HEAD COACH ANGEL ESCOBEDO

ANGEL ESCOBEDO

Head Coach

(Indiana University, 2010)

One of the most successful wrestlers in Indiana University history, Angel Escobedo became the eighth head coach in program history on April 6, 2018.

The 2022-23 season was by far the most successful for Indiana Wrestling under Coach Escobedo's leadership. The team posted an 8-5 dual record, the best team record since the 2016-17 season when the team went 10-9. The Hoosiers also had three Big Ten victories (Maryland, Rutgers, Purdue) for the first time since 2015-16. The win over Purdue snapped a 12-match losing streak to the Boilermakers. Additionally, the team posted three ranked victories over No. 23 Princeton, No. 16 Maryland and No. 16 Rutgers.

At point in the season as many as six Hoosiers were ranked in national polls. As a team, Escobedo had Indiana ranked in the national polls for the first time since February 2016. The Hoosiers were ranked for nearly the entire year, getting as high as No. 17 in FloWrestling's rankings.

Took 12th place (27 points) at the Big Ten Championships and 38th place (7 points) at the NCAA Championships. Escobedo had three podium-finishers at Big Tens with Graham Rooks being a semifinalist and finishing in fifth place at 149 lbs. while Derek Gilcher and DJ Washington both finished in eighth place at 157 and 174 lbs., respectively.

At NAAs, Escobedo had a career-best four qualifiers in a season with Rooks, Gilcher, Washington and Jacob Bullock competing. Rooks reached the Round of 12 before being eliminated. His run to the Blood Round was the furthest an Indiana wrestler had reached in the NCAA Championships since Nate Jackson finished in eighth and an All-American in 2017 at 184 lbs.

In Escobedo's tenure, he has led the Hoosiers to place 14 qualifiers in the NCAA Championships.

The 2021-22 season saw Indiana have two wrestlers reach the NCAA Championships in Brock Hudkins and Donnell Washington make their third and second appearance at the Championships, respectively. Hudkins automatically qualified by finishing 10th at the Big Ten Championships, earning the No. 13 seed at 133 while Washington at 184 got the No. 26 seed as an at-large bid.

In the regular season, Escobedo's squad earned 15 victories over ranked opponents among the Hoosier starters, won its first two dual meets by a combined score of 80-6, and had five individual champions at invitational events.

In the 2020-21 season, the Hoosiers had three NCAA qualifiers in DJ Washington, Graham Rooks and Cayden Rooks. Washington was the No. 9 seed at 174 at the NCAA Championships. Washington was the UWW Junior Nationals Champion and qualified for the Junior World Championships. Santos Cantu earned the Silver Medal at the Junior Pan Am Championships.

In the 2019-20 season the Hoosiers had two NCAA qualifiers in Liam Cronin and Graham Rooks. Cronin (125) and Rooks (149) both finished the season ranked in the top-20 and beat a total of nine ranked opponents on the season. Cronin finished fifth at the Big Ten Championships and Rooks finished in 10th place.

Escobedo continued to build momentum for the program as the Hoosiers set a new average attendance record of 1,630 fans per match. That attendance number was up from the 1,286 fans per match from the previous season. Since Escobedo took over as the head coach, the Hoosiers have more than doubled average match attendance.

In his first season at the helm for the Hoosiers in the 2018-19 slate, Escobedo guided the Hoosiers to two wins over ranked opponents (#12 North Carolina, #25 Stanford). It was the first since the 2008-09 season Indiana has two ranked wins in a season. The Hoosiers win over North Carolina was the programs first win over a top-15 opponent since 2008. The Hoosiers closed the dual match season with a 32-0 win against Chattanooga. It was their first shutout since the 2015 season.

In the first year in the Hoosiers' new arena, Wilkinson Hall, the team saw record crowds, as they finished the season ranked 21st in average attendance among NCAA DI schools for the 2018-19 season. The Hoosiers set a school record for single match attendance with 1,962 people on hand for their match against Penn State. For the season the team had an average attendance of 1,286.

Escobedo assumed the reins of the program after spending one year as IU's associate head coach along with three years on the Iowa State staff.

HEAD COACH ANGEL ESCOBEDO

"We are very excited about the future of Indiana Wrestling under Angel's leadership," IU Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Fred Glass said. "As a wrestler, he excelled at the high school, collegiate and international levels. As a coach, he has mentored All-Americans and NCAA qualifiers. With a new state-of-the-art $17 million facility set to open, Angel is the right person to lead the program into this new, exciting era."

A native of Gary, Ind., Escobedo was a dominant wrestler for the Hoosiers from 2007-10. As a sophomore, he won the 2008 NCAA title at 125 pounds, and he captured Big Ten titles in the weight class three times (2008-10). He's the program's only four-time All-American, and his 137 career wins (second) and 42 pins (third) rank among the best in IU history.

After wrapping up his IU career in 2010, Escobedo competed internationally and was a member of Team USA. Among his top performances was a fifth-place finish at the 2013 World Championships in Budapest, Hungary, and a second-place finish at the 2015 Pan American Games in Toronto.

