MEDIA ROOM

A working media room with power outlets and complementary telephone lines is available to all credentialed media members. It is located in Room 1106 of the Mitchell Center, in the Northeast lower level corner. Wireless internet is available. The intent of the press room is to provide a working facility for the media, professional scouts and immediate game personnel. Family members, friends, guests and other non-credentialed people cannot be accommodated. Soft drinks, bottled water and light snacks will be available prior to tip-off.

INTERVIEWS

In-person interviews with members of the coaching staff and student-athletes can be arranged by contacting Strategic Communications Assistant Maddie Joiner. Interviews with student-athletes MUST be arranged in advance through the Strategic Communications Office. Players are generally available 15 minutes before practice and immediately following practice. Phone interviews are also available, but will be arranged around the student-athletes' class and practice schedules. Student-athletes' phone numbers are not available under any circumstance. All phone interview requests must be made 24 hours prior.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Requested players and coaches will be escorted by a South Alabama Strategic Communications staff member to the designated interview area.

INJURY INFORMATION

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) regulates the use and disclosure of certain information held by "covered entities." It establishes regulations for the use and disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI). PHI is any information held by a covered entity which concerns health status and provision of health care that can be linked to an individual. Under the HIPAA Privacy Rule, the University must reasonably limit uses and disclosures of medical information to the minimum necessary to accomplish their intended purpose. In order to supply the media with injury information related to student-athletes, the University shall be limited to discussing the athlete's name, along with a broad term for the injury and upcoming playing status. Student-athletes who miss practice due to an injury will not be available for post-practice interviews. Student-athletes who are injured during a game will not be allowed to participate in post-game media interviews.

PRACTICES

The South Alabama Strategic Communications staff encourages coverage of Jaguar basketball outside of games. As a general rule, the first 30 minutes of all practices are open to the media. TERRY FOWLER

Head Coach Lane (Tenn.) '86 10th Season

Terry Fowler – who was named the University of South Alabama women's basketball program's ninth head coach on April, 17, 2013, coming off two NCAA Division II Tournament appearances in the previous three years at North Alabama – has guided the Jaguars to a record of .500 or better in five of his nine seasons with the Jags, highlighted by recording back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in a decade as well as consecutive national postseason tournament berths for the first occasion since the 2002-03 and '03-04 campaigns.

He is entering his 23rd season as a head coach during the 2022-23 season with a career coaching record of 329-328 and an 122-150 mark during his first nine years at South Alabama.

While at South Alabama, Fowler has coached seven individuals who have received all-Sun Belt Conference honors on 11 occasions: Meghan Dunn (2013-14), Breanna Hall ('14-15), Marquita Daniels ('15-16), Chyna Ellis ('15-16, '16-'17 and '17-18), Savannah Jones ('18-19, '19-20), Antoinette Lewis ('18-19, '19-20, '20-21) and Shaforia Kines ('19-20). Ellis – the first Jaguar to be selected as the league's defensive student-athlete of the year back during the 2015-16 season – also earned the honor her senior season, while Jones was also named the Sun Belt Conference's Freshman of the Year following the 2017-18 season, the first Jag to receive the honor since Whitney Woodard in 2003-04.

With a 8-18 and a 2-10 SBC record, South Alabama finished 11th in the Sun Belt.

South concluded the 2019-20 campaign with its first win at Little Rock since 2005, with the Jags earning victories over Arkansas State and host UTA in the opening rounds of the Sun Belt Tournament to advance to the semifinals of the event before it was cancelled due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The Jaguars also collected the program's first win over Tulane dating back to 1989 as part of a schedule that saw USA also take on Rutgers, Auburn and Alabama prior to the start of league play.

Jones, Kines and Lewis all scored the 1,000th point of their career during the year, marking the first time in program history that three individuals who surpassed the milestone played together on the same team. Jones and Kines also became the first two Jags to make 200 three-point field goals in a career as all three earned all-Sun Belt recognition at the end of the regular season.

