GEORGIA ALABAMA HENDONS

The decision to name this book with the above title was for several reasons. The first was because of my Father. If anyone ever loved his kinfolks, it was Dado or known to others as Uncle Nicky. There weren't many days that went by that he didn't have something good to say about the people of the Hendon families. So, I grew up thinking that the relatives in Alabama and Georgia were the worlds finest. And sure enough, that thinking is sound, I'm just sorry that the distance has kept us apart. In any case, I am proud to have known some of the ones that my Father talked so much about.

Another reason for naming this book with this title is because that is as far back as is known at this time. The marriage certificate of Randall R. Hendon & Emily McPherson shows that they were married on the 10th Day of December 1844 in Carroll County, Georgia. Also, later, Randall R. did move to Cleburne County, Alabama. His last days were with his son, Henry Hendon in Cleburne County. According to my Father, Randall R. was a very tough shrewd individual. A part of this could have been his determination to survive better than most. He did, during the Civil War, spend his Confederate dollars for land. After the War, the original owners did try to recover their land since the money was of no value. Randall R.'s tenacity enabled him to hold this land. The land was at least 3 or 4 farms that was thought to have been willed, one to each of his children, to his offspring. In any case, further research needs to be done in Cleburne County.... So the title of this book fits the area in which our known forefathers lived.

At this time, the thinking is that the Hendons came from England to the Maryland area. There is some info showing that some of them did move South to the Carolinas before moving on to Georgia and Tennessee. Several Hendon families appear in the several counties in these states. Emily McPherson seems to have come from Rhea County, Tenn. It could be that Randall R. came from that area, but that is only a guess. There are other Hendons listed in other Georgia Counties, as: DeKalb Oglethorpe, Coweta. Others were noted in Alabama in: Calhoun & Cleburne Counties.

The Huckeba family also seems to have lived in Carroll County and in Coweta County, Ga. They too, probably, moved to Cleburne County after a stint in Randolph County at about the same time.

The pictures that follow are simply copied on a Cannon copier. These pictures do not do justice to the subjects, perhaps next year they will be of a higher quality. It seems that these pics are about the quality as those on the Post Office walls, but please note that there are no serial numbers. If any of you have any additional pictures that I might borrow, in particular group photos, it would be appreciated. Pictures really help to make a book. The next book, Volume Two is already in the thinking for the following year. Those of you that have more information, please get it together for the next issue. I will be happy to include whatever you can send to me.

Two charts are included to show the lineage as is known at this time. There are some blank charts for you to work on your lines. Also, there is also some of the forms that are used to send to other people to fill in from their info. These forms are outline in nature and have proven to be difficult for some to work with. However, they are just a guide and there is no reason that another style can't be used to convey this information. It became apparent to me very early to use the county name instead of the town, because some towns don't exist anymore or that the town is now a part of another county. In any case, B stands for Birth, M stands for Married, D stands for deceased, W stands for Where (use the county for this). This is the basic info. Birth records are difficult to get before 1900. Marriage licenses, Wills, Land Deeds, Death Certificates, Court Records can be secured sometimes with a lot of diligence at the local courthouse. Census records also afford a lot of info from 1850 thru 1890. The census records from 1790 thru 1840 only list the head of the household and the number of others in the family. Military records can be had but are difficult to find in some cases. There are certain forms to be used in this search, for military service. One main source of info is the family bible. These are very hard to find but if you can, please copy all of the data or better yet, xerox it all.

Included, in the back, are some of the data collected on my immediate family, such as marriage license, birth records. If you can, collect this data on your immediate family so as to learn the ropes of where and how. Then, start working back in time.

I am very grateful to so many that have helped on this project. There are so many that a list of last names will be used; as: Barlow, Bishop, Bragg, Cole, Cox, Deason, Demura, Fitzgerald, Gilmer, Hardin, Hendon, Huckeba, Ledford, McWhorter, Moore, Morton, Mullally, Parker, Payne, Peeke, Prewett, Stuart, Trent, Tryor, Whiten, if anyone was missed, we will try to get your name on this list for Volume 2..... Your efforts are sincerely appreciated and hopefully, you will be able to contribute again.....

Mill Hendon

H. H. of Athens, was born in Alabama in 1844 and removed with his fathers family, Harris Hendon, to Cherokee County, Texas in 1850. He joined Co. C Third Texas Cavalry, June 11, 1861, and was in the battles of Oak Hill, Elk Horn Tavern, Iuka, Corinth, Holly Springs, Thompson's Station and with Gen. Joseph E. Johnston in the Georgia Campaign until he received a serious wound in the hip in July, 1864, which disabled him from further service. He served with Whitfield, Mabry, Ross and W. H. Jackson and made a chivalrous and daring Confederate Soldier. He is now a citizen of Henderson County.

The above is the record as listed in the book. The book was published in Tyler, Texas.

Mr. David J. Smith
Editor
Newswatch Magazine

Bridgeton, MO 63044

Dear Mr. Smith:

You were very good to send your magazine to us last year. Some of the readers in our library found it challenging and have asked for it.

I regret we cannot subscribe to all the good reading material, but wish to say that we are happy to supply readers for views, magazines from many different positions. We will appreciate resumption of Newswatch & thanks.

Sincerely,
Mrs Frank Ross Stewart