While training full-time for the international circuit, he spent three years on Iowa State's coaching staff from 2015-17, where he helped develop a handful of the Cyclones' light-weight wrestlers into national contenders. Among his most notable wrestlers was two-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier Earl Hall.

He plans to make Indiana a force in the nation's premier college wrestling conference, the Big Ten.

Angel and his wife, Pauli, have three children – Malachi, Saniyah and Zoe.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MIKE DIXON

MIKE DIXON Associate Head Coach (Indiana University, 2001)

Indiana head wrestling coach Angel Escobedo announced on June 4, 2018 the addition of Mike Dixon to his coaching staff. Dixon, who completed his varsity career at Indiana in 2001, returns to his alma mater as the Hoosiers' associate head coach. Dixon's duties as the Associate Head Coach include recruiting, organizing on campus visits, oversight of team academics, coordination of team travel and oversight of the team travel budget. In addition to these duties Dixon also is involved with practice planning, match strategizing, scouting and individual skill instruction.

In the 2019-20 season the Hoosiers had two NCAA qualifiers in Liam Cronin and Graham Rooks. Cronin (125) and Rooks (149) both finished the season ranked in the top-20 and beat a total of nine ranked opponents on the season. Cronin finished fifth at the Big Ten Championships and Rooks finished in 10th place. Dixon helped build momentum for the program as the Hoosiers set a new average attendance record of 1,630 fans per match. That attendance number was up from the 1,286 fans per match from the previous season. In addition Dixon was instrumental in helping Indiana bring in the 16th ranked recruiting class in the country, his first with the program.

In his first season on staff, Dixon helped the Hoosiers to two wins over ranked opponents (#12 North Carolina, #25 Stanford). It was the first since the 2008-09 season Indiana has two ranked wins in a season. The Hoosiers win over North Carolina was the programs first win over a top-15 opponent since 2008. The Hoosiers closed the dual match season with a 32-0 win against Chattanooga. It was their first shutout since the 2015 season. In the first year in the Hoosiers new arena, Wilkinson Hall, the team saw record crowds, as they finished the season ranked 21st in average attendance among NCAA DI schools for the 2018-19 season. The Hoosiers set a school record for single match attendance with 1,962 people on hand for their match against Penn State. For the season the team had an average attendance of 1,286.

"I'm excited to bring Mike Dixon on staff, as he was an instrumental part of the rise of Old Dominion Wrestling and brought in many top-25 recruiting classes," Escobedo said. "As an alumnus, his passion and commitment to see Indiana Wrestling at the top is unwavering. I know he is excited to have a big impact on taking this program to new heights. My staff and I are eager to foster success in this program."

Dixon enters the IU wrestling room with over a decade of veteran leadership and experience with raising a wrestling program to national prominence. In 13 years as an assistant and associate head coach at Old Dominion, Dixon guided his wrestlers to nine NCAA All-American honors and 18 individual conference championships.

"I'm excited to be coming back to Indiana and joining Angel's staff," Dixon said shortly after the announcement. "I look forward to working alongside both Angel and Isaac to build a sustainable program that can compete for championships within the Big Ten and nationally."

In over a decade with Old Dominion, Dixon helped head coach Steve Martin find success on the mat and in the classroom while putting the Monarchs on the map of the wrestling landscape. In the 2007-08 season, Dixon's first with the Monarchs, Old Dominion earned their first top-20 ranking in program history with six NCAA Championships qualifiers, then a school record. The next year, Old Dominion captured a top-20 NCAA Championships while Ryan Williams (141 lbs.) became the program's first NCAA finalist in 15 years.

The 2011-12 season saw the Monarchs raise the bar with a program-best seven NCAA qualifiers and an outstanding dual meet season that included ranked upsets over Iowa State, Rutgers, and Central Michigan. Two wrestlers, Scott Festejo and Te Edwards, claimed individual titles at the 2012 CAA Championships. Dixon helped guide a seamless transition to the Mid American Conference (MAC) in the 2013-14 season, as all six NCAA qualifiers finished in fourth-place or better at the ensuing MAC Championships.

In just their second season as a MAC member, Dixon and the Monarchs took runner-up at the conference championships in 2015. Dixon was named the SAAC Staffer of the Year and led two wrestlers, Chris Mecate and Alexander Richardson, to the All-American podium. That marked the first time Old Dominion earned two NCAA All-Americans in one season since 1991. Mecate became Old Dominion's first back-to-back All-American with a fifth-place finish the next season. Dixon assisted in the development of Kevin Beazley, one of the most prominent wrestlers in program history, as he achieved All-American status at the 2017 NCAA Championships. Most recently, Beazley took a Greco-Roman bronze medal finish at the 2018 City of Sassari International in Italy.

In his 13 years with the program, the Monarchs achieved a 109-82-2 dual meet record with two CAA regular season titles. Old Dominion also earned six NWCA All-Academic honors in Dixon's tenure alongside two NCAA Elite 89 awards, given annually to the NCAA Championships participant with the highest GPA. Tristan Warner became just the second wrestler in Division-I to win back-to-back Elite 89 honors.

