

PORRIDGE

THEATRE FUND RAISING PRODUCTION PORRIDGE – (“PARDON ME” AND “NO PEACE FOR THE WICKED”) MONDAY 21ST TO SATURDAY 26TH FEBRUARY

Written by Ian La Frenais and Dick Clement Amateur production produced by special arrangement with Very Serious Comedy Ltd.

Ian La Frenais and Dick Clement brought the first series of the much-loved British sitcom Porridge to television screens in September 1974.

There were three series and 21 episodes in total and we have secured the rights to stage two episodes of this iconic and critically acclaimed show in February, when Norman Stanley Fletcher (Fletch) and his fellow prisoners at HM Prison Slade, will be doing a fundraising production for Concordia!

To aid and abet him in this task our producer is providing a fresh vision of this comedy gem by placing our patrons, the audience, in a giant TV studio complete with warm-up comedians, TV Studio technicians popping up, “BBC” Singers and musicians performing 1970’s pop songs of the day.

The interactive audience participation will make for a great night’s entertainment and we do hope that you will join us.
