McVey Farm

Dear Martin:

I read with great interest your book on the Family Genealogy. For several years I have been making trips to Harrisburg and Washington, PA for genealogy research. My wife's home is in Harrisburg, which gives me a good excuse. I have collected a good bit of data from these trips, and your book motivated me to put this information in circulation. This information will clear some confusion and possibly create a lot more.

To start with, Boyd Crumrine's History of Washington Co., PA Morris Township (See Attachment #1) establishes that a J. McVaugh was in Demas Lindley's party. I have assumed all along, right or wrong, that J. McVaugh was a single individual in the way it was presented. I do agree with you that he was at least 14 years of age and possibly older. In those days a boy at that age was doing the work and assumed the responsibilities of an adult. The Ten Mile Country and Its Pioneer Families by Howard L. Leckey, pgs 458-459, Ruffs Creek, (See Attachment #2) states that "the party turned back for the following reason due to the bloody Indian Wars."

From 1773-1774 to about 1780, it must be assumed that John McVaugh staked out his claim to the land he wanted, cleared it for cultivation, and made the improvements.

In the year of 1780, he accomplished two things. He joined the Chester County Militia and was enrolled in the Fifth Class, Capt. Peter Strode's 5th Co. (See Attachment #3). Also he married Sarah Rude, dau. of John and Sarah Rude. This info. I obtained from the Papers of Anna Pearl McVay in the Ohio Historical Library, Columbus, Ohio.

In 1781 John McVaugh made application to the Pa. Land Office for 400 acres of land (See Attachment #4). On Feb. 20, 1786, he was granted the warrant (See Attachments #5 & 6).

On April 30, 1783, at a meeting of the Tenmile Presbyterian Church at Lindley's Fort, there were 16 persons who were desirous to join the Church in Communion. One of these listed was "Mary McVaugh, W. of old M. McV" (See Attachment #7). Is this Mary McVaugh, John McVaugh's mother? If so, did she come to Washington Co. with him in 1773-74, or did he go to Chester Co. to enlist in the Revolution and when he returned bring her with him at that time? Also listed in this group is a Benjamin McVaugh. He is not part of our family unless he is a brother to John or a relation prior to John.

On Oct. 6, 1795, John Rude and Sarah, his wife, sold seventy five acres of land to John McVaugh Sr. and his son Edman (See Attachment #8). This was 22 years after the original party migrated to Washington Co. that we now have a Senior and Son. I do not believe these McVaugh's are of the same family. Related, it's possible. The Rudes purchased this land in 1786 from Joseph Lindsley.

On April 14, 1800, John McVay purchased 50 acres of land from John Doty. This land adjoins John McVay's (See Attachment #9) and the map of land holdings.

In 1804, the Commonwealth of Pa. issued a deed to John McVaugh for the 400 acres of land that he made application for in 1781 (See Attachment #10). In the deed John paid the sum of fifty-nine dollars and fifty cents. This is fourteen dollars and eighty-seven cents per acre. There is considerable difference in the final cost and the cost stated on the original application. Interest was supposed to start from 1781 when the land was improved and the price of the land was established at Ten Pounds per hundred acres. Possibly John received credit for his service during the Revolution.

In 1805 John McVaugh and wife Sarah sold 274 plus acres of land to Richard Hathway. This land transaction is very significant for two reasons. First, it is the first formal document which reflects that John has changed his name from McVaugh to McVay. Also his son, Jacob, as a witness had changed to McVay. Second, this document clearly states he is the original John McVaugh who came with the original party from New Jersey and who patented the original claim among the others with the State Land Office (See Attachment #11). In Anna Pearl's papers she wrote a note (to herself), "I wonder how John McVay disposed of his land? I wish I had checked with the land records." The answer to her question is as follows:

The original land patent	400 acres.
Purchase from John Doty
in 1800	50 acres
Total	450 acres
Sold to Richard Hathway
on Dec. 2, 1805	274 acres
	176 acres remaining
Will of John McVay filed
24 Feb. 1826 (See Attachment #12) - John bequeathed to his sons Abraham, Samuel and Isaac 50 acres each	150 acres
	26 acres remaining
Remainder of Farm to Jacob and John equally
	26 acres
	00 remainder

On 22 Feb. 1826, an Article of Agreement between Sarah McVay and Samuel McVay, Abraham and Isaac McVay was entered into for the care of their mother (See Attachment #13).

I believe this research has established without a doubt that J. McVaugh of the Demas Lindley party is our ancestor John McVay of 1759-1826, of Washington Co., Pa. After putting this information together, I still cannot find a place or a connection for these other McVaugh's that are appearing 10 to 20 years later. I intend on my next trip to Harrisburg to return to the Land office and check the maps of Answell Township and the northern tier of Greene County for land patents held by McVaugh's. These people were farmers and needed land to survive so they must have staked claims somewhere.

After reviewing this information, I would appreciate and desire your opinion on this information. Any information you can recommend for future research is also desired.

MCVEY HISTORY - IN PARTICULAR THE MCVEYS OF BALTIMORE COUNTY, MARYLAND - OR THE MACVEIGHS AS THEY WERE FIRST KNOWN IN CECIL COUNTY, MARYLAND - BY C. ARTHUR MCVEY

This is a brief summary of my search of the McVey History, in particular the McVeys of Baltimore County, Maryland - or the MacVeighs as they were first known as in Cecil County, MD. My great grandfather is known as McVeigh in 1880 in Harford County, Maryland and my grandfather is recorded as "Francis John McVeigh" at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel RC Church in 1901. But earlier, in 1880 at Bush Methodist, he is known as "John Frank McVey" along with his sister, Ida Mae McVey and his brother, George Howard McVey in a triple baptism in November of that year. These names are verified in the "McVey Family Bible: of John J. McVey presently in possession of Raymond Frank Fogle of Baltimore, son of Jessie V. (McVey) Fogle, Frank's sister.