In 2018-19, Fowler led the Jags to a school-record 25 victories, the championship game of the Sun Belt Tournament for the first time since 1989 and a first-round victory in the WNIT. Under his direction both Lewis (first-team) and Jones (second-team) picked up all-league recognition as the former led the conference in field-goal percentage and double-doubles while the latter paced the SBC in three-point field-goal percentage. As a team, South – which opened the campaign with 11 straight wins capped by winning the FIU Holiday Tournament – was among the top 25 nationally in both overall and three-point field-goal percentage defense while also finishing among the country's leaders in rebounds, blocks and three-point field goals per contest.

Fowler guided the program to its first national postseason appearance in over a decade the previous year as the Jaguars reached the semifinals of the Women's Basketball Invitational. South Alabama led the nation in blocks with 254, and Ellis became the all-time block leader in Sun Belt history on Jan. 18 against Coastal Carolina while also recording just the fourth triple-double in South Alabama history.

Along with the shots blocked mark, Ellis left the program ranked third in rebounding (985), fifth in double-doubles (29) and 12th at South Alabama in scoring with 1,247 points.

During the 2016-17 season, Fowler and his team went 11-20 and 5-13 in the Sun Belt. The Jaguars were the youngest team in the league with just three upperclassmen (one senior and two juniors) and also suffered multiple injuries. They ranked among the best in the conference in several defensive categories: first in blocked shots per game (5.6), which also placed 16th in the nation, and field-goal percentage defense (36.8%), and second in fewest fouls (499) and scoring defense (57.5 points per game). South Alabama defeated seventh-seeded Georgia State 49-44 in the conference tournament for the program's first postseason win in five years.

Ellis continued as the premier shot blocker in the league, averaging 3.1 rejections per game to top the Sun Belt and rank seventh in the NCAA. She recorded a block in each game played, was ninth in the nation and first in the conference in total blocked shots (91) and set the single-season record for most blocks in program history. Her total number of blocks were more than seven of the schools in the conference have as a team. Ellis became the schools' all-time leader in blocks after recording a game-high and season-high six rejections that gave her 212 career rejections. She now has 229 career blocks, which ranks third all-time in career Sun Belt Conference blocked shots leader.

Under his direction, the 2015-16 season saw a marked change in the program at South Alabama as USA finished plus-10 in the wins column from the previous year. After recording a 5-24 record during the '14-15 season, USA ended with a 15-15 overall record for a 9.5 games improved mark. The Jaguars' turnaround was tied with Binghamton and Saint Louis for eighth-best among Division I NCAA programs.

The Jags set a new school record with 174 blocks during the '15-16 season, which ranked 21st in the NCAA. USA also led the Sun Belt and tied for 11th nationally with 5.8 blocks per game. South Alabama was ninth in the NCAA in field-goal percentage defense (34.7%) and 46th in scoring defense (58.0). South Alabama led the conference in blocks, field-goal defense and in defensive rebounding (27.3).

Ellis ranked as one to the top post defenders nationally during the '15-16 campaign as she led the Sun Belt in blocking for the second straight season. Ellis also ranked 22nd in the NCAA in that category – fourth-most among sophomores nationally – with 2.73 per game. Her 82 blocks were 24th-most nationally and were four shy of tying the single-season mark of 86.

During Fowler's second season at the helm of the program, Hall closed out her Jaguar career with an outstanding 2014-15 campaign. She ranked among the conference leaders in numerous categories in the final rankings, leading the league in three-point shooting (.408), second in three-pointers per game (2.37), third in free-throw percentage (.820) and sixth in scoring (15.4). Hall also ranked 27th nationally from behind the arc.

Fowler also had a pair of freshman contribute significantly during the '14-15 season. Daniels ranked in the top 10 in several program freshman marks – steals (second, 54), three-pointers made (fourth, 32), free throws (seventh, 64), and points (10th, 290). Ellis led the conference in blocks with 2.0 per outing, with her total of 56 the most ever by a freshman at South Alabama, and she also ranked fifth in the Sun Belt on the glass with 7.8 rpg while shooting 41.1 percent from the field.

During his first season at the helm, the Jaguars led the Sun Belt in three-point percentage (35.4%), three-point field-goal defense (28.0%) and tied with Troy for most three-pointers per game (6.5). USA ended the season ranked 26th nationally in three-point field-goal defense and 38th in three-point shooting.

