

LATE SUMMER GARDENS OF SOUTHERN ENGLAND WITH MICHAEL B. GORDON SEPTEMBER 5TH - 14TH 2019

This September, join garden blogger, Michael Gordon, for a stroll through some of the best gardens in England during one of the most beautiful times of year. As your host, Michael hopes to add a North American perspective on English gardens and give you an insight into what ideas you can bring back to your own garden. He will be encouraging you to enter each garden with an inquisitive eye and will be a source of information about horticulture and garden design. Michael will give a series of garden talks during the week.

Tailored for the discriminating gardener, our tour will visit some of England's most famous gardens as well as unique private gardens. From William Kent's masterpiece landscape garden, Rousham, to Christopher Lloyd's innovative garden at Great Dixter, to the contemporary private garden at Pettifers, we will see English garden design from the traditional to the cutting edge. Late summer is the perfect time to time of year to visit other people's gardens because, as gardeners, we have a lull at the end of summer and also a period when our own gardens tend to be a little lackluster. On this tour you will see how the English end the gardening season with a resounding bang!

Michael B. Gordon is an optometrist by profession and a passionate garden-maker and teacher by avocation. He is a self-trained gardener who has learned by visiting gardens in the United States and Europe. He has developed a half-acre private garden in Peterborough, NH over the past 28 years. His garden has been published in Horticulture, NH Home and Yankee Magazine.

Michael has designed and maintained sophisticated public gardens in the parks of Peterborough for nearly two decades and has trained numerous volunteer gardeners in the art of horticulture. He has hosted tours to English gardens since 2007 and enjoys giving participants ideas on how to implement concepts of English horticulture in their American gardens. Michael started his blog, The Gardener's Eye, in 2010, and can be found at: www.thegardenerseye.blogspot.com/. Recently, he has been chronicling his gardening travels on an Instagram page with the same name.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5TH - Departure from your chosen US gateway city to London Heathrow. OVERNIGHT: PLANE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH- Upon arrival, you'll be met for the transfer to our hotel in Windsor. After checking in, there will be time to unpack and relax, before taking an excursion to nearby Savill Garden, created by Sir Eric Savill in the 1930s, in Windsor Great Park. This evening, a welcome reception and introductory talk by Michael Gordon will be followed by dinner at the hotel. (D) OVERNIGHT: WINDSOR

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7TH - This morning we head for the hills - the Cotswold Hills. Our first visit along the way is to Pettifers Garden. Pettifers has taken some 15 years to create, but continues to evolve, and has a peaceful feeling that comes with the extraordinary views over the landscape. Now mature, this is a plantsman's garden with plenty of interest all year round. We continue through the east Cotswolds to the village of Whichford, where we visit the Whichford Pottery. This family business has been making garden pottery for 40 years now and is licensed by the RHS to provide a special series of commemorative flower pots and planters. After a break here for lunch we visit Rousham. This landscape garden is a place of pilgrimage for students of the work of William Kent (1685-1748). Rousham represents the first phase of English landscape design and remains almost as Kent left it, one of the few gardens of this date to have escaped alteration. A short drive brings us to our hotel, where we'll have time to unpack and relax before dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: COTSWOLDS

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8TH - A leisurely start this morning with a beautiful drive through the Cotswolds' quintessentially English landscape of honey-colored villages and green meadows. After a traditional Sunday lunch in a nearby country pub, we'll visit the Hidcote Manor garden, England's foremost 20th-century garden, where a series of horticultural "rooms" has been created, each different in color, character, and intention. Next, we'll visit the beautiful Kiftsgate Court gardens, home of Heather Muir, a pioneer in the rediscovery of shrub roses (including the celebrated rambling Rosa filipes "Kiftsgate"). The evening is free to dine at the local pub. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: COTSWOLDS

GRAVETYE MANOR

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH - Our first stop today will be Iford Manor, home of the Peto Garden. This unique Grade I Italianate garden was designed by Harold A. Peto, who lived at the Manor from 1899 - 1933. We'll make a brief stop at the lovely Saxon church in Bradford-upon-Avon before heading to The Courts Garden, an English country garden that has been in the ownership of the National Trust since 1943. Here you'll have time to view the gardens and have lunch in their tea room. This afternoon we will make a stop at Derry Watkins' "Special Plants Nursery." Derry has written 2 books on greenhouse gardening and teaches and lectures extensively. We'll return to our hotel for dinner, where Michael Gordon will give a talk about "Visiting Gardens." (B, D) OVERNIGHT: COTSWOLDS

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10TH - This morning begins with a visit to Barnsley House and masterpiece garden created by Rosemary Verey, one of the most influential gardeners of the 20th century. We'll have a tour with one of the head gardeners and gather for lunch at the Village Pub. You'll have an opportunity to see how the ideas and designs from her many books and articles are reflected everywhere in this glorious space. From here, it's a short drive to Highgrove, HRH Prince Charles' private estate, where we enjoy a private tour, subject to availability. The evening is free. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: COTSWOLDS

