But a rare good fellow all the way."

Class History

In September, 1942, our Freshman Class of 28 members was organized with Miss Winne and Miss Iles as advisors. We were very pleased with ourselves at first over the fact that we had "gone up-stairs" but our first horror came in the form of an initiation. After the effects of this wore off we felt very important and elected the following officers: President—Gerald Sanford; Vice President—Emelin Ruzycky; Secretary—Larry Olmstead; Treasurer—Marjory Reedy. Our activities during the term were the sale of Christmas cards, a sleigh ride in January, and a movie.

As we became Sophomores, so did our importance rise (we thought.) We elected Emelin Ruzycky as our new President; Vice President—Velna Byrnes; Marjory Reedy as Secretary; Donald Mittler as Treasurer and Patricia Lee as Reporter. With these new officers we really got down to work. We sold pencils, wrapping paper, Christmas cards, and a little candy (war restrictions, you know.) We also put on two movies. Our activities were a little limited though, because Caesar kept the most of our time pretty well occupied. Miss Winne and Mrs. Matheson were our advisors.

When our busy Junior year arrived, we elected Jane Swears for President; Marjory Reedy for Vice President; June Sellers as Secretary and Patricia Lee as Treasurer. During the year we sold pencils, candy, and Christmas cards, as formerly, and also sponsored a movie called "The Plainsman." Miss Winne was our only advisor.

September—1945! Impossible to believe—yet true! The lowly Freshmen of '42 have become the important Seniors of '45! We sponsored movies every week and sold Christmas cards like mad people. After all, this was our last year and we did have to leave a good impression on our friends. We elected the following officers: President—Gerald Sanford; Vice President—Marjory Reedy; Secretary—Doris McGowan; Treasurer—Mary Cunningham. Miss Winne and Mrs. Marks were our advisors. On November 9, under the direction of Mrs. Heath, our class put on the play, "Almost Eighteen." This and our trip to New York were the highlights of our year.

Now, as the time comes to say "good-bye" to B. H. S. there are doubtless many of us who would like to become lowly Freshmen again just ready for the big climb. However, as we can't we do wish future classes as much enjoyment and good out of their high school days as we have had.

ROSE MARIE EDMONDS

LLOYD HOWE

THE KENNYETTO KRONICLE

... Class Gifts ...

Marian Baker—An imbreakable reed for her clarinet, plus an advanced lesson book.

Anna Mae Chambers—A few round trip tickets to Amsterdam to attend to her "Affairs."

Mary Cunningham—Nothing but happiness, now that Rog is home.

Michael Dobrowolski—A changeable birth certificate to use some place where they don't know how old you are.

Rose Edmonds—An alarm clock so that she can get to school on time in the future.

Roger Farley—A "Name" and "Record" for himself in musical history (something like Harry?)

Charlotte Frasier—To have the "Fleet In" for good.

Arnold Frederick—A leash and a pair of hand-cuffs with the key on a chain around Beverley's neck.

Clement Hapeman—A car to carry all his instruments back and forth from college.

Wanda Hare—A one way ticket to the Philippines or better mail service.

Anna Hovak—Another silver dollar just in case the one she now has isn't always returned.

Lloyd Howe—Someone who enjoys his musical talents (such as a certain Junior girl?).

Grace Kenyon—A reserved booth in----(you know where) for those Saturday night dates.

Patricia Lee—A bus that will always be ready—to take her to Fonda!

Doris McGowan—A spare house to live in, in case her's gets quarantined again.

Larry Olmstead—A little blue book of excuse blanks for after those advertising tries.

Marjory Reedy—An address book to keep all her service men's addresses straight.

Gerald Sanford—A special cabinet for all those Senior Rings he collects and a pair of plaid pants to go with the plaid shirts he is always wearing.

June Sellers—To have Dick home on permanent leave from the Navy.

Donald Sherman—At least 6 inches added to his height so he will be tall enough to go with that Superman brain of his.