Fowler's first Sun Belt Conference victory came in his very first league contest as the Jaguars defeated preseason favorite Western Kentucky, 74-65, on Jan. 1, 2014.

Fowler arrived at USA after spending seven seasons at the helm at North Alabama where he guided the Lions to the NCAA Tournament in both 2011 and '13 while winning 20-plus games in each of those years. During the 2012-13 campaign, UNA posted a 20-11 mark – going 12-6 in the Gulf South Conference – while qualifying for the event, and after ranking in the top 20 nationally in field-goal percentage defense and scoring defense, he was named the league's Coach of the Year. Fowler was also chosen the GSC East Division Coach of the Year in 2011 after leading the Lions to a 12-0 record in conference action; UNA would finish the year 21-7 after advancing to the NCAA Tournament, its first appearance in the event since the 1993-94 campaign.

At UNA, he inherited a program that had won 11 games combined the two previous seasons, and in his first year directing the team, Fowler led the Lions to a 14-14 overall finish and their first berth in the conference tournament since 2003. He guided UNA to a winning record in each of his last five years, posting an overall mark of 115-87 (56.9%) – which included going 57-32 (64%) in Gulf South play – during his tenure.

Twelve Lions earned all-GSC recognition in Fowler's seven seasons, with a pair selected the league's East Division Player of the Year. UNA also had the conference Freshman of the Year in 2009. Amber Rutherford led the NCAA Division II in free-throw percentage twice – during the 2006-07 season where she hit 93.7 percent of her attempts and during the following season where she hit 93.6 percent of her attempts at the charity stripe. He has also had three academic all-GSC selections during his time at North Alabama – Ashley Moore (2008-09), Julia Myers (2011-12) and Lauren Faris (2012-13).

Fowler has ties to the Mobile community as well, having worked at both USA and Spring Hill prior to taking over the reins of the UNA program. He was an assistant on the Lady Jaguar staff during the 2000-01 and '01-02 seasons, with his responsibilities including coaching guards, recruiting, scouting, strength and conditioning, and handling team travel. During his first year, USA's 13 wins were the most posted by the program since 1991, while in his second season the Lady Jags finished 17-11 for the school's first winning record since 1990. USA ranked in the top 25 in the country both years in scoring defense, finishing sixth in the category Fowler's second year on the staff.

After serving as an assistant at SHC from 1993-98, he was promoted to head coach prior to the start of the '98-99 campaign. In his second season as a collegiate head coach, Fowler led the Badgers to their first-ever NAIA Tournament appearance and 23-11 overall record while winning both the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference regular season and tournament titles. For his efforts, he was named the league Coach of the Year at the end of the year.

Fowler returned to Spring Hill in 2002, and during the next four years led the Badgers to their first-ever NAIA national ranking and the semifinals of the GCAC Tournament on two occasions, while helping SHC finish among the top 15 in the nation in scoring defense three consecutive seasons. He served as chair of the GCAC women's basketball committee and was the Region 6 representative on the NAIA Kodak/WBCA All-America selection committee while in his second stint at the school, also implementing "Reading Badgers" and mentoring programs in, which his student-athletes assisted in the community.

He played his first two years on the collegiate level at Lincoln Memorial (Tenn.) before going on to earn all-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors as a senior at Lane (Tenn.), where he was also a two-time Academic All-SIAC selection. Fowler earned his degree in business administration from the school in 1986, and added a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy in 1994. Fowler and his wife, Carolyn, have four children – Megan, Geoffrey, Morgan and Madison – and one granddaughter, Tatum.

DAN PRESEL

Associate Head Coach
Spring Hill '99
10th Season

Dan Presel begins his fourth season as associate head coach and his 10th overall with the University of South Alabama, working primarily with Jaguar guards while developing the offensive system for the program and overseeing the program's recruiting efforts in Alabama.

His efforts have helped South post a record of .500 or better in three of the last four years, including making back-to-back national postseason appearances while winning 20-plus games highlighted by a school-record 25 victories in 2018-19 after advancing to the championship game of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament and reaching the second round of the WNIT.