My great great grandfather, John McVey, born in PA 7 Mar 1821; died 15 Jan 1894 in Harford County MD. He was married to Elizabeth ? born ? August 1828 in PA; died after 1900 in Harford County MD at my great grandfather's brother's home, George William McVey. I have been unable to locate her burial site - more than likely in PA. Census records indicate John McVey's parents born in PA. This is the same for Elizabeth (?) McVey's parents; also born in PA.

John McVey (1821-1894), George William McVey (Nov 1858-1940), George's wife, Sarah F. (Sallie Markline) McVey (Jan 1858-1925), an unmarried daughter of George W. and Sallie McVey, Mary (called Pearl b April 1886, d 1937) are all buried at Smith Chapel Methodist, just outside of Churchville, Harford Co. MD.

Another daughter of George W and Sallie McVey, Elizabeth (called Minnie b Feb 1891 d Dec 1969) married a Walker. The Walkers had two daughters, Bessie who married a Richardson and Doris who married a Watkins. Bessie born Nov 1909 m George Richardson 26 Jan 1934 and they had 2 children.

ORANGE COUNTY CALIFORNIA
GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Charles Lee Richardson and Patricia Ann (Richardson) Liptrap. Bessie Richardson, as well as the Walkers, lived in Fallston Harford Co. Bessie is now in a nursing home in Towson MD.

John J (James or Joshua?) McVey (b Oct 1850 d Nov 1903), my great grandfather was b in MD. He married Martha Elizabeth Hoopers 29 Oct 1872 at the York Methodist Church, York Co PA. Martha E (Hoopes) McVey b 1 Dec 1853 d 4 Jan 1936. Both are buried Or. Methodist Church, Middle River MD in Baltimore Co. Martha McVey b Lancaster Co.

John J McVey (1850) and George W McVey (1858) had a sister Mary Jane (a good Quaker name) b about 1847 in PA. (I am assuming George named one daughter for his sister.) No further information is known about her.

George William and Sallie McVey also had a son George Clifford McVey - called Uncle Bud. He married Mary Alice Chalk and they eventually moved to Drumore Twp Lancaster Co PA. They had 3 children - James Emerson McVey, George Edward McVey and Ruth McVey, when Clifford as well as his wife, Mary, died suddenly.

It was at this time then that George William McVey, his wife, Sallie, and their unmarried daughter, Pearl, moved to Drumore to raise the three young children. In 1925 Sallie (Markline) McVey, wife of George William McVey died. My Uncle Pete (Frank Martin McVey) recalled driving his father (John Frank McVey) to Rising Sun for the funeral. My father, Louis John McVey, was in Ohio at this time. This was my grandfather's Aunt Sallie.

James Emerson McVey, son of George Clifford and Mary Alice (Chalk) McVey did not marry but died in March 1961 at the age of 48 in the Philadelphia VA Hospital. He had been badly wounded in WWII. Ruth, daughter of Clifford and Mary McVey, married Paul Boyd and lived in Nottingham PA.

After gathering this information, I started looking into other records, church as well as government. I also put questions in various genealogical magazines and journals with the idea other McVeys might be looking for information. Finally in 1974 all interested people formed the McVay-McVeigh-McVey Family Archives to exchange information. Surprisingly more than 400 people are now members and indeed this shows an interest in our name.

One fact was established very early: Daniel McVey was in Cecil County about 1750-1755, though his name was McVaugh before coming to Maryland from Upper Dublin Twp in Phil - Montgomery Counties PA. It seems when he bought land about 1790 in Lancaster County, the records - as well as the 1790 census - changed the spelling to McVey. Daniel had about 10-15 children and most who remained in MD adopted McVey as their name. Those who settled in Delaware or Chester Co PA retained the name McVaugh. Of course his descendants with name McVey confused our family's history.

Another fact: Daniel McVey is grandson of Edmund MacVeagh-Veagh-Vaugh and Alice Dickinson. Both came to Phil. from Britain about 1682-1683, as Quakers, married about 1690. Then late in 1975 we were fortunate to have Mr. Jeremiah Leslie Brown join the McV Family Archives. Les was named for his grandfather, Jeremiah McVey and Jeremiah Brown. He had worked on collecting McVey information for 50 years and at the time he was 82 years old. He died 11 Feb 1984, before this summary. Les was descended from Daniel McVaugh-Vey back to Edmund. He was a born Quaker as were most McVeys until 1800-1850. This was true of our family, too.

After meeting with Mr. Brown to compare notes of the McVey family, he told me quite frankly, "I don't see how you could fit into Daniel's family." I agreed since he had the McVey family very well organized up until the present. So we figured perhaps Daniel's twin brother fathered my branch and there was absolutely nothing available about Stacy. Did he survive? I worked on the Stacey (Stacy) angle for several years before I finally had to give up on it. But then suddenly, information I had gathered more than 25 years earlier seemed important.

The first information I had collected was about 1956 and was the Oath of Allegiance to Maryland sworn to Justice Samuel Bond in March 1778 in Cecil County MD. All signers were above 16 years of age. They were: John McVegh and Jacob McVey - signed together (investigation proves father and son). (There may have been others but at the time, I was concerned with the Very spelling.)

