STAR

Last year's Humorous Interp winner won Dramatic. Last year's second place debate school won debate. This year's Oratory winner was disqualified from coming to last year's nationals! For the first time the same debate team won both the NCFE and NFL debate titles in the same year. Last year's runner-up in Foreign Extemp won this year and won the new DACOR International Bowl, too. Girls won first and second speaker in debate even though four boys were in the final round. Two judges were used in all prelim rounds for the first time. Semi finals in Congress were introduced. A tie in duo was broken by final round judges' ballots. Aaron Timmons, coach of last year's CX Debate Champions, coached the LD winner this year. A boy from New Jersey scored a perfect 12-0 in prelim L/D and a girl from Guam broke to elims, the first Guamanian to escape prelims. Bellarmine College Prep. (CA) scored a triple win (USX, House, Congress Sweepstakes). All three interps were won by Texans! For the second time an NFL coach's daughter won a supplemental event. Top P.O. awards were given for the first time on stage. Bruno Jacob's son came back to nationals after a 20 year absence.

The 67th National Speech Tournament hosted 199 CX Debate teams, 191 Duo teams, 217 Lincoln Life L/D Debaters, 203 Orators, 388 Extempers (199 USX; 189 FX), 208 Dramatic Interpers, and 198 Interpers in Humor. The John C. Stennis Congress welcomed 359 legislators. Eleven entrants won Wayne Brown Scholarships by qualifying four times.

The Star of the North Nationals was one of NFL's very best tournaments. The two building site was excellent and well administered by Del Holz and Norm Leistikow. Minnesota souvenirs were very popular thanks to hard working Chris Cowen. Bob Ihrig did his usual highly competent job with special events and transportation, while Jenny Cook coordinated a fine pool of local judges. A great crew of volunteers administered by friendly Dorothy Sunne and Robyn Roberts were on task throughout. Barb Pavicic and Bob Groven generated great local publicity. Jim Graupner "Mr. Minnesota Debate" found the money for the event and Polly Reikowski's fireworks at the awards were awesome. But the food! "Best tournament food in years!" opined NFL resident gourmet Billy Tate. Pam Cady, Barb Kersten, and Todd Hering should be praised for the outstanding hospitality they provided.

Hosts Mike Vergin and Helen Fisk mounted a really great show! The Star of the North Nationals will long be remembered. It's excellence made every contestant and every coach feel like a Star!

TIM AVERILL RECEIVES THE GLENN PELHAM COMMENDATION RALPH E. CAREY TROPHY AWARDED TO BOB IHRIG

Longtime Massachusetts coach Tim Averill and Southern Minnesota District Chair Robert Ihrig received major forensic awards at the Star of the North '97 Nationals.

The Thomas Glenn Pelham Award, established by the will of the late judge Pelham, endowed by the Barkley Forum Foundation of Emory University and presented by past recipient Greg Varley, was awarded to Tim Averill, coach of the 1987 National Debate Champions. Tim also has served on the NFL LD Wording Committee. The Pelham Award, a beautiful obelisk, recognizes "devotion to the forensic art which teaches motivation, integrity and character."

The Carey Trophy for distinguished service named in honor of former Florida NFL chair Ralph E. Carey and endowed by a bequest from his estate, is a career award.

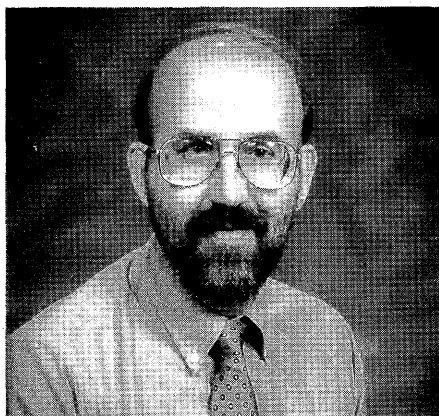

This year's Carey Trophy recipient was Robert Ihrig. His outstanding publication The Last Rebuttal, is the newsletter of the Minnesota Debate Teachers Association. Bob has chaired Southern Minnesota NFL for 18 terms and was instrumental in the success of the Star of the North Nationals.

Chair of the Year was Ron Carr, long-time chair of the Florida Sunshine District.

DeWain Lien was cited as best new chair for his work in building Puget Sound (Washington). Mel Olson of Arizona won the best chair communication award for his visually graphic newsletter. Best District Ad in the NFL tournament book honors went to Jeanne DeVilliers of East Oklahoma.

DACOR INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Ambassador Jack Kubisch and the board of DACOR (Diplomatic and Consular Officers, Retired, William Lehfeltd, director) have each contributed $500 to endow a special award to the contestant who wins the final round of Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking at Nationals.

The DACOR International Bowl, a silver, engraved, footed bowl will be presented to the student who, in the opinion of all final round judges, won the final round of foreign extemp.

Ambassador Kubisch's idea was that the final round was like no other: a large audience, the very best contestants, cross examination; and its winner should be honored with a special award.

