FIELD TRIP PROGRAM SUMMARY

The success of DISCOVERY's Field Trip program is indicated by the 165 visits made by different school groups during the 2022-2023 school year. After a two-year mandated hiatus, DISCOVERY has been able to adapt to meet the needs of students in our community. The disruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic affected in-person classroom outings which limited the hands-on learning opportunities normally available to students as part of the typical school year. There have been challenges including Clark County School District's budget allocations towards community partnerships, as well as socioeconomic factors like household income which could prevent children, who are most in need of these one-of-a-kind learning-through-play experiences, from walking through our doors. The implementation of this program has provided a chance for students to visit during school hours once more, reaching demographics that would not otherwise visit. The field trip experience at DISCOVERY is an opportunity we believe every child deserves.

The intent of DISCOVERY's Field Trip program is to provide high-quality STEAM field trip experiences that integrate classroom learning with hands-on science, arts, and cultural programming and to bring back participation numbers to that of pre-pandemic visitation. Field trip offerings are available to any school group however, Title I schools are a high priority for the Museum and are given first availability to book their visits. The increased attendance this year is directly correlated to DISCOVERY's discounted admission rate. This offering was a major incentive for schools to re-book field trip visits and helped DISCOVERY reconnect with these elementary schools over the course of the most recent school year

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

During the 2022-2023 School year, DISCOVERY hosted:

- 165 field trips (68 Title I schools)
- 2746 Total Chaperones (1043 Title I)
- 8985 Total Students (3804 Title I)
- 11,731 participants (4,847 Title 1 School Participants)

DISCOVERY's Field Trip program ensures that children attending Kindergarten through 5th grade can participate in meaningful STEAM field trip experiences. Field trip support helps provide: discounted admission for entire field trip parties, both students and chaperones; "Cultural Collaboration" field trip offerings which partner with other arts organizations as well as Title I Schools and their students identified for participation; development of arts program-specific Cultural Collaboration field trip educator guides that align with Nevada Academic Content Standards and support the integration of the DISCOVERY experience into the classroom before and after the field trip; and galleries staffed with content specialists during each field trip visit.

COLLABORATIONS

In addition to normal field trips which provide student access and participation in alignment with the Museum's daily offerings, special Cultural Collaborations were also held during the 2022-2023 school year. In partnership with The Smith Center for the Performing Arts, these dual-field trip experiences are multi-layered to include performance presentations within the neighboring Reynolds Hall or Troesh Studio Theater followed by arts and science programming onsite at the Museum. DISCOVERY completed two successful Cultural Collaborations for over 970 participants consisting of world-class performances at the neighboring Smith Center for the Performing Arts. For maximum participation from multiple schools, each performance was offered for four days. Each day included educational components conducted onsite at the Museum which consisted of four workshops designed to complement the theme presented on the stage, further exploring the subject matter through hands-on activities and creative project lessons.