Prior to his tenure in Roanoke, Virginia, Dixon served as an assistant at James Madison University. Dixon guided two conference podium finishes and revitalized their recruiting strategy after the university dropped athletic scholarships in 2000.

Before joining the staff at James Madison, Dixon embarked his coaching career in his hometown of Indianapolis. As an assistant at the University of Indianapolis, Dixon oversaw five national qualifiers and three top-12 finishes. He also assisted the wrestling program at Arsenal Tech High School and guided four conference champions, two sectional champions, and the school's first-ever freshman to win city championship.

A 2001 graduate of Indiana University with a degree in Public Affairs Management from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs, Dixon was an NCAA qualifier at 275 lbs. in 1998. He earned the team's Most Improved Wrestler award in 1998 and the prestigious Billy Thom Leadership award in 2001. Also in the 2001 season, Dixon became a University National Freestyle Champion and earned a fourth-place finish in the 2001 Pan-American Games at 97kg.

Dixon earned his master's degree in education from Old Dominion University in 2012.

ASSISTANT COACH RILEY LEFEVER

RILEY LEFEVER

Assistant Coach

(Wabash University, 2017)

Riley Lefever helped Indiana Wrestling continue to raise the bar on program expectations in his second year with the team during the 2022-23 season.

Lefever helped coach the Hoosiers to have four NCAA qualifiers and one NCAA alternate. Working closely with the heavyweights, that group included Jacob Bullock who qualified for NCAAs for the first time in his career, at 285 lbs. Nick Willham was the first alternate at 197 lbs.

Lefever also helped the team post an 8-5 dual record, the program's best since 2016-17.

In 2021-22, Donnell Washington (184) qualified for his second NCAA Championships appearance and posted eight pins. Nick Willham (197) earned All-American status, finishing sixth at 92 kg in the U23 World Team Trials. Jacob Bullock (HWT) became a routine Big Ten starter and posted two ranked victories.

Lefever works closely with the team's heavyweights. The team's three starters at the heaviest weight classes (184, 197, HWT) made significant strides throughout Lefever's first season with the team in 2021-22.

Lefever, who grew up in Fort Wayne, Indiana, wrestled at Wabash College, where he was a four-time DIII National Champion (three times at 184 and once at 197).

Lefever posted a 158-6 record at Wabash and graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in English. He was a team captain and a CoSIDA First Team Academic All-American. Lefever earned two NCAA DIII Most Domination Wrestler awards and was also a junior national team member in freestyle.

Lefever graduated from Wabash in 2017 and moved to State College, Pa., to train freestyle with the Nittany Lion Wrestling Club for five years.

In 2018 he earned the bronze medal at the Dave Schultz International Memorial tournament at 92kg and bronze medal at the Outstanding Ukrainian Tournament. In 2019 he earned third place in the World Team Challenge Tournament.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH C.J. RED

C.J. RED

Volunteer Assistant Coach (University of Nebraska, 2022)

The 2023-24 season marks C.J. Red's second on the Indiana Wrestling coaching staff.

In year one, Red helped Indiana's program make big strides. The Hoosiers' 8-5 record in 2022-23 was the team's best since 2016-17, that included three Big Ten wins and three ranked victories, as well.

Red provided valuable experience of wrestling at the highest stage and in recent time, after just finishing his collegiate career in March 2022. He worked closely with Indiana's light and middleweights and helped push Graham Rooks (149 lbs.) to have the best season for an Indiana wrestler since 2017.

Rooks went 29-11 and reached the Round of 12 at his third career NCAA Championships. This was the furthest an Indiana Wrestler had gone in the tournament since 2017 when Nate Jackson got eighth place at 184 lbs. Rooks also finished in fifth place at the Big Ten Championships.

Red, an Indiana native, returns to his home state after completing his highly successful collegiate wrestling career at Nebraska this past spring.

At Nebraska, Red was a standout in the lineup at 141 lbs. throughout his entire career from 2016-2022. Red was a three-time NCAA All-American --- earning sixth place at the 2021 NCAA Championships, as well as eighth place in 2019 and seventh place in 2018. In total, he was a five-time NCAA Championships qualifier from 2018-2022.

Additionally, Red earned multiple podium finishes at the Big Ten Championships over the years. He finished in second place in 2019, third in 2020, fourth in 2021 and seventh place in 2018.

For his Cornhusker career, Red had a 98-46 overall record and a 39-20 dual record. He won 22 bouts via fall with five tech falls and nine major decisions to his name.

The move to the Indiana coaching staff will be Red's first coaching role in his professional career.

Prior to competing at Nebraska, Red had a legendary high school wrestling career. He attended New Palestine High School where he wrestled for coach Chad Red Sr.