Then in April of 1778 a marriage license is issued to Samuel Bond and he eventually married Elizabeth McVea (Mrs. Robt. I Prewitt - descendant - 6135 Glennox Lane, Dallas TX 75214). I was puzzled and could not figure the origin of these people. Were they related?

An Edward McVeigh was also issued a license in Jan 1790 and he married Isabell Jenny (?) (Janney). It turns out Edward is the son of Daniel McVey-McVaugh and Rachel Burke. He is named for his maternal grandfather, Edward Burke (whose will he is listed in - Phil).

Then I came across the following information in early 1960: MD Calendar of State Papers -: It was a petition relating to Jeremiah Baker and Cecil County Militia of 3 Mar 1776. It was signed by 5 McVeys (Jeremiah Baker was ancestor of my grandmother Catherine I Baker McVey, wife of John Frank McVey). John McVegh, Sr., Benjamin McVey, John McVey son of Benjamin, John McVey, and Jacob McVey, son of Benjamin. (Petition accepted 4 Mar 1776, Baker appointed Captain in July 1776).

This made the McVey picture very confusing!! Who were there people? Were Edmund's grandchildren and great grandchildren (I thought) moving to Maryland?

But three names started appearing in records 1776-1800 with variations, John, Jacob and Benjamin McVey, Vea, Veigh. But the original Benjamin seemed to disappear by 1782. Where did he go?

At this time I started an investigation into Daniel McVey-McVaugh and his family. I know he died late 1800 or early 1801. His property was left to about 6 minor children. Also in 1800 - according to records of Les Brown - an older John McVey bought land in Little Britain Twp, Lancaster Co PA. I assumed this John was an older son of Daniel, a John McVey who had married Mary Shields, gone to OH about 1787 and returned for his father's illness, all the while deciding to remain. Therefore I did not bother with John of Little Britain.

Then records of Cecil County burials showed a Jacob McVey buried at Logan Farm, with later notations of McVey and McVey. Who was this Jacob of Logan Farm? Tax records at this time show two Jacob McVeys in Cecil County. "Jacob of Logan Farm" is the son of John? or of Benjamin? Jacob of Logan Farm b 1754 d 1809 (Eventually I prove this Jacob of Logan Farm is son of Benjamin.)

We know John McVey showed up in McVeytown area in 1787. John of McVeytown died about 1824. In exchanging information with his descendants it was discovered this John also recorded as Mevey. We are aware John of McVeytown had at least 2 brothers - Enoch and William.

The next note of a McVey I discovered was "Enoch McVeys in Ohio, 1816." This was found in Uriah Brown's publication (by Md Hist. Soc 1916) "Travelers in the Ohio Country" He states "Enoch McVey, a native of Cecil County."

Then I received a letter from Anne Greenwood of Washington DC. (She is a descendant of Absalom McVey of Bay View MD who settled Sedalia MO about 1830-35.) In this letter she mentioned two wills she had discovered in Maryland. One was a will of John Mevey-McVey-McVeigh (three spellings used throughout the will) which was written 24 April 1794. (Note a John McVeay was listed in Cecil County in 1800 but he turns out to be John of Little Britain, a grandson of Old John - 1794 - but more on him later.)

John of 1794 - will - wife, Mary ? - children: Benjamin, Jacob, Sara, and Ann Willocks. There is no Enoch, no William and no Elizabeth McVea Bond! Still no order but more confusion added to the mess! The second will was of Jacob McVey, dated 23 Mar 1802. (This Jacob is the son of John Above) Wife, Mary ? - children, John, Benjamin, Henry, Jacob, William, Andrew, Mary, Eloner. (This John is John of Little Britain.) But this is not Jacob of Logan Farm. There also is no Enoch or no Elizabeth McVea Bond. Still confusion!!

Three names are continually used: John, Jacob, and Benjamin. There is no John, Jr. to equate with the John McVegh Sr of the Baker Petition. At this time I assume John McVegh Sr was a typical Colonial custom of oldest man with same name used Sr in order to distinguish himself. I might also add "of Benjamin" or "of John" or "son of Benjamin" leads me to suspect Scottish or Irish or Scotch-Irish origin of this family, present by 1750 if not slightly earlier - 1740 perhaps.

We know of Old John, Old Benjamin, but where is Old Jacob? Old Jacob was tracked down in Southwest PA after 1790, from Pequa PA (just over MD line) formerly from Valley Forge PA - during the Revolution. His wife's name was Nancy Passmore. A biography of Jacob mentions he came from Ireland in mid 1700's. His one son in SW PA is Thomas, and an unnamed daughter. Children of his son Thomas are Benjamin and John. Old Jacob dies in 1814.

Suddenly I decided there is no relation or kinship with Edmund MacVeagh-Veigh-Vaugh of Philadelphia County! Instead three brothers, John, Benjamin, and Jacob came from Ireland! Then perhaps a generation earlier from Scotland. Therefore Scotch-Irish (Scotch-Irish big movement into Colonies 1700-1770 from Northern Ireland.) The Scotch-Irish brought with them whiskey distilling secrets and a fierce hatred of the English and a dislike for Irish Catholics.

In 1978 I received following information from Gary Burns of Havre de Grace MD: Thomas Burns m Ann Patterson abt 1800. They had 3 sons - Samuel, Henry, and Jonathan P (Gary's ancestor who m Jane Alexander). Samuel m Susan Taylor. The third brother, Henry Burns, m Hannah McVey in 1832. She was a daughter of Jacob and Amy ? Mevey-McVey - both buried Logan Farm in Cecil County. Hannah was b abt 1800 d after 1870.