Presel helped both Shatoria Kines (first-team) and Savannah Jones (third-team) earned all-league honors in 2019-20, with the duo ranking first and second in the Sun Belt in three-point field goals per game and three-point field-goal percentage while also ranking among the top 10 in scoring. Kines averaged a career-best 15.9 points per outing – which stood third in the conference – with Jones adding 13.9 per contest as both surpassed the 1,000-point mark and connected on the 200th three-pointer of their careers during the campaign.

His efforts the previous season helped Jones receive second-team all-conference recognition after she led the league and was among the top 10 in the country in three-point field-goal percentage while also ranking among the league leaders in scoring and three-pointers made per game. The year before that she became just the second player at South – Whitney Woodard was the first in 2003-04 – to be named the Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year; in her first full season of action on the court, Jones made 70 three-point baskets, third most all-time in program history for a single season, while her 400 points ranked as fourth most at USA. Jones' 141 made field goals were the fifth most by a freshman in program history.

Presel helped Colby Davis finish second on the team in scoring and 24th in the Sun Belt during the 2016-17 season after she averaged 10.2 points per contest her final season at the collegiate level. Davis also ranked first in free-throw percentage (80.0%) and tied for 14th in assists (2.6 apg) with teammate Candice Williams. Fellow guard Genesis Perrymond led the team and was 11th in the league in assists (2.9 per game), 11th in three-pointers per game (1.5) and tied for 11th in total steals (47).

During the 2015-16 season, Marquita Daniels led the club in scoring (11.3 ppg) and steals (61) while ranking 17th and third, respectively, in the Sun Belt in those two categories on her way to picking up third-team all-conference accolades.

Breanna Hall became the second Jag to earn all-Sun Belt honors under Presel, garnering third team accolades at the conclusion of the 2014-15 season. Hall closed out her Jaguar career with an outstanding final season during the 2014-15 campaign. The Mesquite, Texas, native ranked among the conference leaders in numerous categories including leading the league in three-point shooting (40.8%), finishing second in three-pointers per game (2.37), third in free-throw percentage (.820) and sixth in scoring (15.4). Hall closed out the season ranked 27th nationally from behind the arc as well.

She also ended her career ranked in several single-season and career program lists. Her 64 three-pointers this season were tied with Sarda Peterson (2012) for fourth-most in a season and her 40.8 three-point percentage tied for seventh with Kim Pompey.

That same season, freshman guard Daniels etched her name in the top 10 on the program's freshman record list: steals (second, 54), three-pointers made (fourth, 32), free throws (seventh, 64), and points (10th, 290). Daniels also set a new Mitchell Center record for points in a game by a South Alabama player with a 37-point effort versus Georgia State on Feb. 7, 2015.

During the 2013-14 season, the Jaguars led the Sun Belt in three-point percentage (35.4%), three-point field-goal defense (28.0%) and tied with Troy for most three-pointers per game (6.5). USA ended the season ranked 38th nationally in three-point shooting. Meghan Dunn – who led the club in scoring and three-pointers – earned third-team all-SBC honors at the end of the season.

Presel came to South Alabama after spending the seven seasons on Terry Fowler's staff at North Alabama. During Presel's tenure at UNA, the Lions qualified for the Gulf South Conference tournament every year and twice won the GSC East Division title – 2010-11 and 2012-13. UNA also earned a berth in the NCAA Division II National Tournament those same two seasons. The Lions were undefeated in league play during the 2010-11 season and made the program's first appearance in the national tournament since 1994, finishing the year with a 21-7 mark. North Alabama recorded a 20-11 overall mark and a 12-6 record in the Gulf South in his final season with the Lions.

Aside from recruiting, Presel also handled strength and conditioning, as well as specific floor work for the guards for the Lions.

Presel spent the 2005-06 season as assistant women's basketball coach at the Tennessee-Chattanooga, where the Lady Mocs put together the nation's longest winning streak at 26 consecutive games.

Prior to rejoining Fowler at UNA, Presel spent six seasons at Spring Hill where he was part of Fowler's staff.