Red went 183-0 in his prep days, including being a four-time state champion. He was deemed the top 132-pounder in the country according to the Asics FloRankings in the class of 2016. He won the 2015 FloNationals crown, was the 2014 Super 32 champion and 2014 Fargo Junior Cadet Nationals champion, all at 126-lbs.

ATHLETIC TRAINER KYLE WINTERS

KYLE WINTERS

Athletic Trainer
(Indiana University, 2012)

Kyle Winters joined the Indiana University Sports Medicine staff in 2017, providing care to the wrestling program.

He enters his seventh season with Indiana Wrestling in 2023-24.

Winters started with the Hoosiers in 2016 as site coordinator for the NCAA/DoD Grand Alliance Care Consortium. Prior to his role with the Indiana University Sports Medicine staff, Winters served as Head Athletic Trainer for Arizona Christian University in Phoenix, Arizona for the 2014-2015 season, following completion of his Master of Science degree in Athletic Training from A.T. Still University in 2014.

As an undergraduate student Winters was fortunate enough to complete an athletic training student internship with the Denver Broncos in 2011.

Winters, originally from Muncie, Indiana, returned to Indiana University after graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training in 2012. Kyle and his wife Kristen live in Bloomington, Ind.

1932 NCAA CHAMPIONS

The 1931-32 season was a historic year for the Indiana Wrestling program as the team won its first and only NCAA Championship in program history.

The Hoosiers were led by legendary head coach Billy Thom who was in his fifth season at the time. It was a superb regular season that included a 6-0 dual record with the closest margin of victory being 10.5 points. The dual season was followed by a first-place tie for the Big Ten Championships and seven NCAA qualifiers. The Hoosiers' qualifiers were Clarence Hawkins (123), Edwin Belshaw (134), Dale Goings (145), George Belshaw (158), Ambrose Rascher (174), Robert Jones (191) and Otto Kuss (UNL).

The group combined for 14 points at the NCAA Championships, just inching ahead of second-place Oklahoma with 11 points and third-place Iowa State, formerly known as Iowa Agricultural College who finished with ten. Belshaw won the NCAA Championship at 135 lbs., marking the first individual NCAA champion in Indiana program history. Belshaw was also named the 1932 NCAA Championships' Most Outstanding Wrestler.

Both the NCAA Championships and Big Ten Championships were hosted in Bloomington that season. This was the only time in NCAA Wrestling Championships history that the event was hosted in Bloomington. The tournament took place in the IU Fieldhouse, now known as the Bill Garrett Fieldhouse.

Since then, the NCAA Wrestling Championships have only been hosted in the state of Indiana one other time --- in Terre Haute in 1937.

Indiana is one of only 12 NCAA Division I programs to have won an NCAA Wrestling Team Championship.

ALL-AMERICANS

CHARLES SWAIN
1928 - Second Place - 145 lbs.

In 1928, Charles Swain became the Hoosiers' first All-American with his second-place finish at 145 pounds. Also in 1928, he was the Big Ten Champion at 142 pounds. During his career, Swain helped the Hoosiers to a 20-5 overall record, including 10-3 in Big Ten competition and two Big Ten Championships

AMBOSE RASCHER
1932 - Third Place - 174 lbs.

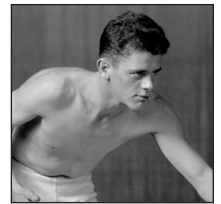

Ambrose Rascher was part of a four-man Hoosier contingent that earned All-America honors in 1932. Rascher finished third at 174 pounds to earn the honor. He helped the Hoosiers win the NCAA title in 1932 with a record of 6-0.

EDDIE BELSHAW
1932 - National Champion - 135 lbs.

In 1932, Indiana's Eddie Belshaw earned All-America honors at 135 pounds, winning the Big Ten title as well as the NCAA Championship. Belshaw helped lead the Hoosiers to a 6-0 record, a Big Ten co-Championship and Indiana's first NCAA title. Belshaw's 27-3 record remains one of the top single-season marks in Indiana history.

PAT DEVINE
1933 - National Champion - 135 lbs.
1935 - Third Place - 135 lbs.

Pat Devine, who lettered from 1932-34, earned All-America honors in 1933 (135 pounds). In addition, he won the Big Ten and NCAA titles at that weight division. Helping to guide the Hoosiers to a 6-1 record overall and a Big Ten Championship, Devine's 27-2 mark that season is one of the top winning percentages in program history.

DALE GOINGS
1932 - Third Place - 145 lbs.
1933 - Third Place - 145 lbs.

Dale Goings was one of the Hoosiers' first two-time All-Americans with third-place performances at 145 pounds in 1932 and 1933. He helped the Hoosiers win their first NCAA title in 1932. Goings also was the Big Ten Champion at 145 during each of his All-America campaigns.

OLIVER CELLINI
1933 - Third Place - 126 lbs.
1934 - Second Place - 126 lbs.

Oliver Cellini won back-to-back All-America honors in 1933 and 1934 at 126 pounds. He finished third at the NAAs in 1933 and second in 1934. Cellini helped the Hoosiers to Big Ten titles in 1933 and 1934 as well as an NCAA runner-up finish in 1934. Indiana went 13-1 during that two-year stretch.