Les Brown sent me a copy of William Thompson Tamsey's letter of Oct 1877 stating: "My grandfather, Jacob McVey, owned 600 acres of fine timberland in Cecil County... Jacob had 7 brothers, 6 of whom went west about 1770. His other brother, Passmore, remained in MD... Built Becon Hill abt 1790 and died abt 1824." (As it turns out, the dates Jacob's brothers went west were 1783-1787. Also Passmore's will probated 1844. Passmore m Eleanor McCullough 17 Sep 1787 and had one daughter who also m a McCullough. In 1832 Passmore m Elizabeth Jane McKinney - no children. In his will of 1844 Passmore gave one dollar to each of his 3 grandsons - McCullough - Rest of his property to Jane, his wife.)

William Thompson Ramsey owned a portion of Jacob McVey's timberland. He did not marry. He was a brother of Hannah Ramsey Atkinson. Parents of Hannah and William were William Ramsey and Martha McVey. Martha McVey was dau of Jacob and Amy ? McVey, buried at Logan Farm. Martha (McVey) Ramsey (14 Dec 1792-15 Mar 1834) m William Ramsey 18 Feb 1813.

Then Dora Alexander (RD 2, Box 361 D, White House Station NJ 08889) and Janet Strauss (Durlach Rd RD 1, Ephrata PA 17522), descendants of Jacob of Logan Farm, sent me the will of Benjamin Meve, written 28 Nov 1780, probated 22 Feb 1781: wife, Martha (Passmore) - at will's probate she refused to make oath of truthfulness but sons Jacob and Benjamin did make the oath - reason, Quaker. Children named in will: John, Jacob, William, Benjamin, Elizabeth Bond, Edmund, Passmore, Enock, Hannah and George.

People wondered of significance! Of course it solved mystery of Old Benjamin of 1776. We also can pinpoint Enoch McVey as well as Elizabeth McVeigh Bond!! William is located as well as John of McVeytown. Elizabeth Bond died about 1785, Samuel Bond remarries and moves to Winchester VA. (Samuel and Elizabeth (McVeigh) Bond are the parents of Benjamin, Eli, and Sarah.) Hannah, the other daughter (often called Ann) does not marry but lives with Jacob and is also buried at Logan Farm. Margaret Dean, 3208 S Utica, Tulsa OK 74105, is a descendant of Enoch.

Now, however, I can state with confidence the McVeys of Baltimore County are not descended from Benjamin McVey-Meve-McVey. Two sons of Benjamin remained in Maryland - Passmore and Jacob of Logan Farm - and both had only daughters.

Jacob of Logan Farm - if you recall - died on 11 Apr 1809 without a will. Jacob's estate was finally settled in court by son in law, William Ramsey, in Apr 1817. The settlement was difficult to read but seemed to be:

Parcel #1 Amy McVey - 120 A (widow dower right)
2 Martha and Wm Ramsey - 125 A
3 Harriet and Able Marple - 108A
4 Hannah McVey - 68 A (married Henry Burns)
5 Amy McVey - 75 A (married Reed)
6 Edith McVey - 106 A - no further information

How did the Logans enter the picture? We must return to the Burns family:

Children of Henry and Hannah (McVey) Burns:

1. Alice Y m Georg H Logan
2. Mary A m John P Logan
3. Thomas
4. Benjamin M (McVey?) - d Civil War - buried Logan F
5. Amy M (Martha?) m William Lewis
6. Jonathan P (Patterson?) - died Civil War - buried Logan F
7. Joseph P (Passmore?)
8. Henry Jr. m Margaret ?

It seems apparent one of the two daughters received the "new" house Benjamin had constructed for wife, Martha (Passmore) Meve which she assigned to Jacob in 1786, and it then passed to Hannah with 68A (her portion no doubt smaller because big house is located on it) 1817. It also would be interesting to see if Amy's parcel - #1 - is further divided up amongst the daughters or sold outright.

Regardless, buried also at Logan Farm:

Mevey - Amelia - dau of Jacob and Amy b 1784 d early Sep 1806
Benjamin - son of Jacob and Amy b 1794 d late Sep 1806

Jacob - father of five - d 11 Apr 1809

McVey - Ann McVey d 1825 (unmarried sister of Jacob - oftentimes called Hannah

Amy McVey wife of Jacob 0 d 1835 - about 60

Probably Benjamin and Martha, parents of Jacob, are buried in this graveyard, too.

Next is the deed executed by Martha (Passmore) Meve and son Jacob Mevey - in Aug 1786, effective Feb 1787. Briefly this deed restates Benjamin Meve's will, its terms, children, minor children to be educated. Since provisions of will fulfilled Martha to receive payment yearly (an annuity) in MD coin - or special- for house. Recorded 6 Feb 1787.

Apparently all sons but Passmore and Jacob were gone now and at first I thought Martha wanted to stay with son Edmund as well as Old Jacob's wife, Nancy (Passmore) McVey (Vay) in SW PA. This seemed obvious since a will of Edmund in 1814 stated "care for my mother" in SW PA. The only question in my mind was the mark X in the will since it seemed MD McVeys could at least sign their names. This was in 1982.