Presel was a pitcher on the Spring Hill baseball team from 1996-99. He received his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1999. He and his wife, the former Jill Mathias, who played for the Lady Badgers from 1996-2000, have a daughter, Rian, and a son, Reid.

6th Season

Rachel Travis is entering her sixth season on the staff at the University of South Alabama working with the program's point guards and scouting opponents, while also taking over as the Jaguars' recruiting coordinator over the summer.

During her first three seasons on the staff, her efforts have helped the Jaguars post three straight records of .500 or better including back-to-back 20-win campaigns and consecutive national postseason tournament appearances. Her first year at South the Jags earned 21 victories after advancing to the semifinals of the Women's Basketball Invitational tournament, while the program set a school record with 25 wins, made its first appearance in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game since 1989 and won a first-round contest in the WNIT the 2018-19 campaign.

In 2019-2020, Travis helped Shatoria Kines become a first-team all-league selection after she averaged 15.9 points per game – which ranked third in the SBC – while finishing second in both three-point field goals per contest and three-point field-goal percentage. During the year, Kines recorded the 1,000th point and 200th three-pointer of her career and moved into the top 10 on South's all-time assists list as she paced the team with 11 games scoring 20 or more points.

In 2018-19, Travis helped Kines rank among the conference leaders after averaging 13 points and 3.3 assists per game while making 75-of-194 (38.7%) of her three-point attempts. The previous year – Travis' first at South – Kines finished the season ranked fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.6) and eighth in assists (116) in the league as she had 14 games scoring in double-digit points including dropping 10 or more in eight of the team's final 10 games.

Travis came to USA from Longwood, where she oversaw coordinated travel, served as the academic and film liaison, and also played a vital role in recruiting, scouting and overseeing the day-to-day basketball operations for the program.

In her three years of assisting the Lancers, Travis helped the team win 16 games, as the squad had injury-riddled seasons under her watch. In 2014-15, Longwood posted a 4-26 record with Daeisha Brown – a preseason all-Big South selection – and leading rebounder Khalilah Ali limited to just a handful of games due to ACL tears. The following season Travis and the Lancers went 8-22 overall, and she aided in the development of forwards Kemari Jones and Eboni Gilliam. Longwood finished the 2016-17 season with another 4-26 record while missing several key upperclassmen once again. After the year was completed, Gilliam was invited to and participated in the WNBA Combine at the Women's NCAA Final Four on April 2 in Dallas, Texas.

Before Longwood, Travis spent two years as a head coach at Florida Air Academy, an international school in Melbourne, Fla. In her first year at Florida Air, she helped guide the team to the 2012-13 3A District Championship. The squad went 10-0 in district play and 20-5 overall while advancing to the regional finals. She followed that performance by taking Florida Air back to the district title game in 2014 after amassing a 19-8 overall record and a 9-1 mark in district play. The team also advanced to the regional finals that same year.

Prior to her two-year stint at Florida Air, Travis held the varsity girls basketball head coaching position at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville for the 2010-11 and 2011-12 academic years.

A 2009 graduate of Northwest University in Kirkland, Wash., Travis has affected the lives of young people in a variety of roles. In addition to her responsibilities as head basketball coach, Travis also taught psychology and physical education at both Florida Air and the Episcopal School.

Travis began her coaching career as a girls basketball camp director and coach at Episcopal in the summer of 2010, the same year she began her semi-professional playing career. In August of 2010, she stepped in as Episcopal's head coach while moonlighting as a starting guard for the Florida Lady Knight Hawks of the Women's Blue Chip Basketball League.

She ended her playing career in 2011 to focus on coaching at Episcopal and has also held coaching stints as an assistant for the West Boca Elite AAU program (2013) and head coach for the Central Florida Elite Black 2015.

Travis was a four-year starter and three-year team captain at Northwest. A two-time academic all-conference selection, she graduated in 2009 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education with an emphasis in health and fitness. In addition to being named to the dean's list during her collegiate career Travis was also a three-time Cascade Conference Player of the Week.