Helene Smith—A pair of soft soled shoes for coming in late nights.

Jane Swears—A reserved booth in the Broadalbin Drug Store.

Ethel Tropiak—A mailman so that she won't have to walk to the Post Office so often.

Walter Varvarchin—A card of bobby pins to hold down his curly dark hair.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of the Broadalbin High School of the Village of Broadalbin, in the County of Fulton and State of New York, Spinsters and Gents, being of sound mind and memory (praise be), do make and ordain this to be our LAST WILL and TESTAMENT, in manner and form following; that is to say:

We, the Class of '46, wish to leave the traits which we state below as we pass out the door in June:

- I, MARIAN BAKER, leave my ability to play the clarinet to my sister GOLDIE.
I, ANNA MAE CHAMBERS, leave my cake-making ability to RENA FREDERICK.
I, MARY CUNNINGHAM, leave my ability to hold a certain DAKE to any good-looking high school girl. (Look out, Jake!)
I, MICHAEL DOBROWOLSKI, leave my height to DALE REED.
I, ROSE EDMONDS, leave an alarm clock to HAROLD SMITH in order that he may get to school on time. (I needed one too.)
I, ROGER FARLEY, leave my ability to "toot" a horn to JIMMIE FARLEY.
I, CHARLOTTE FRASIER, leave my "little fleet" to anyone interested in "Blue-jackets".
I, ARNOLD FREDERICK, leave my horse-sense to BUD HARE.
I, CLEMENT HAPPEMAN, leave my acting ability to anyone interested in an acting career.
I, WANDA HARE, leave my ability to sing (?) second-soprano to AUDREY SANFORD.
I, ANNA HOVAK, leave my ability to do mathematics to FRANK PORTER.
I, LLOYD HOWE, leave my ability to conduct a blackfaced philharmonic orchestra to RODNEY SAWYER.
I, GRACE KENYON, leave my ability to sell last month's Reader's Digest to CATHERINE ATANASOFF.
I, PATRICIA LEE, leave my ability to jerk sodas to BILL WERNER.
I, DORIS MCGOWAN, leave my ability to get to all the movies to BETTY BROWN.
I, LARRY OLMSTEAD, leave my ability to play basketball to JIM CLOUTIER.
I, MARJORY REEDY, leave my dancing ability to my sister JOAN.
I, GERALD SANFORD, leave my ability to successfully drive a car to EDWIN BENTLEY.
I, JUNE SELLERS, leave my ability to go steady to MYRTLE SHERMAN.
I, DONALD SHERMAN, leave my cheerleading ability to anyone who can use it as well as I have. (Don't fight over it, J. V's)
I, HELENE SMITH, leave my gossip-editing ability to any chatterbox in high school.
I, JANE SWEARS, leave my ability to get along with everyone to JOAN SAWYER.
I, ETHEL TROPIAK, leave my ability to get to school on time on Monday mornings to my sister DOROTHY.
I, WALTER VARVARCHIN, leave my scientific ability to RONALD BEATTY.

We, the Class of 1946, just leave.

SENIOR PLAY

"Almost Eighteen"

William Barry	Lloyd Howe
Grace Barry	Wanda Hare
Beatrice Barry	Mary Cunningham
Mabel Warren	Rose Edmonds
Mrs. Granville	Anna Hovak
Eddie Barry	Roger Farley
George Jones	Donald Sherman
Ann Sherman	Patricia Lee
Tommy Granville	Arnold Frederick
Sally Davidson	Marjory Reedy
Mr. Merrit	Clement Hapeman
Miss Dalrymple	Jane Swears

All three acts take place in the living room of the Barry home. Eddie wants to go to a crooner's school, but his father, William Barry refuses to let him go unless he earns his own way. Eddie enters an essay contest using an eighteenth century essay as an example. Uncle George mixes them up and mails the wrong essay. Eddie finds himself in quite a confusing and trying situation but Uncle George comes to the rescue.