However, a short time later - 1984 - Lois McVey of Albuquerque NM pointed out a will of one Edmund McVey who died in 1790-1791 and was married to Jane Haines (1772-1852). It seems Edmund left her a widow at the tender age of 19 or 20 - either with a baby or pregnant. Area SW PA. In his will, Edmund leaves property to his brother, Benjamin, and mentions his brother, William. If Edmund has no children, residue of his estate, expected from his parents, to be divided among his brothers and sisters except "His brother Jacob." The tone of will implies his mother had died shortly before Edmund's will. Jane Haines McVey, Benjamin and his wife, Prudence, some afterwards sell the property - probably by 1796 when Jane Haines McVey marries Asa Cadwalader (?) in Greene Co (SW PA) at Westland Friends (Quaker) Meeting.

As stated earlier, Enoch McVey, brother of Jacob and Passmore, shows up, unmarried, at present day McVeytown PA 1788 and 1789. In 1790 he marries Elizabeth Lyons (Betty McVey Myers in Wakefield Bible). Enoch and family are found in Miffling County in 1800 - McVeytown area.

The Enoch McVey family then shows up in Cecil Twp of Washington Co PA 1810. Then according to Brown's Journal of his travels to and through OH we find Enoch McVey in OH in 1816.... "Amongst New Englanders" outside Zanesville.

The 1820-30-40 OH census then lists Enoch McVey (Vay) as residing in Rich Hill Twp but he is not found here under McVey(Vay) in the 1850 OH census. Instead we find him in 1850 under Mevey , age 82, born in MD. Sometime after this he probably dies because his son, George, is listed at this location and later grandson, by 1880.

I cannot exactly detail the travels of Benjamin, George, and William as in Enoch's case. However, the gravesites for Benjamin and wife Prudence are located at Robinson Run Church in SW PA. William lives until 1850 in SW PA with his birthplace listed as NJ.

John McVey of course remains in McVeytown PA where he dies about 1824-1828, and a number of his descendants still reside in the area. Betty McVey Myers, descendant - 455 Tomahawk St Park Forest IL 60466.

With Les Brown's records of Daniel McVey(Vaugh) family organized and updated until 1970, we can eliminate this as our origins. We also rule out Benjamin since his two sons who remained in MD has only daughters. At this time I see no reason for any of his other sons as our ancestor since there is no known record or fact which might support this contention. It would appear the only logical choice is the remaining brother, John McVegh. In the first place the overwhelming evidence with the names supports this theory.

My father's name was Louis JOHN McVey (though Mt. Carmel church records show JOHN Louis McVey). My grandfather's name was JOHN Frank McVey (see first page). My great grandfather's name was JOHN J (James or Joshua?) McVey. My great great grandfather's name was JOHN McVey. It is though the family in selecting this name was trying to tell future generations of their origins!! I believe at this time John McVegh is the grandfather of John McVey of 1821. At this time I cannot pinpoint his father, but as time allows I shall diligently pursue this thought and hopefully I can add to this summary.

In the past year I have carefully attempted to reconstruct the Meve-McVea-MacVeigh families and their relationships. In January I received information which conclusively pointed out John McVey of Little Britain was son of Jacob (174601802) who in turn was son of John (1794). This family generally used MacVeigh as its name but more and more used McVey and in doing so, mixed in with McVaugh (McVay) family, or descendants of Daniel McVaugh.

Jacob (1802) and Mary's family (courtesy of Marilyn Opfer, 10202 Ranger Rd., Fairfax VA 22030):

1. John 3 Sept 1772 - 16 Nov 1840 wife Mary died 1844
2. Benjamin 6 Nov 1774 m Rebecca Baker abt 1807 - not proved
3. Andrew 14 Dec 1776
4. Henry 6 Dec 1779
5. James 15 Dec 1781 (prob overlooked in will - unintentionally)
6. Mary 22 Feb 1784 m Thomas Sansbury
7. Jacob 12 Aug 1787 m Elizabeth ?
8. William 4 Apr 1790 m Mary Bailey d IA 1869
9. Eleanor 22 Aug 1793 m ?? NFI

To reinforce this family we have land deed of 28 July 1834 between Jacob McVey Sr (#7 47 y) and his wife, Elizabeth, (of MD); then Thomas Sansbury and his wife, Mary (McVey) (#6 50y) (of PA); William McVey (#8 44y) and his wife, Mary (Bailey) (of MD). Jacob, Mary and William being "the party of the first part.: The party of the second part is Thomas McVey. Thomas McVey purchased "tract of land left them (party of first part) by their late father, Jacob, of Cecil County, and it was originally held by Jacob's father, John, late of Cecil County. Later Benjamin McVey Sr swore confirmation of people. This establishes "Jacob son of John" as outlined above. Also, "Jacob son of Benjamin" alias "Jacob of Logan Farm" is now readily identified.

William and Mary (Baily) McVey packed up shortly after land sale and show up in OH. They later move to IA where William dies in 1869. (Descendant Marie Davis, 912 Sunrise Drive, Salina KS 67401)

I have yet to figure out Thomas's relationship, but I do suspect him to be son of Benjamin who married Rebecca Baker since Thomas is a "Baker name." Benjamin of Baker marriage buried Brick Meeting House.

There is also a James McVey, b PA, and his wife, Rachael, b PA - both buried Brick Meeting House, Calvert MD. James, b 1790 d 21 Mar 1870 - Rachael b 1803 d 30 Dec 1869. I do not know at this time if this James born 1781, son of Jacob. I do not know if James (1790) had children, but I suspect him to be father of John (1821). James (1790) was Ensign in War of 1812 in Cecil Militia.