ROUSHAM

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH - Leaving the Cotswolds, our first stop will be Bury Court. The gardens at Bury Court date from 1996 when the first garden was created on the site of the old partially walled farmyard. This garden was the show garden for the specialist perennial nursery, Green Farm Plants. The nursery is now closed, but the garden is still open by special appointment. Then we continue to Wisley. The 240-acre flagship garden of the Royal Horticultural Society at Wisley is the jewel in the crown of the RHS and has been a living encyclopedia for gardeners for the past 100 years. We'll have time for lunch, then tour the garden's highlights, and have free time to browse the Wisley store. It is a short drive from here to our hotel, nestled in the North Downs, where dinner awaits us. After dinner, Michael Gordon will give another talk on "The English Mixed Border." (B, D) OVERNIGHT: BURFORD BRIDGE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12TH - This morning we'll tour Vann Gardens, an Arts and Crafts garden containing a Water Garden designed by Gertrude Jekyll in 1911, before traveling to visit Gravetye Manor. Here, we'll enjoy lunch in the Manor before having a tour of the gardens with the head gardener, Tom Coward. Considered to be among the most influential in English gardening history, the gardens at Gravetye were the work of William Robinson, author of The English Flower Garden and The Wild Garden, two of the best-selling gardening books of all time. We return to our hotel for a free evening. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: BURFORD BRIDGE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13TH - Our first stop of the day is to Sissinghurst. Sissinghurst was rescued in 1930 by poet/novelist Vita Sackville-West and her husband, historian Harold Nicolson, who bought the romantic ruins and began to create the gardens (10 gardens spread over a 6-acre area). Harold, a classicist, utilized the walls and buildings that were already in place, while Vita devised the inspired planting schemes, grouping plants according to color, texture, and season. Continuing on, we will head to Great Dixter for a tour of the garden of Christopher Lloyd, who devoted his life to developing one of the most exciting and experimental gardens of our time, incorporating medieval buildings, yew topiary, and a tapestry of mixed borders (including the famous Long Border). From here we'll return to our hotel for a final farewell dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: BURFORD BRIDGE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14TH - Morning transfers to Heathrow Airport for returning flights to the U.S. (B) OVERNIGHT: HOME

Key to included meals: B- breakfast, L- lunch, D- dinner

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Please be sure to complete both sides of this form.
2. Space on this journey is limited and registrations are accepted strictly on a first come, first served basis.
3. Registration and payment imply acceptance of the terms and conditions described herein. This information, as well as your itinerary description regarding dates, inclusions and prices, form the basis of your individual contract with Discover Europe, Ltd.
4. Registration and payment waive and release Discover Europe, Ltd., their affiliates, directors, officers, employees, including any person or entity employed or utilized by them, from all claims arising from any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay or expense resulting from events beyond their control, including, without limitation: natural disasters, war, strikes, incidents of politically-motivated violence, sickness or quarantine, government restrictions or regulations, and in the absence of its own gross negligence, arising from the use of any vehicle or from any act of omission by any bus or car rental agency, airline, taxi or tour service, hotel, restaurant, or other firm, agency, company or individual.
5. Discover Europe, Ltd. reserves the right to substitute hotels, airlines, activities or excursions in response to changes in availability, local events or weather conditions, provided such substitutions do not adversely affect the overall quality of the tour. Such substitutions do not constitute grounds for withdrawal with full refund.
6. Conduct During The Tour: You are also responsible for respecting the authority and following the directions of the tour guide and the laws of the countries in your itinerary. We may exclude you from participating in all or any part of the tour if, in our sole discretion, your condition or behavior renders you unfit for the tour or unfit for continuation once the tour has begun. Unfitness may include, without limitation, any behavior that, regardless of its cause, is inappropriate or offensive or interferes with the delivery of our services, or may constitute a hazard or embarrassment. In such case, our liability shall be strictly limited to refund of the recoverable cost of any unused portion of the tour. Should you decide not to participate in certain parts of the tour or use certain goods included in the tour, no refunds will be made for those unused parts of the tour or goods.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

1. A deposit of $500 must accompany this completed form, if it has not already been paid.
2. The remaining balance will be billed and payable 90 days prior to trip departure.

TOUR COST ADJUSTMENTS

Discover Europe makes every effort to guarantee that the published cost of your chosen tour will not change. However, we do reserve the right to make adjustments in the following circumstances:

1. Exchange rates. Should the value of the dollar fall against the currency of the countries visited on your tour by more than 10% in the 6 months prior to trip departure.
2. Group size. Your tour has been based on a minimum group size of 10-15 participants. Should we end up with fewer than 10 people, Discover Europe will determine a course of action which may involve either paying a surcharge to keep the tour with all the inclusions listed, or making adjustments in order to keep the cost the same.
3. Airfares. If your tour includes airfare, Discover Europe reserves the right to pass along increases in costs (taxes, airport fees, fuel surcharges, etc.) that are charged by the airline involved.

REFUND POLICY

1. Participants who withdraw more than 90 days prior to tour departure will receive a refund of all monies received by Discover Europe, Ltd., less a $200 cancellation penalty.
2. Participants who withdraw fewer than 90 days prior to tour departure will receive a refund of all monies received by Discover Europe, Ltd., less the following cancellation penalties:
 90-61 days prior to departure: $1000 per person
 60 - 31 days prior to departure: $2000 per person
 Fewer than 30 days prior to departure: no refund
3. Please note that the final payment becomes due upon receipt of the final invoice and will remain payable, as per the above schedule, if your cancellation is received after this.
4. These cancellation penalty amounts do not include any airfares purchased on your behalf by Discover Europe Ltd. Note that the least expensive airfares are usually non-refundable. Refunds for airline tickets will be handled separately from the refund of the land tour package.
5. Travel insurance is not included in your tour package. Discover Europe Ltd. strongly advises that you purchase coverage for your upcoming trip. Information describing the services of a recommended travel insurance company will be included with your reservation confirmation package mailing.
6. All cancellation requests must be received in writing.
7. There is no provision for refund for any activities missed due to the participant's absence once the tour has started.
8. Your place on this tour is not transferrable.