ROBERT JONES
1932 - Third Place - 191 lbs.
1933 - Second Place - HWT

Robert Jones, like Dale Goings, was one of the Hoosiers' first two-time All-Americans. Jones won All-America honors in 1932 at 191 pounds by finishing third and in 1933 at heavyweight by placing second.

RICHARD VOLIVA
1933 - Second Place - 174 lbs.
1934 - National Champion - 174 lbs.

Richard Voliva earned both All-America and NCAA Championship recognition during the 1934 season when he finished with a perfect 12-0 record. In 1934, Voliva won the Big Ten Championship (175) and led IU to its third consecutive conference title and second at NAAs (7-0). Voliva also earned All-America honors in 1933 when he finished second at 175 pounds.

1946 - Second Place - HWT

In 1946, Morris Chitwood was one of four Hoosier All-Americans during the Hoosiers' sixth undefeated season. Chitwood helped this outstanding team to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championship. After earning a second-place finish at the Big Ten Championship (HWT), Chitwood went on to earn second at the NCAA meet.

HARRY ARTHUR
1952 - Second Place - 123 lbs.

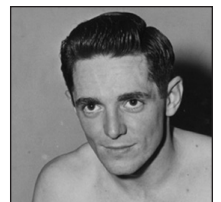

Harry Arthur helped end a six-year All-America drought for the Hoosiers, finishing second at the NCAAs to earn the honor in 1952. He also finished second at the Big Ten Championships, both at 123 pounds. The team finished fourth at Big Tens and ninth at the NCAA tourney. Arthur helped lead the Hoosiers to a 6-2-1 record overall and a 6-1-1 record in the Big Ten that year.

ELIAS GEORGE
1946 - Second Place - 142 lbs.

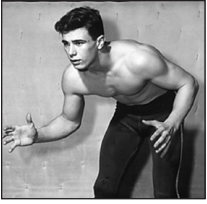

As one of four Indiana wrestlers to earn All-America honors in 1946, Elias George helped lead the Hoosiers to their sixth undefeated season in school history and a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Championship. George was a Big Ten Champion at 142 pounds and finished second at the NCAA Championship.

ROBERT CARLIN
1952 - Fourth Place - 115 lbs.

Robert Carlin helped end a six-year Hoosier All-America drought by finishing fourth at the NCAAs in 1952. Carlin also claimed the Big Ten title. He helped the Hoosiers to fourth at the Big Ten Tournament and a ninth at the NCAAs. Carlin was a two-year letterwinner for IU.

ALL-AMERICANS

DICK ANTHONY
1955 - Third Place - 191 lbs.

Wrestling at 191 pounds, Dick Anthony finished third at the Big Ten Championship in 1955. Anthony helped the Hoosiers to an 18th-place finish at the NAAs, while finishing third individually. During his three seasons at Indiana, IU went 21-12-2 overall and 13-12-2 in the Big Ten.

DICK CONAWAY
1964 - Fifth Place - HWT

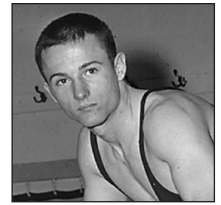

After a four-year absence, Dick Conaway got IU back on the All-American map with a fifth-place NCAA finish (HWT) in 1964. Conaway helped lead the Hoosiers to third at the Big Ten Championship, also earning third-place individually. The Hoosiers finished the season with a 3-6 overall record and a 2-6 record in the Big Ten.

JIM ELLIS
1956 - Fourth Place - 167 lbs.

Jim Ellis won Big Ten titles at the 142- and 158-pound weight classes in 1952 and 1953, respectively. Ellis posted a 25-4-1 record over his career with the Hoosiers. He earned All-America honors in 1956 with a fourth-place finish in the NCAA Championship, helping the Hoosiers to an 8-3 record overall and 6-3 in Big Ten meets. Ellis earned three letters at IU.

BOB CAMPBELL
1964 - Sixth Place - 130 lbs.
1966 - Third Place - 130 lbs.

1990 - Sixth Place - 142 lbs.
1992 - Fifth Place - 142 lbs.

Jeff Lyons earned All-America status in 1990. Lyons finished the season 28-9, third at Big Tens and fifth at the NCAA Championships (142). Lyons helped lead the Hoosiers to their eighth undefeated season at 14-0 overall, 6-0 Big Ten. He also earned All-America honors in 1992 finishing sixth at the Big Ten and fifth at the NCAA Championships.

MICHAEL POWELL
1996 - Seventh Place - 167 lbs.

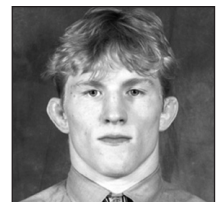

Michael Powell earned All-America honors in 1996 by finishing seventh at the NCAA Championship and sixth at the Big Ten Championship. Powell recorded a 23-9 record overall and finished 13-2 in dual meets. He helped lead the Hoosiers to a 16-2 record and a 6-1 finish in the Big Ten for 1996.