James (Jamy) , son of Daniel, m Martha Kidd and he died 1858 - his wife dies 1836. Both are buried Nottingham Presbyterian Church though their children were all Quaker.

John of Little Britain's children were all buried at Penn Hill Quaker Grounds except 3 sons who went to OH - 1825-35 - Morgan County.

There is also a well of James McVey, Harford County - died about 1842. The will mentions no wife wife or children, though census records do.

John McVey (1821) was living in Lower Chanceford Twp, York County PA (or Peach Bottom region). They worked at Colliers in Harford County, 1850, 1860 and 1870. They also seem to be Quakers (surrounding families are vehement anti-slavers). It seems upon death of parents - speculation now - James and Rachel (1869-1870) they moved to Carson's Run area of Harford County. It was here John J McVey (1850) met Martha Hoopes and they married at York Methodist in Oct 1872. However, it wasn't until 8 years later they joined the Methodist formally (Nov 1880). Then in 1894 upon the death of John (1821) , John J McVey family moved to Middle River in Baltimore County operating the McVey Cannery and Packing House.

In Aug 1901 John Frank McVey (Francis John McVeigh) and his sister, Jessie Virginia McVey (Helen Jessie Virginia McVeigh) became Catholic converts at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church. The next day Jessie married John Andrew Fogel, son of John Fogel and Mary Anne Martin (sister of Margaret Francis Martin Baker, who had converted Louis Arthur Baker in 1879. Mary Anne Martin Fogel is buried at St. Joseph's but not with spouse - in the Martin-Baker lots. St Joseph's church is located on US Rte 1 in Fullerton.)

On Nov 27, 1901 Francis John McVeigh (John Frank McVey) m Catherine Ida Baker.

On Jan 2 1902 John Martin (1831-1902) from Ireland died. He was father of Margaret Francis Martin and Mary Anne Martin. His wife , Margaret (Coyle) Martin died in Aug 1871 (1831-1871). She, too, was from Ireland.

My father was born 25 Mar 1903 - Louis John McVey (Church records show he was named John Louis McVey).

On 26 Nov 1903 John Frank's father, John J McVey (1850) died. By 1906 the family spread. Frank McVey (my grandfather) and his growing family settled in Sparrows Point. Some of the family moved to Highlandtown. Others returned to Harford County. By 1925 Martha Hoopes McVey was living in Harford County with her daughter, Ida Mae McVey Frey, where she died in January 1936. On 6 March 1928 Frank McVey died and his wife, Catherine Baker, died on 30 Apr 1935.

My father died 29 Oct 1953. My mother died 14 May 1974. Charles Arthur McVey 10 August 1984

p. 130: Ship Marchioness of Bute, Newry to New York, 15 May, 1850; includes Alice McVeigh.

Tepper, New World Immigrants, Vol. I:

MacVay, M.; from Belfast 1811, Port of New York, Ship Hibernia, Master Graham.

MacVea, Jas.; Belfast, June 24, 1816, Port of Philadelphia, Ship George, 46 Passengers.

MacVeigh, Henry

McVey, Doug; 8 Dec 1773, Port of Greenock for N. America, Ship Christy Hugh to New York, aged 30 from Argyleshire; want of employment.

Hackett, Passenger Lists from Ireland:

p. 52: MacVea, Jas.; Port of Departure Belfast, Port of Entry Philadelphia, Pa., Date of Arrival 24 Jun 1811, Name of Ship George, Number of Passengers 46.

Mickey McVey Paulk

From Myrtle Tschudy:

M. McVay & family, Belfast to New York, 1811, Ship Hibernia, 70 passengers, 30 day voyage.

Henry MacVeigh, Londonderry to New York, August 12, 1816, Ship Mountbay, 133 passengers.

John Holmes, Gravesend to St. Christophus, April 3, 1635, Ship Paul of London, 22 years of age.

Robert Day, to New England, April 3, 1635, Ship Hopewell, Wm Bundick (master?), 30 years of age.

Passengers and Ships Prior to 1684:

p. 36: "Thomas Holme F.P. of 5000 acres and Penn's surveyor general, was on the Amity. His sons Michael and Tryall Holme, and two of his daughters, Eleanor who m. Joseph Moss, and Esther who m. Silas Crispin, are said to have been with him. (See PMHB, XIX, 417, and ibid, XX (1896), 251-252) According to his will, his kinsman John Fletcher 'came over with him,' and possibly John Osbourne, whose indentures had not yet expired. EDMUND MCVEAGH, who later married Alice Dickinson, who came in servant to Phineas Pemberton, was another servant."

p. 64: "Phineas Pemberton, aged 33, grocer from Bolton in Lancashire, brought his wife Phoebe, daughter of James Harrison, and young children Abigail and Joseph Pemberton. Their certificate from Hartshaw Meeting, filed with Falls Monthly Meeting, was dated 18 5 m 1682, a month before Phinchas, as he spelled his name at this time, started loading goods on the Submission. He was not an original purchaser, but in right of his wife became heir to James Harrison's land (Pa. Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 525,540, 556). The Bucks County Register of Arrivals was compiled by him in his capacity as deputy for Bucks Co. Its transcription in PMHB, IX, is unfortunately confusing, and does not correspond in all details to the list of passengers in the log. From the transcript of the latter, in PGSP, I, it would appear that he brought over five servants: Joseph Mather, Elizabeth Bradbury, Jane Lyon, Allis Dickinson, and Lydia Wharmsby. The transcript in Battle, Bucks County, assigns Elizabeth Bradbury to Phinchas' father Ralph, and Allis Dickinson and Jane Lyon to Phinchas' father-in-law, James Harrison. They were all to be free in November 1686. Of these, Joseph Mather, aged 18, eventually m. the only daughter and heiress of John Russell, in right of whom Mather took up a lot on the south side of Sassafras (Race) Street in Philadelphia (Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 589,605; ibid, 3rd Series, III, 399)."

p. 126: "Allis (Alice) Dickinson, on the log given as the servant to Phinchas Pemberton, m. Edmund McVeagh, who had come as a servant to Thomas Holme."