A native of North Bend, Wash., Travis is CPR certified and a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

SOUTH ALABAMA ATHLETICS

While the University of South Alabama first opened its doors in 1963, the school did not start supporting varsity athletics until the baseball team first took the field in 1965. Since then, Jaguar Athletics has grown to support 17 programs that – beginning in 2013 after a two-year transition to the NCAA Division I-A/Football Bowl Sub-division level – all compete in the Sun Belt Conference. USA Athletics currently sponsors the following sports:

Baseball (1965)
Men's Basketball (1968-69)
Women's Basketball (1974-75)
Football (2009)
Men's Cross Country (1976)
Women's Cross Country (1983)
Men's Golf (1966-67)

And once sponsored:
Men's Soccer (1978-98)

The only charter member of the league who has competed in the conference every season since its inception in 1976, the school claimed the Vic Bubas Cup – presented to the program that demonstrates excellence in the league's now 17 sports – 10 times in a 13-year span beginning in 1988 and has earned the league's all-sports trophy on 14 occasions after accomplishing the feat in four of the last six years. No school in league history has received the award more than USA.

Jaguar teams have earned 114 league titles – regular season and tournament – in that time. Since winning its first team championship in baseball in the spring of 1978, USA has gone on to pick up titles at least once in each of the following sports: men's basketball, women's basketball, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, men's indoor track & field, women's indoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, men's soccer (which was discontinued in 1998), women's soccer, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis. The school has also had coaches selected the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year on 78 occasions.

When the league celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2006, 76 former student-athletes were voted to the All-Time Team in their sport including four – František Babej (men's tennis), Estelle Gevers (women's tennis), Luis Gonzalez (baseball) and Heath Slocum (men's golf) – who were selected the All-Time Athlete. And, Steve Kittrell was chosen the All-Time Coach in baseball as well.

Highlighted by a pair of track and field athletes who have won NCAA titles (David Kimani claimed the cross country championship, and the 3,000- and 5,000-meter outdoor races during the 1999-00 academic year; Vincent Rono was the 2006 outdoor national champion in the 1,500 meters), USA teams have appeared in 85 NCAA Championship events in that time, while individuals have qualified for NCAA postseason action on 266 occasions.

Overall, USA student-athletes have earned All-America recognition 115 times in their sports.

DR. JOEL ERDMANN

Director of Athletics
South Dakota State '86
13th Year

Dr. Joel Erdmann has presided over one of the most successful eras in the University of South Alabama's history and is now entering his 13th year as Director of Athletics. Such success follows hard work and an atmosphere of excellence inspired by the Erdmann motto and department's core values, "graduation, citizenship, championships."

Over the past decade-plus, Erdmann's impact includes: milestone records both on the field and in the classroom by student-athletes, the beginning of an NCAA Division I FBS football program, new construction and/or renovation in every sport/facility, unprecedented fundraising, and the hiring of championship-driven team of coaches as well as a stellar team of administrative professionals and staff. Erdmann's championship mindset lead to the department's best-ever Academic Progress Rate scores and GPA in the history of Jaguar Athletics and the Sun Belt Conference All-Sports Championship Vic Bubas Cups four years in a row.

Over the course of his career in intercollegiate athletics, Erdmann's expertise has been called upon for service in leadership and advisory roles within universities, conferences, the NCAA, and in communities to advance the future of sports for women and men. Erdmann currently serves as the Sun Belt Conference representative on the board of the LEAD1 Association.

Over the past 23 years in athletic administration, Erdmann has been entrusted to serve on both football and baseball championship selection committees. In baseball, Erdmann served a four-year term on the prestigious NCAA Division I Baseball Championship Committee where he served as Chairman of the Championship Selection Committee for the 2016 College World Series. As chair, his leadership responsibilities include oversight of the process to select and seed the best championship field of teams and provide the best experience for student-athletes, coaches, and fans for the NCAA DI Championship Baseball Tournament in Omaha.

In football, Erdmann joined a select group of Athletic Directors in 2017 who completed a mock selection exercise for the College Football Playoff Committee. During the 2006-07 academic year, Erdmann served on the NCAA Division II Football Championship Committee and he co-chaired the NCAA Division II Football Southeast Region Advisory Committee.