CHRIS RUSSO
1994 - Eighth Place - 126 lbs.

Wrestling at 126 pounds, Chris Russo finished the 1994 campaign with a 27-10 record and earned All-America honors after a third-place finish at the Big Ten Championship and an eighth-place NCAA finish. Russo helped lead the Hoosiers to a 12-4 record and a 4-3 mark in the Big Ten in 1994.

VIKTOR SVEDA
1999 - Sixth Place - 184 lbs.
2001 - Third Place - 184 lbs.

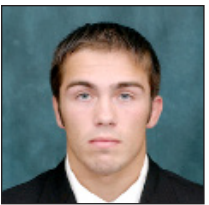

Viktor Sveda earned All-America status finishing sixth at NCAAs (184) in 1999. He ended that year 42-6 record and 8-0 in Big Ten competition. Sveda improved his previous NCAA mark finishing third at Championship in 2001, the best by a Hoosier since 1997. Sveda finished 2001 with a 36-7 record. He finished his career as IU's all-time winningest wrestler at 149-28 and first in career pins (47).

ALL-AMERICANS

KEVIN STANLEY
2001 - Sixth Place - 165 lbs.

Kevin Stanley finished his career with a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championship (165) in 2001. He wrapped up the season 33-15 and his career 111-39. Stanley left IU ranking fifth all-time on the career pin list (25). He also became the first four-time NCAA Championship qualifier in the history of IU wrestling.

COYTE COOPER
2004 - Eighth Place - 149 lbs.

Wrestling at 149 pounds, Coyte Cooper finished his career by earning an eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championship, propelling him to All-America status. He finished the season with a 41-6 mark and a career record of 123-36. Cooper left IU in third place on the career pin list with 37. He also became the second four-time NCAA Championship qualifier in the history of IU wrestling.

JOE DUBUQUE
2004 - Eighth Place - 125 lbs.
2005 - National Champion - 125 lbs.
2006 - National Champion - 125 lbs.

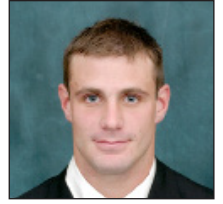

Joe Dubuque became just the second Hoosier to win two NCAA Championships (Charlie McDaniel 1935, '38) by taking home first-team honors in both 2005 and 2006 at 125 pounds. He also became the Hoosiers' first NCAA champion since Brian Dolph won the 150-pound class in 1990. In his first year at the NCAA Championships, he brought home an eighth-place finish for his first All-American selection. In his IU career, Dubuque compiled a 114-18 overall record.

BRANDON BECKER
2005 - Fifth Place - 157 lbs.
2006 - Seventh Place - 157 lbs.
2008 - Fourth Place - 157 lbs.

Brandon Becker made it to the All-American stand three times during his illustrious career at IU. Known as "one of the nation's most exciting" wrestlers throughout his career, Becker's 119 career wins sit in fifth place all-time in Hoosier lore. His best finish came as a senior in 2008, making a very long run through the wrestleback to claim fourth place.

PAT DEGAIN
2005 - Third Place - HWT

Pat DeGain wrapped up his Hoosier campaign in winning fashion, taking third at NAAs (HWT) and finishing second at Big Tens. DeGain ended his career with a 115-31 overall record, ranking sixth in career wins (115) and fourth in career pins (35) in IU history. In 2005, he helped lead the Hoosiers to a top-five finish at the Big Ten Championships and a top-10 finish at the NCAA Championships.

MATT COUGHLIN
2007 - Seventh Place - 149 lbs.

Matt Coughlin earned a seventh-place finish at the NCAA Championships in his freshman season. He defeated three nationally-ranked opponents in the process, including a 2-1 decision over No. 2 Matthew Storniolo from Oklahoma. He compiled an overall record of 31-16 with six pin falls that season.

ANGEL ESCOBEDO
2007 - Fourth Place - 125 lbs.
2008 - National Champion - 125 lbs.
2009 - Fifth Place - 125 lbs.
2010 - Third Place - 125 lbs.

Angel Escobedo became the first four-time All-American in school history after finishing third at the 2010 NCAA Championships. In 2008, he brought the 125-lbs. national championship back to Bloomington for the third time in four years after Joe Dubuque won it back-to-back years for Indiana in 2005 and 2006. Escobedo completed a "triple crown" of sorts that season, winning the NCAA Championship, Big Ten Championship and Midlands Championship. Escobedo, an All-American in 2007 (fourth) and 2009 (fifth) as well, left IU in second place all-time for both wins and pins with 137 and 42, respectively.

ANDRAE HERNANDEZ
2007 - Eighth Place - 133 lbs.

Andrae Hernandez took his second trip to the NCAA Championships in as many years in 2007, finishing in eighth place. After a loss in the second round, he rebounded by winning three consecutive matches in the wrestleback. He was one of five IU wrestlers to compile 30 or more wins that season, posting a 30-16 overall mark.