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Dear Cousins:

We are fortunate to be able to begin publishing our Quarterly again.

There have been some difficult years, but with the continued help of our secretary, PAULK, Mickey McVey, the McVay-McVeigh-McVey Family Archives has survived. Without her dedication and devotion, all would have been lost. We are deeply indebted to her. THANK YOU, MICKEY, from all the members.

Also, our special thanks to JACKSON, John D., who has volunteered to be our Editor. Welcome! He is using a word processor to publish the quarterly. We are very pleased with the results.

We have included the mailing list of several years ago. If you know of any changes, please send the information to both Mickey and John - for the files and mailing labels.

We ask your help in obtaining new members. Please ask the societies of which you are a member if they will include the following announcement in their publication:

McVay-McVeigh-McVey Family Archives - Quarterly published April, July, October and January - President/Treasurer, Agnes McVeigh Brooks, 2114 Martingale Dr., Norman, OK 73072-2815 - Editor, John Dale Jackson, 6757 Eastwood Trail, West Bend, WI 53095-8910 - Secretary, Mickey McVey Paulk, 12500 John Williams Rd., Pascagoula, MS 39581-9024. - Please address correspondence to the secretary.

We will resume publishing the pedigree charts of our members. If your chart has not been published - or if you wish to have an updated chart published, please send one to our editor. The charts have always been a great feature of our quarterly. Members could readily find their cousins.

Please send your completed (as far as possible) family information to me for The Mc V book.

Please send information with suggestions for the quarterly to John

Jackson. We publish information about anyone with the surname McVay, McVeigh, McVey, McVaugh, McVeagh, McVea, McV, McVevey (see Ohio 1850 Census) - all variations of the name. Please document your records, where obtained, etc. If information is from unpublished family records, please cite the source, date, where located now, etc. Each Issue will include names and addresses of new members - plus address changes. Please furnish your 9 digit zip code. The mailing costs will be lessened if we have the 9 digit zip code for all members.

My previous fees were unrealistic. As you know, my husband and I underwrote most of the cost. Our tax man has advised us that we cannot do it now.

If we are to continue with our proposed quarterly of four issues, with at least thirty six pages each, the dues will be $20.00. Those who have joined or renewed prior to 1 April will not owe any more for 1991.

Thank you all for your patience and understanding.

Fondly,
Agnes McVeigh Brooks

EDITOR'S COLUMN

By way of introduction, I am the newly appointed editor of our quarterly Newsletter.

When working with some one I can't see, I like to know something about him. I am called John or Jack and my wife is PJ (JOHNSON, Mary Patricia). I was born in Waterloo Twp., Athens County OH and have lived in WI since 1963. PJ was born in Milwaukee, WI and raised in Kenosha, WI. We both enjoy genealogy as one of our hobbies.

My interest in genealogy and the surname McVay began during a conversation with a great-uncle, McVEY, Alvin Edgar Rev. I realized if I wanted to know more about my ancestors, I better get started!

I expressed my interest to Uncle Alvin, not only did he give names, dates, humorous and sad stories, in 1975 he gave me a gift membership to the MCV Family Archives. In 1954 Uncle Alvin had published a pamphlet on the family tree of McVEY, Benjamin Franklin and DOWNARD, Lena Alvina and their descendants. This was a great beginning. I have been able to add to his work, with the help of many relatives. Some day soon I hope to be able to reissue his pamphlet with the additions.

My lineage to the McVEYS: My mother McVEY, Wilna May daughter of McVEY, Luster Lee, son of MCVAY, Benjamin Franklin, son of MCVAY, Stephen, son of MCVAY, Ziba. I believe Ziba came to Marietta, OH from NJ. The 1810 shows Ziba with a female of an age to be his wife (MACKAY, Elizabeth) and an daughter.

This issue of the quarterly contains extensive data from IN which had been generously shared with us by member WEST, DONAL S. A big THANK YOU! to Mr. West.

The lineage charts were omitted in this issue. They will be continued in subsequent issues. The other regular categories are here, and we plan to continue them. A new feature with this issue is the surname index which will be continued. How about you? Do you have data to share? publish? It might be someones gold mine.

I look forward to receiving your material and contributions.
Best of Luck in your research!
John Dale Jackson

Dorothy Johnson

MILITARY

MCVAY, David (R6816), After enlisting during 1776 or 1777, while residing in the Waxhaw Settlement, he served two years under YARBOROUGH, Capt. He served under PARSON, Major Capt., and ROEBUCK, Col. In addition, he served under FLOYD, Charles Capt., BUNPERS, Capt., and was in the battles at Camden and Cowpens. (Moved to N.C. and Ala.) A.A.5156E;T156.

MCVAY, Hugh (S15286), b. 18 Apr 1741, Richmond County, VA. He first served in North Carolina units. After moving to the home of his brothers in Laurens District, he served under LACY, John Lt., ROGERS, John Capt., and WILLIAMSON, Col. He was in the battles at Lyndley's Old Fort, Seneca, Tugaloo and the Ring Battle. Thereafter, he returned to North Carolina and joined a unit there. (Moved to Tenn. and KY.)

