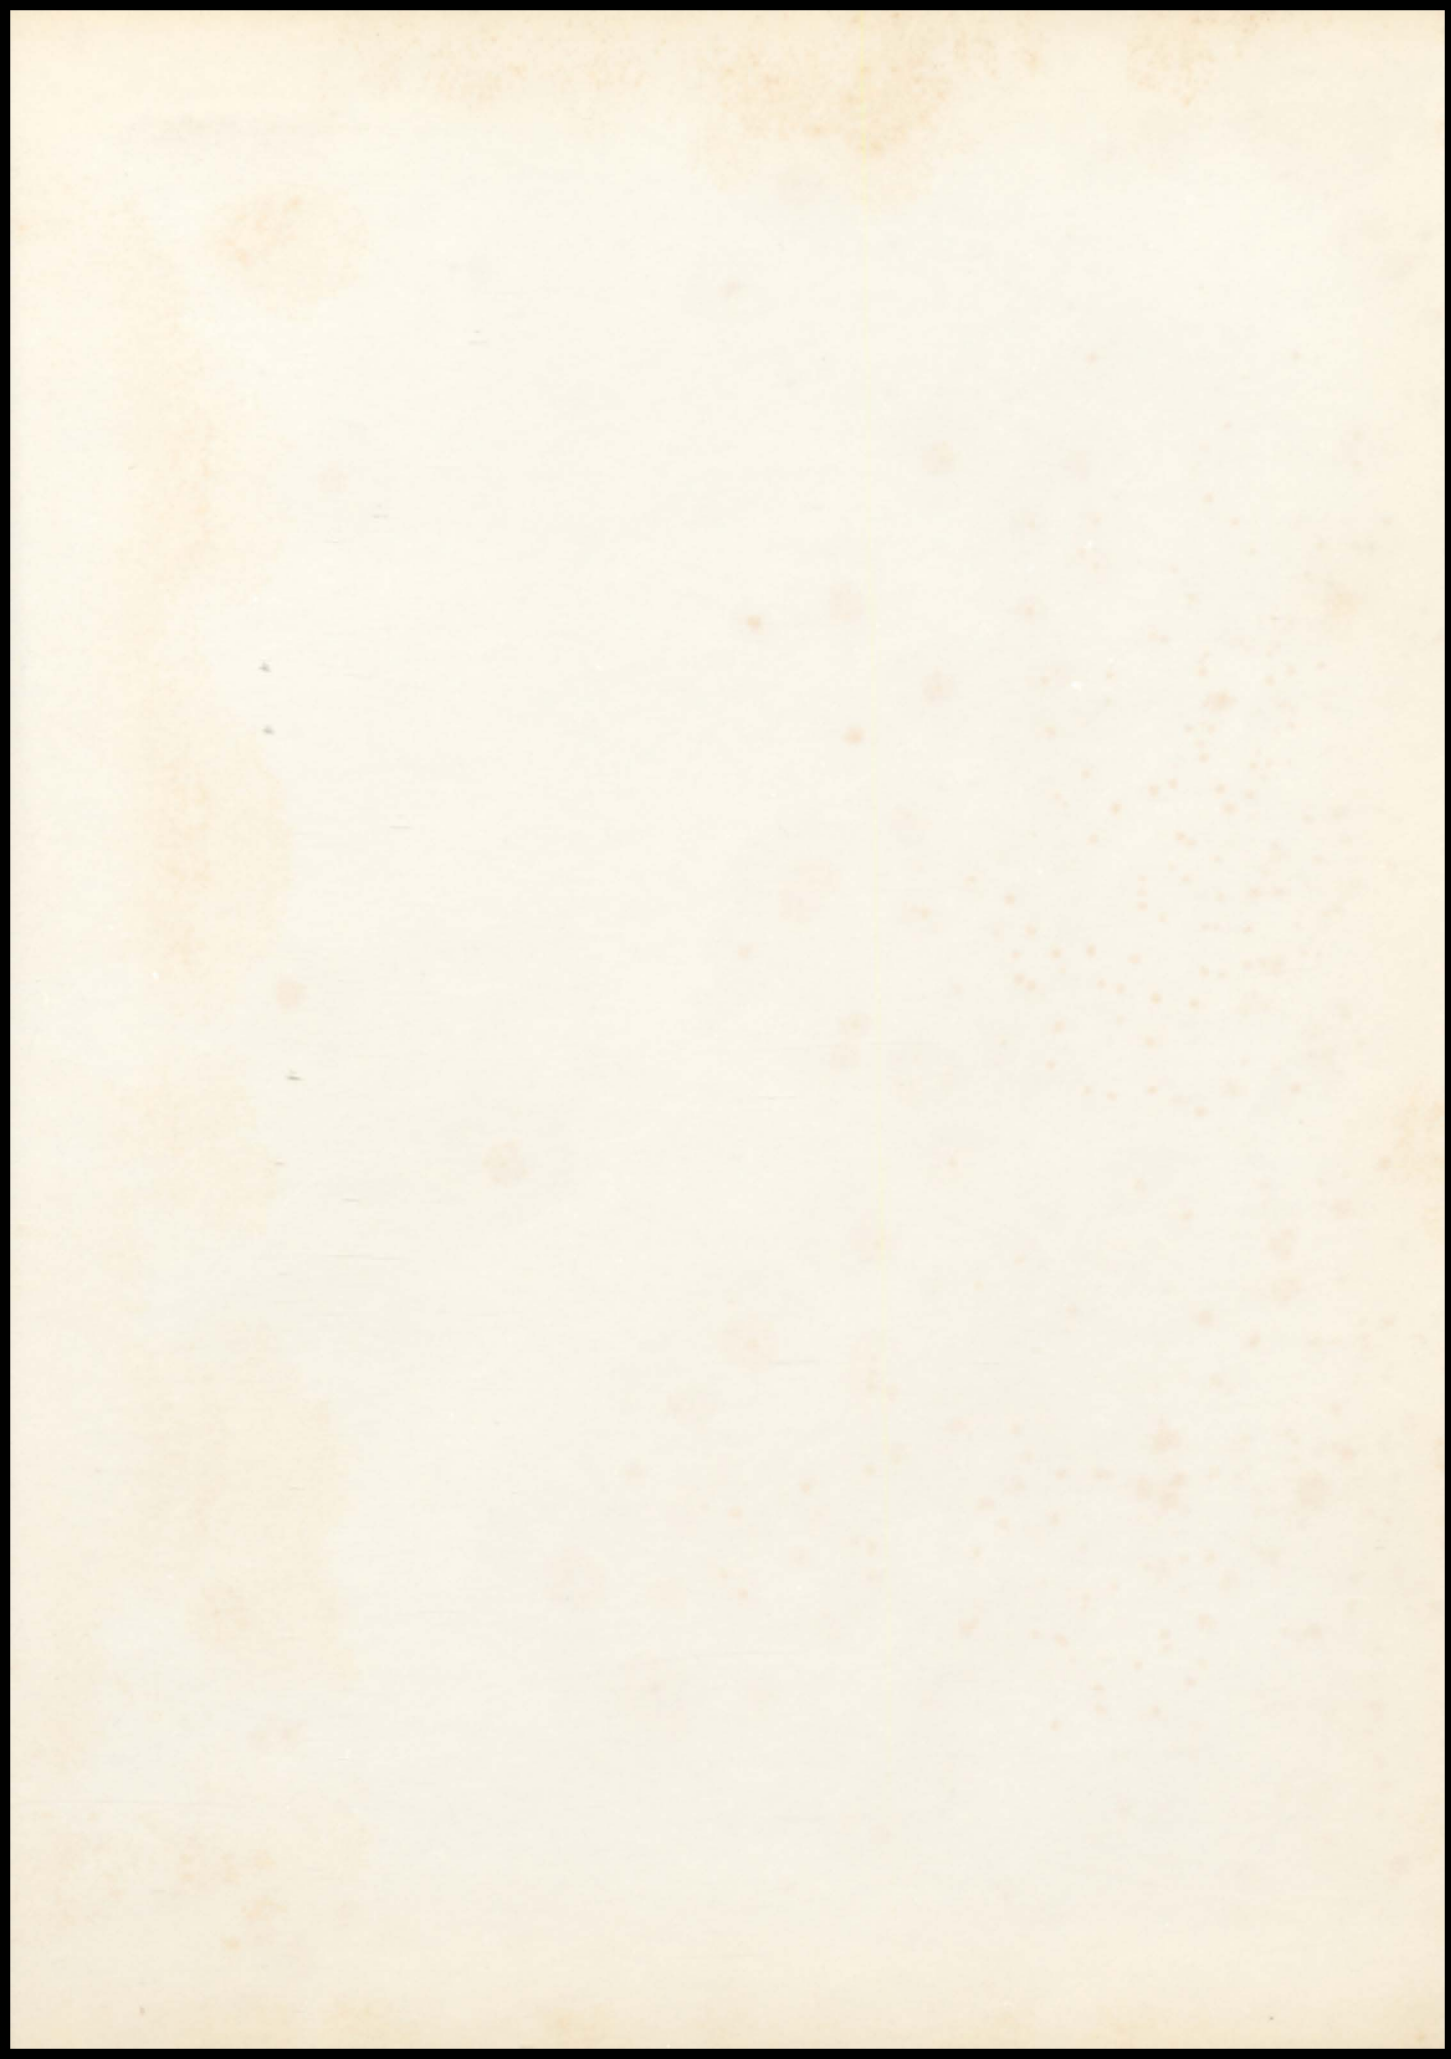

Bill and Cliffie Goff-- This poem speaks our appreciation to you for all the wonderful things that you have done for us. Stay as sweet as you are and we will always love you.
