THE NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN PRESS

is one of the largest publishing programs of any independent botanical garden in the world and provides a means for communication of research carried out by scientists at The New York Botanical Garden and elsewhere. Established in 1896, the program focuses on advancements in knowledge about the classification, utilization, and conservation of plants and fungi.

The NYBG Press publications are forums for primary research papers on systematic and economic botany of plants and fungi. Current series titles include Advances in Economic Botany, Intermountain Flora, Flora Neotropica, Memoirs of The New York Botanical Garden, Contributions from The New York Botanical Garden, Botanical Review, Brittonia, and Economic Botany.

In addition to its series publications, the Press also publishes classic books. Among these titles are the Manual of Vascular Plants of Northeastern United States and Adjacent Canada, Second Edition and the Illustrated Companion to Gleason and Cronquist's Manual: Illustrations of the Vascular Plants of Northeastern United States and Adjacent Canada.

ADVANCES IN ECONOMIC BOTANY

This series is an international forum for the publication of original book-length research papers, collections of papers, and symposia dealing with the use and management of plants. An interdisciplinary series designed to integrate pure and applied studies, the Advances series has found its readership among policymakers, teachers, researchers, and students of agronomy, anthropology, biology, ecology, economic botany, ethnobotany, geography, and pharmacology. The volumes, published at irregular intervals since 1984, are priced individually and as a set (volumes 1–15).

FLORA NEOTROPICA

These volumes provide, in monographic form, taxonomic treatments of plant groups or families growing in the Americas between the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn. The monographs are intended to be comprehensive, so, in addition to the systematic treatment, authors are encouraged to provide information on economic botany, conservation, phylogenetic relationships, taxonomic history, ecology, cytology, anatomy, and phytochemistry, among other topics. The monographs, published at irregular intervals since 1967, are priced individually and as a set (volumes 1–100).

This series is the official publication of the Organization for Flora Neotropica (OFN). The OFN was established in 1964. It is the only organization with the mission of producing a published botanical inventory of the American tropics. More information about Flora Neotropica, including instructions for authors, can be found at www.nybg.org/botany/ofn/OFN.html.

JOURNALS

The NYBG Press journals, co-published quarterly with Springer starting in 2008, are: Botanical Review, Brittonia, and Economic Botany, which is issued for the Society for Economic Botany.

Brittonia

Brittonia, assuming the broadest possible definition of the field of systematic botany, has been an important outlet for the publication of original research articles on anatomy, botanical history, chemotaxonomy, morphology, paleobotany, phylogenetic systematics, taxonomy, and phytogeography. Each issue contains articles by the staff of The New York Botanical Garden and outside contributors, book reviews, and announcements.