MCVEY, David, He served under DUVAL, Capt., and CASEY, Col. A.A.452.

HELPFUL HINTS

What is the difference between "allied", "collateral" and "lineal" families?

Collateral means descended from the same ancestor in a different line (as distinguished from lineal). Lineal is ascending or descending in a direct line. Allied families refers to families united (related) usually through marriage.

Is there a centralized source for information about ancestors who served in the Confederate Army?

The state archives of the state in which your ancestor was living (or one in which your ancestor which he enlisted or was drafted) during the Civil War usually has the most information about him and the unit which he served.

"Civil War Genealogy" by SCHWEITZER, George K., is an excellent reference book. Check Heritage Books, 1540E, Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 107, Bowie, MD., 20716. "Tracing Your Civil War Ancestor" by GROENE, Bertram Hawthorne, is also helpful. (From SHAKING YOUR FAMILY TREE, by GORNLEY, Myra Vandperpool.

BITS and PIECES

MCVEY, Willis A., Capt. Contributor to Readers Digest, Humor in Uniform, October 1990, pg 171.

MCVAY, John was b 25 Mar 1751, Richmond Co., Va., (G.H.S. King Resister of North Farnham Parish and Lunenburg Parish). John's father was MCVAY, John, b 20 Jul 1722, son of MCVAY, Hugh, b 09 May 1747, who served in the Revolution from Caswell Co., N.C. Following the war MCVAY, John, MCVAY, Hugh, and their brother MCVAY, David moved to South Carolina. MCVAY, David had served as a spy in the S.C. militia during the war and in 1852 made a pension application from Pike Co., Ala., which was rejected because his service was not Continental. MCVAY, Hugh finally moved to Livingston Co., Ky., where 19 Feb 1806 he received a land grant from the state of Ky. for land on Crooked Creek. His son, MCVAY, Hugh (Jr) became Governor of Alabama in 1837, member of the Constitutional Convention, and is buried at Florence, Ala. Another son MCVAY, Jordan was b 03 Apr 1781, Greenville Co., S.C., d 05 Sep 1826, Caldwell, Ky. and is buried in Hill Cemetery, near Princeton, Ky. Yet another son MCVAY, Pleasant, received a Ky. land grant in Livingston Co., Ky. 14 Sep 1807. Hugh's daughter MCVAY, Isabelle m HUGHES, John. MCVAY, Hugh applied for a pension in 1832 as a resident of Caldwell, Ky.

This county had been formed from Livingston Co. MCVAY, John was given a land grant in S.C. in 1784 in 96 District. CHANDLER, Jesse, ggm, his daughter, MCVAY, Rebekiah, who married, CHANDLER, John 22 Nov 1800 in Person Co., N.C. CHANDLER, John was born 25 Oct 1775 Mecklenburg Co., Va.

and MCVAY, Rebekiah was b 1782 in Greenville Co., S.C. Most of CHANDLER descendants of this couple live in Henderson, Union, Webster, and Hopkins Cos., Ky. today. CHANDLER, "Happy", U. S. Senator from Ky. is a descendant.

MCVAY, John had two sons, MCVAY, John and MCVAY, David, who moved to Hancock Co. and Washington Co., Ga. where CHANDLER, William, brother of John, above lived. The Georgia CHANDLERS are included in Threads of Ancestors by Mize.

Lineage of CHANDLER, John, husband of MCVAY, Rebekiah is as follows: Johns was son of CHANDLER, Joel, b Mecklenburg Co., the son of CHANDLER, David, the son of CHANDLER, David, the son of CHANDLER, Joel of Cumberland Co., Va., the son of CHANDLER, Robert of York Co., Va., being the oldest being the oldest will of that state (1669), the son of CHANDLER, John of Elizabeth City County, Va., who came in 1609 on the Hercules from London, England.

Mr. CHANDLER wrote that his gggf GIBSON, Joel served in the Revolution from Caswell Co., N.C. but was b Va., and was closely related to GIBSON, George, Col. Another gggf was STONE, William of Stafford Co., Va., who served under Col. GIBSON, was captured at Kaskaskia, and in winter marched through ice to take Vincennes, Indiana, during the revolution.

HELP MCVEIGH, KENTUCKY HELP

The community of MCVEIGH is located in Pike County, Kentucky, at the head of Pond Creek, a principal tributary of the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River. A Post Office was established in this community on 22 Oct 1912, with WEBB, Archibald J., as postmaster.

It is thought that this community was named for a Mr. Veigh, who was a key official in the Pond Creek Coal Company, a subsidiary of the Island Creek Coal Company of Holden, WVA. It is believed that the Pittston Coal Company now owns the original Pond Creek Coal Company.

Can any of our members shed some light on this community. The information is to be included in our book.

Do you know of other communities named after a McV? Send any information/clues to our corresponding secretary.

IOWA - Centennial Ledger, Monday 02 Oct 1939, p 6, section K, an article written about the christening of Libertyville which was known first as "THE COLONY". The article was written by WIMBERLY, Mace Alex., from Squaw Valley, CA., a cousin of MCVEY, Sam and with whom Mr. WIMBERLY had lived while in Jefferson Co., IA.

The event took place on 04 Jul 1842. MCVEY, Sam proposed the name of Libertyville and it was unanimously accepted. The article further states MCVEY, Sam had a wife and little girl about two years old.