ALL-AMERICANS

RICKY ALCALA
2011 - Fifth Place - 285 lbs. (HWT)

Ricky Alcala came to IU after UC-Davis discontinued its wrestling program three seasons into his career. The heavyweight made the most of his lone season in Bloomington, placing 5th at the NCAAs and posting an overall record of 34-11 while attending graduate school. The California native had to work overtime at nationals, wrestling eight matches with six of those contests going into sudden victory or a tiebreaker. Alcala took care of business in the classroom as well, being named an NWCA Scholar-Athlete.

MATT POWLESS
2011 - Eighth Place - 197 lbs.

Matt Powless' 2010-11 season was one of the best statistical years in school history. En route to the All-American stand and an eighth place finish, Powless racked up 13 major decisions and 39 total wins. The 13 majors were the most in all of Division-I wrestling and his victories total ranked third nationally, were a Big Ten-best and are the seventh most all-time for a Hoosier.

ADAM CHALFANT
2014 - Sixth Place - 285 lbs. (HWT)

Adam Chalfant took his third consecutive trip to the NCAA Championships at the end of the 2013-14 season. He ended his 2013-14 campaign with a 28-6 record. In an All-American season, Chalfant had five major decisions, two tech falls and four pins. In his career Chalfant qualified for the NCAA Championships three times and accumulated a record of 79-30 with 11 career pins.

TAYLOR WALSH
2015 - Second Place - 165 lbs.

Taylor Walsh earned Indiana's 79th NCAA All-American honor for his 2014-15 senior season. Walsh tallied a 38-6 overall record with a team-high 22 pins and two major decisions on his way to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Wrestling Championships. Walsh set an Indiana University record with 69 career pins and increased his career win total to 132, the fourth-highest mark in school history.

NATE JACKSON
2016 - Fifth Place - 174 lbs.
2017 - Eighth Place - 184 lbs.

Nate Jackson earned a podium finish in his second career trip to the NCAA Championships in the 2015-16 season, Indiana's third All-American in three seasons. Jackson notched a 34-9 record, leading the Hoosiers in major decisions (13) and technical falls (six). Entering as the 12-seed, Jackson cruised to three major decision wins in his first three matches, including an upset over fifth-seed Zach Brunson (Illinois). He fell short of a National Championship appearance in the semifinals, coming up on the wrong end of a 4-3 decision against top-ranked Bo Nickal (Penn State). Jackson battled back in the wrestle-backs with a fifth-place win over Iowa State's Lelund Weatherpoon, 5-2. In the 2016-17 season, Jackson became the first Hoosier with an unblemished dual meet record since Matt Powless (2011-12). He continued to his third NCAA Championships appearance and earned a podium finish in the nation's toughest weight class, becoming the sixth IU wrestler with All-American honors at two weights and the first since Sam Komar (1976-77).

COACHING HISTORY (SINCE 1922)

JACK REYNOLDS
1922-27
26-7 (.788)

JIM HUMPHREY
1984-89
41-52-1 (.441)

In five years, Jim Humphrey racked up 42 career coaching wins, but his greatest accomplishment may have been the recruiting of Brian Dolph. The 150-pounder from North Canton, Ohio, won Big Ten titles in both 1989 and 1990, as well as an NCAA title in 1990. The national title by Dolph was the first by a Hoosier since 1940. During his five years at the top of the Hoosier program, he guided the Hoosiers to a fifth-place finish at the Big Ten Championship and a 20th-place finish at the NCAA Championship, the best since 1977. Also while at IU, he coached three different national teams, the World Championships team in 1986, the Pan-American team in 1987 and the U.S. Olympic team in 1988.

JOE MCFARLAND
1989-92
24-20 (.545)

In 1989, Joe McFarland produced one of the most impressive first-year improvements in Big Ten Conference history when he guided the Hoosiers to a perfect 14-0 dual meet record in 1990, the program's first undefeated season since 1946. IU placed eighth at the NCAA Championships and finished runner-up at the Big Ten Championships. Indiana was also the only unbeaten team in NCAA Division I that year and reached a No. 5 national ranking in the final dual meet listing by the Amateur Wrestling News. McFarland produced three All-Americans and three Big Ten champions, and was named the 1990 Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year. He is currently the head coach at his alma mater, Michigan.

DUANE GOLDMAN
1992-2018
297-190-5 (.604)

Duane Goldman amassed 110 Big Ten All-Academic team members, three national champions, 109 NCAA qualifiers and 28 All-Americans in 25 seasons as Indiana's head coach, bringing at least one wrestler to the NCAA Championships in all 25 years. In both 2007 and 2008 Goldman tied the school record for most NCAA Qualifiers in one season with eight. One of those qualifiers included 125-lbs. national champion Angel Escobedo, Indiana's third national champ in that weight class in a four-year span after Joe Dubuque won back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006 under the tutelage of Goldman. Escobedo also became the first four-time All-American in school history under the watchful eye of Coach Goldman. In September of 2005, Goldman was inducted into the University of Iowa Athletics Hall of Fame as one of the greatest grapplers in Iowa history. As a Hawkeye, Goldman collected a national championship, three national runner-ups, four Big Ten titles and 132 career victories. Goldman was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame on May 7, 2016 for his Lifetime Service to Wrestling.

