

Senna gaudichaudii (Blunt-leaved Senna)

Uncommon shrub in drier western areas. Yellow flowers to 20mm in spikes in summer. Flat pod to 15cm, constricted between seeds. Usually flowers and fruits as a shrub about 2-3 m tall but can grow into quite a large tree-top vine. Leaves opposite, pinnate, with 4 to 12 discolorous leaflets each to 5cm, often hairy. 1-3 stalked glands between lowest pairs of leaflets.

Type: Shrub to 3m
Aspect: Full Sun/Part Shade
Soil: Adaptable
Habitat: Dry Sclerophyll

Special features:

- Attracts –
 - Bees
 - Birds
 - Butterflies
- Bush Tucker