Have Fun, Be Fun!™ | 1-800-370-2320

Are you having enough fun? Take the FUN TEST!

"Close to a dozen Stikfas inhabit the edge of my desk in a diorama form. About twice daily, someone will stop by to either rearrange the scene or the figures. If it comes out particularly good, it often turns into an office social."

"I bought a complete set of Where the Wild Things Are figures as a birthday gift for my sister last year. We both loved the book when we were growing up. Her nickname has been Max for years. It was a huge sentimental success."

"I always like to keep conversation starters around me. It can make a work environment more fun. Every time somebody sees my Simpsons interactive action figures and environments they smile and reminisce about the show. It can be a great ice-breaker."

1. How often are you in a good mood?

Fun improves your mood - studies show that a positive, happy attitude can impact every area of your life, including your health. Take care of yourself and enjoy life more by bringing more fun into it. You're never too old to reap benefits from fun and play like children do. Take care of friends and loved ones by sending them a unique gift that will surprise and excite them.

2. Is your work environment boring?

Work needs to be more fun! People who incorporate fun into their work routine are more productive, creative, use less sick time, and have better job satisfaction. Bring something fun to work that will liven up your environment and it will create an opportunity to have more fun with your co-workers. Many people find themselves the center of attention at work with these items.

3. Do you need to energize your creativity?

Having fun has been shown to develop and enhance creativity. Many people interact with our unique products in order to overcome creative blocks, reduce stress and to find a fresh outlook on their work.

4. Do you make "fun" a part of every day?

Surrounding yourself with amusing things is a way to make sure you enjoy the benefits of fun on a daily basis. The items Entertainment Earth sells are a great way to connect to all the excitement and fun associated with entertainment. Many fans find a continuing source of inspiration from their favorite fiction - stories that inspire us, thrill us, and fill us with out-of-control laughter.

5. Do others think of you as a fun person?

We are naturally drawn to people who can make us laugh and inspire us with a sense of fun. You will find yourself initiating fun for everyone with Entertainment Earth's products - they are natural conversation pieces and become a point of departure for breaking the ice, improving social interaction, and getting everyone else to crack up.

"I have tons of action figures, busts and statues on my desk -- Marvel Legends, Godzilla, Star Trek, Muppets, Simpsons, Warcraft, Diablo, McFarlane, various bits and pieces. It keeps the office setting from being sterile and reminds me of Ray Bradbury's work area. They help spark creativity, something I need in my work."

"I'm a sucker for Lord of the Rings collector items. I don't know what it is but it's the closest you can come to being a part of the terrific trilogy without having actually been in it."

"I'm a huge Star Wars fan so every time I buy a few figures, I usually buy one or two for my niece and nephew. There's nothing like giving a gift to two young ones and seeing that smile on their faces as they hold a new Darth Maul or Princess Leia figure."

Why You'll Never See Some of These Items Again!

The majority of products we sell are produced in limited runs and are only available during a short time period. There's no guarantee that you'll be able to purchase these items later.

Over 50 items from our Summer 2004 catalog have already sold out. Don't miss your chance to purchase the items you really want. Order now!

A few years ago, McFarlane Toys licensed Maurice Sendak's classic children's book "Where the Wild Things Are" and produced a set of beautifully detailed figures. People looking to find a very special gift pre-ordered these highly anticipated figures immediately. Most figures were pre-ordered by the time we received our shipment, and by the end of that year these figures were gone. People asked about them long after they were sold out, but no more were available. Indeed, McFarlane Toys had limited their production run.