BILLY THOM
109-25-4 (.804)

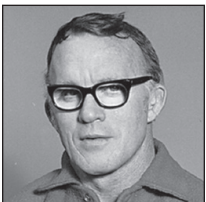

Billy Thom's team won 34 straight dual matches from Feb. 13, 1933 to Feb. 6, 1937. While at IU, he won eight Big Ten championships, one national collegiate championship and finished national runner-up twice. His success at IU earned him the honor of being the head coach of the 1936 Olympic team in Berlin, Germany. While at the Olympics, two of his own products, Dick Voliva, who won a silver medal, and Charlie McDaniel made the team. Under his tutelage, the Hoosiers had 11 All-Americans and 32 Big Ten champions over the course of his 17-year tenure. His 33 Big Ten champions are more than any other coach in IU wrestling history. In 1972, Thom was inducted into the National

CHARLEY MCDANIEL
1945-72
145-139-11 (.510)

Charlie McDaniels's 27-year tenure at the helm is the longest tenure in the history of the program. Seven years after winning his second of back-to-back national championships as a student-athlete, McDaniel returned to IU to be the head wrestling coach, plus responsibilities of being a scout and assistant line coach for football in 1945. His 27-year wrestling coaching tenure included 12 Big Ten champions, 13 All-Americans. In 1966, he was selected to the Helms Athletic Foundation Wrestling Hall of Fame and in 1971, he became a charter member of the Indiana Wrestling Hall of Fame. In December 1999, he was named the Herald-Times Male Athlete of the Century by over 1,300 votes.

DOUG BLUBAUGH
102-144-8 (.417)

Before his arrival at IU, Doug Blubaugh had stints at Army, Oklahoma, Michigan and Michigan State as an assistant coach. During his collegiate career at Oklahoma State, he was the NCAA 157-pound champion in 1957, his senior season. In the 1960 Olympics, he won seven straight matches, five by pin, en route to the gold medal. For his performance, he was named "Most Outstanding Wrestler in the World." As head coach of the Hoosiers, he mentored a pair of Big Ten champions and All-Americans. His star pupil was Sam Komar, who finished second at the 1977 NCAA Championship. The second-place finish by Komar was the highest in 25 years. The Komar-led squad finished 16th at the championship, the highest by an IU team since 1965.

ANGEL ESCOBEDO

2018-present
21-41 (.339)

One of the most successful wrestlers in Indiana University history, Angel Escobedo became the eighth head coach in program history on April 6, 2018.

A native of Gary, Ind., Escobedo was a dominant wrestler for the Hoosiers from 2007-10. As a sophomore, he won the 2008 NCAA title at 125 pounds, and he captured Big Ten titles in the weight class three times (2008-10). He's the program's only four-time All-American, and his 137 career wins (second) and 42 pins (third) rank among the best in IU history.

After wrapping up his IU career in 2010, Escobedo competed internationally and was a member of Team USA. Among his top performances was a fifth-place finish at the 2013 World Championships in Budapest, Hungary, and a second-place finish at the 2015 Pan American Games in Toronto.

While training full-time for the international circuit, he spent three years on Iowa State's coaching staff from 2015-17, where he helped develop a handful of the Cyclones' lightweight wrestlers into national contenders. Among his most notable wrestlers was two-time All-American and four-time NCAA qualifier Earl Hall.

Since taking over as the head man of the Hoosiers, Escobedo has landed 14 Hoosiers as NCAA qualifiers over his five seasons.

2022-23 was a career-best season for Escobedo coaching the Hoosiers. Indiana owned an 8-5 dual record, the team's best mark since 2016-17, defeated three ranked opponents in those duals and had four NCAA qualifiers. Each qualifier won at least one match at NCAAs with Graham Rooks reaching the Round of 12 at 149 lbs., the furthest an Indiana Wrestler had gone in the tournament since Nate Jackson took 8th place at 184 lbs. in 2017. The Hoosiers also had three student-athletes reach the podium at Big Tens.

WILKINSON HALL

Wilkinson Hall is a multi-use training and performance center that is the home venue for the Indiana Wrestling and Volleyball programs.

The 3,000-seat venue is used as a competition facility for both programs. The complex officially opened on January 16, 2019.

It also provides the entire Indiana University Athletic Department and its programs as a top-flight facility for year-round training, and serves as a venue to host department and university events.

Wilkinson Hall is named after IU alumnus Jay Wilkinson and his family, who have an incredible history of support for IU Athletics and its student-athletes.

Since its inception in 2019, Indiana Wrestling has elevated its attendance numbers. In the 2021-22 season, the team had the 17th-best average attendance for home dual meets in NCAA Division I Wrestling.

The facility is located on the corner of E 17th Street and N Fee Lane in Bloomington.