With an eye toward the future, Erdmann understands students, coaches and communities often define themselves by the places and spaces they gather. Creating a vibrant interactive game-day atmosphere for fans and a meaningful, competitive experience for student-athletes is an Erdmann hallmark for sustained success and a foundation for growth. Erdmann's tenure at the University of South Alabama has touched every aspect of brick and mortar making up Jaguar Athletics. Taking into account his experiences in the construction and renovation of numerous facilities including the new Hancock Whitney Stadium, Erdmann recognizes the unique challenges in maintaining or constructing sports venues from funding and financing, development and planning, design, architecture, engineering and systems integration, and operations and maintenance for these venues.

The list of new construction, renovations and improvements is a point of pride among the entire department, its coaches and student-athletes which include:

ELLA WILLIAMS

Following a successful collegiate career at South Alabama, former Jaguar guard Ella Williams moved on to join the Harlem Globetrotters on their world tour in 1990. Williams – a four-year letterwinner – played at USA from 1985-89 and was a two-time all-Sun Belt Conference selection, earning those honors during the 1987-88 and 1988-89 seasons. She also was also selected to the American Women's Sports Federation All-America team at the conclusion of her senior season. Williams helped lead the Jags to postseason play twice – the 1987 NCAA and 1988 WNIT tournaments. With the Globetrotters, Williams traveled to Asia, Europe and the United States, playing a leading role on the team. The Prichard, Ala., native was the Trotters only female on the roster at the time. In 2006, Williams, along with former Jags Adrian Vickers and Orphie Moore, were named to the Sun Belt's 30-Year Anniversary team.

RETIRED JERSEYS

Since the University of South Alabama began its women's basketball program during the 1974-75 season only two jersey numbers have been raised to the rafters of the Mitchell Center – Ophie Moore (20) and Adrian Vickers (32).

Wearing No. 20 throughout her Jaguar career, Moore was the first woman's basketball player at South Alabama to have her number retired. The Laurel Hill, Fla., native lettered for the Jaguars 1984-87 and was a three-time first-team all-Sun Belt Conference selection and two-time American Women's Sports Federation All-American.

As part of the Sun Belt Conference's celebration of its 30-year anniversary, Moore was one of three Jaguar women's players to be selected to the league's all-time team during the 2005-06 season.

She left South Alabama as the program's all-time leading scorer and rebounder. Moore was the first Jaguar to eclipse the 2,000-point barrier as she ended her career with 2,118 points. The USA guard also pulled down 1,116 rebounds and shot 56 percent from the floor during her four seasons in Mobile. In fact, Moore holds the distinction of being the only Jag player to shoot over 50 percent in all four seasons.

During her senior season, Moore led South Alabama to its first-ever NCAA appearance and the Sun Belt Conference regular-season title.

Vickers, who lettered for the Jaguars from 1987-90, wore No. 44 during her freshman season, but changed to her retired jersey No. 32 for the final three years of her career.

After earning AWSF Freshman All-America honors during the 1986-87 season, Vickers went on to receive AWSF All-America accolades in each of her final three seasons in Mobile. The four-time all-Sun Belt selection was named the league's player of the year at the end of the 1989-90 regular season. She also earned SBC all-tournament honors as a sophomore and a junior.

During her first season with the Jags, Vickers was a member of the program's first and only NCAA tournament team that also won the Sun Belt Conference regular-season title. USA also won the league crown during her final two seasons and made an appearance in the WNIT during her sophomore season.

Vickers ended her career with a Sun Belt Conference record 2,285 points and 1,364 rebounds. Vickers still maintains the conference record in rebounding and held the scoring mark until the 2007-08 season. She was named to the 30-Year Anniversary All-Time SBC team back during the 2005-06 season.