NFL thanks our good friends: Ambassador Jack Kubisch for originating the idea and his generous support of this award and Consul General Lehfeltd and the DACOR board for co-sponsoring foreign extemp and endowing the DACOR bowl. This year a true American hero, Ambassador Bruce Laingen, presented the DACOR International Bowl to Ben Lerner of Topeka High School (KS).

STRATEGIC LD

STRATEGIC LD is an association of former national qualifiers and national caliber LD'ers that provides exceptional and high quality analyses of LD topics. The writers of Strategic LD have competed in LD in the later rounds of Nationals and placed at tournaments like St. Mark's and Harvard. In each analysis, Strategic LD offers values and criteria, observations and arguments, philosophers and evidence, and CX strategies and a reading list. Strategic LD also provides ongoing support for debaters and coaches who wish to call and discuss a strategy with a member of our team. Strategic LD makes coaches and debaters the following guarantees:

- The writers of Strategic LD have significantly greater LD related expertise than the writers for most other topic analysis services. Successful LD Coaches that take the time to read our product will notice a significant gap in the quality of our service and others.
- Strategic LD is an excellent teaching tool for coaches who want to help their debaters progress to a higher level. After using Strategic LD for several topics, your debaters will be able to apply paradigms and strategies from one topic to others. Many of the strategies that you read in Strategic LD are the same strategies that you will hear in eliminations of national tournaments.
- Strategic LD will help debaters learn to apply philosophers correctly. In the past, our analyses included theories from Locke, Mill, Rawls, Adler, Sandel, Kant, etc. Recognizing the best time to apply a philosopher is often the greatest challenge.
- Strategic LD guarantees your satisfaction. In a survey of our test market, 92% of respondents rated Strategic LD as either "very useful" or "the most useful they had seen" when compared with other products on the market. 94% said they used ideas from the analyses "consistently" in their cases. One of Strategic LD's subscribers was represented in the final round of Nationals last summer. Strategic LD will make a significant difference in your tournament performance.

Energize your energy research!

www.ncpa.org

HS Debate

For those looking for great renewable energy websites, the National Center for Policy Analysis has one of the best. NCPA has assembled a comprehensive site addressing key issues and background on the renewable energy topic.

Some of the highlights include:

- a new study by Robert Bradley, Jr. of the Institute for Energy Research, titled "Why Renewable Energy is not Cheap and Not Green,"
- Forecasts from various sources of the market share and cost trends of renewable and nonrenewable energy sources,
- a great section titled "Rebuttal to Specific Affirmative Arguments" which addresses nonrenewable depletion issues, oil independence advantages, environmental drawbacks of renewables, fossil fuel subsidies, and global warming scenarios.
- The whole site is heavily linked to a many other good energy sites.

The www.ncpa.org site is better organized than most and especially recommended for people just beginning research. It covers all the main renewable technologies, and has superb glossaries for people who don't know the meaning of terms like "capacity factor," "integrated resource planning," and "baseload" versus "dispatchable" power. It's also a quick way to learn the legislative environment of the energy market to get a firm grip on inherency.

As many will remember from the health care topic a few years back, NCPA's powerful market-oriented analysis proved useful both in preparing market-based affirmatives and in attacking new government programs. NCPA's pro-market approach to public policy comes through, but their webmaster is unstinting in providing links to a wide variety of different kinds of sources.

Invocation delivered by Brother Rene Sterner, FPC, at the NFL National Tournament Opening Assembly

Let us remember we are in God's presence.

O good and gracious God, as we gather here this evening in your presence, we give thanks for the gift and grandeur of this land of 10,000 lakes, a land of the hushed silence of sky blue waters, and home of the American wisdom and humor of Lake Wobegon, a land where begins the mother of waters, and a place which has nurtured the conscience of a nation in giving us one of our greatest leaders and speakers on behalf of human and civil rights. We thank you for Minnesota which has given so much to the soul and productivity of our nation.

From Maine to Guam we gather this week, some 2300 contestants and 1500 judges to engage in a great exchange of ideas, to inform, to persuade, to entertain, to value civil discourse—the very life blood of any republic which intends to endure. We ask your blessing upon all who have come. We thank you for the great hospitality and generosity of all those whose years of planning and work will make this week unfold. May you bless Minnesota and its people for making us feel so welcomed.

We ask you to be with all of our contestants throughout the week. May they remember who they are and why they are here. Be with our coaches and judges—give them the wisdom and the accuracy to make right decisions.

Tonight be with our beloved president Lanny Naegelin. Bring him the healing he needs. Be with his wife, B.J., and the family. May your presence restore Lanny to full health of mind and body and bring him back to N.F.L.

Lastly, we pray that you o God be with us this week. In safety get us all to the places we need to go. Give us timely wake-up calls, unclogged interstates, and attentive judges. Make us aware that as we wordsmith, craft, persuade, bring life to stories, we do the work of you who are the Divine wordsmith, persuader, and storyteller.

In the name of you who are the eternal word we pray. Amen!