The Floral, Ala., native still holds South Alabama's career records in points, rebounds and field goals made, as well as the single-season marks in points (795), scoring average (26.5), rebounds (379); she is tied for top honors with Annie Witherington for most field goals made with 326.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

1987 (CO-CHAMPIONS)

Record: 24-6 (5-1 Sun Belt)

Head Coach: Charlie Branum

All-American: Orphie Moore (AWSF), Adrian Vickers (AWSF Freshman)

All-Sun Belt: Orphie Moore (first-team), Adrian Vickers (second-team)

South Alabama's first Sun Belt Conference title was part of one of the school's best seasons in history. The Jags finished the 1986-87 campaign with a 24-6 overall record and a 5-1 league mark, setting a new program record at the time for victories. The season was highlighted by a 16-game win streak, which included non-conference wins over Florida State and Clemson.

USA tied with Old Dominion for the conference's top honors. The Jaguars were paced by senior All-American Orphie Moore and freshman All-American Adrian Vickers. USA also made the program's first – and only – NCAA Tournament appearance.

1989 (CO-CHAMPIONS)

Record: 18-11 (5-1 Sun Belt)

Head Coach: Charlie Branum

All-American: Adrian Vickers (AWSF), Ella Williams (AWSF), Stephanie Richardson (AWSF)

All-Sun Belt: Adrian Vickers (first-team), Ella Williams (second-team)

Two seasons after capturing the program's first league title, the Jaguars were back on top of the Sun Belt tying with Old Dominion and Western Kentucky. USA ended the season with an 18-11 overall record and a 5-1 SBC mark. Vickers once again earned All-American accolades and was also joined by Ella Williams and Stephanie Richardson.

1990 (CO-CHAMPIONS)

Record: 19-12 (4-2 Sun Belt)

Head Coach: Charlie Branum

All-American: Adrian Vickers (AWSF), Stephanie Richardson (AWSF), Marcey "T.R." Clement (AWSF Freshman)

All-Sun Belt: Adrian Vickers (first-team)

South Alabama won back-to-back SBC titles for the first time after capturing a share of the championship at the end of the 1989-90 season, finishing with a 19-12 overall record and a 4-2 Sun Belt mark. USA earned its third conference crown after finishing in a five-way tie with Charlotte, Old Dominion, UAB and Western Kentucky.

After opening the season with three straight losses, the Jaguars put together their first of two seven-game win streaks. USA's second seven-game win streak began with an 86-68 victory over Mississippi State and also included a four-point home win over Western Kentucky.

The Jaguars were led by Vickers, who captured All-American honors for the fourth consecutive year and wrapped up her career by being selected as the Sun Belt Conference's Offensive Player of the Year – the first in program history.

2003 (WEST DIVISION CO-CHAMPIONS)

Record: 19-11 (10-5 Sun Belt)

Head Coach: Rick Pietri

All-Sun Belt: Taneisha Russell (first-team)

The Jaguars won their first SBC title in more than a decade during the 2002-03 season. USA finished with a 19-11 overall mark and a 10-5 record in Sun Belt action. USA's 10 wins tied with New Mexico State for the West Division crown and marked the first time South Alabama had ever recorded double-figure conference wins.

South Alabama also returned to the national postseason, earning a selection to the Women's National Invitational Tournament – the program's second appearance in the event and third postseason tournament overall. USA would travel to in-state foe Auburn, falling 77-53 to the eventual tournament champion.

2004 (WEST DIVISION CHAMPIONS)

Record: 22-9 (11-4 Sun Belt)

Head Coach: Rick Pietri

All-Sun Belt: Whitney Woodward (first-team)

South Alabama won its first outright SBC title during the 2003-04 season, finishing with a 22-9 overall record and a program-best 11-4 conference mark. The West Division title marked the first back-to-back championship for the program in 14 seasons.

After suffering a season-opening overtime loss to Vanderbilt, the Jags rattled off 14 straight wins to establish the program's best start after 15 games. During the win streak, USA picked up a home victory over Mississippi State and defeated Oklahoma State on the road.

The Jaguars again earned a berth to the WNIT and a home date with Florida State, marking the first time USA had ever hosted a national postseason event in the Mitchell Center. The Seminoles would defeat the Jags 67-61.

USA was led throughout much of the year by Whitney Woodward, who picked up first-team all-SBC honors and was selected as the league's freshman of the year despite missing the final seven games due to injury.
